STATE AND TERRITORY.

The Case of the Seissors, Pen, and Paste-pot, versus Northwestern Exchanges.

The militia bill providing for the reorganization of the Oregon state militia has become a law by fact of Governor Pennoyer carrying it in his pocket and neither signing nor vetoing it. The new law is creating no little stir among the militia men of Portland.

Tuesday morning, March 1st, Dave stickler, of Pendleton, Umatilla county, Stickler, of Pendleton, Umatilla county, believing his wife untrue, attempted to cut her throat, and succeeded to the extent of hacking it in a fearful manner. Afterward he cut his own throat. His life is despaired of. In answer to the cries of the woman, Benj. Morgan rushed upon the scene, and was stabbed in the face, though not seriously. Stickler has been a peaceable man heretofore, but the green-eyed monster has changed him into a crazy man.

Says the Seattle Post-Intelligencer: very evident feeling of hope and buoy-ancy is manifested throughout the city. Not only is it possessed by property-owners, but by manufacturers, merch-ants, professional men, mechanics, laants, protessional near, mechanics, ar-borers—by the whole population. New enterprises are contemplated in every direction, and another month will wit-ness their springing into existence by scores on every hand. The business prospect never was brighter, pleasanter and more generally promising in Seattle than it is to-day.

Word reached here a few days since of Word reached here a few days since of a most heinous outrage being committed in the vicinity of Willow creek, in Baker county. T. D. Parker, of this place, and Henry Lewis and Jas. Alger, of Ladd Cannon, had a band of two thousand head of sheep ranging thereabouts, all of which were in fine condition. A few mornings since the entire band was found dead, some scoundrel having scattered saltpeter promiscuously over the ground, which the sheep mistook for salt. The perpetrator of this act should be apprehended, if possible, and the aght to a speedy retribution.—[Marton Sentine].

The ship building firm of Middlemas & Booles, of San Francisco, are perfecting arrangements to enter quite extensively into the construction of sailing vessels on the Sound. Mr. Boole arrived here by the Elder, and states that his firm has a contract for four sailing vessels to be built at Port Ludlow this spring. One of them will be a four masted schooner, for the Puget mill company, capable of carrying one million feet of lumber. Messrs. Middlemas & Boole will give steady employment in the yard to at least 150 skilled laborers.—[Seattle Post-Intel-

There seems to be great difficulty in buying feed for stock and heavy losses are reported from different localities. There is really no pasturage, as the grass that had grown before the hard weather came on seems to be so injured that it has no strength and does not keep the cattle and sheep alive. Mr. Enoch Collman just above West Point has lost over twenty head of cattle, Mr. A. K. Norwood, back of Diamond hill, has lost a number of cows, and ex-County Comnumber of cows, and ex-County Com-missioner A. Coudra has already lost fourteen head of calves with fair pros-pects of a great many more of his band of 500 that he purchased last fall, perish-ing.—[Albany Herald.

A man named Daniel G. Stuart, a stonecutter by avocation, fell off the Fourth street railroad where it crosses Couch's lake, Saturday night, and was drowned. Yesterday Coroner DeLin held an inquest over the remains. The investigation disclosed the fact that deceased had been drinking hard for some time, and that while in a semi-intoxicated condition he started to walk across the bridge after night. He stumbled, the bridge after night. He stumbled, fell on some loose rock and rolled face downward into the water. As far as known Stuart came to this coast several years ago from near St. Johns, New Brunswick, and proceeded to Victoria. While there he followed his trade of stonecutter, and also took up some land at Alberni, B. C. He came to Portland some nine months ago and went to work at the Butte quarry. So far as can be ascertained, Stuart was unmarried. The jury rendered a verdict of accidental death.—Telegram.

The following item is going the rounds of Pacific coast papers. It is all the more interesting from the fact that it isn't true: A cowboy named Hugh Con-nelly met with a fearful death in Eastern Oregon a few days ago. He was one of a party that recently went into the cattle district south of Powder river to "round np" and bring in lost cattle. A few days ride brought them to the burning cost pit and they began looking into the bowels of earth from whence came vols of smoke and lurid streaks of fire. The hot air partially stopefied the cow-boys and as they were about to leave, Connelly exclaimed, "Boys, yonder is the biggest hole of all; I am going to look down and see how far it is to hell!" down and see how far it is to hell!"
Dissuasien was used to no purpose, and Connelly was soon standing on the brink of a frightful crater. He waved his hat to his companions, and the next moment the ground on which he was standing gave way and he fel! to the fires below. He was 22 years old.

The governor of Oregon has covered himself all over with glory by the ap-pointment of Siglin as Brig. Gen. of the Oregon militia. This is peculiarly gratioregon militis. This is peculiarly gratifying to the nation in view of the unsatisfactory condition of our coast defenses and the exposure of Empire City to the cannon of foreign ships. It will also have an important bearing on the Canada translates and da troubles and the threatened war in ada froubles and the threatened war in Europe. Our militia should be thoroughly organized at once, and that noble vessel, which has been lying around our wharves, known as the Russian gun boat, should have an appropriation from congress and be put in good condition. If Scott's old duck boat could be purchased it would put the navy in Coos Bay on a footing with the rest of the nation. We then could dety Canadian codfish and they would not dare come into our harbor to molest our claims. The hall and they would not dare come into our harbor to molest our claims. The military spirit of this county is thoroughly roused and on every side can be heard the exclamation: "Zwei glass lager beer to go fight mit Siglin!" The Gen. has gone east to confer with the secretary of war, Bismark, John L. Sullivan and other noted military men.—[Marshfield Mail.

PITHY AND TO THE POINT.

Gov. Pennoyer Writes a Letter upon a Swamp-land Title obtained through Hen Owen.

Gov. Pennoyer has written the following letter, which fully explains itself and the matter it refers to:

Messrs. Cogswell & Ross, Lakeview, Or.—Gentlemen: Your letter of the 21st inst., in which you ask authority from the state "to appear in behalf of the state to defend the swamp character" of a certain piece of land, in a contest becertain piece of land, in a contest de-tween Edward Hanly, claimant under a certificate issued by the state board, and Charles Nelson, a "pre-emptor," was duly received. Certificate No. 139, is-sued November 14, 1883, to H. C. Owen, under which Mr. Hanly claims title, was, by the state board, at a meeting held February 1, 1887, declared void, and the said board, by an act of the legislative assembly of Oregon, approved February 16, 1887, was directed "to cancel said certificate of sale." While it is the policy of the state of Oregon to protect ac-tual settlers on swamp lands purchased in good faith from parties procuring such baye been made in the enactment before mentioned, it will not be the policy of the state to aid parties holding such certificates, or parties purchasing from the holders thereof, in any contest against actual settlers on such lands, claiming title under the homestead or pre-emption laws of the United States. It would not only be an act of gross injustice for the state of Oregon, in that manner, to give countenance to those certificates of sale, which have been issued to certain par-ties in plain disregard and defiance of the law; but it would also be an act of the grossast folly for the crossast to the grossest folly for the state to pursue a policy the tendency of which would be to harass the actual settler, and thereby to prevent the settlement and development of the country.

The authority asked for cannot, in this case, be granted
