

THE REPUBLICANS.

The National Club Convention in New York.

AN ENTHUSIASTIC SESSION.

A Resolution Protesting Against the Appointment of Lamar to the Supreme Bench.

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—When the delegates to the convention of the republican club began to file into Chickering hall to-day it was remarked that they wore a more confident air than yesterday, when the battalions were disordered and headless. The idea of the federation of clubs centralized and obedient to the touch of a directing hand was before every eye. They were now in shape to carry out the purpose of the convention.

The committees appointed yesterday had been at work all last night, and rules of the order had been formed. Evans had been nominated for permanent chairman; other matters had been arranged by other committees and everything should go smoothly, but how the high spirits and turbulence of the members could be held under restraint remained to be seen. Among the first to arrive and take a place on the platform was temporary chairman Daniel J. Ryan. The members came in slowly. Three sessions have been decided on for a day's business, morning, afternoon and evening; the order of business is to be, the calling of the convention to order by the temporary chairman and reports of committees, after which the permanent chairman, Evans, will take the chair and address the convention.

The convention was called to order shortly before eleven o'clock. The first business before the convention was the reports of committees. There were 313 club names read, many of them suggestive of distinguished leaders of the party. The cheering was almost continuous as the following names were repeated: John Sherman, U. S. Grant, Chas. Sumner, John A. Logan, Ben Wade, A. Lincoln, and James G. Blaine. The last name was greeted with tremendous cheering, but it was noticed that many delegates did not join in it. General Robinson, of the Grant club, Binghampton, N. Y., offered the following resolution:

"That it is the duty of the government to place our country in such a state of defense as will command the respect of all nations, and for this purpose a large portion of the surplus revenue should be devoted to fortifying our harbors, building ships for our navy, and to the manufacture of modern artillery for the proper armament of the same."

All resolutions offered were referred without debate to the committee on resolutions.

LAMAR ARRAIGNED.

Groveport, Ohio, offered the following resolution, which caused a sensation:

Whereas, It is the opinion of this national convention of republican clubs that no man who at any time denounced Abraham Lincoln, while he was president of the United States, as a "buffoon and clown," or who ever declared from his seat in the United States senate that no man should denounce Jefferson Davis as a traitor in his presence and go unrebuked by him, or in his official capacity as secretary of the interior ordered that the flag of the United States should be displayed at half-mast on the occasion of the death of Jacob Thompson, or who as a senator of the United States many years after the war refused to vote that the tenth and fourteenth and fifteenth amendments to the constitution are valid and binding, ought to be appointed to, or hold the high office of justice of the supreme court of the United States; therefore,

Resolved, That L. Q. C. Lamar ought not to have been appointed a justice of said court.

EASTERN.

COMMITTEE ON ELECTIONS.

They Decide to Take Up the Kentucky Election Contest.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The house committee on elections organized and held its first meeting to-day. Almost without a dissenting voice the committee resolved to take up the Thoebe-Carlisle contested election case, and notice will be issued to the contestants or their attorneys to appear at their next meeting on Tuesday.

This is a case in which Thoebe made the run as the labor candidate for the fiftieth (this congress). Mr. Carlisle ran as a democrat, receiving 6470 votes, against 5651 votes for Thoebe, his opponent. The democrats feeling so sure of success for Carlisle, made scarcely an effort. When the returns came in, showing so many votes for Thoebe, and such a light vote for Carlisle, there was what seemed to be an unnecessary delay in the returns from the outlying counties, and the result was considered doubtful; in fact it was thought for a while that Thoebe was elected. The returns, however, after a long delay, gave a majority as above stated for Carlisle, and so the matter rested until the friends of Thoebe began to claim that the returns had been "doctored," and Thoebe was virtually forced into a contest upon these grounds. As Carlisle is a prominent member of the democratic party, and one of its leaders in congress, and was at that time speaker of the house, great was the indignation among the blue-blooded "unterrified" of Kentucky. The idea that a representative of the labor party should overcome their champion was more than they could stand.

Some racy developments may be looked for in this case. The fact that the Sixth Kentucky district, from which Carlisle comes, is so overwhelmingly democratic, and that the close vote was due only to democratic indifference and neglect, makes the democratic fair stand on end.

AGAINST THE PROMIS.

A Main Court Declares a Probi Law Unconstitutional.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—An Augusta, Maine, special says the superior court of Kennebec county has declared the law that makes the payment of the United States a special tax as a liquor seller prima facie evidence that the party paying such tax is a saloon keeper, and therefore a public nuisance, to be unconstitutional.

CHANCES OF ADMISSION.

A New York Herald Correspondent Thinks They are Good.

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—A Washington special to the Herald says: There is every indication that the territories of Dakota, Washington, Montana, and possibly Utah will be admitted into sisterhood by the present congress. While Utah has adopted a new constitution which prohibits the perpetuity of polygamy within the territory, congress will make provision that in the event of the territory's admission into the Union as a state this clause of the constitution can not be departed without the consent of congress. It matters not, however, if they are all admitted at this session they will not be granted the right of national suffrage till 1892.

The same paper says that James A. McKenzie, of Kentucky, will probably be the minister to Mexico.

HOMELESS MILLIONS.

The Yellow River in China Rampant.

MYRIADS OF PEOPLE STARVING.

The Mad Torrent of this Raging River Leaves its Course—Indescribable Suffering.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 15.—The steamship City of Sydney arrived this afternoon from Hong Kong and Yokohama.

The Chinese papers give details of a disaster occasioned by the Yellow river overflowing its banks in the province of Honan, and they describe it as one of the most appalling occurrences in the loss of life and property recorded in recent times.

The river broke its banks on September 28th, southwest of the city of Sching Chou, and not only completely inundated that city, but also ten other populous cities.

The whole area is now a raging sea ten to thirty feet deep, where it was before densely populated and a rich plain. The former bed of Yellow river is now dry, and the present lake was the bed of the river centuries ago. The loss of life is incalculable.

The statement is made by missionaries that millions of Chinese are homeless and starving. Thomas Paton, one of the American missionaries, writing from Honan province under date of October 28th, says:

"The newly gathered crops, herbs and trees are all swept away. The country was covered with fine winter bread, which is gone, and this implies the complete destruction of next year's crop."

Bread! bread! is the cry of thousands who are on the river banks. The benevolent go in boats and throw bread among the masses here and there, but it is nothing compared with their requirements. The mass of people is still being increased by continual arrivals of those even more hungry than the last. There they sit, stunned, hungry and deserted, without a rag to wear or a morsel of food. Mat huts are being erected for them to the west of this, but what will be the suffering in two months I cannot conceive. The misery is increased owing to the bitter cold weather."

[The Hoang-Ho, or "Yellow river," is one of the principal rivers of China. It is 2800 miles in length, and rises in Tibet, flowing first in a northeastern direction into Mongolia, then in a southern and southeastern direction through China proper, and entering into the Yellow sea in latitude thirty-four degrees north. Its course is winding and tortuous, its current rapid and turbulent, and when it reaches the lowland it becomes unmanageable, and is scarcely navigable. The immense amount of yellow clay which it carries along with it, and from which it has received its name (Hoang-Ho, meaning "Yellow river"), is deposited partly at its mouth, partly along its bed. This, not only the level of its waters, but even the level of its bed, is higher than the surrounding land, which must be protected against its inundations by immense levees. It has cost the Chinese government each year $7,000,000 to keep these levees in good repair, and an extensive system of canals has been devised and constructed in order to lead parts of its waters into other river beds, and prevent the devastations with which it has constantly threatened one of the most fertile provinces of the empire. Its principal affluent is Hoi-Ho. In 1853 the Hoang-Ho broke through its old course and began pouring its waters into the Yellow sea by a mouth some hundreds of miles north of its former one.—Ed.]

What is this Disease that is Coming Upon Us?

Like a thief at night it steals in upon us unawares. The patients have pains about the chest and sides, and sometimes in the back. They feel dull and sleepy; the mouth has a bad taste, especially in the morning. A sort of sticky slime collects about the teeth. The appetite is poor. There is a feeling like a heavy load on the stomach; sometimes a faint, all gone sensation at the pit of the stomach which food does not satisfy. The eyes are sunken, the hands and feet become cold and clammy. After a while a cough sets in, at first dry, but after a few months it is attended with a greenish-colored expectoration. The patient feels tired all the while, and sleep does not seem to afford any rest. After a time he becomes nervous, irritable and gloomy, and has evil forebodings. There is a giddiness, a sort of whirling sensation in the head when rising up suddenly. The bowels become costive; the skin is dry and hot at times; the blood becomes thick and stagnant; the whites of the eyes become tinged with yellow; the urine is scanty and high colored, depositing a sediment after standing. There is frequently a spitting up of the food, sometimes with a sour taste and sometimes with a sweetish taste; this is frequently attended with palpitation of the heart; the vision becomes impaired, with spots before the eyes; there is a feeling of great prostration and weakness. All of these symptoms are in turn present. It is thought that nearly one-third of our population has this disease in some of its varied forms.

It has been found that physicians have mistaken the cause of this disease. Some have treated it for a liver complaint, others for kidney disease, etc., etc., but none of these kinds of treatment have been attended with success; for it is really constipation and dyspepsia. It is also found that Shaker Extract of Roots, or Mother Seigel's Curative Syrup, when properly prepared will remove this disease in all its stages. Care must be taken, however, to secure the genuine article.

IT WILL SELL BETTER THAN COTTON.

Mr. John C. Hemptinstall, of Chulafirmee, Cleburn Co., Ala., writes: "My wife has been so much benefited by Shaker Extract of Roots or Seigel's Syrup that she says she would rather be without part of her food than without the medicine. It has done her more good than the doctors and all other medicines put together. I would ride twenty miles to get it into the hands of any sufferer if he can get it in no other way. I believe it will soon sell in this State better than cotton."

TESTIMONY FROM TEXAS.

Mrs. S.E. Barton, of Varner, Ripley Co., Mo., writes that she had been long afflicted with dyspepsia and disease of the urinary organs and was cured by Shaker Extract of Roots. Rev. J. J. McGuire, merchant, of the same place, who sold Mrs. Barton the medicine, says he has sold it for four years and never knew it to fail.

SHE WAS ALMOST DEAD.

I was so low with dyspepsia that there was not a physician that there was not a physician to be found who could do anything with me. I had fluttering of the heart and swimming of the head. One day I read your pamphlet called "Life Among the Shakers," which described my disease better than I could myself. I tried the Shaker Extract of Roots and kept on with it until to-day I rejoice in good health. Mrs. M. E. Trisley, Bevier, Muhlenburg Co., Ky.

SAVED HIS LEG! SCROFULA OF THE BONE CURED!

LORMONA, Ga., August 11, 1887.

The Swampy Swampy Co., Atlanta, Ga. Gentlemen—I have been afflicted with scrofula of the bone ever since I was a child. The disease undoubtedly being hereditary, as my mother suffered from scrofula of the bone. As I advanced in years the affliction increased until the malady became unbearable and painful beyond the power of words to describe. My right leg particularly became fearfully involved, the left leg being less painfully affected. Finally, about fourteen years ago, the ulcers on my right leg had eaten through the flesh into the bone. In order to save my life the doctors determined to amputate my leg below the knee. The operation was successfully performed by Dr. J. W. R. Bond, of Atlanta, and Dr. W. F. Bond, of Libonia. But the loss of my leg gave me only temporary relief. The pain now still in my system and soon began to show itself again. In a short time after large ulcers appeared on my left leg, covering it from the knee to the hip. Frequently while at work I could be tracked by the blood which oozed from the huge ulcers, and the odor was so offensive that my fellow-workmen would not stand the stench and would move away from me.

Last winter I was persuaded to try S. & S. a last effort I consented to do so, and about seven months ago I began taking the Specific. I soon began to feel the good effects of the medicine. As I advanced in years I grew less and less and finally ceased the ulcers healed, my flesh became firm and solid, and I was able to stand a man of my age as there is in Georgia. I am seventy-one years of age but feel as young and strong as I did when I was twenty-five. I weigh about 175 pounds. Nothing is so good for the scrofula disease, or to remind me of the torture I suffered for so many years, except the course of the newly healed ulcers.

I want the world to know of the almost miraculous cure effected on me by S. & S. and I call upon those who wish to know particulars directly from me to write, and I will consider it a pleasure as well as a duty to answer their letters. Dr. W. F. Bond, of Libonia, as to the truth of my statement. Very gratefully yours, B. DRAKE.
