THE OREGON STATESMAN · FRIDAY DECEMBER 16, 1886.

# FRIENDSHIP'S BROKEN TIES.

Many of us have lost all trace of an old friend for years. Perhaps the estrangement had its origin in some trifling misunderstanding, so utterly time dimmed now, that memory refuses to call it back The "sweet thing in calico" became in-terested in the shipping, and it would have required an old clerk at "Lloyd's" clearly. But our conscience, if we felt any twinge whatever at the separation, is lulled into a state of listless rest or careless neglect, with some suce, assurances as these: Some day we shaloagain meet. of the various craft to be seen in the off-ing. At last our friend ceased rowing, took a seat beside his charmer, and de-Fate will lead us to cross each other's paths sometime, as we stray adown life's vast valley. Coportunity will then be afforded us to talk over our liftle misuderers, brigs, and ships, illustrating each by pointing out a vessel of the kind desstanding, to explain away all tangles, and brush from our pathway the Cobwebs of roken trust overshadowing the old time loyalty of esteem. We shall then, hand in hand, revert to the past and tell each other why we did this, or why we said that. Our old happy relations, so seeker for knowledge, in order to get in the shade of her parasol. Just then she descried a small craft tacking in shore, obstructed, will again be re-established and will yet enable us to add many rose tinted pages to the closing chapter of our life's great volume.

It is not a small matter to allow a gulf estrangement to open between hearts that have long beaten with friendship for each other. Pride, or in-difference it may be, keeps us drifting further and further apart. But we place an utmost faith in time bringing us together at last. So we wait not impatiently, but with a vague sort of certainty, for that meeting to occur. Shockingly abruptly someone will announce to us: "Indeed, have you not yet been in-formed? Why, so and so died over a year ago." The news may not provoke tears. Perhaps we may not heed it scarcely, at But in the solemn hush of night. first. with the sleeping world around us-so like awful mysterious death-our thoughts reach out to that one who will never come again.

of one of your cars.' Dead! Slumber is set to flight effect ually by the train of thought that word ficial. Conjures up. Dead! Then we shall see each other no more. The meeting we have long an-ticipated will never be. Too late for exnot get up right away, lor, as you see, I am not Sarah Bernhart. I'm fat all planations now. No reconciliation can take place now. Forever it must remain as it is. For

"A golden chord is severed.

And our hopes in ruin lie." A thousand vain regrets clamor. Why did we never write? One line, the simple Why word "Forgive," might have cemented those broken ties. Why did we not exert ourselves to bring obout a meeting? Now. alas! forever too late! Oh, cruel neglect! that has allowed this bitter void. the offical.

The years have flown most rapidly since we drifted apart. We are so much older. The lost friend's face rises before us as it has not done in years. Some distinctive action of the eye or lip that we had forgot ten, or some peculiar habit of speech perhaps comes back to us through the vista of memory. And now, how sudden-ly dear our friend has become! We start up as if to clasp the long impressed hand. Death has reared ! is icy barriers and we may not. Nevermore! We realize all is over between us. Like two twigs of myrtle dropped on a turbid stream, we are set apart forever here. Will there be a recon-ciliation accorded us up there?

Appreciate friendship while ye may For friendship's ties once severed, life' brevity, time's never pausing flight, and the harshness of circumstances, are all antagonistic to a reunion.-[St Louis Magazire.

TRIALS OF SHOPPERS.

what?" "That I'm the biggest liar in the state." "No one." "Then how did you find it out?" "I knew it at a glance." "My friend," said the clerk, affectionate-The price we American women have to shoulders, "you are the sharpest man I ever saw. It took me some time te find pay for our bonnets, if we pretend to buy good ones from reputable milliners, is often sometimes ruinous. Eighteen dolit out, but I am the biggest liar in the lars is the least you can get a bonnet you hoss as you are of a man you could soon would look at for, and from that price get rich in this country. Stay at our runs up to $35, says a writer in the New York Graphic. Women who pity working women are very loath to beat down the prices set upon a piece of woman's handiworkat what is there to do? Is a woman who has positively no knack of twisting velvets and ribbons either to go about looking like a dowdy in a bad dream of her own, or pay three times-yes, four times-as much as the material cost for a well-made affair? If she has plenty of money, well and good, but if she has to count her coppers in order to look decenty well, it is very trying for her. She knows it is not the milliner's fair profit that she is paying for, but the bills that richer women than she refuse to pay. She knows very well that Mrs. So-and-so. who buys her bonnets of a certain mil liner, never pays for them, and when she is overcharged from ten to fifteen dollars herself she naturally objects. In self-defense she must either go flying about trying to find a cheap place, though not a guady one, or she must make one bonnet take the place of two. Many women would give their testi-mony to this were they asked, I am sure, or instances are not lacking. For intance, it is not two weeks since it was desirable for me to own an absolutely plain black tulle bonnet. I do not mean in elaborate affair, simply a frame (seventy-five cents) covered with gathered black tulle (fifty cents a yard). I went to a milliner shop forewarned and forearmed with five dollars. What do you suppose the dame to whom I went had the audacy to say was a "bargain" for me? welve dollars! Neither strings or ribons nor adornments of any sort, simply dollar and a half's worth of material id a half day's time of a milliner's girl. do not wish to be niggardly and I do ot wish to be saucy, but I was tempted be both when that woman suffed np er nose at my polite refusal of her gen-rous offer, and looked me up and down ontwise and then loftily moved around me if my dress fitted in the back. ere is any course of treatment that makes me boil all over it is to have a rulgar, fast, gum-chewing girl saucy to Nobody pities more than I do a hardworking, honest girl, worn out with long days, ungrateful, thoughtless rules and days, ungrateful, thoughtless rules and regulations, compelled by want to give her life and health and beauty and ength and time for barely enough to pay for a hard bed and poor food. No-body would do more, if they had the means to do with, to mitigate the harda of their ways and make them hap-Nevertheless, with this pity and passion there is lying semi-dormant, emi-rampant in my breast a strong de ermination to give one or two of the insolent class of shop girls a thorough les son some day.

SMILE PROVOCATIONS.

Lots of people think they are Barthol-di's statue, and they take the liberty of attempting to enlighten the world-(New Jones took advantage of one of our glo rious days last summer, and invited his best girl out on the lake in a row-boat. Orleans Picayune. She went, and appeared to enjoy the trip, and we are sure Jones did.

NICE, BUT THEY COME HIGH.

to answer her queries in regard to the rig voted his whole attention to enlightening her upon the difference between schoon

Strange to say, Jones soon tired of the great strain on his imagination required to eke out a slight amount of maritime information, and sat very close to the dear

Jones at once "embraced the opport .-nity" as he replied :

That is only a fishing smack, my

"Oh ! I think they are nicer than the

ALL WOOL AND A YARD WIDE.

ing her hair cut short, entered the office of the president of the San Antonio Street

Railroad Company, and in a voice that was a cross between a bass violin and a

"I came here to complain of the driver

"What's he been doing?" asked the of-

"In crossing the car-track I had the

"The driver of the street car stopped

"What did he say?" "He said if I would get up and let him

"I shall have him reprimanded," said

'Thank you, sir, thank you. I'll patronize your street car line hereafter, that is, if the door is wide enough. Good

As she passed out, the official remark-

'She may not be 'all wool,' but she certainly is a yard wide,"-[Texas Siftings.

WHERE GENIUS IS ADMIRED.

A stranger who had just arrived at a country hotel in Arkansas became involved in a discussion with the clerk.

Finally the stranger, striking the rough pine counter with his fist, exclaimed:

"You are the biggest liar in Arkansas!" The clerk, instead of becoming offended said: Let me see you a minute, please." He drew the stranger aside, and remark-ed: "Who told you?" "Who told me ly placing one hand on the stranger's state. If you were as good a judge of a house as long as you please, and your drive on that I could sit down again on the car track as soon as the car had pass misfortune to slip and fall, and I could

A woman weighing 369 pounds, wear-and inquired : "What kind of a ship is that ?"

cribed.

love

ed

morning, sir."

ed to a clerk :

big ones, don't you'

boiler-shop, said :

Well, what next?"

his mule and insulted me."

They are married now.

Buffalo Bill is to take his wild-west show abroad. The Indians evince much delight at the prospect of getting back to Ireland once more.-[Life.

Lady (to applicant for cook's place)— "Did I understand you to say that your name was Brown?" Applicant—"Yis, mum; Brown wid the 'e.'"—Bazar.

Jakey-"Fader, dere's a fly in der oup." Mr. Cohn-"Vell, eat all but der soup." Mr. Cohn-" ven, eat an out den fly before you show it to der waiter; den you can get some more."-Rambler.

A Madrid newspaper was seized five times within a week for slurs on the infant king. This is a free country, and who's afraid? The king of Spain is a sucker .- Puck.

Chicago Teacher (to grammar class)— "Correct the sentence, "Chicago lays at the side of Lake Michigan." Grammar Class—'Lake Michigan lays at the side of Chicago." "-[Life.

Miss Sharpington-"Excuse me sir, but you are on my trail." Hawkshaw-"You are mistaken, madame. I am a detective." Miss Sharpington-"Ah! detective." then I was mistaken."-[Rambler.

A young woman in Arkansas, who hes itated between two lovers, suggested that the rivals settle it by a wrestling-match, and she wed the victor .- Exchange. was like Prince Waldemar-she declined the thrown.- Rambler.

"I've been on this road ten years," said the conductor on a Southern railroad to a day of her death. Soon after her arrival "I've been on this road ten years," said passenger who complained of the slow time, "and I know what I'm talking about." "Ten years, eh?" said the passenger! what station did you get on at?" - Bazar.

He-"Your tennis net is still out, I see Miss Crash." She-"Yes. It's awfully late in the season, too ; but papa has had such a good time failing over it all sum-mer, when he comes home late, that I can't bear to deprive him of the pleasure."- [Tid-Bits.

"I see you fry your beefsteak," remark-ed the tramp, with his mouth full. "Yes," said the woman, shortly; "how would you have it cooked ?--roasted ?" "No, certainly not: broiled, madame, broiled. live but a few short months. With the I may be a tramp," he added, plaintive-ly, "but I'm no ostrich."-[Life, cepted her fate without repining, but Brown-"You are looking well, Robinson." Robinson-"Yes, and feeling well but nevertheless I lost a hundred and twenty pounds of flesh last month." Brown—"That's not possible!" Robin-son—"Yes it is. My wife ran off with a Sunday-school superintendent."—[Life, Isse, and a few days thereafter found the sweet comparison of the sweet com-parionships of her girlhood days. Leav-ing Hiogo—coming home to die—she reached San Francisco on January 22, 1886, and a few days thereafter found but nevertheless I lost a hundred and Fashionable Mother (to fashionable herself again at home. Here, for a short daughter)—"Are you going out, dear?" time, she seemed to gain a new hold upon Fashionable Daughter--"Yes, mamma." life. Here were spent the years of her Fashionable Mother-"'And if the bair-dresser should come while you are out?"' panions of her school days-here were dresser should come while you are out ?" panions of her school days—here were Fashionable Daughter—"Oh, I have left full instructions with Jane."—[New York] most hallowed associations of her life.

"The car is full of alumni," whispered Miss Beaconstreet to her friend from the sympathy and love, was hers. Thus for west, as they both journeyed Cambridge-ward in the horse-car. "Yes," said the Chicago girl; "and how it chokes one up, I wender they do not open the don't it. ventilators."-Boston Commercial Buletin.

letin. Successful Suitor (joyfully)—"Well, I have won Miss King. She sent me a beautiful plaster cast of her hand, label-ed. "Twas mine, 'tis yours." Disconsoate Rival (sneeringly)—"Well, why didn't she finish the quotation, 'And has been slave to thousands.'" [Excunt fight-ing.]-[Rambler. [Excunt fight-Tramp—"Please, mum, don't shut the door; I'm utterly destitute." Lady of the House (kindly)—"What do you want?" Tramp—"Acceleration of the second sec board shall not cost you a cent. You

MRS. FRANCES M. PATTON.

At Dairyville these pleasant days the On Wednesday, December 7th, 1886, at 2 o'clock p. m., at Salem, Oregon, after evenings get cool quite suddenly. Sata lingering illness, Mrs. Frances M. Pat- urday afternoon Judge Charles Lind was ton passed from earth to heaven. In kept quite busy selling sets of harness her death this community loses one who and taking men's measure for special has been known and respected among us for a period of more than thirty years. May Patton was horn on the 3rd day

Mrs. Patton was born on the 3rd day store, and had not yet started up his of August, 1837, in Erie county, Ohio, and the greater portion of her childhood man and his wife entered and wanted to was spent in that state. In 1851, her father, the late Hon. E. N. Cooke, removed to this state, reaching Salem on the 10th day of October, 1851, where he resided until the year of his death, which resided until the year of his death, which occurred in 1879. Among the company Richard, willingly; and I want you to who came with Mr. Cooke was Hon. T. drive fast so we can get home to our own stove, where there is some heat; these air-tight stoves in stores are no good for McF. Patton, then a young man, who joined them in their camp at Council air-tight stoves in stores are no Bluffs, where for the first time he met any use."-[Heppner Gazette. her, who, within a few years thereafter, became his wife. Mrs. Patton upon her arrival in Salem When natural gas was first made use began attending school at the Willamette University, of which Rev. Dr. F. S. Hoyt, of in Pittsburg for fuel, the agent of a company wanted an old Dutchman to benow of Cincinnati, was president, and active and efficient service.

More than a year ago, during her resicepted her fate without repining, but with an earnest longing that the final summons might be delayed until she could return to her home in Salem,

Every relief that human skill could af-months her feet pressed upon the shores of the dark river, her tired spirit faltering not, but patiently awaiting the final summons, and looking forward with the eves of faith to the sure reward of a well-ordered life. Death for her had no ter now of Cincinnati, was president, and where for about three years she was a pupil of Mrs. Gen. W. H. Odell. On the 3d day of August, 1854, her 17th birth-day, she was married to Mr. Patton, Rev. Dr. Hoyt officiating. The first year of her married life was spent in Jackson-ville, but at the cornect desire of her come a customer. "I tell you all aboudt dot," replied the old man as he felt of the back of his head. "It vhas all right if nature makes dot gas for nothings, but I has discovered dot when somebody whorks for nothings he ville, but at the earnest desire of her gets tired out bye-and-bye and goes on a parents she and her husband then re-turned to Salem, where, with the excep-tion of two years spent in Hiogo, Japan, strike that makes your head shwim." Some of the natural gas wells are now on a strike which will probably have no at which place Mr. Patton was U. S. . conend .--- [Wall Street News. DISCOURAGED IAT THE OUTSET.

in Salem Mrs. Patton united with the Congregational church, of which Rev. O. Dickinson was at that time pastor, and A stranger who was quietly looking over a water power in a western village was her relation as a member of that church continued throughout her life. She was also connected with other religious and sought out by the mayor, who said :

"I hear you think of starting a factory benevolent associations having for "Yes." their "It'a a good place, and you'll find our people all right. We don't put on any great style, nor don't aim to. Here's a object the alleviation of distress and the dispensing of charity. She was among the first to connect herself with Oregon

Orphan's Aid society, of which she was a life member, and in which as a member pair of suspenders I have worn for over forty years, though I'm worth fifty thou-sand dollars." and officer she rendered many years of

"Ah! Um!" muttered the stranger "but it was a suspender factory I was thinking to locate here."-[Wall Street News.

EASILY SELECTED.

Gentleman (in furnishing store) Collars, please, 151% inch.

Clerk (a dashing young man)-Collars, sir, Yes, sir. Now, there are two popu-lar styles, sir. The "Apollo" and the "Belvidere." I wear the "Apollo" myself, sir.

Gentleman (very much impressed)-Is that so?

Clerk-Oh, yes, sir. Gentleman-Well, give me half a lozen of the "Belvidere."-[From Puck.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your est by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? if so, send at once and get a bottle of the Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children's Teething. Its value is incalculable It will relieve the poor little sufferor immedi-ately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures disentery and diarrhoes, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflama tion, and gives tone and energy tp the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children's Teething is pleasant to the inste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists through-the World. Price 25 cents a bottle.

CURE FOR PILES.

Piles are frequently preceded by a sense of weight in the back, joins and lower part of the abdomen, exusing the patient to suppose he has abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has some affection of the kidneys or neighboring arrans. At times symptoms of indication are Conducted by qualified phyce class and surgeons-regular reductes. The the oppert SPECIAL-187 In the United States, whose insthod and pure medicine, in-surge speedy and permanent ourse of all Private, Chronic, and Nervous Disease, Affec-tions of the Blood, Skin, Eld-ness, Lindder, Eruptions, Or-cre, Old Sores, Switzine of the Gamps, Sore Mouth, Throat and Bone Pains, permanently used and eradicated from the system For LUE. 3) 8 cured and eradicated from the system FOR LIFE. NERVOUS Important mental losses, sexual docay, mental and physical weakness, failing memory, weak eyes, stimted development, impedi-ments to marriage, etc. from excesses of youthful folles, or any cause, speedily, saiely and privately cured. Uddleareed and Old Mes õ

DR.

RESTORED

51

3

LIBBIG

Private Dispensary.

Young, Middleaged and Old Men

Torung, Middlengred and Old Men Torung, Middlengred and Old Men and AL who need MEDICAL SKILL and experi-stonce. His opinion cests nothing and may save future misery and shame. When incom-vention to visit the city for treatment, mediones can be sent anywhere by express FRAS FROM onesawarnow. His self-evidentithat a physician who gives his whon a stention to a clease of dis-eases attains greater skill, and physician who gives his whon sterry knowing this, frequent-by recommend difficult cases to the otherst FRAS here the pottor's Age and Experience mates and the pottor's Age and Experience mates of the bootor's Age and Experience mates and the country, knowing this, frequent-by recommend difficult onset to the otherst FRAS here the bootor's Age and Experience mates and the coller write. Hours: Daily, from steares successfully treated. The Dootor will spree to forfeit 51000 for a case undertaken, not eured. Call or write. Hours: Daily, from stant starts start starts during to the and the starts as about. "The services of the celebrated of Ger-man Physician, DK. O. GIRARD, from Stran-pendation, personally or by letter, in all personal sumiversally known, and hundreds are daily availing themselves of the opportunity of the services of the supersumation and the starts are as aspecialist for diseases and the sumiversally known, and hundreds are daily availing themselves of the opportunity of the sume and the supersons all Cunstured Losses whole system, and restores the amicted to Healts and Happiness. The reason so many cannot get cured of Seminal Weakness, Loss of Manhood, etc., is owing to a Jomplication, called PROSTATOB-RHEA with HTTERAETHESIA, which requires peculiar treatment. Dr. Liegig's Invigorator is the only positive cure for PROSTATORRHEA, with peculiar Special Treatment, used at the LIEBIG DISPENSARY.

Wonderful German Invigorator Permanently prevents all Unnatural Losses from the system, tones the nerves, strengthens the muscles, checks the waste, invigorates the whole system, and restores the afflicted to Health and Hermitness.

LIEBIG DISPENSARY. VARICOCELEE. Or wormy veins of the scrotum. Often theum suspected cause of last manhood, debility, etc. Price of Invigorator, $2. Case of six bot-tice $10. Sent to any address, covered security from observation. Most powerful electric belts free to patients. To PROVE THE WONDERFUL POWER OF THE IN-VIGORATOR. A $2 Bottle Given or Sent Free. Comentation free and private. Consolution or address

Call on or address LIEBIG DISPENSARY,

400 Geary st., 8an Fraucisco Private Entrance, 405 Mason street, four bloo up Geary street from Kearny. Main entran through Dispensary Drug Store fail get some harness. While the proprietor was busy showing the husband the goods the wife drew her chair up to the big iron safe and putting her feet up on its side. When the husband had bought what he When the husband had bolger, let's go." wanted he said, "Well, wife, let's go." "Willingly, TIRED OUT.

A GOOD STOVE.

Handkerchiefs, stamped free of charge, at Mrs. A. H. Farrar's.

will not find a place in this country where genius is admired as much as it is at this hotel.—[Arkansas Traveller.

NOTHING MORE TO SAY

A few days ago Col. B. F. Swartz of Maryland called at the White House to recommend the appointment of a friend to office, and reports the conversation he had with the President with a gloomy and discouraged tone. Says Col. Swartz 'I told him the candidate was a good man, and a consistent, sound, and life-long Democrat. He is one of the best Democrats I ever knew," exclaimed the Colonel, warming with his subject. "What has that to do with the case?"

asked the President.

This staggered Swartz, but as soon as he could pull himself together he replied : "Well, Mr. President, if you cannot see what it has to do with the case, I, at least, have no more to say."

THE BAY RUM SOAKED IN.

"Your honor, I was not drunk, I was drugged." said a husky-voiced, big, bleareved man, in a faltering way, as he rose in the dock of the Police Court, at, the clerk's call of "John Doe."

"Chestnut," muttered the bailiff under his breath, and the court began moving uneasily in his seat.

"I am a tectotaler," continued the vietim of foul play, as he carefully blew his breath toward the open door. "You see I went into a barber shop on Tchama street, and the barber put bay rum on my face and head, and it soaked in."

"Change the charge from simple to common drunk," said his honor. "We'l We'll make it six months this time."

WHAT SHE ADMIRED.

Miss Winthrop-"How do you like our beautiful city?'

New Yorker-"There are some things I like."

"Bunker Hill monument?"

"I don't care much for that."

"It's nothing compared to Central park."

"Oh-ah! culture and refinement?" "That's not it."

"What is it you admire so much in Boston '

"The twenty-two trains a day by which you can leave town."-[Texas Siftings.

LORD BEACONSFIELD.

Cherished English primroses as the sweetest of flowers. But meither roses, lillies, nor but-tercups are sweeter than the mouth of that fair one who uses SOZODONT daily to keep her teeth white as the driven snow, and her gums as ted as June roses.

want?" Tramp-"Anything you please to give, mum; I leave it to your generos. Lady (sweetly)-"Come in,and I'll tell the stable boy to give you a bath. -- Philadelphia Call.

"Have ye any raw oysters?" asked a newly wedded countryman of the waiter. "Yes, sir ; how many will you have?" "How many kal I better git, Miranda?" he said, turning to the bride. ""Well, J dunno, John." she replied, blushing be-comingly; "but I feel's though I could eat a hull can."-[Puck.

WHY SHE COULDN'T THANK HIM.

A Boston girl the other day said to a Southern friend, who was visiting her, as two men rose in a car to give them seats : "Oh, I wish they would not do it."

hy not? I think it is very nice of "said her friend, settling herself tably. "Why not? I think it is very nice of them." comfortably.

"Yes, but one can't thank them, you know, and it is so awkward." "Can't thank them ! Why not?"

"Why, you would not speak to a strange man, would you?" said the Boston maiden, to the astonishment of her Southern friend.

OPPOSED TO FIGHTING.

John L. Sullivan happened to be standing on the corner of Kearny and Geary streets in San Francisco, the other evening, when two politicians came to blows. and a big crowd assembled. John at once nurried away to his hotel, and was in very bad humor for the rest of the evening, and this is what he is said to have said to Pat Sheedy: "Now, this is a nice bloody row, ain't it? This thing will be telegraphed to the East, and everybody there will think I've been mixed up in it. D-n it Sheedy, why don't you keep away from this fighting crowd?"-From the New York Sun.

NO AMEN TO HER PRAYER.

"Mary, what is that piece you've been playing on the piano every night for the last three weeks?" inquired the old gen-tleman, just as Mary was tuning up.

"That is called the "Maiden's Prayer, papa." "Maiden's Prayer," he repeated. "Well, look here, Mary." "What is it, pa?"

"According to my experience in prayer business, every well regulated prayer ought to have an 'amen' to it, and " But Mary had shut the piano and was telling her mother about how cross pa was to-day .- [Merchant Traveller.

sweet influences of her gentle nature, and gathered new inspirations from memories coming up from the past like the "Well, I fragrant perfume of beautiful flowers. The remembrances of thirty years spent within our common home awakened in many hearts a keen sense of per-sonal loss beyond the power of human expression and little understood by those who, knowing her simply as a gentle, re-fined and cultivated woman, felt in her death no pang of personal bereavement. The plainest truth is at once her highest enlogy, and the sincerest tribute that can be offered to her memory. Her as daughter, as wife, as mother, at home, in the church, and in society at large, she displayed the highest qualities of a Christian womanhood.

Having borne with cheerfulness and with a true Christian spirit all of the trials, and discharged with fidelity every duty of life, she calmly awaited the approach of death, sustained by an unfaltering trust, and upheld by a sublime faith in the promises of that religion of which she had been for so many years so devout and consistent a disciple agreeing to come for eighty per cent of the gross receipts. Although staggered at first by such unheard-of terms, the

HE MUST EAT.

ANOTHER LIFE SAVED. Mrs. Harriet Commings, of Cincipnati, Ohio, writes. Early last winter my daughter was at-tacked with a severe cold, which settled on her lungs. We tried several medicines, none of which seemed to do her any good, but she con-tinued to get worse, and finally raised large amounts of blood from her lungs. We called in a family physician, but he failed to do her any good. At this time a friend who had been enred by DR. WM HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS, advised me to give it a trial. We got a bottle, and she began to improve, and by the use of three bottles was entirely cured."

resurrection. Scarcely of middle age, her life had yet ripened into full fruition. While yet flushed with the glow of the morning, the evening grew around her, and night came and gathered her within its folds. To-day, her friends, standing about her coffin, and before her open grave, fell the sweet influences of her gentle nature, E. Good. E. Good.

HOW TO SECURE HEALTH.

Scovill's Sarsaparilla and Stillingia or Blood and Liver Syrup will restore perfect health to the physical organization. It is, indeed, a strengthening syrup, pieasant to take, and has often proven itself to be the best blood purifier ever discovered, effectually curing scrofula, syphilitic disorders, weakness of the kidneys, crysipelas, malaria, all nervous disorders and debility, billous complaints, and all diseases indicating an impure condition of the blood, liver, kidneys, stomach, etc. It corrects indi-gestion, especially when the complaint is of an exhaustive nature, having a tendency to lessen the vigor of the brain and nervons system. will's Sarsaparilla and Stillingia or Blood

IS YOUR BLOOD PURE?

IS YOUR BLOOD PURE? For impure blood the best medicine known, SCOVILUS SARSAPARILLA, or BLOOD AND LIVER SYRUP, may be implicitly relied on when everything else fails. Take it in the spring time, especially for the impure secretions of the blood incident to that season of the year; and take it at al times for Cancer, Scrofula, Liver Complaints. Weakness, Bolls, Tumors, Swellings, Skin diseases, Malaria, and the thou-sand ills that come from impure blood. To en-sure a cheerful disposition take this well known sedicine, which will remove the prime cause, and restore the mind to its natural equi-librium.

NERVOUS DEBILITATED MEN.

You a e allowed a free trial of thirty days of the use of Dr. Dyo's Ce'ebrated Voltaic Belt with electric suspensory appliance, for the speedy relief and permatent cure of ner-vous debility, loss of vitality and manhood, and all kindred troubles. Also, for many other diseases. Complete restoration to health, vigor and man bod guaranteed. No risk is incurred Hustrawel pamphlet, with full information, terms, etc., mailed free by addressing Voltaic Belt Co. Marshall, Michigan.

REGARDED BY A PHYSICIAN.

The manager of an unfortunate local theatrical venture was negotiating for a certain dramatic attraction to fill the lowing week of dates. He received a telegram from the agent of the company, agreeing to come for eighty per cent of the gross receipts. Although staggered at first by such unheard-of terms, the Lowell manager recovered sufficiently to wire a reply in these words: 'Cannot give you more than sixty-five per cent. Willing to go ragged. Must eat."-(Lowell Citizen,

LADIES

For all forms of nasal catarrh where there is dryness of the air passage with what is com-monly called "studing up," especially when going to bed, Ely's Croam Baim gives perfect and immediate relief. Its benefit to me has keen priceless.--A. G. Chase, M. D., Milwood, Kansas.

You are allowed a free trial of thirty days of the use of Dr. Dye's Celebrated Voltate Belt with Electric Suspensory Appliances, for the speedy relief and permanent cure of Nerrows Decific, loss of Vitality and Manhood, and all kindred troubles. Also for many other diseases. Complete restor-alion to Health, Visor and Manhood guaranteed. No risk is incurred. Illustrated pamphilet in sealed invekope malled free, by addressing

VOLTAIO BELT CO., Marshall, Mich

A particle is applied into each nostril and is agreeable. Price 50 cents at druggists; by mail registered, 60 cents, diroulars free. Ely Bros., druggists. Owego, N. Y.

ESTRAYED.--A SORREL HORSE, ABOUT 134; hands high, 7 years old, gelding, rough shod all round, star in forehead, one hind foot white. Last seen, south-east of Salem, on Stay-ton road, six miles from Salem. Finder please send word to H. B. Hendricks, Salem, and be well paid.

Croup, whooping cough and bronchilis im-mediately relieved by Shiloh's Cure. Sold by The Port Brug Co. 1 For oysters dished up in every style, go to Chas. Helienbrand's. 1 The Port Drug Co. 1 For oysters dished up in every style, go to Chas. Helienbrand's. 1 The Port Drug Co. 1 For oysters dished up in every style, go to Chas. Helienbrand's. 1 The Port Drug Co. 1 For oysters dished up in every style, go to Chas. Helienbrand's. 1 The Port Drug Co. 1 For oysters dished up in every style, go to Chas. Helienbrand's. 1 The Port Drug Co. 1 For oysters dished up in every style, go to Chas. Helienbrand's. 1 The Port Drug Co. 1 The Port Drug Co.

ANOTHER LIFE SAVED.

and sensitive nature-full of zeal and de-votion, tempered with modesty and humility, she took up the burdens of life, and with rare fidelity-in every relation,