(A Ballad of the Present and Future.)

Hans Schneider had a sweetheart; In far off Fatheriand, While Hans lived at Milwaukee, And tooted in the band. He loved his sweetheart fondly. And keenly felt her loss, But Hans had not the money

And Wilhelmins waited,
And Schneider waited, too,
Because, in their condition,
They'd nothing else to do.
One morning in the papers,
Hans Schneider read about
How Nins and her August,
They have been a state of the service of the se

To pay her way across.

"Dose marritches by proxy,
Yoost fits me like a shoe;
Und me and Vilhelmina
Vill marry dot vay too."
Hans spoke, then wrote a letter,
No sconer said than done,
And Hans and Wilhelmina
Were speedliy made one.

Ten years of wedded proxy
Had fied into the past,
And Hans and Wilhelmina
Were soon to meet at last;
For she was coming to him
Across the billiowy brine.
His faithful Wilhelmina,
The life of the Philosophia.

The day of her arrival
Hans Schneider laughed and cried,
And waited at the station
To meet his coming bride.
She came at last, and Schneider Stood by the station gate To greet his Wilhelmina, But not the other eight

Hans looked in some amazement. And Wilhelmina cried:
"Dot ish your tadder, childers,
Go stand hop mit his side."
Hans Schneider stood among them, Hans Schneiser storm.

As passive as a clam,
But in his soul he muttered:

"I no like dot, by tam."

Washington Critic.

My Cousin Bili.

I had gone down to the old place to see Cousin Bill Wheatly. Cousin Bill had staved there and worked the farm, and been all in all to grandmother and the rest, while I had grown to be a fine gentleman in the city-very fine in my own estimation, at least. And we were walking together along the green lane between a five acre meadow and the orchard, when we heard a scream.

"Gracious!" cried Cousin Bill. "That's ner! I know her voice. She's got frightened by the cows again. Hollo! I'm here! I'm coming! Don't stir! Up on the fence. I know," he added to me in confidential tones, "and right among the brambles."

"Who on earth is afraid of cows in this place?" I asked.

But Bill was gone, and in a few moments returned with a pretty girl on his arm. The wind had blown her hair about, and the brambles had torn her muslin dress, but there was an air about her that I did not expect.

"Miss Mason, Cousin Henry, said Bill. "Mr. Hunter, perhaps, I ought to say; but I hope you'll be Lilly to him and he Henry to you, after a while. He's a in just as you banged the door, and then great favorite of mine, Lilly, and has got and there we made up. She discovered

Miss Mason said a few gay words to me, and we walked home together. She kept his arm, and they were evidently engaged; and I felt as though there could be nothing more, unsuitable. A city lodger of my aunt,s I supposed, for she was very elegant. However, I found out after a while that she was only the schoolmistress. Her father had been one of those rich men who fail and leave their children penniless. And she had had every advantage. Now she bore her reverses with dignity and sweetness. Perhaps the fact that Cousin Bill had plenty of money had caused her to engage herself to him. I could think of no other reason except that she had not yet met me.

To my taste, she was the prettiest girl I ever saw, and I felt that Bill stood between me and my happiness. Besides being a beauty, she was accomplished, this girl. She sang, painted, danced. She would have made a suitable wife for the eminent lawyer I hoped to be-for a judge, if I came to that. She was thrown away on a plain farmer. And thereupon I began to say to myself, "If I tried, I might cut Bill out even yet. If I do, so much the better."

And, with this for my metive, I stayed at the hospitable farm for weeks, and Bill and his good mother never guessed what I was at.

At last I was obliged to go back to the city. How far I had succeeded with Lilly Mason I did not know; but I was resolved to put it to a test before I went. And on the last evening-Bill having vanished somehow-I contrived to get his sweetheart to go with me into that very lane behind the orchard where he had introduced us, and there, in the twilight, told her all I felt. "I love you, Lilly," I said. "Do you love me?

For answer, she burst into tears. "My darling, why do you weep?" asked.

She sobbed violently.
"Don't ask me," she said. "Leave me.
Never speak to me again. I am engaged to your cousin, to Mr. Weatherly. Did you not guess as much?"

"If I did," I answered, "I did not feel that that should prevent me from speaking. It is a most unsuitable match. You are throwing yourself away. I can place you in a position more suitable to you. You could help me to fight my way upward. I believe you like me. Can you say you do not?"

Lilly turned her face away.

"Do not talk of liking," she said. "My word is pledged—my promise given. If I have forgotten it sometimes, I remember it now. William is very good to me. I will marry him. At least I shall learn to love him. Go; forget me. I will forget you. I will do my duty."

What next I should have said I do not What next I should have said I do not know. A voice fell between us from over the stone fence against which I lent. On the other side stood my Cousin Wheatly, tall and pale as a ghost; and the words he uttered were these: "Duty! It's any body's duty not to marry unless she loves. If you don't love me, Lilly Mason, I don't want you. If you love Cousin Henry Hunter, why, marry him. I wouldn't stand in your way for a kingdom."

His voice was broken. He was sobright. You would be throwing yourself away on me—a country fellow without looks or education. Good-bye. I shan't bother you any more, Lilly."

He walked away. Lilly was gone when I turned to look at her. In the morning I sat alone at the breakfast table with Bill's mether. She evidently knew the story. Her hospitality was grim instead of friendly. She told me that William had been intending to visit a distant city for some time, and had "set off" early that morning.

I went over to the school before the train started. Lilly Mason was alone behind her desk, her eyes swollen with behind her desk, her eyes swollen with tears. The scholars had not yet arrived. "Dearest," I said, "do not weep. I am more in love with you than ever, and

But, to my astonishment, Lilly Mason straightened herself up, and pointed to the door. "How dare you come here?" she said, indignantly. "Leave me! Love you, indeed! I simply hate you, Mr. Hunsince you love me-"

And she meant it. 1 walked away in astonishment and fury, and went back to my work in London.

I felt that I had spoiled poor Cousin Bill's happiness, and my own also. And I had made a pretty mess of it! Already I was out of love with a girl who had ordered me out of doors, and told me she hated me.

Of course I never saw anything of the people at the farm, or heard from them. And when, finally, I married a charming girl, I felt that my conscience would be much easier if it were not for the memory of the wrong I had done Ceusin Bill.

I dared not send cards to any one down at the eld place. I felt they all hated me, though ten years had passed since my visit there.

What, then, was my surprise when one day a tap came at my office door, and a pleasant face looked in.

I started to my feet. 'Number eleven!" I cried.

"Yes," said Cousin Bill's voice; "I saw your wedding notice, and came down to congratulate you in person. A good wife is a great blessing."
"Indeed, it is!" I said, humbly. "How good of you, Bill! How forgiving!"

"Not at all," said Bill. "I'd have come before, only I felt you might owe me a grudge. We sit and talk of you lots. How often I've thought of you as a poor, disappointed bachelor, all alone in London! And she has said, over and over again, 'Well, I hope he's got a little over it; but I sha'n't ever forget his face when we parted.""

"Your mother said that?" asked I. "Oh, no; not mother!" replied Cousin "She sent her compliments, and some of her best cheese. Cheese is always handy in a house, she says, and for you to come down this summer and see us all. It was wife said that-Lilly, you

"Lilly!" I cried. "Then you married her, after all?" "Did you not know it?" asked Bill. "Why, we thought you were taking it hard all this time. Yes. I didn't start early, as I expected; and I thought I'd go over to the school and tell her I bore no grudge; and I was looking in at the back window when she said she 'hated you,' and told you to 'go'; and I stepped in just as you banged the door, and then to be a wonderful lawyer in London. Eh, it was, after all, more your clothes than and-well, I was only too glad to let all be as it was, if she would. And we're very happy and comfortable, and have four children-two boys, a girl, and a baby, another girl. Then he shook hands with me again. and I took him home to dinner.

MRS. CLEVELAND'S CONQUESTS.

The fact of Mrs. Cleveland's singular popularity is of no recent date, as some are inclined to imagine, but extends back to the time when she was a student at Wells college. I recently met a young fellow who was at Cornell at the same time that the president's young wife was at Wells, where, for several years, her roommate was Miss Kingsford, of Oswego, who recently visited her just before the close of the season. There has always existed a friendly feeling between the two colleges and, at the time when Mrs. Cleveland was a student, it was an event of frequent occurrence to make up jolly parties, duly champeroned, of course, and go over to attend some jolification at Cornell. On these occasions Mrs. Cleveland was the leading spirit, and had half the young fellows at the college ready to lay their empty hands and full hearts at her feet, figuratively speaking. This admiration was appreciated to the full by the beautiful young girl, who graciously acknowledged her bellship, without, however, giving en-couragement to any particular one, for even at that time it was known that eventually she would marry Grover Cleveland, of whom she frequently spoke in terms of admiration. Not a few of the young fellows quite lost their heads over the belle, vowing eternal fidelity to her beauty and attractions. - Baltimore

GEOGRAPHY AT WASHINGTON.

The President-Daniel, I understand that paper published in Portland says no democrat can carry that state now that I have pocketed the river and harbor bill. Where is Portland? Daniel-It's in Maine, sire.

"No; there must be two of them, because I see all the Portland, Me., pa-

"I sm sure it's not in New York state, "So am I. This having two towns of the same name is a nuisance, don't you think so, Daniel?" "Indeed, I do, sire."

"Well, hunt up the other place and we'll have its name changed to Lamont." -[Omaha World.

A JOKE SOMEWHERE.

Mistaking the door, young Mr. Cipher walked in the dentist's office instead of the doctor's. "Doctor," he groaned, "I'm in a bad shape. My head aches all the time and I can't do anything with it." "Yes, yes," said Dr. Toothaker, cheerfully. "I see; big cavity in it; must be hollow; you'll need to have it filled." And seeing his mistake, young Mr. Cipher apologized and went out and told it all around as a capital good joke on the dentist. "Rypotette." Rypotette. bing.
"It's a blow," he said, "but he's on the dentist.—[Burdette.

THE NEW IAWS.

[PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.] An Act Defining Vagrants and Providing a Penalty for Vagrancy.

Be it enacted by the legislative as-sembly of the state of Oregon: SEC. 1. All idle or dissolute persons who have no visible means of living or lawful occupation or employment by which to earn a living, all persons who shall be found within the state of Oregon harrises the means of support is public begging the means of support in public places or from house to house or who shall procure a child or children so to do, all persons who live in or about houses of ill fame or of ill repute, shall be deemed vagrants and upon conviction deemed vagrants and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than $20.00 nor more than $250.00, or by imprison-ment in the county jail not less than ten or more than twenty-five days or both in the discretion of the court.

in the discretion of the court.

SEC. 2. When any person is committed to the county jail under a sentence for vagrancy, it shall be the duty of the sheriff of said county to cause said vagrant to be employed at hard labor during eight hours of each day of said period of sentence upon any public property or works belonging to said county, or in any other work for the county.

SEC. 3. The sheriff shall have authority in his discretion to cause said vagrant ity in his discretion to cause said vagrant to be worked upon the public streets of the town or city in which the county jail is situated, after first obtaining authority from said town or city so to do.

Sec. 4. In the case provided for in Sec. 3 of this act, said sheriff shall have authority to leave said vagrant in charge of the marshal, police, or other proper city officer during the hours he is being so worked for the purpose of more fully carrying out the objects of this law.

SEC. 5. It shall be the duty of the sheriff to, at all times, have an iron ball and chain securely fastened to the leg of said vagrant while employed at hard labor as provided in this act. Sec. 6. Justice courts shall have jurisdiction of the charge of vagrancy. Approved February 21st, 1887.

WATTERSON TO CLEVELAND.

O. thou Inevitable! Thou Predestinated! Thou Presbyteri-but hold, I would Not call religion into politics-Thou necessitated Destiny, I shall work for thee, But I shall slug thee in the neck Between times

With a bag of words! And I am one of the many thousand similar Kickers! Although men can not control Their Destiny,

They may damn it, With a big D, And Democrats as is Democrats Spell their name With a big D; Which gives us two of a kind-Not much, perhaps, But something! Thou art the Unavoidable! The certitude of '88! And why should we Lose that which we have gained By nullifying the means By which we gained it? We shouldn't, that's why;

And we are not going to! The bitterest medicine Oft brings us sweetest health, And when it comes to taking Bitters, A Democrat needs but small Coaxing! That's my opinion, and, tho' There is in my name the sound Of that which we do seldom take, I may be relied upon as a Representative Democrat! O, thou Political Necessity, Go on! Do as you please! We don't like it, but we've got To stand it, Because a half-loaf Is better than no bread, And we did starve before you Gave us that! Doggone the luck!

-[Washington Critic. LENG STATION ITEMS.

Jessie Smith has bought a new dog

There was a surprise party at Wm. Spicer's last Friday night. George McKnight starts east of the mountains this week. W. V. Baltimore, wife, and daughter.

of Albany, spent Sunday here. Abe Teedy und family have moved from Sweet Home to near this place.

Farmers have done but little seeding here yet. Fall wheat looks very well. Mr. Peebles, of Nebraska, is visiting at his brother's, David Peebles, near There is a good deal of dissatisfaction about the new mail route on the narrow Your correspondent does not admire the course the Statesman is taking in regard to the prohibition question. Mrs. Flora Funk, of this place, commenced teaching the spring term of school at the Marshall schoolhouse yes-

One of Mr. Dixon's teams ran away and one of the horses struck against the corner of a building and mashed his head and broke one of his shoulders. It is considered doubtless if he will ever be of any account hereafter.

April 5th, 1887.

THE FRUIT PROSPECT.

W. L. Buck, of Vacaville, has just returned from a tour of Placer, Sacramento, Yolo and Solano counties, and reports the prospects for a full crop never better than appearances in the above named counties indicated at present. "In So-lano county we have had," he said, "all suppose are praying for it, and the good Lord will have to decide between us."

SILVER WEDDING.

MACLEAY, April 5. EDITOR STATESMAN:-The great flood of 1862 was not the only distinguishing feature of that memorable year; it was also noticed, se far as the Willamette was concerned, for the great number of marriages contracted. This was especially tros of the Waldo Hills.

I remember now how I looked forward then with eager anticipation to the time when we could celebrate the silver wedwhen we could celebrate the silver wed-dings of the happy couples, and fairly revel in one giddy round of social gather-ings, dances, cake, moonlight nights, and and pie. The joyful year has finally come, and the latest social festival was enjoyed at the residence of ex-Sheriff Blair Forward on Saturday last, April 2, which was the 25th anniversary of his marriage to Miss Frances Colby, only daughter of the late Hon. E. F. Colby.

They were married on April 2nd, 1862, in a house that still stands within two hundred yards of their present home, and have ever since been residents of Marion county. Mr. Forward is the owner of one of the finest farms in the Waldo hills, and is energetic and pros-perous. His brother Walter, once a citizen of Marion county, was a graduate from West Point in the same class with Gen. P. H. Sheridan; his sister was the wife of the late Judge Jeremiah S. Black of Pennsylvania, and his uncle Walter Forward was secretary of the U. S treas-ury under President Polk.

Blair, however, with the modesty that always characterizes him, never refers to these circumstances, and is living an unassuming life of contentment, just as though nothing of the kind had ever happened. He and his wife have evidently lived a happy life so far, and their greatest troubles seem to have been little ones, and not very many of them.

The presents donated by generous friends near home and in Salem were elegant and costly. Hon. Warren Cran-ston performed the marriage ceremony in "the presence of these witnesses," and the charming bride promised never again to present her husband with a buttonless shirt, nor to growl at such petty annoy-ances as wet stovewood. Blair's promises for the future were given, however, with such an evident bias of mental reservation as to create a feeling of well grounded suspicion of their sincerity.

After wishing them many returns of the day, and dancing until 12 o'clock, the visiting friends took their departure, but never forgetting for a moment that their near neighbor Henry Jones was also married in the early summer of 1862; hence more music, pie, and stuffed chicken in the near future.

SAFE, SURE AND SPEEDY.

No external remedy ever yet devised has so No external remedy ever yet devised has so fully and unquestionably met these three prime conditions as successfully as Allcocks's Forous Plasters. They are safe because they contain no deleterious drugs and are manufactured upon scientific principles of medicine. They are sure because nothing goes into them except ingredients which are exactly adapted to the purposes for which a plaster is required. They are speedy in their action because their medicinal qualities go right to 'their work of relieving pain and restoring the natural and healthy performance of the functions of muscles nerves, and skin.

JUST WHAT THEY ALL SAY.

Hon. D. D. Haynie of Salem, Illinois, says he uses Dr. Bosanko's Cough and Lung Syrup in his family with the most satisfactory results, in all cases of coughs, colds and croup, and recommends it in particular for the little ones. Sample bottle 5 cents at Geo. E. Good's.

500 REWARD.

For a better or more pleasant remedy for the cure of Consumption, Cough, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough, and Bronchial troubles than Green's Lung Restorer, Santa Abbie, the Abietine and Mountain Balm Cough Cure. Every bottle warranted by all druggists.

The majorn of the human body arise from a sisensed Liver. Simmons Liver Regulator has been the means of restoring more people to health and happiness by giving them a healthy Liver than any other agency on carth. APP THAT , OU GET THE CENT ...

ADMINISTRATRIX NOTICE.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT THE undersigned has been appointed by the county court of Marion county, Oregon, administratrix of the estate of John Grier, late of Marion county, Oregon, deceased. All persons having claims against the said estate will present them with the proper vouchers within six months from this date to me for allowance, at my residence in Stayton, Marion county, Oregon. Dated March 23d, 1887.

DELILAH GRIER, Adm'r. of the estate of John Grier deceased.

TAREN UP.

Taken up Jan. 1, 1887, by the undersigned, living on Howell prairie, two yearling steer calves, one red and the other white with red ears, and somered on neck; each marked with a crop off right and swallow fork in left ear. SALEN, March 21, 1847.

TURBINE.

Pryspectures, Sonly or Lough Skin, hort, al decime amount by bad blood are required by this powerful, purifying, and vigorating medicine. Grout Enting Ultrapidy has a manifested in potency in pring Section, how Back, Boilin, Currences, Spring Process, Songar, logs bores and swellings, Software, or Thick well, and Emisages, Software, Spring Section, and Emisages, Singar, Spring Section, and Emisages, Singar, Spring Section, and Emisages, Singar, Spring Section, Spring Section, and Emisages, Spring Section, coin, and Eminaged Chamble. Send tonests in stamps for a large treaties, with colored plates, or, Skin Biscasses, or the same mount for a treaties on Scrotulous Affections. Crass State of Will Live, to boroughly cleans it by using Dr. Flored colden Heddeed Biscaspery, and good ligention, a faith skin, buoyant spines, vital strongth, and countries of constitution, vil is established.

which is Serofuleus Dictage of the Lunga, is promptly and certainly arrested and cured by this God-given remedy, if taken before the last stagm of the disease are reached. From its wonderful power over this terribly fatel disease, when first offering this now one-chrated remedy to the public, Dr. Pirror thought seriously of calling it his "Consumption Cure," but abandoned that name as too limited for a medicine which, from its wonderful combination of tonic, or strengthening, alterative, or blood-gianning, anti-hilicon as too limited for a medicine which, from its wonderful combination of tonic, or strengthening, alterative, or blood-eleansing, anti-bilious, pectoral, and nutritive properties, is unequaled, not only as a semedy for consumption of the hungs, but for all fif you feel dull, drowny, debilitated, have sallow soler of skin, or yellowish-brown good on face or body, frequent headache or disabnes, had tasta in mouth, internal heat or chills, alternating with hot flashes, low spirits and gloomy borebodings, irregular appetite, and coated tongue, you are suffering from Indiagonation, Dysponian, and Torpid Liver, or "Billowsman." In many cases only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, for Flores's Golden Hedical Discovery has no equal.

CHRONIC DISEASES

For Weste Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Shortness of Breath, Bronchitis, Severe Conghe, Communication, and kindred affections, it is a sovereign remedy. Send ten cents in stamps for Dr. Pierce's book on Consumption. Sold by Bruggists.

PRICE $1.00, FB. PSTTLES Verid's Discoursery Medical Accordation. Proprieton, 600 Main St., BURSALO, M. Y.

John G. Wright,

-DEALER -

-Onion sets, etc. General agent for -

WALLA WALLA GARDEN SEEDS

For western Oregon and western Washington

227 and 229 Commercial St., Salem, Or

MILLER BROS.,

- DEALERS IN-

FIELD, VEGETABLE and FLOWER SEEDS, Imperial Egg Eood, Garden Tools, Fertilizers, Etc., Etc.

209 Second street, between Salmon and Taylor, Portland, Oregon.
Send for our new catalogue.

Oregon Peach Bitters

A superlative tonic and appetizer. This medical beverage is warranted to be free from any injurious properties; works direct upon the torpid liver and boweis, stomach, kidneys and bladder; end excellent remedy for chronic diarrhea, cramp, colic, morning sickness, croup, cough, sore throat and loss of appetite. Manufactured at Aumsville, Marion county, Oregon.

Registered in patent office November 9th, 1886.

For sale by all druggists or H. Klas, proprietor, Aumsville, Oregon.

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT. In the matter of the estate of G. W. Peck, de-

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT THE administrator in the above entitled estate has filed his final account in said estate, and that Saturday, the 9th day of April, 1887, at 10 o'clock a. m. has been set by the Judge of the County Court to hear any objections that may be made to said account. The hearing will be had in the room of the County Court in the court house in Salem, Oregon.

Salem, Or., March 7, 1887.

J. C. JOSEPH

Salem, Or., March 7, 1887.

J. C. JOSEPH,
Administrator of the estate of G. W. Peck, de3 11-5w

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.

NOTICE IS HERBY GIVEN THAT THE Numbersigned has this day by order of the county court of Marion county, Oregon, been appointed administrator of the estate of William T. Eaton, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said estate are hereby notified and required to present them, with the proper vouchers, to the undersigned at the residence in said Marion county, eight miles south-east of Silverton, within six months from this date.

Dated at Salem, Oregon, April 5th, 1887.

MILES LEWIS, This fine all-purpose horse, will make the season at Ford's stable. Salem, on Fridays and Saturdays. Terms, $12, insured. Turbine took first premium at the last three state fairs.

A. B. GIBSON, Proprietor.

signed at the residence in said marion county, eight miles south-east of Sliverton, within six months from this date.

Dated at Salem, Oregon, April 5th, 1887.

MILES LEWIS,
Administrator of Estate of William T. Eaton, Deceased.

MXECUTOR'S SALE

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT FUR.

It suant to an order of the Hon. county court of the county of Marion, state of Oregon made on the 7th day of March, 1857, in the matter of the estate of Peter Kennel deceased, and in accordance with the directions of the last will and testament of said decedent, I, the undersigned executor of the said last will and jestament, will, at 16 o'clock a. m. on the 20th day of April, 1857, at the door of the court house in falem. Marion county, Oregon, sell to the highest bidder, for each, the following described premises belonging to said estate, to-wit:

The south west quarter of the south east quarter of section twenty-eight '28) in township six (6) south of range two (2) west, and the west half of the north-west quarter of section thirty-three (33) in township six south of range two (2) west, and the north-west quarter of the south-east quarter of said section thirty three (33) in ewaship six (6) south of range two (7) west, and containing in all one hundred and sixty and containing in all of the north-west quarter of section fifteen (15) containing forty (60) acres; and the west half of the north-east quarter of section fifteen (15) containing eighty acres more or less; and the west half of the south-east quarter of section ten (10) containing eighty acres more or less; and the west half of the north-east quarter of section ten (10) containing eighty acres more or less; and the west half of the south-east quarter of section ten (10) containing eighty acres more or less; and the west half of the south-east quarter of section ten (10) containing eighty acres more or less; and the west half of the south-east quarter of section ten (10) containing eighty (60) acres; and the fractional east half of the south-west quarter of section ten (10) contain-ing thirty two (32) acres and 93-100 of an acre. All of the four last described tracts of land in township eight (8) south of range three (3) west and the whole of said four described tracts of land containing 232 93-100 seres, and all of the aforesaid and herein described tracts of land situated in Marion county, Oregon, and the whole amount to be sold, amounting in all to 283 acres more or less. 283 acres more or less.

Executor of the last will and testament of Poler Vennel deceased. 4-1-5w

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit of the state of Oregon, for Marion county. Sarah M. Stevens, plff.) Millard Stevens, deft.

Millard Stevens, deft.)
To Millard Stevens the above named defend ant. In the name of the state of Oregon you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit, within ten days from the date of the service of this summons upon you if served within this county, or if served within any other county of this state, then within twenty days from the date of the service of this sum mons upon you, or if served by publication mons upon you, or if served by publication, then by the 13th day of June, 1887, that being the first day of the regular term of said court, following the expiration of the time prescribed in the order for publication of this summons: in the order for publication of this summons; and if you fall so to answer for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in said complaint, which is as follows, to wit: First for the dissolution of the marriage contract now existing between yourself and the defendant: second for the care and custody of the following named minor children, the issue of said marriage, to wit: Mary Stevens, Linnie Stevens, Charley Stevens and Nettie Stevens; third, for the costs and disbursements of said sant, and fourth for such other and further relief as to the court may seem just and meet with equity and cood con-

You are further notified that service of this summons is made upon you by publication of the same, once each week, for six weeks, in the Oregon Statesman, a weekly newspaper, which said order of publication was made by the Hon. R. P. Boise, judge of said court, on the 19th day of March, 1887.

HOLMES & HAYDEN,

seem just and meet with equity and good con-

SHERIFFS SALE.

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an execution, decree and order of sale duly issued out of the Hon. Circuit Court of the state of Oregon, for Marion county, and to me directed on the 21st day of March, 1887, wherein J. H. Settlemeir plaintiff, recovered a judgment and decree against T. W. Clark, Mary E. Clark, and I. R. Dawson, defendants; said judgment being for the sum of $305.20 in U. S. gold coin, and interest thereon at the rate of 10 per cent. per annum from the 14th day of February, 1887, and $25 attorney's fees, and his costs and disbursements berein taxed at $34.25, together with all accruing costs and expenses. I will with all accruing costs and expenses. I will sell at public auction on Saturday, the 23d day of April, 1887, at the court house door, in Salem, Marion county, Oregon, at 11 o'clock a. m. of said day, to the highest bidder for cash in hand, on the day of highest bidder for cash in hand, on the day of sale, all the right, title and interest, which the above named deft.'s, or either of them, had on or after the 15th day of February, 1884 (the date of said mortgage) in and to the following described premises to wit: All of town lot No. seven (7) in block No. three (3) in Settlemeir's addition to the town of Woodburn, in the county of Marion, state of Oregon.

Dated at Salem, this March 21st, 1887,

JOHN W. MINTO,

Sheriff, Marion county, Oregon.

EXECUTRIX'S NOTICE. Notice is hereby given that the last will and testament of A.C. Keene, deceased, late of Marion county, state of Oregon, has been by the county court of said county, admitted to probate; and that the undersigned is therein appointed said executrix thereof, without bond, and that said court has confirmed said appointment.

ment.
All persons indebted to the estate of the said A. C. Keene, deceased, are requested to make payment within three months. And sill those having claims against the same are hereby notified and requested to present them to me, with proper vouchers, at my residence, near St Louis, Marion county, Oregon, wihin six months from date hereof.

NANCY KEENE,
Executrix of the last will of A. C. Keene, deceased.

eased. Dated, March 21st, 1887.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.

TOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN TO WHOM IT NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN TO WHOM IT may concern that the undersigned, Henry E. Giesy, has been duly appointed by the county court of Marion county. Oregon, administrator of the estate of John Giesy late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said estate will present them duly proved to the undersigned at his place of business in Aurora in said Marion county within six months from the date hereof, and all persons indebted to said estate are requested to settle the same with the undersigned immediately at his place of business aforesaid.

Dated this March 26th, 1887.

3-25-5t

HENRY E. GIESY,

3-25-5t HENRY E. GIESY, Administrator of the estate of John Glesy dec'd.

FINAL SETTLEMENT.

IN COUNTY COURT FOR MARION county, Or-In COUNTY COURT FOR MARION county, Oregon. In the matter of the final settlement of the estate of J.W. McCaslin, deceased. Notice is hereby given that I have filed my final account as administrator of said estate, and that T. C. Shaw, Judge of said court, has fixed Morday, the 2nd day of May, A. D. 1887, at the office of said judge in said county, as the time and place for hearing objections to the allowance of said account and settlement of said estate and the discharge of said administrators from the duties of said trust. The hour set for the hearing is 10 o'clock a. m. of said day.

J. W. MEREDITH,

4-1-5t

Adm'r of said estate.

NOTICE OF WITHDRAWAL.

Notice is hereby given, in accordance with the provisions of sec. 4 of chap. XXIV of miscellaneous laws, (code of Orsgon, page 616,) that the National fire and marine insurance company of New Zesiand has ceased to do business in the state of Oregon, and that it intends to withdraw its capital therefrom, six months after the date of publication of this notice, as given below. riven below. THE NATIONAL PIRE AND MARINE INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW ZEALAND. by its attorneys,

HENRY E. WILLIAMS, (L.S.)
125-64m J. D. MACPHERSON. (L.S.)

3-25-63/4m GLENBROOK Will make this season at Fisher's stable, Salem, on Fridays and Saturdays, and at home the balance of the time. Terms $12 if paid within the season.

G. G. GLENN, TOTICE.-ALL OUSTANDING NOTES, BILLS N and accounts of the estate of F. E. Parmetiter deceased, have been placed in my hands for collection. All persons knowing themselves to be in anywise indebted to the above named erate will please call at the sheriff's office and ettie.

11 28-d w E. M. CROISAN.

L'STRAY.—A BAY MARE, WEIGHT ABOUT 1000, white spot in forehead, one white foot, from Salem, about February 18th. Finder please return to C. H. Monroe, Salem, and receive his charges.