The senate select committee appointed to investigate the appointments to the Indian traderships in the West, claim to have secured some very damaging testimony, although not much is said about the matter yet.

Thursday, May 19, the British steamer Celtic, of the White Star line, from Liverpool, collided with the Britannic, of the same line, bound from New York to Liverpool. Several steerage passengers were killed. C. P. Huntington was among the Britannic's passengers.

Lord Colin Campbell has been declared bankrupt.

The national drill at Washington has been formally opened.

Ben Perley Poore is lying at the point of death at Washington.

The commons held an all-night session, considering the coercion bill. The second clause was at last adopted, 235 to 103.

Vice President Oakes, of the N. P. R. R., denies having received an offer from the Milwaukee & St. Paul, and says he does not intend leaving the Northern.

It is now stated that the Celtic was to blame for the disastrous collision with the Britannic. She was sixty miles out of her course, and right in the course of outgoing vessels.

At Hamilton, Ontario, eight shots were fired at a cab, in which were O'Brien, McMahon, Roche, and Kilbride, but none of these were injured. John Nelson, the driver, was dangerously wounded. Orangemen are determined to kill O'Brien.

The Willamette Valley and Cascade Mountain Wagon Road Co., by its attorneys, recently applied to the commissioner of the general land office for patents to 143,614 acres of land "selected" by it, but the commissioner has refused to allow the patents to issue, as it is understood there that the road was never constructed.

President Cleveland will leave Washington on Thursday for the Adirondacks.

It is estimated that the California hop crop of 1887 will be 80,000 bales, or 23,000 bales more than last year.

Congressman Barry, of Mississippi, says that public sentiment is undergoing a change in favor of the interstate commerce law.

The first day of the National drill was very fine, until 4 o'clock, when a thunder storm scattered the crowd and tore up a number of tents.

The secretary of the interior has affirmed Sparks' decision in favor of Hon. L. B. Rinehart and against the W. V. & C. M. Wagon Road Co.

Garland says he does not want the vacant place on the bench. He says he "pines" for private life and rest. His health is not very good.

Changes in the star schedules have been ordered as follows: Oregon—Aurora Mills to Mackay; leave Aurora Mills Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, at 8:30 a. m., and arrive at Aurora Mills by 11 a. m.

E. McD. Johnson and H. C. Tibballe, of the general passenger department of the Southern Pacific, returned to San Francisco on Sunday on an extensive tour through Oregon over the Oregon & California railway. They secured an immense number of splendid photographs, which, when ready, are to be sent on the American exhibition in London. The series, when completed, will embrace views of the whole road from Redding to Portland, and will be of rare interest and excellence.

FOURTH OF JULY.

Organization of the General Committee of Arrangements, and Business Transacted.

The general committee of arrangements on the Fourth of July celebration met, pursuant to call, at the office of Geo. H. Burnett last evening. All present except Mr. Strong and Mr. Breyman. Geo. H. Burnett was elected secretary. John G. Wright, treasurer, and Rev. J. W. Webb, vice president.

Geo. H. Burnett was chosen marshal of the day, there being one negative vote, cast by Mr. Barnett.

Rev. J. M. Dick, of the Evangelical church, was elected chaplain.

COMMITTEES APPOINTED.

Honorary committee—Gov. Penneyer, Secretary of State McBride, State Treasurer Webb, Superintendent of Public Instruction McElroy, and Mayor Ramsey.

Grounds—J. I. Thompson, Chas. Claggett, and Thos. Caulfield.

On decoration—J. A. Manning, D. L. Green, and J. D. McCully.

On Music—Wm. Staiger, C. W. Sears, and Dr. C. H. Hall.

On Printing—E. M. Waite, E. O. Norton, and R. J. Hendricks.

On athletic sports—W. F. Dugan, E. M. Croisan, and the foreman of Engine company No. 3.

The first named of each committee is chairman.

The president of the day, orator and reader of the Declaration of Independence will be announced soon, and a meeting of the committee, with the chairman of each sub-committee will be named in a few days.

The secretary was instructed to invite the militia companies of the county, and all societies.

SUPREME COURT.

Marjory Herberger, resp. vs. John Herberger, app.; appeal from Grant county; argued and submitted.

May 24, 1887.

Marjory Herberger, resp. vs. Jno. Herberger, app.; appeal from Grant Co.; judgment affirmed. Opinion by Strahan, J. This is merely a divorce suit in which no important points were involved.

W. B. Smith, app. vs. J. C. Nickelson, resp.; appeal from Wasco county; judgment affirmed. Opinion by Strahan, J. [This is a case wherein plaintiff sued defendant in a justice's court for recovery of $52.88 alleged to be due him; defendant set up a counterclaim of $76.69 and demanded judgment for $24.21. Jury rendered written verdict for defendant and assessed his damages at $1899, but explained in open court that they meant to find verdict for plaintiff for $52.88 less 18.96. The court not being clear as to what was contended dismissed the jury until the next morning, without leave of both parties to the suit. The next morning he decided in favor of plaintiff. The case was then taken to the circuit court on a writ of review, when decision was reversed, and cause ordered to be tried again, whereupon defendant appeals to the supreme court. The court holds that the practice of the court in allowing the jury to separate after the cause had been submitted, and without the consent of both parties to the suit, is clearly in contravention of our statute. The verdict of the jury was therefore irregular, not void, and must be set aside and a new trial directed before the justice.]

Raley et al. vs. Umatilla county; motion for rehearing denied. Opinion by Strahan, J.

Alexander McDonald, app. vs. R. B. McKenzie et al.; judgment reversed and the cause remanded for further proceedings. Opinion by Lord, C. J.

State of Oregon, resp. vs. Richard E. Marple, app.; appeal from Yamhill county; argued and submitted.

May 25.

State of Oregon, resp. vs. F. M. Clements, app.; appeal from Baker county.

STATE AND TERRITORY.

Baird's minstrels will arrive in Oregon again on the 31st.

Fine weather has started work in the logging camps along the Columbia.

Thos. P. Worley, an old resident of Corvallis, died on Monday, aged 65 years.

Astoria, Portland, Albany, Corvallis, and numerous other places will celebrate the 4th of July.

There yet remains one mile of track to lay on the switch-back to complete the Cascade branch.

A sailing schooner is soon to be put into service for deep-sea fishing outside the bar at Astoria.

Capt. Cleveland Rockwell is making a survey of the coast at Yaquina, for the U. S. geodetic department.

A. H. Phelps, formerly president of the Yaquina "Mail" Publishing Co., has sold out his interest in that paper and gone to Wallawa county to start another paper.

Milton Eagle: On Tuesday last William Hoult left his wife and children for parts unknown, leaving a note on the table to the effect that he had left her never to return, and for her to get along as best she could.

Telegram: This morning Frank Arland was brought from The Dalles to St. Vincent's hospital with his skull fractured. He met with his accident on the railroad. It has not been determined how severely he is hurt.

A Yakima squaw died on the Simcoe reservation a few days ago, and was "buried" not far from the railroad track, on a platform supported by numerous poles. Not before in a long time have the Indians disposed of a dead body in this way, and the structure and its burden constitute quite a curiosity to all passers.

John Ireland, a lad 14 years of age, of Pasco, W. T., the other day picked up what he supposed was an empty cartridge shell, and commenced to drive it on the end of a stick, when it exploded, proving it to be a giant powder cap. The explosion shattered his left hand, driving two of the fingers into his leg, which were removed and his wounds dressed by Dr. Burton.

Sprague (W. T.) Correspondence: W. B. Kelly met with a painful accident this afternoon, that came near resulting fatally. He was removing a stove from the upper story of the Masonic temple, unassisted, and in descending the stairway he made a misstep, and fell the remainder of the distance, some six or eight steps, with the stove falling on top of him. For a time it was feared he was fatally injured, but he will recover.

BORN.

BAKER.—In Salem, May 24th, 1887, to the wife of Rev. J. C. Baker, a son.

MARRIED.

FARRIS-OSBORN.—By J. M. Payne, J. P., on Monday, May 23, 1887, Miss Laura A. Osborn to Frank L. Farris, of Mehama, all of Marion county.

DIED.

ARMSTRONG.—In South Salem, Friday night, May 20, 1887, May, wife of W. H. Armstrong, aged 25 years and 3 months.

She leaves an afflicted husband and three small children, together with a large circle of friends, to mourn her departure.

WHITE.—On Sunday, May 22, 1887, at his home about three miles west of Salem, J. H. White, aged about 74 years.

Mr. White was an old resident of Polk and Marion counties, having come to this country in 1865. He was the father of a large family, and was highly esteemed by all who knew him as a man of sterling worth. He was an ex-member of the legislature. He was buried yesterday at Zena.

BRISTOW.—At his home in Salem, on Saturday, May 21, 1887, at 11 o'clock a. m., E. L. Bristow, aged 55 years.

Late Bristow is dead. To all who were acquainted with him and who knew his sterling qualities, this simple announcement will bring a pang of sincere sorrow, for the subject of this sketch, now free from the cares and sorrows of this world, was a good man and citizen, and an honest and faithful friend.

He was born on January 21, 1832, in McDonough county, Illinois, and came to Oregon in the early pioneer days, and settled in Lane county. He was first married at Clatskanie, Lane county, to Jane Jones, and this union was blessed with four children, two of whom are dead. The two living are Paul H. Bristow, of Lane county, and Mrs. H. C. Perkins, of the same county. He was married to Hattie E. Hill at Eugene City on Nov. 5th, 1865, and they have lived a happy life together until the union was severed by his death. The issue of this marriage was two children, one of whom is dead, the other, Eugene Hill Bristow, of Salem.

Mr. Bristow was in the mercantile business in Eugene City, in partnership with Hon. T. G. Hendricks, of that city, who is a relative of the deceased, for a number of years, but sold out to his partner and came to Salem in 1874. He was editor and manager of the Salem Daily Mercury for a few years, and afterwards a partner with John G. Wright in the grocery business. He sold out to Mr. Wright, and was for a time assistant warden at the penitentiary. He afterwards went to Portland, and was for several years manager of the Daily Standard in that city. He was a member of Anniversary Lodge, No. 13, L. O. O. F., of Salem, and had been a zealous worker in this order for many years. He was Past Grand Master and also Past Grand Patriarch. He was representative to the Sovereign Grand Lodge held in San Francisco in 1869.

Mr. Bristow had not been well for a long time. Several weeks ago he was tendered the position of special agent of the state for the investigation of swamp land matters, but his failing health would not permit of his acceptance, and since that time he has rapidly sunk, nearing the end with calm resignation. He died as he had lived, an honest and honorable man, against whose name was never even whispered the taint of scandal or corruption.
