BORN.

HAINES.-In Salem, Oregon, Dec. 16, 1887, to the wife of L. M. Haines, a son.

RANDLE .- Sunday, Dec. 18, 1887, in Salem, Oregon, to the wife of Prof. S. A. Randle, a daughter. Mother and child doing well.

MARRIED.

YOUNG-STURGIS .- In Salem, Or. Wednesday, Dec. 21, 1887, by J. M. Payne, J. P., Miss Kitty Sturgis to Geo. Young, all of Marion county. No cards.

WALTMAN-VINTON .- At the residence of the bride's father, on Howell prairie, Sunday, December 18th, at 2 p. m. by Judge T. C. Shaw, Miss Mary B. Vin-ton to John E. Waltman, both of Howell prairie.

The newly wedded couple are well known young people of Howell prairie. They moved onto Judge Shaw's farm on Howell prairie, yesterday, where their residence will be in the future.

BROWN-BONNETTE. -In Portland. Or., on Sunday, December 18, 1887, at the residence of G. W. Bishop, by Rev. W. H. Landon, Miss Mary E. Bonnette, of Eugene City, to Norris G. Brown, of Salem.

The wedding was very quiet, and this announcement will be the first intimation most the friends of the young couple in Eugene and Salem have had of the happy event. The bride is one of Eugene's fairest daughters, while the groom is the son of J. C. Brown, of Brown, Fullerton & Co., and one of Salem's straightforward, worthy young men. A legion of friends wish Mr. and Mrs. Brown all the happiness and prosperity possible as their mar-riage portion. They will return to Salem in a few days and take up their residence.

BROOKS-MORRILL.-In Salem, Or., Thursday, December 15, 1887, at the residence of the bride's parents, 343 Front street, at 11 a. m., by Rev. A. R. Medbury, Miss Alice R. Morrill to Mr. W. W. Brooks, of Independence.

The ceremony was performed impress-ively by Rev. A. R. Medbury, the bride and groom standing under an arch of evergreens and calla lilies, from the cen-search of daisies for a bouquet a la mode. He had promised a youthful maiden to gather them sweet and full, and perchance he might have done so except for a farmer's pull, which suddenly came upon him while he warbled a lovelorn lay, and with-out so much as a single thought he made for the broad highway; he did his best as a runner, and jumped with a quicken'd come but in spite of speed or acility he sense, but in spite of speed or agility, he was hoisted over the fence. He was torn by briar and bramble, he was lamed and by briar and bramble, he was lamed and bruised and sprained; then St. Jacobs Oil was well rubbed on, and his former self regained. He betook himself to his lady fair to ofter a ready plea. She heard the joke and simply said, "You're daisy enough for me." And so they all say of this celebrated remedy when it cures pains and bruises. "Beaver, Beaver county, Pa., Oct. 29, 1886.—Seven years ago I fell from a wagon and sprained my wrist very badly. Tried many remedies without success, and then finally tried St. Jacobs Oil. I enjoyed good rest, the first in three nights, and it cured me. C. C. Atkins." Worcester, Mass., 15 Hawley St., June 8, 1887.-Sprained my ankle and was unable to move without crutches. Used two bottles of St. Jacobs Oil. It effected a perfect cure. No return of pain. U.W. Briggs." "Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 5, 1887 .--Ten years ago sprained my ankle and could not walk for ten weeks. Sprained it three times since. Last time tried St. Jacobs Oil, and it not only cured it but strengthened it. The ankle is just as strong now as the other, and have had no trouble since. Otto L. Kehrweider, 109 Queen St., Germantown." "Corydon, Ind., June, 1887 .- Had my collar-bone broken, and it was very painful. I applied St. Jacobs Oil and it got entirely well. I used two bottles-only remedy nsed-it worked like a charm. No return of pain. Levi flottel." "Nothing I can say in regard to St. Jacobs Oil," says Mr. Arthur G. Lewis, editor Southern Society, Norfolk, Va., June 27, 1887, "will do it justice. Have used it for aches and pains for a number of years.

County Clerk Chapman yesterday issued license to marry to George Young and Retty Sturgis.

Ayer's Hair Vigor keeps the hair soft and pliant, imparts to it the lustre and freshness of youth, causes it to grow luxuriantly, eradicates Dandruff, cures all scalp diseases, and is the most cleanly of all hair preparations.

AYER'S Hair Vigor has given me perfect satisfaction. I was nearly bald for six years, during which time I used many hair preparations, but without success. Indeed, what little hair I had was growing thinner, until I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor. I used two bottles of the Vigor, and my head is now well covered with a new growth of hair. - Judson B. Chapel, Peabody, Mass.

HAIR that has become weak, gray, and faded, may have new life and color restored to it by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. <sup>66</sup> My hair was thin, faded, and dry, and fell out in large quantities. Ayer's Hair Vigor stopped the falling, and restored my hair to its original color. As a dressing for the hair, this preparation has no equal. – Mary N. Hammond, Stillwater, Minn.

VIGOR, youth, and beauty, in the appearance of the hair, may be preserved for an indefinite period by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. ** A dis-ease of the scalp caused my hair to be-come harsh and dry, and to fall out freely. Nothing I tried seemed to do me any good until I commenced using Ayer's Hair Vigor. Three bottles of this preparation restored my hair to a healthy condition, and it is now soft and pliant. My scalp is cured, and it is also free from daudruff. -- Mrs. E. E. Foss, Milwaukee, Wis.
