Proclamation...

COLONEL GORDON H. MCCOY

The Constitution of the United States guarantees religious liberty to all. This is a vital part of the total liberty for which our forefathers gave their lives and for which we are fighting today. It is something more precious than life itself.

This chapel about to be dedicated will stand here a mute but powerful reminder to all who see it that our religious liberty still exists.

I therefore proclaim the doors of this chapel open to all faiths. Cutting of the ribbon...

Dedication of Camp Chapel; and with it, ten other chapels for all personnel at Camp Adair.

CHAPLAIN: Dearly Beloved, as we learn from the Holy Scriptures, it is meet and right that houses erected for the worship of God should be especially set apart and dedicated to religious uses. We are therefore now assembled for worship and for dedicating this house of worship to the service of Almighty God.

PEOPLE: Let all the earth keep silence before Him.

CHAPLAIN: I saw the Lord sitting upon a throne high and lifted up; and His train filled the temple. Above it stood the seraphim; each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly. And one cried unto another:

PEOPLE: Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord of Hosts:
Heaven and earth are full of Thy glory
Glory be to Thee, O Lord Most High.

CHAPLAIN: We dedicate this chapel to the training of men in faith and knowledge and to the summoning of youth and age to a life of service. We dedicate this chapel to the cure of souls that doubt, and to the persuasion of those who have not yet believed; to the comfort of the discouraged, the relief of the distressed, the consecration of the strong, the guidance of the bewildered and to the ennobling of the life eternal. With deep gratitude this life and to confidence in the life eternal. With deep gratitude for those who have made with us this spiritual adventure and with high hope for those who shall walk this way in days to come, we dedicate this chapel to the glory of God our Father, by whose favor it has been builded, in the honor of Jesus Christ, the Son of the living God our Lord and Savior, to the praise of the Holy Spirit, the source of light and life.

Let us pray: O Eternal God, whom the heavens cannot contain, much less the walls of temples made with hands, graciously accept the dedication of this house to Thy honor and glory. Amen.

CHAPLAIN: (people standing)

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit we dedicate this organ to the praise of Almighty God and to the service of our country. We dedicate this organ to the cultivation of a high art; to the interpretation of the message of the masters of music, and to the development of the language of praise which belongeth both to heaven and earth. We dedicate this organ to the healing of life's discords, and the revealing of the hidden soul of harmony; to the lifting of the depressed and the lifting of the soul to abiding beauty and joy by the gospel of infinite love and good will. To all organists who will sound its notes and to all men who will be lifted by its voice may there come at times the sweep of hallelujahs from the throne of the redeemed until earth below shall be attuned to heaven above in singing hallelujahs to Him who reigneth, Lord of Hosts, the King of Kings.

Let us pray: May this organ become the undying music in the world as its notes of cheer, comfort and courage are modulated into human lives for daily tasks and noble service. Amen.
