IN WALL STREET.

All the Big Operators are Gunning for Each Other.

NEW YORK, June 28.—The opening of the stock market was very exciting this morning. All big operators seem to be at war with each other. There has been no time since the days of Drew, Little and other old-time operators, that individuals made such efforts personally in the stock exchange as at the close yesterday and the opening this morning. Reading was a scene of greatest excitement, and bulls did their best to support it, but the attacks of the bears were too rapid and they were forced to give away. Manhattan was the weakest stock. It opened at 1 per cent. There were no buying orders whatever, and it declined 2 per cent. at a time and is now 8 per cent. from yesterday's close. Pacific Mail is also being raided successfully by the bears and is now down to 44½. The story is that all the big operators are gunning for each other.

A NEW CANNERY.

It is to be Erected and Operated at Yaquina Bay—An Important Enterprise.

ALBANY, Or., June 27.—A gentleman from Yaquina in this city to-day states that a company consisting of John McCracken of Portland, Allen Parker of Yaquina and John Priest, collector of customs at that place, has commenced preparations for opening an extensive fish canning establishment at Yaquina. Work was commenced on the building to-day, which is to be two stories high and thirty by sixty feet. It will be situated at the end of the Oregon Pacific dock between Yaquina City and Parker's mill. The establishment will have a capacity of 1200 dozen cans per day. It will can salmon principally this season but they expect next year to can deep sea fish also. The company has ample means and will go into business extensively, using the latest improved machinery. A tin shop will be started in connection with the business. They expect to put upon the market this season 480,000 cans, and the amount expended to do this they estimate at $20,000. An experienced canner has been secured from the Columbia. The fishing grounds of Yaquina offer a good field for such an enterprise. Allen Parker will be manager. Mr. McCracken returned to Portland from Yaquina to-day.

THE HIGH WATER.

PORTLAND, Oregon, June 27.—Snake river to-day marks 16 feet 4 inches above low water mark, a fall of 13 inches since Saturday. The Columbia at Celilo is 24 feet 1 inch above low water, which is a 4 inch fall since Saturday's report. The rise of 7 inches in the Columbia last Friday was felt here yesterday and the river is about 1 inch higher. To-day it has stopped rising and stands at 25.1 feet above low water mark. The gutters are so full along Front street that in some places it is difficult to step across them. These fluctuations may be expected to continue for a few days, but an higher water than at present in this city is improbable.

THE THREE MILE LIMIT.

An Important Decision in Reference to the Capture of Seals in Alaskan Waters.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—Advice received in this city from Sitka, Alaska, state that the trial of Captain Morrison, master of the schooner Laura, for killing five fur seals in Alaskan waters within the three-league limit of the shore, was held in the United States district court on June 11th. After the testimony of a number of witnesses, Judge Dawson addressed the jury. His honor said: That the preponderance of evidence was unquestionably in favor of the defendant, who could not be held liable for acts committed outside of the three-league limit, as the jurisdiction of the United States extended only that distance, with the exception of the waters of Behring sea, which was still an open question. His honor therefore directed the jury to return a verdict of not guilty and the defendant was liberated. The decision rendered is regarded as an important one. Advice further state that three English schooners seized for violation of laws against the killing of fur-bearing animals within the territory of Alaska will soon be sold by the marshal.

Pleads Guilty.

PORTLAND, Or., June 28.—At last Harry O. Bristone, the young Englishman with the unsavory record, has reaped the sown whirlwind. In the circuit court this morning he withdrew his plea of not guilty to an indictment for obtaining money under false pretenses by passing worthless bank checks, and pleaded guilty. He was ordered to appear to-morrow for sentence. There were altogether four indictments against him, but in consideration of his confession to the first District Attorney McGinn recommended the dismissal of the three others.

A Heavy Suit.

PORTLAND, Or., June 28.—In the circuit court this morning the Portland Savings Bank began suit against Thomas and Emma Huntington. The complaint alleges that on August 28, 1886, defendants made a note payable to the bank, $24,000, with interest at the rate of 10 per cent., and mortgaged certain property to the bank as security. The bank now sues to foreclose the mortgage to satisfy its claim of $24,000 principal, $1200 attorney fees and interest at the rate of 10 per cent. per annum from February 28, 1887.

The Canadian Pacific.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—It is currently reported in steamship circles that the Canadian Pacific has nearly completed arrangements with the Pacific Coast Steamship company to carry its trade from this city to Portland and other coast points to Vancouver and Victoria.

AN EJECTED PASSENGER.

He Sues the Northern Pacific Railroad Company for $2750 Damages.

PORTLAND, Or., June 29.—To-day in the circuit court James Poole began an action against the Northern Pacific railroad company on the following grounds: Poole alleges that on August 13, 1885, he tendered defendant fifty cents lawful money to pay his passage from Heilbrook station to this city, which is the customary charge. After having tendered the money, and while he was en route to this city on a moving train, an employe of the company demanded an additional 25 cents. Poole declining to pay that sum, the above employe and a brakeman assaulted and forcibly ejected him from the train, claiming that he was injured in the sum of $2500 by the conduct of said servants of defendant.

The complaint is based upon the ground that the demand of 25 cents to the usual charge was more than 4 cents per mile to be traveled by Poole, and that by making the demand defendant willfully violated one of the laws of the state, entitled: "An act to regulate the transportation of passengers and freight by railroad corporations," approved February 20, 1885. Plaintiff sues for an additional $250 for counsel fees.

ALBANY NEWS.

The Two Libel Suits Dismissed—Other Court Items—The Round-houses.

ALBANY, Or., June 29.—The libel suit of George Rogers, editor of the Salem Lance, for publishing an article reflecting upon the character of O. T. Porter, was dismissed in the circuit court to-day.

George Keoney, convicted yesterday of an assault on the person of Daniel Rumbough, was fined $100 this morning. The libel case of W. R. Boon, editor of the Oregon Siftings, of Portland, has been before the grand jury, and they returned not a true bill.

Not a true bill was also returned in the case of Della Lord for keeping a bawdy house in this city, and Geo. Stevens, of Sweet Home, for perjury on his home-stand entry.

The contract for brick and construction of the Oregon Pacific round-house in this city will be let at Corvallis to-morrow.

SUICIDE BY DROWNING.

John Rottner, Disabled with Life, Takes a Final Plunge.

PORTLAND, Or., June 29.—Information was this morning lodged with Corner DeLin that last evening a man, whose name is given as John Rottner, a bankrupt saloon keeper, whose place of business had been on Fifteenth and B streets, committed suicide last night by drowning. He was seen at Sherman and Water streets to throw off his hat and coat, and with the rest of his clothes on to plunge into the Willamette river, never rising again. Acquaintances of the deceased attribute his act to domestic and financial troubles. At noon to-day the remains were recovered by means of grappling irons, in twelve feet of water, and removed to the morgue. Coroner DeLin held an inquest, beginning at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

DISEASED HEATHENS.

San Francisco Officials Put on Their Guard by Smallpox Scare.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—Since the Chinese leper was discovered at San Diego, the steamship companies have become very cautious, and keep close watch on the movements of Chinese about their vessels. It has not been customary to examine individuals of the race seeking passage from one coast point to another, but now the medical men of the steamers station themselves by the gang plank and make observations of those who go aboard. It was thought that the San Diego leper was probably smuggled on board the Queen of the Pacific and brought to the city, but it appears he was not.

The man arrested last week on suspicion of being Pete Olsen, the murderer, proved to be the wrong man, and he was discharged Saturday. Sheriff Kinney, of Idaho, received a telegram from the sheriff of Napa county stating that the photograph sent was not that of Olsen and he could safely be turned loose. During the past week four men answering the description of Olsen have been arrested, one at Roseburg, Oregon, one at Harney valley, Oregon, and one at Tombstone, Arizona, while at last accounts Sheriff Taylor, of Bingham county, Idaho territory, and posse were pursuing a man whom they were sure was the Napa murderer, while Seattle has recently turned one loose.

It is stated in the article that the pope has notified the nuncio at Vienna he does not object to present occupants of sees, but that he does object to the way in which the prelates are transferring the revenues of some of the bishops.

MANNING DEFENDS WALSH.

The Cardinal Stands Up for the Irish Bishop, and Taffys Him.

LONDON, June 29.—Cardinal Manning writes to the Times protesting against its circulation of the statement from Rome that the Irish mission of Mgr. Parsico and Mgr. Gualdi has been revoked at the instance of Cardinal Manning and Irish Bishop Walsh, of Dublin, and branding the latter two as active promoters of separatist intrigues. The cardinal says: "I gladly unite myself with the Irish Bishop Walsh. He is but slightly known in England, except in the descriptions of those who are fanning the flames of animosity between England and Ireland. I am known in England, both to ministers of the crown and to the leaders of the opposition, and I will leave it to them, who well know my mind, to answer for me; and I know the mind of Archbishop Walsh and will answer for him. We are neither intriguers nor separatists." The Times, in an editorial, excuses the first charge, saying that it had simply reproduced the dispatch from Rome. It assures the cardinal that if it would judge Archbishop Walsh by his own written and spoken words, he was, in the very strict sense of the word, a separatist. It was sorry if it had been led to believe that Cardinal Manning was a warm supporter of Gladstone's separatist policy; but if the facts were so peculiar, no interpretation of its language could alter them.

DULL FOR MANUFACTURERS.

Lessened Production Does not as yet Increase Prices.

MANCHESTER, June 29.—The Guardian's commercial article says: Business yesterday was light, despite the lessened production. Altogether, the day's experience encourages perseverance. The movement, which is spreading, slackens the demand for yarns for home consumption and indicates the current supply is abundant. Offers for India staples do not improve. Native dealers are less inclined to purchase than last week, even at low rates. For minor foreign markets there is some demand; it does not increase. The efforts of producers to get better prices in consequence of advance in cotton succeed but poorly, although yesterday's business indicated an increase in spirit and endurance. Bundled yarn for Japan is in slightly improved demand, and there have been a few purchases for China. For India and other foreign markets, inquiry is poor.

EASTERN.

FORCED TO THE WALL.

Jay Gould and Russell Sage Finally Down Cyrus W. Field.

NEW YORK, June 29.—In regard to the sale of the block of 50,000 shares of Manhattan stock by Cyrus W. Field to Jay Gould the Times says: "Jay Gould and Russell Sage are triumphant. Cyrus W. Field's scalp has been taken. Field made a brave fight, but did not realize until the end came that he was to be struck down in the very course of his friends. The terrific tumbling given Manhattan stock settled all questions as to the purpose of the precious pair, and convictions thus formed were made indisputable when early in the panicky time of Friday one of Field's personal brokers had to go begging around the street for an extension on his contracts. No hint of this has been public. Had it been announced during the troublous scenes of the stock exchange a sweeping panic could not have been stayed. It is a generally accepted belief that Field has been obliged to seek Gould's favor, swapping a big block of Manhattan stock for needed money. Fifty thousand shares of this stock, it is stated, have been given up by Field. The first quoted price was $1.25, but before business closed it generally passed on the stock exchange that Gould had been obliged only to pay ninety cents a share for 5,000,000 he had taken. Probably the average cost of this stock to Field was close on to $1 per share."

YELLOW FEVER.

Extremely Malignant Type of the Disease at Key West.

CHICAGO, June 29.—Information has been received of eight additional cases of yellow fever developed during the last few days at Key West, Florida, evidencing the rapid spread of the disease. It is now beyond the control of the health authorities. The character of the disease is very fatal. Out of forty-six cases to-day, nineteen have died.

The New York Wheat Market.

NEW YORK, June 29.—The wheat market at present is in a very peculiar position, due wholly to manipulation, both here and in the West. The strangest part of the situation was that there was no excitement. June delivery advanced fully two cents per bushel, based on a covering by the "shorts" last evening. The ruling price was 92½ cents per bushel, and up to noon to-day 99 cents was reached with very little trading. July sold off a trifle, where later months show a slight gain. Speculation, generally speaking, is very moderate.

THE TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.—The legislative hall in the capitol building is being placed in readiness for the state teachers' association to be held here next week. The pictures of the governors will be hung on the side walls of the room, while the ends will be decorated with 500 specimens of Oregon work from the Portland public schools. Indications are that about four hundred teachers from different parts of the state will be in attendance at the association.
