

TELEGRAPHIC SUMMARY.

Sept. 11. Jacob Sharp's condition is worse. The emperor of China is soon to be married. The Mitchellstown fight has caused great excitement throughout Ireland and England.

Sept. 12. O'Brien has been taken to jail. Gov. Bartlett, of California, died at 5 p. m., Sept. 12.

Secretary Whitney is going to test a dynamite gun, on the 20th. The postoffice at Glad Tidings, Clackamas county, has been discontinued.

In the commons, Gladstone followed Balfour in debate, and denounced the government.

Some idiot on the Chicago Daily News has tried to start a presidential boom for Senator Farwell.

Preparations for the constitutional centennial are progressing finely, at Philadelphia. The celebration occurs on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday.

Patrick N. Halloran, a member of the Washington territorial legislature, was murdered in his bed, near Seattle. It was the result of a neighborhood feud.

Archbishop Lynch says Dr. McGlynn's case is purely ecclesiastical, and not political, and his excommunication arose from his refusal to obey orders of the holy see at Rome.

Sept. 13. The third annual meeting of the National Editorial association convened at Denver.

Damage by the Arizona floods is now found to be much greater than at first supposed.

Fire destroyed the residence of George Black near Jacksonville. There was no insurance.

Commissioner of Agriculture Colman says his experiments in making sugar from sorghum have met with great success.

Eight hundred members of the national party marched to the palace at Sofia, Bulgaria, and cheered Prince Ferdinand.

Rebellion is seriously talked of everywhere in Winnipeg and Manitoba, owing to the arbitrary conduct of the dominion government.

The Freeman's Journal says the cell in which Editor O'Brien is confined, at Cork, is but nine feet long and four feet wide, barely lighted, and but little better than a "black hole."

A PUP REBUKED.

The Rev. David Updegraff preached in the morning from no text. His remarks were designed to impress the audience with the necessity of relying upon the Holy Ghost for guidance. To do this, he said, it is necessary to get rid of creature activity. It isn't so easy to do this. Mr. Updegraff once knew of a dog that had been brought up in a Quaker family where he had noticed that the family always bowed a minute in silence a few minutes before eating. So the dog got in the same habit, and would always bow his head before eating. By and by another dog appeared on the scene. This dog had not been brought up in a Quaker family, and so, while the first dog was saying grace, the second dog was gobbling up the food. The first dog would never be tempted by the loss of his meal to disregard his early training. As soon as grace was over, however, and he became conscious that there was no more dinner for him, he uttered a growl, made a spring at the irreligious pup that had cheated him and shook the life nearly out of him.—(Philadelphia Times).

THE QUESTION SETTLED.

A young man courted a young woman in Missouri, engaged to marry her and put upon her finger an engagement ring. Three months afterward he told the girl he had changed his mind, was in love with another woman and that he would not marry her. The young woman, with many tears and complaints at his treatment, returned the ring to her faithless lover, and then began a suit for breach of promise of marriage. The defendant claimed that by surrendering the ring the lady had released him from his promise. But the supreme court of Missouri decided that the surrender of the ring by the plaintiff, wrong from her by the actions of the defendant, could not be tortured into an agreement on her part to rescind the contract for marriage. All she could do was to accept the situation and seek for compensation in damages such as the law might give her. The supreme court of Missouri is clearly a level headed and sound tribunal.

A PROHIBITION CAMPAIGN.

It takes a prohibition campaign to show what the best citizens of a community think of each other. They think nothing of denouncing each other as "fanatics," "liars," "paid hirelings," and all that sort of thing. This style of argument leaves wounds that are never healed.—(Atlanta Constitution).

Do you ask me for my secret?

Why my teeth are nearly white? Why my breath is ever fragrant? And my gums are ever bright? My secret is ever told before—USE DOBSON'S. And nothing more. Take Ayer's pills and be cured. Misery is a mild word to describe the sufferings of body and mind, caused by habitual constipation. A moderate use of Ayer's pills will invariably regulate the bowels.

STATE AND TERRITORIAL.

La Grande now has waterworks, but no water.

A militia company is being organized at Joseph. Considerable building is being done in Joseph and vicinity.

Douglas county expects a hop yield of 12,000 bales. That was last year's yield.

Saturday a 6-year-old boy of G. E. Harsh, at Huntsville, fell from a horse, and dislocated a shoulder.

A few days ago F. O. Jones of Astoria killed a large cougar on the creek, measuring nine feet from tip to tip.

A man named F. N. Eldridge has been pronounced hopelessly insane at Waukegan, and committed to the asylum.

A mountain of iron has been discovered in the Yakima country, three miles from Cle-elum, a town on the Northern Pacific.

The Whitman county agricultural association meeting will be held at Colfax, beginning October 4th, and continuing five days.

The fifteenth annual fair of the Union County Agricultural Society begins on Monday, October 3d, and continues throughout the week.

The La Grande Journal learns that a grain elevator will be built in La Grande this fall, and that work upon it will be begun in a few days.

Hon. T. G. Owen has been detailed to muster in the militia company at Coquille City, which completed its organization last Saturday evening.

Trouble, it is said, is threatened between the sheep men and other stock men out on Sheep creek, in Wallowa county. No great danger imminent.

A few days ago a man working in the logging camp six miles above King's valley on the Luckiamute, Benton county, had a tree fall on him breaking his leg.

The surveying of the Umatilla reservation lands is progressing favorably. In a week or two work will be commenced on that portion allotted to the Indians.

The farmers in the vicinity of Zena, Polk county, are now through hauling their grain to the various warehouses, and are getting ready for putting in another crop.

Benton Leader: Hon. R. A. Irvine, agent of the O. P. railroad, last Saturday filed sixty deeds in the county clerk's office to land purchased for right of way along the line eastward.

Charles Meek, of Prairie creek, Union county, who was so seriously injured recently by having his skull fractured by being struck with a stick from a saw, has almost fully recovered.

Ashland paper: The United States topographical surveying parties will probably quit work earlier this fall than last, not on account of weather, but because of lack of funds.

Grant County News: On the heels of the extreme heat came a rain storm this week, when the atmosphere became so cold that stoves were in demand. Snow whitened the summits of the mountains.

Hon. Binger Hermann visited Coos bay Thursday and left Friday morning for the Stiuslaw county, says the Mail. Mr. Hermann is looking well and was warmly received by his many friends, who only regretted that his visit was so brief.

Coos Bay Mail: Wm. Elmer, of the Arcata, while working at the bunkers on Saturday last, undertook to manage a crank on a windlass where two men are usually employed, when the crank got away from him and struck him in the side, breaking two ribs.

News was received in Marshfield Monday that Indian Mac killed Indian Johnson near Randolph, Sunday night by cutting his throat. Johnson was one of the Indians suspected of being implicated in the murder of a white man on Dead Man slough, Coquille river, in early days.

Grande Ronde valley never looked more lovely than at present, says the Journal. Hundreds of fields covered with ripened grain, meadows as green as if in June, with numerous streams coursing their way through them, lend the ingredients for a view that can not be excelled.

Seals and sea lions, victims of William Arnold's unerring rifle, strew the beach below Elk river with their carcasses, says the Astorian. A traveler who passed Walsh's place a few days ago saw the body of one lying there that in life must have weighed 1400 pounds.

All the grading between the summit and Ashland will undoubtedly be completed before the rains come to interfere with the work, says the Ashland Tidings. Anything that may be caught unfinished will be in the nature of tunneling or rock work, which can be carried on advantageously in spite of wet weather.

Bunch Grass Blade: The roads are in excellent condition since the rain, and many plows have been started, but threshing has received a setback. The grass has started nicely, and would even now supply good pasturage for sheep, but the floods are all in the mountains yet. They will soon begin to come out.

An application has been made for a postoffice at the North Fork bridge over John Day river, near the line between Umatilla and Grant counties. The new postoffice will be named Dorman, and will be in Umatilla county. A large number of people have settled in that section in the last year or two, and many settlers are yet coming in.

Tens of thousands of people everywhere on the coast deal by mail with Weinstock & Lubin, 400-410 K St., Sacramento, Cal., a clear indication that their goods and prices are worth knowing about. The new Fall catalogue just issued (free) tells all about the new things in dry goods, clothing, household supplies, etc., and is such the finest book ever issued by this firm. Send for a copy by postal card, or otherwise, and see what California enterprise is doing.

MADE HIM SICK.

Resolute old lady, on the ferry—Young man, I wish you'd throw away that nasty cigar; it's making me sick.

Wavering young man, meekly compliant—Me, too.—(Brooklyn Eagle).

BORN.

CLARK—Near Salem, Saturday, September 10, 1887, to the wife of R. A. Clark, a boy.

EMERSON.—In this city, Tuesday evening, Sept. 13, 1887, to the wife of Pete Emerson, a daughter.

STRONG—On Friday morning, September 9, 1887, in South Salem, to the household of Amos Strong, a bouncing girl.

MARRIED.

SWAYNE—HALL.—At Spanish Hollow, Wasco county, Wednesday, September 7th, 1887, Mrs. Lizzie Hall to Jonathan Swayne.

Mrs. Hall was a former resident of Salem, and is a sister of Prof. Jory. Mr. Swayne is the second of the university graduating class of 1887 who has placed his neck in the hymeneal yoke. Both the contracting parties have many friends in Salem who wish them all the good fortune and happiness imaginable.

DIED.

COOPER.—At his home in this city, at 5 o'clock yesterday morning, Wednesday, Sept. 14, 1887, Frank Cooper. Deceased was born in Virginia, Dec. 30, 1836, and was a character of Salem.

Every body here knew him, and nearly everybody had a good word to say of Frank Cooper, the well known auctioneer. He was not a man calculated to become wealthy; but his strong forte was to make friends, and to do good to the poor. His hands, generous to a fault, were always open to relieve the poor and needy. He has been a resident of Salem for a great many years, and has been, at times, instrumental in bringing about many reliable improvements within and about the city. He was stricken down on Monday with an attack of apoplexy, from which he never recovered. His absence will be felt deeply by a host of friends. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias, which order will have charge of the funeral and its arrangements. He leaves a wife, but no children.

The funeral will take place at 10 o'clock this (Thursday) forenoon, from the late residence, in the Starkey block, over Squire Farrar's grocery store, conducted by Rev. J. H. Roock.

When baby was sick, we gave her Castoria, When she was a child, she cried for Castoria, When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria, When she had children, she gave them Castoria

IMMENSE Slaughter of Goods BY S. FRIEDMAN.

Having purchased my goods during the dull season, I had the advantage in getting them at a reduction of ten to fifteen per cent. below the usual prices, which will enable me to sell for ten to twenty-five per cent. less than the houses that are always selling at or below cost, and then make a living profit on my goods. Now one word to those who have horse sense: Don't go where people tell you they sell for glory or do you favors, but patronize those who do a legitimate business, and know how to buy and when to sell and you will find S. Friedman, who has been in Salem for twenty years, and will likely stay here as long as he can sell goods cheaper than the constantly "selling out" and "clearing out" stores.

We have just received direct from the east a lot of fine Turkish, linen and honeycomb towels and Russia crash. Table linen and napkins and also extra large and fine napkins. Also the latest styles of table cloth and napkins in sets of choice colors and designs. A good assortment of ladies', men's and children's underwear. A fine assortment of woolen and cotton hosiery. A good line of clothing, hats, caps, etc. A fine lot of crochet and marsailles quilts. And should you wish to prepare for the fair and are in need of comforters, we have an immense line from the cheapest to the best. We have a large line of laces and embroideries, and are receiving new invoices. Also silk and chenille fringe and beaded trimmings. We carry a full line of socks from 2 1/2 cents to any price desired. Carry a full line of trunks from the smallest to the largest, and also the same in valises. A full line of gent's furnishing goods, cutlery, stationery, tobacco and notions. Staple groceries. In prices will not be undersold. All the firms that advertise prices, we have sold at the same or below, and made a handsome profit if they sold at cost. I pity their judgment in buying. I again challenge any and all who dare sell below me in this city. In coming to the state fair don't forget to call at 124 State street, where you will find Friedman, who will give you the most goods for your money.
