Ir is not generally known that the title "basket picnie" originated away off from the name of the willowy receptacle in which the fodder is carried out to be eaten amongst the spiders and black ants. The name comes from a powerful outdoor preacher, Elder Basket, of Fluwanna county, Virginia, who preached forty years, mostly in al fresco wrestles with Satan, and had for his total compensation for that time a pair of socks

Don Carlos, who is a hereditary pretender to the throne of Spain, is said to have his brevet kingly eye on Mexico, as a country that may restore monarchy and give him a sceptre. We advise the Don that Mexico has the roughest of ways in dealing with kings. In fact it is a country where the jack frequently takes the king.

WHEN Hayes was in the white house. Mrs. H. found a little girl one day in the reception room alone. "What is your name, little girl?" she asked kindly, "Dora." "Well, Dora, I'm glad to see you," "Yes," said the child, "and you'll be gladder when you know I'm from Ohio." That is the way Buckeye children are raised.

In a Bosten divorce case, tried last week, the plaintiff was Daniel Webster and his defenant wife's maiden name was Catharine Leroy. Now turn to the biography of the only original Daniel Webster, and you find that his second wife was Catharine Leroy. It is a strange coincidence, but stops short before the divorce.

The accommodation mail pouches between Salem and Turner and Salem and Albany are a great convenience to the people of Salem, and especially to the Daily STATESMAN. Thanks are due to Postmaster W. H. Odell for his efforts in securing the service.

THE committee of general arrangements for the Fourth of July celebration has decided to allow no one to keep a stand for the sale of anything on the grounds. There were so many conflicting interests that this was the only course left open to the committee.

Ten pound boxes of black Tartarians are quoted at $3 00 and $350, and of Oxhearts at $3 50 and $4. If the business of selling these cherries is honestly conducted, these firures ought to leave the orchard owner in this state a very handsome margin of profit, even though it cost $400 a carload

It is understood also that the market for canned goods is practically bare of desirable brands of California fruits, and growing taste for these delicacies, another crop than he ever dreamed of. Packers of fine grade goods say that in previous vears the demand on them has been far greater than they could supply and hence they can have no cause of complaint this season. NO BOOM.

Some one has accused the STATESMAN of trying to work up a boom. The STATES-MAN could not create a boom if it would. But a blind man must see that there are better times ahead for Oregon. We are entering upon a new era, upon a time when the market for all our soil will produce will be at our very doors, and the buyer will seek the seller. As a consequence, we are bound to have brisker times, more money will be in circulation. our people will be more enterprising, and consequently more prosperous.

What the STATESMAN wants is to engender a feeling of confidence of the future in the minds of Salem people, and people of this section, so that when the fo "boom" (if that is what you must call it) does come, we will get our full share of its benefits, so that we will be ready to take care of ourselves and our business. and that we may keep pace with, and ahead of, the growth of the rest of the state.
