

Military Police Beat

By Cpl. Raoul Mound

Now that Lt. Julius Hale has taken over the Office of Provost Marshal, and since the office has moved into new quarters (building T-7-423 S/Sergeant R. W. Lesco who has been replaced as chief clerk by his senior, M/Sergeant Gillis Narramore, is going around in circles. As sergeant Lesco so aptly puts it, "Things are happening so fast that I feel like a chicken running around with his head chopped off" Take things easy sergeant, in a short while things will slow down into a smooth, orderly routine!

The Service Command, Unit 1911 is cordially invited to the birthday party in honor of the 27th birthday of S/Sergeant Joseph Onning, at his home on September 7, 1942 at 8 p. m. In case this invitation is published too late for everyone to make it, Sergeant Onning wished everyone to consider the invitation good for next year! HAPPY BIRTHDAY SERGEANT!

You can't tell us that this army has changed any since the last war! Some guy, we don't know his name but we know (from the uniform), that he was a soldier, noisily entered the number 3 barracks of the M.P. Detachment last Thursday and woke up the entire third platoon to give a very comprehensive lecture on the care and use of the gas mask.

It may be of interest of the DEML Section to note that they have a lowly private who, when in the mood, can give a lecture on "gas attack" which we doubt very much can be surpassed by anyone.

Pvt. 1cl Charles C. Rohrich of the M.P. wants to know why the girls working behind the counters of the Post Exchange haven't been informed of the fact that the government still has a 2 dollar bill in circulation! He wanted to buy a Cocoa Cola and the only money in his possession was a 2 dollar bill he had received from his mother. The girl wouldn't change it because she hadn't seen one before!

Camp PX's to Develop Films for Doughboys

So you've been wondering about getting your films developed? Has the inconvenience of dragging them into town discouraged this pleasant pastime?

Well, this should solve your problem. Any Post Exchange will take your undeveloped roll of film and have them back to you, finished, in three days, and the charge, for a roll containing either six or eight prints and negatives, is 30 cents.

Prices for other films will be in proportion.

Here's All the Story About Jacobson's Life

Read this and find out how NOT to be a reporter. 1st Sgt. G. E. Jacobson of QM was elevated to master sergeant a few days ago, so a Sentry reporter was hot on the trail. After some little time he located the new M/Sgt in his office. The scribe congratulated the Sgt. for about five minutes and then left. Not until he got back to his office did he realize he had failed to find out Jacobson's first name, his home town, his family if any, his army record, his age and his favorite motion picture actress. Consequently there is no story about M/Sgt. G. E. Jacobson's promotion.
