News of the Week from Beyond the Rockies.

RESULT OF THE COLLAPSE.

The Failure of the Wheat Clique Causes Business Stagnation.

CHICAGO, June 20.—The keynote of today's trading may be found in one word, "stagnation." This is the calm following the storm. Houses that went down with the bursted wheat clique are completely tied up in a net-work of litigation, and weeks must elapse before some concern will be able to know where they stand, while months will be required to straighten out the affairs of large firms. The transactions of the clearing house of the board of trade aggregated $2,858,000 as against $1,764,000 the previous week.

WILL HAVE TO HANG.

The Supreme Court Refuses to Reverse the Maxwell Murder Decision.

ST. LOUIS, June 20.—Maxwell, alias Brooks, the murderer of Preller, is to be hanged. The supreme court refused to reverse the decision of the court below. The prisoner was unofficially notified by his attorneys yesterday, and was very much dejected, saying his trial was a farce. Brooks' counsel will now, it is said, move for a rehearing of the case, and if this fails, an attempt will be made to get it before the United States supreme court on the constitutional points. The date of execution is fixed for July 12th.

Kershaw Has a Receiver Appointed.

CHICAGO, June 20.—Charles J. Kershaw filed a bill in the superior court this morning against his partners, Dewey and Egleston. The bill asks to have the partnership dissolved, an order for accounting granted and a receiver appointed. The court appointed T. B. Wear receiver and he filed a $50,000 bond.

A Blank Book in Evidence.

NEW YORK, June 20.—In the trial of Jacob Sharp to-day Thos. H. McLean was recalled and produces the stock transfer book of the Broadway Surface road. It was perfectly blank.

Coffee Dealers' Assignment.

NEW YORK, June 20.—Arnold & Co., coffee dealers, made an assignment to-day.

UNCLE SAM IN CHARGE.

The Fidelity National Bank of Cincinnati, Closed.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, June 21.—Fidelity National bank closed this morning by order of the government through its representative, and a meeting of directors was at once called and is now in session. No means of ascertaining their action exist. The doors are closed and policemen within and without guard the entrance against every body except persons having business with the state deposit department of the bank. It has been ascertained that the liabilities of the bank, exclusive of the capital stock, are about $5,500,000. Individual deposits are about $2,500,000. The bank examiner announced that owing to the impairment of the bank's resources the government would take charge. John R. DeCamp, vice president of the First National bank, has been appointed receiver to wind up the business of the bank. It is now stated that the clearing house settlements for the past few days have shown an unusual drain on the bank's resources. Besides this many banks have kept their checks out of the clearing house as a favor.

Chinese Laundrymen Strike.

NEW YORK, June 21.—Over 400 Chinese laundry employes struck for higher wages yesterday. They wanted $4 instead of $3 a day and washers wanted $2.50 instead of $2. The bosses of the laundries accepted the terms through sheer necessity.

Change in Princeton College.

PRINCETON, June 21.—The board of trustees yesterday sanctioned additions to the curriculum of Princeton college which will make it in fact a university, though the name will not be changed at present.

Drowned in Lake Erie.

CLEVELAND, June 21.—During a squall on Lake Erie last night, the steam barge H. Walter capsized, and eight of twelve people on board were drowned.

Presidential Appointment.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—The president to-day appointed Joseph H. Walker, of Raton, New Mexico, to be register of the land office at Santa Fe.

FIDELITY BANK.

Its Collapse Due to the Chicago Wheat Deal.

CINCINNATI, June 22.—It is stated that Bank Examiner Powell on Monday afternoon demanded a statement from Fidelity National bank, and received one showing a balance on hand of $1,100,000 cash. When he called for a view of this money he was amazed at being shown a lead pencil memorandum reading, "Wilshire, Eckert & Co., $900,000, etc." Through the long list there was no collateral, no security whatever, and the officers were unable to make any explanation. Vice-president Harper concealed from the directors his connection with the wheat deal. It is said that he admitted yesterday that he did not go into wheat himself, but that he honored over-draft for Wilshire for $48,000 and then put in the rest to save that. He charges the whole break to the action of the Chicago board of trade making all wheat regular. Previous to the exposure Harper stated repeatedly that he did not know that he was in the wheat deal, and that he did not believe it was managed at all in Cincinnati, but conducted from California and Cleveland.

As the examination proceeds the cavernous deficit increases. It is now common talk that the liabilities will reach the stupendous sum of $6,000,000, while the assets dwindle in proportion. It seems a foregone conclusion that depositors will receive next to nothing. This is the general talk, but unofficial, and cannot be verified until the bank examiner makes his report. It is stated to-day that the memorandum which is substitute for collaterals, shows that Wilshire uses $1,100,000 of the bank's money and collaterals for other loans which were hypothecated in New York and elsewhere. It is the belief of some that Wilshire acted as agent for Harper in conducting wheat deals and is not really a borrower. There is talk of more arrests.

RAILROAD COLLISION.

A Shocking Wreck of Express Trains in Maryland.

HAVRE DE GRACE, Md., June 22.—This village was the scene of a terrible disaster about 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The Philadelphia, Wilmington & Baltimore depot and track, for several hundred yards, presents a horrible picture.

The express due here at 5:58 had left the station and run but a few yards when it was met by a congressional express from Washington, running at a high rate of speed, and a frightful wreck ensued. The fast express struck the baggage car of the south-bound train just as it crossed the switch below the depot and crashed into the parlor cars behind, overturning and demolishing two of them. No one in the north-bound train was hurt, but the south-bound train of six cars was full of passengers and nearly all were more or less injured, and Alexander Gantrom, of Washington, D. C., was instantly killed.

STILL ANOTHER.

The Southwestern Telegraph Company Organized.

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 22.—A Yankton special to the Pioneer-Press says the organization of the Southwestern Telegraph company was perfected there yesterday. Eastern capitalists are backing the enterprise. It is the intention to make Omaha the southern terminus of the system, with lines extending through Southern and Central Dakota and Western Iowa and north to the twin cities and Duluth.

Train Robbed in Michigan.

FORT HURO, Mich., June 22.—This morning five men boarded a Grand Trunk train at Fort Gratiot and held up the passengers, relieving them of their valuables. Three men have been arrested and more arrests are imminent.

Will Participate.

UTICA, N. Y., June 22.—President Cleveland and wife have written that they will participate in the centennial exercises of Clinton and the 75th anniversary of Hamilton college July 31st.

SILVERTON ITEMS.

Robert Skaife is dangerously ill at his residence on Water street.

T. R. Blackerby has commenced work on his new residence on Fir hills south of town.

A liberal picnic will be given in the city park on the 22nd. Let every body come and bring a well filled basket. Hon. S. Putnam, late of New York, will do the speaking. The services of the Silvertown Trombone band have been engaged. An excellent choir will also be on hand.

The first public concert given by the S. T. band came off at the M. E. church on the eve of June 4th, for the benefit of the Sabbath school. It is rather late to mention it, but I will do so now, if permitted. The concert opened by music by full band, "Day at Coney Island," it being a very difficult piece. It was rendered excellently and was highly appreciated. Following this grand selection was music by combinations of different band instruments such as trombone quartettes, clarinet duets, songs, solos, etc. The trombone quartette rendered a beautiful selection; representing various kinds of time. The quartette consists of Messrs. H. Q. Allen, Chas. Ramsby, Irwin and Ralph Geer, Mr. Allen showing that he is a master of the trombone as well as the clarinet. The concert closed with a selection by the full band which was perfectly rendered. All went home much pleased with the night's entertainment, the only fault being that the programme was too short.

BREKZY.

Silvertown, June 18, 1887.

GO SEE IT WORK.—Mr. David Early, having bought one of the New Reeves' Oscillating straw stackers from W. J. Herren, will attach it to his threshing machine at his farm near Macleay, on Monday, the 27th inst., in the afternoon of said day. Those wishing to see this machine tested in a practical way, will please be present at Mr. Early's farm at the time named above, and see a new straw stack built out of an old one.

VICTORIA'S JUBILEE.

A Brilliant Scene at Westminster Abbey.

DOING HONOR TO THE QUEEN.

The Royal Pageant one of the Grandest the World ever Witnessed-- Jubilee Notes.

LONDON, June 21.—The first day of the fifty-first year of the reign of Queen Victoria opened with perfect summer weather. Thousands of people who yesterday selected locations along the route of to-day's procession, in order to retain them occupied them all night. A steady stream of carriages and pedestrians poured constantly all night through the city in all directions towards West End. At 9 o'clock the line of the route was a compact mass of people. Everybody, despite the discomfort of crowding, manifested the utmost good humor. The scene at Westminster Abbey was most brilliant. Every seat was filled and every personage present was a distinguished personage. It seemed as if every locality the world over had sent one or more representative personages to do honors to England's queen. There was never probably in modern times assembled under one roof an audience so well and so brilliantly arranged. Every man present entitled to wear a uniform or decorations had both on. When this audience was all seated the scene presented was incomparable.

When the Marquis of Salisbury and Gladstone entered Westminster Abbey they were both loudly cheered. Many lords and ladies were so anxious to secure their positions that they came without breakfasting. It was a strange sight to see flasks and sandwiches exchanged in such a crowd and eagerly used by numberless aristocrats unable to withstand hunger or thirst. This business, when added to the hum, at times seemed irreverent even on Jubilee day in Westminster.

The line of procession from Buckingham palace to Westminster Abbey was as follows: From the palace portals along Constitution hill, Piccadilly and Regent street, Waterloo Place, Pall Mall, East Cockspurt, Northumberland avenue, Thames embankment and Bridge street to the abbey. The line of route was kept by nearly 10,000 troops, representing all the branches of the service, in addition to 600 boys from naval training ships who were drawn up at the base of the Nelson monument.

In addition to the military many thousands of police, both mounted and on foot, were on duty. A particular feature at the palace was that the two services were equally honored, the Guards lining one side of the roadway at Buckingham palace gates and on the other side the Blue Jackets were posted. The same services were also represented in like manner at the entrance to Westminster Abbey.

The first royal procession was composed of Indian princes. Punctually at 11:15 a. m. the queen in an open carriage emerged from the palace gates. At sight of her thousands of voices were lifted in cheer and applause, being accompanied by the music of many military bands stationed in front of the palace. The queen did not wear her state robes, but was dressed in black. Her carriage was drawn by eight ponies.

The prince of Wales, duke of Edinburgh and duke of Connaught, her sons, the crown prince imperial of Germany, marquis of Lorne, Prince Christian of Schleswig-Holstein, and Prince Henry of Battenberg, her sons-in-law and Prince Albert Victor, and George of Wales, Prince William of Prussia, her grandsons, were arrayed in full uniform beside the queen's coach as body guard.

When the people at the palace gates had shouted themselves hoarse cheering they continued to cry out, "long life to the prince and princess of Wales." The queen, as she left the palace, seemed to be in excellent spirits, and she smiled and bowed graciously to the people on every side. The queen's carriage was a large one, of chocolate color; the wheels were red and the royal arms in gold were emblazoned upon its panels. Red Morocco harness was used for the horses, which were otherwise decorated with royal blue ribbon. All the servants were in state liveries of scarlet and gold. Other carriages containing members of the royal family were of gorgeous character.

The procession slowly made its way until Wellington arch was reached and then the first introduction to London streets ensued. Emerging from Wellington arch the first to greet the queen were the convalescent patients and others at St. George's hospital, which was packed from basement to roof, seats having been erected for many thousands over the roof of the hospital.

A FRENCH JOURNAL ON THE JUBILEE.

PARIS, June 21.—The Journal des Debats, in an article on the jubilee celebration, says: "All cordially envy Englishmen, and would give a great deal could we ever be what they are to-day, a people mad with happiness and joy. This universal homage is paid, not only to the queen, but to the woman who has given an example of two great virtues of royalty, gravity and dignity. Her influence has been great and salutary, and her great merit is in so using her prerogative for the public weal that she has never been tempted to strain its exercise."

JUBILEE NOTES.

LONDON, June 21.—The press is requested to state that the number of congratulatory telegrams from public bodies and private individuals is so overwhelming that it is impossible to answer them individually. The queen is greatly touched and gratified by such expressions of loyalty and devotion from all classes of her subjects. On the advice of Lord Salisbury jubilee honors will be conferred on several liberal unionists, and new peers to be created in honor of the queen's jubilee will include Sir William Armstrong, Sir James McNaughton, McGarel Hogg, and Rt. Hon. Geo. Selater Booth.

FOREIGN.

THE QUEEN'S FEARS.

She is Alarmed Over the Report of a Dynamite Plot.

LONDON, June 16.—The queen became alarmed by reports that the police had discovered that dynamite plots had been arranged to be carried out during jubilee week week. The home office authorities were angry because the police disclosed the information about the existence of plots and called upon them for explanation. The police said they made the matter known in order to deter desperados from carrying out any plots which they may have formed.

Royalty and Buffalo Bill.

LONDON, June 16.—The Princesses of Wales, family, and scores of members of foreign royalties attended a private exhibition of the Wild West show this morning. All rode in the Deadwood coach, the Princess of Wales sitting on the box, Col. Cody driving. Grand Duke Michael of Russia and Prince George of Wales rode horses belonging to the company, and made some good shots at break-neck speed.

MAY BE DYNAMITE.

A Passenger on the Adriatic to Be Examined.

DUBLIN, June 17.—The customs authorities at Queenstown in examining the baggage of passengers of the steamer Adriatic had their suspicions aroused regarding the contents of a wooden box belonging to a passenger named Peter Coy. In it were found a number of packages which contained a substance that looked like an explosive. It was decided therefore to arrest Coy and hold him pending the analysis of the contents of the packages. Coy protested against his detention in Bridewell. He says a friend of his in America gave him a box of explosives to take to him at Roscrea.

THE IRISH EDITOR.

O'Brien is Enthusiastically Greeted on His Arrival at Queenstown.

DUBLIN, June 17.—Wm. O'Brien, editor of the United Ireland, who arrived at Queenstown to-day, received an ovation. Scores of deputations from various places in Ireland were at the landing to greet him and escort him to the hotel. An immense crowd gathered in front of the hotel and O'Brien addressed them, alluding to his American experience and thanking them for their cordial reception. After receiving addresses from the deputations this afternoon he will go to Cork, where he will be tendered the freedom of the city.

Holland News.

AMSTERDAM, June 17.—Amnesty has been granted to all persons who were concerned in the riots here in July last.

It is rumored that telegrams have been received from London ordering the Indian government to forward troops to the Afghan frontier. It is also said that orders have been issued for the completion of the railway line to Cadahar, and the extension of the Peshawar railway to Jumrood.

THE QUEEN'S JUBILEE.

Her Majesty Bows, Smiles and Appears Happy--Notes of the Day.

LONDON, June 20.—Three hundred peers and other prominent persons belonging to the Roman Catholic church have returned the tickets entitling them to seats in Westminster Abbey to-morrow during the jubilee services.

The city is already showing signs of being crowded in anticipation of to-morrow. Throngs on the streets are larger than at any time within recollection of the present generation. In some parts of the town there is a crush. Sight-seers impede traffic in the streets.

The queen this morning drove from the castle at Windsor to the railway station and came to London on a special train. She drove from the station here to Buckingham palace. Crowds of people lined the entire route and displayed the greatest enthusiasm. Her majesty appeared delighted at the loyalty exhibited and bowed and smiled in every direction.

Decorations with banners, mottoes and flags are progressing rapidly, and when done promise to eclipse anything of the kind ever before attempted in England. The police to-day made a thorough search of Westminster abbey as a precaution against dynamite outrages to-morrow. Two persons attempted to enter the abbey but were prevented by the police.

An illuminated address to the queen from British subjects, residents in Boston, Mass., will be formally delivered to her majesty this afternoon at Buckingham palace.

PHELPS CALLS ON VICTORIA.

The United States Ornament at London Has an Audience with the Queen.

LONDON, June 20.—The queen this afternoon accorded United States Minister Phelps a private audience at Buckingham palace for the purpose of allowing him to present President Cleveland's jubilee congratulation. The queen's demeanor toward him was very cordial. She expressed the warmest thanks for the president's congratulations.

WHAT THEY HAD ON.

The Clothes that Royalty Wore--Jubilee Honors in Various Places.

LONDON, June 22.—Among the dresses of the peeresses yesterday that of the duchess of Bedford was noted for softness and grandeur of color. It was of royal purple velvet, trimmed with antique Molinee lace. The duchess of Manchester wore a dress of white and gold moire, worked with gold thread and gray silk in arabesque design. The duchess of Roxburg wore a train of black broche gauze over white silk draped with black lace. The duchess of Southerlin and her daughter wore robes of broad striped satin and moire, draped with jetted gauze. The dresses of the ladies in waiting generally outshone those of the royal personages present.

A reception and banquet was given at the palace last night, the guests being limited to members of the royal families and diplomats. Minister Phelps was present.

JUBILEE HONORS IN VARIOUS PLACES.

LONDON, June 22.—British embassies in all European cities were illuminated in honor of the jubilee. At Madrid the Infanta Isabel and Spanish ministers, diplomats and statesmen attended a reception at the British embassy. Queen Christiana wired congratulations to Queen Victoria. MANCHESTER, June 22.—The Guardian's commercial article says: Business was suspended yesterday on account of the jubilee celebration and there was very little doing on Monday. ## PACIFIC COAST.

News by Telegraph from West of the Rockies.

DROWNING AT PORTLAND.

Fred. Roder, a Well-known Steamboatman, Meets a Watery Grave.

PORTLAND, Or., June 20.—Fred. Roder, a mate on river steamboats, in the employ of the O. S. N. and O. R. & N. companies for the past ten years, was missing this morning and circumstantial evidence showed that he was drowned. Roder was mate with Capt. John Wolf for years, and later with Capt. Gus Pillsbury on the Cascades boat. He is better known to all river men by a nickname, "Hans."

He was seen by a friend at the Gambirius Gardens about 6 o'clock last evening, "pretty well loaded," to use his friend's expression. About 11 o'clock, the watchman on the S. G. Reed, the Cascades boat, was surprised to find Roder on the boat, for he had come on so quietly as to be unnoticed. An attempt was made to have him go to bed, but he said he would stay out in the open air, and told the others to leave him alone, as he knew what he was about.

About 3 o'clock the watchman, while walking about, found Roder's hat lying on the deck. Going to look for his owner, he could not find him. Men were at work to-day dragging the river bottom in front of Ash street wharf, where the boat lay during the night, and the search for the body in the river proved successful in the afternoon. A grappling hook caught in the clothes of the unfortunate man, and the body was brought to the surface. It was taken at once to the coroner's office.

Roder was an unmarried man, and, so far as known, had no relatives in this section of the country, or any where else, with whom he was in correspondence, for he never received any letters or was known to write any.

PORTLAND'S CITY ELECTION.

The Fall Republican Ticket Elected, with Probably One Exception.

PORTLAND, Or., June 20, 10 p. m.—The city election passed off quietly. The vote was comparatively small. In the Second ward complete returns give for councilman: Forbes, republican, 595; Cole, democrat, 236. Treasurer: Monastes, republican, 529; Thompson, democrat, 320. Police commissioner: Cardwell, republican, 630; Keller, democrat, 250. The returns from other wards show undoubtedly the election of the full republican ticket with good majorities, with the possible exception of councilman from the First ward, where the vote will be close. The vote will probably be all counted by 11 o'clock.

RAILROAD ELECTIONS.

The annual meeting of the Oregon Railway & Navigation Co. to-day re-elected the old board of directors and ratified the lease to the Union Pacific. The Oregon Improvement Co. voted the issue of two million dollars additional preferred stock. The Northern Pacific Terminal Co. elected the old board of directors. The Oregon transcontinental meeting adjourned till to-morrow.

PACIFIC SUBMARINE CABLE.

The San Francisco-Australia Cable to be Pushed to Completion.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 20.—Hon. Audley Coope of Tasmania, managing director and negotiator of the noted Pacific submarine cable arrived in this city yesterday direct from London. Mr. Coope is a member of the legislative council of Tasmania. Also council for Hawaitia. About a year and a half since there was a proposition looking to the construction of a submarine cable to San Francisco from Australia via the Fiji and Sandwich Islands. A subsidy was wanted, however, from the United States government and as nothing could be secured in this way the projectors concluded to trend northward to the Vancouver terminus of the Canadian Pacific. "We will touch at all other before mentioned places in the Pacific," said Mr. Coope in an interview. "We have secured a substantial subsidy of $400,000 per year from the Canadian, Hawaiian and Australian governments, of which Hawaii contributes $20,000 per year. The total cost of the Pacific submarine cable will be $10,000,000 and the project is now on an absolutely firm basis, and will be pushed through."

ALBANY NEWS.

An Accident that will Probably Prove Fatal--A Wool Pool Sold.

ALBANY, Or., June 20.—H. M. Searles and wife, of Scio, were riding in their buggy over a high grade near the Calapooia bridge, southeast of this city, this evening, and, when attempting to pass a team, ran off the grade. Both were thrown out. Mrs. S.'s leg below the knee shattered, and other injuries received. They were brought to this city, where medical attendance was rendered. Her recovery is considered doubtful. Mr. Searles is not seriously injured.

A lot of 16,000 pounds of wool, pooled by farmers near Albany, was sold to-day to A. S. Caben, a San Francisco buyer, for 25 cents per pound.

To be Sacrificed.

VALLEJO, Cal., June 22.—The cost of repairing Farragut's old flagship, the Hartford, is declared to be beyond the limit permitted by the law and she will be sacrificed.
