THE END IS NOT YET.

Further Developments in regard to the Beattie Matter—He Leaves The State.

Further developments in regard to the Beattie matter come to light as time passes on. Beattie, at the time he was charged with the theft of the money, was in the possession of several thousand dollars belonging to friends...

It is said that Beattie is worth at least $50,000, having years ago invested in property in Portland which has increased wonderfully in value...

PLAIN TALK.—The "how" of the great problem of trade winning is a subject which every merchant is willing to consider. The great successes achieved in business have, in every instance, been due more to the material the man was made of—the "snap" that was in him...

ONE BY ONE.—The employees at the penitentiary are being let out one by one, and new men placed in their positions. Yesterday the night watchman, Mr. Martin, a worthy man, received his walking papers...

HEARD FROM.—The alarm which was raised by the relatives of Henry Fulton, the printer, over his disappearance from this city, has partially subsided, since it is learned that, instead of having been shipwrecked or sandbagged, or dealt with in any other unbecoming way...

GOING TO SPOKANE.—D. M. Shanks, a well-known attorney, of Salem, Or., will take up his abode with us on the first of next month. He realizes that Spokane is very well supplied with lawyers...

GENERAL SOCIAL.—The party to be given to-night at the Woman's college is a general social for everybody and not a mask party, as heretofore announced. It is hoped that all friends of the art department of the university will be present...

SEPARATING THE PARTS.—Mr. Holman has been at work for a few days separating the wires which supply electricity for the street lamps from those which furnish the inside lamps...

CORPSE REMOVED.—Dr. B. F. Jones, lately of St. Louis, Mo., has arrived in the city and formed a partnership with Dr. L. L. Rowland, for the practice of medicine...

POLICE COURT.—One lone vag appeared in the police court, yesterday morning, and was given five days in the cooler. Mrs. Jennie Blakely, the old woman who applied to Marshal Ross for a lodging, was sent back to Portland on the afternoon train...

STATE ALLIANCE.—The meeting of the state temperance alliance in this city, next Wednesday and following days, will be largely attended and with added zest, no doubt, on account of prohibition being voted on next November.

REGULAR MEETING.—There will be a regular meeting of Multnomah Chapter, No. 1, of Royal Arch Masons this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Work in M. E. M. degree. Visiting companions cordially invited to attend. Geo. E. Gray, H. P.

Harry Holzgate, of Corvallis, a brother of Arthur E. Holzgate, is in the city, on his way to East Portland to assume a position in the First National bank there.

FROM SATURDAY'S DAILY.

A PLEASANT AFFAIR.—On Thursday night, quite a pleasant supper party gathered at Strong's oyster parlors, on an invitation from Messrs. J. H. Ralley and W. T. Matlock, of Pendleton...

AN EFFICIENT OFFICER.—Of all the officers who have served the state during the past few years, none have been more efficient than Dr. Josephi, the superintendent of the asylum. His removal will be looked on by those who are acquainted with the workings of the institution as nothing short of a public calamity...

INDIGNATION OVER A VETO.—No official act of any governor of Oregon has ever created in Portland such indignation as was expressed by people in every circle of society over Gov. Penney's veto of the bill allowing the O. R. & N. company to bridge the Willamette river at this place. After three years of inaction the railroad company are anxious to give the commercial interests the accommodation of terminal facilities—freight and passenger—on this side of the river...

SHOCKING ACCIDENT.—A fatal accident occurred at Albina, Thursday, which was caused by the fool with the gun he "didn't know was loaded." Mrs. Mary Newton, an old lady about 60 years of age, was approaching the residence of Geo. Armstrong, about 4 o'clock p. m., of the day in question...

CHINAMAN INJURED.—The practice of throwing snow balls is doubtless a very amusing exercise to the party who throw, but the one hit is not apt to think it so funny. During this snowy weather Chinamen are the greatest sufferers. Last evening, about dark, a couple of boys on Petty Hill conceived the idea that it would be lots of fun for them to attack a Chinaman who was passing...

HELP TO ANSWER.—James Howe has been fined $50 for assault and battery upon his mistress, and held to answer in the sum of $150 for beating the same person with a stove lid. Madge Howe, says, however, that instead of being the mistress of Howe, she is his wife. She has sued him for divorce, and states in her complaint against him, that she was married to him in Oakland, California, in September of last year...

CLASHED WITH CRIMINAL LABEL.—Last Saturday's News contained the following item: "A sailor boarding house keeper named Kelly says he knows for certain that Henry F. Fulton, the missing printer, was shipwrecked on board the Snow and Burgess by another sailor boarding house keeper named Jim Turk..."

OLD TOO LATE.—Early yesterday morning Officer Lowe ran across Johnny Booth, "Punch" Scott, and a boy named Falls down on the bank of the river, sitting around a fire and having a good time generally. The boys merely wanted to be out late. They were arrested and lodged in the city jail. Yesterday, however, they were discharged with a reprimand...

PROMOTED.—At a meeting of Co. K, O. S. M., of Portland, held a few evenings since, W. M. Ladd, second lieutenant of the company, was elected first lieutenant, vice S. B. Adams, promoted, and C. K. Cranston, formerly of Salem, 1st sergeant, was elected second lieutenant. Co. K is the largest and one of the strongest military organizations in the state. To be an officer of the company is an honor conferred only upon the capable and deserving. Those who know Mr. Cranston in this city will be pleased to learn that he has been selected to fill such a responsible position, but they know he will make an efficient officer.

MEET IN SALEM.—The State Temperance Alliance meets here next week. The Sunday school state convention comes March 8th, and the Grand lodge of Good Templars in June.

ARM BROKEN.—Yesterday morning, the delivery team of Pete Phillips, which was standing at his barn near the railroad switch, became frightened at the puffing of the switch engine, and started to run. They had hardly got under good headway before they collided with a telegraph pole, throwing J. Phillips, cousin of Pete, who was in the wagon at the time, and who had been unable to reach the lines and stop the team, violently to the ground, injuring his wrist and bruising his face...

PROSPECTIVE INHABITANTS.—J. C. Colby, of Wyndmere, Dakota, writing to the Immigration board in Portland for maps and information regarding Oregon, says: "A party of seventeen Dakotans wish to seek a more congenial climate and in the spring shall go to either Oregon or Washington, preferring the former. We are supposed to be industrious and would be happy if we had half a chance, but Dakota offers slight inducements to promote one's enjoyment. We have had a frightfully cold winter and fifteen full grown blizzards. Please send a few papers telling of your country that I may scatter around as Manna among the shivering humanity on this cheerless prairie. Settlers of North Dakota who have endured and survived two winters here, would lynch Ingersoll or any one who would come and preach the 'no hell theory.'"

CHINAMAN INJURED.—The practice of throwing snow balls is doubtless a very amusing exercise to the party who throw, but the one hit is not apt to think it so funny. During this snowy weather Chinamen are the greatest sufferers. Last evening, about dark, a couple of boys on Petty Hill conceived the idea that it would be lots of fun for them to attack a Chinaman who was passing...

CO-COUNTERFEITER SENTENCED.—John Davenport, a counterfeiter, who was arrested in Woodburn a few days since, was arraigned in the U. S. district court on Thursday. He pleaded guilty, and said in extenuation that he was physically weak, and unable to find work which he could do. He acknowledged he made the money which he had passed, and said he had no confederates. Judge Denby, in passing sentence, said it was better for the state and the prisoner both that he should be in the penitentiary, and gave him three years in that institution.

FOURBACK IN PORTLAND.—On Thursday a foot race took place in Portland, between Harry Struve, of Seattle, and Ed. Skinner, an eastern sprinter. The race was for 400 yards and 1100 yards. The start was an excellent one and the men kept well together. Not over ten inches separated them during the run. Struve crossed the line six inches in the lead, winning in 93 seconds. Skinner protested against the payment of the stakes. He claimed that he was in the lead when eighty yards had been covered and that Struve elbowed him, throwing him behind.

THE MAKE PARTY.—A comfortable crowd gathered at Diamond's music hall last evening, the occasion being the make-over ball given by Tru. Diamond. There were a number of maskers. The dance, the cow boy, the wild Indian, the prince, and a number of other characters were represented. Dancing of course was engaged in, and the spectators mingled in with the maskers and had a good social time. It was at a late hour that the party broke up.

STATE CHARGES.—Sheriff Ross, of Clatsop, yesterday brought from Astoria, an inmate patient for the asylum. On Thursday, Sheriff Bentley arrived with a prisoner sentenced to the penitentiary for six years. Umattia county has been contributing more than her share of prisoners lately, but it is all owing to a determination on the part of the sheriff to rid his county of all felonously inclined persons.

AT THE SUPERINTENDENT'S OFFICE.—The Misses Hartley, of Madry, have been granted certificates to teach in the schools of Marion county. Some time ago the school superintendent sent out blanks to the clerks of the various school districts, with instructions to fill them in and return them to him. It is required by law that all these blanks be returned to him by March 1st.

FINN WORK.—In T. McF. Patton's window is exhibited another crayon from the easel of Mrs. Blinn, of Portland. It is a portrait of Master Willie Crane, of Salem, and the execution and likeness are evidences of the artist's superior skill. Mrs. Blinn intends entering the San Francisco art academy shortly.

FROM SUNDAY'S DAILY.

SURPRISE PARTY.—A number of the friends of Miss Ada Breyman filed in upon her last Friday evening, at the residence of her father, on State street, and took her completely by surprise. The self-invited guests brought refreshments with them, and announced their intention of taking possession of everything. Cards and games were indulged in until eleven o'clock, when all repaired to the dining room and partook of the splendid luncheon prepared by the ladies of the party. The surprise to Miss Ada was complete, but she was equal to the occasion and made all feel at home. The guests departed at a late hour, feeling that the party had been a complete success. There were present, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Waite, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Breyman, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Burnett, Mr. and Mrs. Eben Lafore, Mr. and Mrs. M. N. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Moores, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Bell, Mrs. Stella McKay, Mrs. Frank Gilbert, Miss Bertha Moores, Miss Lena Breyman, Mr. Arthur Breyman and Mr. Cranston.

THREE MORE.—Last evening three more of the gang of tramps were arrested by Sheriff Minto and Deputy Potter, charged with stealing wood from the depot. They were arraigned before Justice O'Donnell at about 8:30 when they gave their names as Henry Holt, Andy Clark and James Dugan. An examination into the merits of the case developed the fact that Dugan was a working man and that he was not implicated in the affair. On motion of Deputy District Attorney Courtney he was discharged. Holt and Clark were each given thirty days in the county jail. When the officers arrested the men, at the stronghold of the tramps near the depot, they found there two boys living in South Salem, named Jordan and Nesbit, aged 13 and 14. They were brought in, but were discharged by the justice, it appearing that they were simply in the company of the tramps because they were attracted there by the fascination of the stories of the rollicking life of the roving tramp.

IN POSITION.—Yesterday morning, Street Commissioner Thompson commenced, with a gang of workmen, to repair the drift-breaker which was forced out of position by the late high water. After some work, the breaker was placed in position, and will be braced so it will be able to withstand any strain. During the day, an accident occurred which came near resulting fatally. A rope that was being used to let down some timbers from the bridge to the breaker, caught one of the legs of George Hatch, and dragged him along rapidly toward the edge of the bridge. By a superhuman effort Mr. Hatch succeeded in extricating himself from the entangling rope, but it was not until he had been badly bruised. He was conveyed to his home, and at last accounts he was resting easy.

A COLD BATH.—Arthur Wilson, of Salem, met with a laughable incident while skating at this place Saturday evening, says the West Side. His skates got the "bit" of him and carried him to the place where Prof. Garrigus had been sawing ice during the day. Arthur plunged into a rather chilly bath tub, and he got its full benefits. He went up to the hotel and put on Peter Cook's old clothes, which were about seventeen numbers too large for him, and he went to spend the rest of the evening with his girl, who undoubtedly imagined he was supporting a "Daddy Hubbard."

TO PORTLAND.—The exodus of members of the third house to Portland, on yesterday afternoon's train, was large. The settling of the bridge and water questions took away the occupations of most of them. There were also on the train several members of the legislature whom important business called to Portland. Arrangements were made with the railroad company in the afternoon by which a special train came up in the evening and took down those members who were unable to leave on the regular train.

MARION COUNTY'S POOL.—But few people have any idea how much it costs to keep Marion county poor. During the month of January warrants were drawn by the county clerk in favor of paupers and indigents for $11,222. The amount drawn for the year during November was $54,032 and the aggregate of the past four months is $230,014. Of this about $120 per month is devoted to the board of the inmates of the poor house, and most of the rest is drawn by parties living in different parts of the county.

GOOD SPEAKERS.—At the state temperance alliance there will be some fine speakers at the night meetings next Wednesday, Thursday, and perhaps Friday nights. Senators Hare, Dawson and Waite, Hon. Paley, Wallis Nash, Revs. J. Q. A. Henry, Hillworth, S. P. Wilson, J. D. Dower, Martin Judy, Dr. H. K. Hines, T. J. Wilson, Prof. G. M. Miller and others are expected to take part. The alliance convenes in the M. E. Church, Feb. 26, at 2 o'clock.

A SEATTLE STORY.—The Seattle Times tells of a young married woman there who ran away from her husband last Tuesday and passed the night with another man in a room at the Seattle hotel, the couple being registered as man and wife. The Times says in conclusion: "She will not be arrested so long as she behaves herself." It would be interesting to get the Times' definition of the manner in which a woman could misbehave herself.

ELECTIONS OF OFFICERS.—At the regular meeting of the Athenaeum society, held on Friday afternoon, the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing ten weeks: President, Anna Breyman; vice president, Esther Hall; secretary, Nellie Boise; assistant secretary, Ethel Cusick; treasurer, Ruth Matthews; librarian, Frankie Strang; custodian, Hanna Chase.

THE SEATS GOING.—The seats for the Thompson Opera Company entertainments, Wednesday and Thursday evenings, were put on sale at Patton's yesterday morning, and the sale exceeded any first day sale ever before experienced in Salem. There will be an immense crowd.

AN OLD SALEMITE.—Mrs. Mary Freeland, of Ashland, is visiting this city, after an absence of more than twenty years, the guest of her brother, P. H. Raymond. Mrs. Freeland will be remembered by the residents of thirty years ago as Miss Mary Raymond, whose parents occupied the "Beer's house," now the suburban residence of Capt. J. F. Miller. She is much pleased to meet old friends, who warmly welcome her to her old home.

WILL REMAIN.—The many friends of E. L. L. Johnson will be pleased to learn that he has decided to remain in this city instead of leaving for the east. He will officiate in the boot and shoe store of Krause & Klein as head salesman. It is probable, however, that during the summer he will leave for a few months on a visit to his relatives, but he will return and take up his permanent residence here.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—W. W. Skinner, the agent of the railroad company, was the victim of a painful accident on Friday evening. While going through a door of the depot, he displaced a gang plank, which fell heavily on his foot, mashing the toes so much that one or two of the nails will be lost. Mr. Skinner is just able to be around, and it will be some time before he recovers entirely from the effects of his accident.

POLICE COURT.—One drunk and one vag were up before the recorder yesterday morning. The drunk rejoiced in the high-sounding title of Francis St. Clair, but that didn't prevent his getting the usual dose—four days. The vag will remain in the cooler for five days.

CARD OF THANKS.—Wm. and Sarah Watt, of South Salem, desire to return their sincere thanks to their friends who so kindly assisted them by word and deed in their late sad bereavement of their son.

AGENT APPOINTED.—Joseph H. Albert has been appointed agent of the New Zealand insurance company. The New Zealand is one of the leading companies, with a capital of five millions.

A. H. Breyman returned to East Portland yesterday after a short visit here.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS. Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth?
