Work on the new railroad now being built eastward from Seattle, is progress-ing rapidly. About 400 men are now employed, and more are being added to the list every day.

James Bussell, of Fairview district, Columbia county, W. T., was kicked in the face by a fractious horse Wednesday, badly cutting his lip and breaking his nasal bone, besides producing concussion of the brain, which caused him to lay in ess condition for some time.

Pendleton Tribune: The commissioners have awarded the contract to survey the diminished reservation to W. W. Caviness and W. T. Chalk, of this city. The Indians have made their selection and we understand that the portion they have selected is that part east of a line running north and south about four miles that of this city, thence up Wild Horse to the summit.

Everything possible is being done to recover the bodies of the dead miners at Nanaimo, yet unexhumed, and to quench the fire. The workmen are also using every means possible to prevent a recur-rence of the explosion. The gas in the mines is being drawn off through air pas-sages, etc., and it is said that the most danger at present is from loose rock fall-ing from the roof of the caves.

On Thursday night last the residence of A. D. Culps, in Comb's canyon, about five miles from Pilot Rock, Umatilla county, was barned to the ground with all its contents. A crew of sheep shear-ers were domiciled on Mr. Culp's premises, and in order to make sleeping room for them a number of articles were taken out of a shed and placed in the house. These were also consumed. Mr. Cuips timates his loss at about $800. He was nred in the State Insurance Company # $300.

Corvallis Gazette : Tiesday, about ten head of horses got into a field on Haman Lewis's place, near town, through a pair of bars which had been let down. Mr. Lewis went out to the field and started to drive them out, when they became frightened and ran toward a barbed-wire fence which surrounds the field. Five of the horses ran full tilt into the fence, and four of them were horribly mangled by the barbs, rendering them, practically useless. Three of the horses injured belonged to Mr. Davis, and were worth considerable money. Mr. Eglin places his damages at $400, which is said to be a reasonable sum, and will ask Mr. Lewis to make good the loss, as the accident was due to his carelessness in leaving his bars open, and also to the fact that the fence was built solely with wire without being surmounted by a board or rail, as required by law. If Mr. Lewis does not settle the matter, it will go into the courts.

A MODERN CASABIANCE.

The spirit of Casabianca is not dead at least it was not some sixteen years ago. Possibly, in these modern days, it is slightly mingled with mischief, as this story of war times indicates. An Irishman stationed at Pensacola, in 1861, was placed upon picket one night on the heach, with orders to walk between two points and to allow no one to pass with-out whispering the countersign. About midnight the Corporal with the relief discovered by the moonlight that the sentinel was up to his waist in water, the tide having set in since he was posted.

"Who goes there ?" "Relief."

He got his mascot and the other three gentlemen laughed at the superstition of their friend, who went on to tell how he had suffered for two years with twinges of rheumatism and how nothing seemed to do him any good. The one who had found the potato said that it served him right to suffer so. Any man who did not know enough to take the proper medicine ought to have the rheumatism, and have it bad, too.
