HOODLER SHARP'S JURY.

Attempts by Defendant to Delay the Progress of the Trial.

NEW YORK, May 23.—The work of selecting a jury for the trial of Jake Sharp was continued to-day. Eleven jurors were in the box, the twelfth seat being vacant on challenge by the defense. Herman Angel was accepted for the vacant chair. John E. Parsons, of the defense, said: "We suspend our peremptory challenges here, to await the course of the prosecution." "You are content with the jury as it is now constituted," said the judge, with a falling inflection. "No, we make no statement on that point; we simply suspend." "Well, swear the jury," said Judge Barrett. This caused a momentary panic among Sharp's counsel, but they were relieved after a moment, and challenged the eighth juror, F. G. Minshall. The work of filling his place then began.

CATTLE QUARANTINE.

New Mexico Prohibits the Importation of Stock from Certain States.

SANTA FE, N. M., May 23.—Governor Ross issued a quarantine proclamation to-day to guard against pleuro pneumonia, by advice of the New Mexico Cattle Sanitary Commission. It goes into effect June 1st. The reason given for issuing it is that pleuro pneumonia is epidemic in New York, New Jersey, Illinois, Canada, Scotland, and England, and the introduction of cattle from any of these places, and of cattle coming through Chicago and Kansas City stockyards, is prohibited, unless the cattle have not been within the states and countries or stockyards named during six months preceding their arrival in New Mexico, and have not shown symptoms of disease. Inspectors can require importers to show all the places where cattle have been within six months. The fee for inspectors is twenty cents per head.

O'Brien Will Go to Hamilton—Nationalists Organized.

NIAGARA FALLS, May 23.—Mr. O'Brien arose this morning so weak as to be almost unable to stand. He, however, insisted on leaving for Hamilton by the noon train. Toronto is not more than forty miles from Hamilton, and it is understood to-day that bodies of Orangemen intend to make a descent from the larger city upon Hamilton and join with local Orangemen in making an attack on O'Brien's life. The nationalists will be organized this time, and Mr. O'Brien approves the idea that they should be, and that outside aid should be sent to Hamilton, which will now probably be done by his friends in Buffalo and other Irish centers.

At the preliminary hearing yesterday the judge announced that the prisoner would be held in $10,000 bail, when a shot rang out, followed in rapid succession by two more. THE ENGLISH DERBY.

Royalty Attends the Great Race, Which is Won by Merry Hampton.

LONDON, May 25.—Vast crowds left London to-day for Epsom Downs to witness the great race of the Derby stakes. Four in hands were seen in great numbers. Ten of these turnouts left the metropolis alone, while the Prince of Wales, Lord Roseberry, the crown prince of Denmark and many other persons of distinction were present. The course was slightly heavy. The Baron was the favorite in betting and was exercised this morning, appearing in grand form. The stables are backing Aintree and Merry Hampton. The weather in the forenoon was threatening.

The great race was won by Merry Hampton, the Baron was second and Martley third. Merry Hampton was ridden by Watts, the Baron by Canon, and Martley by F. Bartlett. At the last betting was 11 to 1 against Merry Hampton, 5 to 4 against the Baron, 10 to 1 against Martley, 7 to 1 against Eiridsport, 12 to 1 against Aintree, 22 to 1 against Blanchland, 50 to 1 against Grandison, 50 to 1 against Porcelain, 100 to 1 against Saville and 200 to 1 against Considine, 200 to 1 against Shannon colt. When half the way up the stretch the Baron was in trouble. Merry Hampton won by four lengths.

A capital start was made. Porcelain and Shannon colt first showed in advance with Aintree and Eiridsport following and the Baron and Merry Hampton coming next. Porcelain soon dropped back, but Shannon colt kept the lead. Martley was last at the mile post. Eiridsport drew up and ran level with Shannon colt, and he was joined directly after by Blanchard, Grandison and Baron. The race was too hot for Shannon colt and he gave way. Aintree was now at the tail of the string and Blanchland and Eiridsport were three lengths ahead of Baron and Merry Hampton. On entering the straight canon road the Baron visibly gained and Blanchland and Eiridsport very soon fell back beaten. Merry Hampton then took the lead with Martley and Aintree heading the others. The Baron ran with gameness, but failed to reach Merry Hampton, who won by four lengths, with Martley two lengths behind the Baron. Aintree finished fourth and Eiridsport fifth. Shannon's colt came in last.
