

SOCIAL SWIRL

By Adele Adair

Memorial Union, stately building dedicated to those who served in World War I, which is located on the campus of Oregon State College, Corvallis, was the setting for a gala enlisted men's dance last Saturday night under auspices of the men of the 96th Division. This was the first of two huge dances, the next of which will be staged at the same place next month by the Timber Wolves.

"The huge success" is perhaps the best way to describe the affair. The floor was comfortably filled with dancers, with members of the Officers League of Corvallis in the center. A portion of the dance was broadcast over KOAC, with speakers on the campus, after which there was an intermission which featured talented members of the 96th Division, many of whom have been vocal in post shows. There was a chorus, jitterbug team, several soloists, a female impersonator and a Meridian filled in the program. Behind the scenes were busy with singing "Daybreak" and "The Last." Pvt. Cec Birnkant and Pvt. Les Bear were in charge of the entertainment. The 382nd Infantry Swing Band played for dancing.

Friday Night Dances Resumed:
The first post EM's dances—the regular Friday night soirees—of the New Year were held last Friday night at both Service Clubs, with the usual merriment and good time enjoyed by all. S/Sgt. Bob Bladie, Springfield, played for the dancing at Club 1 and Warrant Officer Chetney and his 96th Artillery Dance Band played at the other clubhouse.

An annual intermission entertainment was the treat at Club 1. It was a ping-pong tournament between Cpl. Jam Farinas of the 80th QM and Cpl. Albert Nachin of the 96th Div. HQ Co. The winner had the title of Junior National Champion and the latter was Senior Champion of Pennsylvania. Nachin won 22-20, and the pair will meet in a return exhibition to-morrow night during the intermission at Club 2.

Each First Hand:
If there's anything you don't want to miss... or anything you'd like to know about those amorous "bees" and "petting" that crop in either Service Club every night. The participants aren't the least fashful, so your presence on the scene will not put the camper on "dangs." You'll be able to pick up several pointers and perhaps improve your own technique. But to some of the men who drop into the clubs... and the A.M. of the visiting guests (relatives and intimate friends)... the prospect of walking into the club and standing on wood-pitching on a mass production scale... proves quite a bit to swallow. Frankly, it makes me H---, and it's up to the man who disapprove to "break it up." Just hang up and watch—there are more than 6 feet of wood—and it might do the trick!

Mid-Week Frills:
The first in a series of Tuesday night ballroom square dances was held this week in Club 1, under the supervision and arrangements of Anne Tucker Caddy, new hostess. The girls hailed from Oregon State College and were brought here by Miss Sybil Tucker. If this type of dance "goes over," there will be more gals and a barrel of gun is in store.

Club 1 Addition:
Pvt. William Linahan, who in civilian life was a stage technician for M-G-M Studios, is now a member of the Club 1 staff.

Hill Billies:
Better organized and ready to go places is the musical aggregation known as the "Ozark Cowboys," a hill-billy band which appeared informally a couple of Sunday nights ago at Service Club 2 and made such a hit that it is hoped it will become a permanent entertainment feature. During the week, the members have been holding rehearsals, and trying out new men. Meanwhile, a "caller" for square dances has been located and there is every reason to believe that those old-fashioned square dances that were hinted at last week, will become a reality in the very near future.

Weekly Schedule:
Hostess Caddy, social and recreational directress at Club 1, has expressed the desire that the weekly schedule now in effect at the clubhouse, be announced at this time:
Monday: Recorded concert, beginning at 8 p. m.
Tuesday: Latin American dancing classes, square dance.
Wednesday: Game night.
Thursday: Jam session; band and guest artists.
Friday: Regular EM dance.
Saturday: Cabaret Night (informal entertainment).
Sunday: Open house... informal program.

Checking System Available:
A free checkroom service is now available at Club 2, and from now on there should be no problem of lost articles of clothing. Although there will not be a checker on duty continuously, you are advised to go to the office where someone will take care of you.

CAMP ADAIR
I'm a rugged soldier, Bud,
Who has wallowed in the mud,
And I learned my battle tactics,
Soaking wet.
I was never one to swear
'Till I came to Camp Adair,
But it hardened me for what is coming yet.

I have beaten through the brush
In a rhapsody of slush,
And the wind has stung my carcass
Like a whip;
But, at Camp Adair, I say,
It is just another day,
And you learn to keep a stiffer
upper lip.

I have stood the wind that blows—
Water oozing through my toes
As I tried to concentrate out in the rain.
It was plenty mean enough,
But it made me good and tough,
And that's the very thing for which we train.

How I swore I'd get the scamp
Who decided on this camp
As I sat and poured the water from my shoes.
Still, I knew in spite of all,
I must heed my country's call,
And it wasn't up to me what camp
to choose.

So, Buddy, cast your vision
On the 96th Division,
It's a rough and ready unit full of
fight;
And when we get overseas
We will bring them to their knees—
And crush the yellow menace with our might.

Double Wedding

When the Timber Wolf Division does something it's never by half measures. So when Sgt. Frank Hedinger, Div. Art. Hq., and Cpl. Walter Kalm, Art. Medics, decided to get married they made it a double wedding. Sgt. Hedinger's bride is the former Ardella Marie Schopp of Huntington, Ind. Cpl. Kalm's bride is the former Dorothy Matusesky of Moose Lake, Minn. The double feature took place last Saturday in Chapel 10 with Father Mussell officiating.

For Those Liking Jam On the Musical Side Drop in Club 1 Tonite

Jam... in a musical sense... is to be served tonight at Service Club 1.

From the Timberwolves has been recruited a group of fine musicians, most of whom as civilians were members of big-name bands or featured at prominent night clubs. For want of a better name, they call themselves the Timberwolf Jam-Band.
On tenor sax is Eddie Apple, who formerly played with Charlie Barnett and Les Brown; Dave Orwitz is featured on trumpet... he used to be with Larry Funk; former clarinetist with Bill Carson... Arty Bender... does a B. G. on the licoric stick and G. Ronoyna, pianist, who used to hold forth in the "Famous Door" in New York, controls the 80 and 8.

Last Thursday night, the Jam-Band also appeared and introduced several guest artists, including Pvt. Phil Horan, magician; Pvt. Daniels, fiddler from Texas; and Chaplain Raymond Johnson, concert pianist who has toured Cuba, South America and the United States.

These jam sessions get underway shortly before 8 p. m. And remember, it's TONIGHT!

CHAPLAIN'S COLUMN

Chaplain (Capt.) Edward P. McDonnell has arrived at Camp Adair and is assigned to the Post and the Service Command Unit No. 1911, as the Roman Catholic Chaplain—the first that the SCU has had. He will conduct services at Chapel No. 1.

Chaplain McDonnell is probably unique, in all the armed forces, as a son of an army colonel who hoped that he might become a Catholic priest. The father is Col. Philip McDonnell, retired, now in his late seventies and living quietly at Devonish Villa, Garrison county, Ferrymagh, Ireland.

Col. McDonnell always was a devout soldier, according to the chaplain, who as a boy planned to enter the priesthood. The chaplain was born in India, where his father was with the Royal Fusiliers, of the British Army.

Although retired as a colonel, the chaplain's father enlisted as a private, in the same regiment which he later commanded. The present chaplain accompanied his father to Egypt and to the British Isles, going back and forth, wherever it was necessary to go. For 20 years the colonel was in India. He fought in the Boer War, in South Africa, and in France and Greece, during World War No. 1.

The chaplain attended St. Patrick's College, at Cavan, Ireland, and was ordained at St. Peter's Seminary, Carlow, Ireland, in 1921, then being sent to the diocese of Wheeling, West Va. He has been pastor of St. Peter's Parish, Welch, West Va., and became a chaplain in the West Virginia National Guard, going into Federal service early in 1941. Since then he has been mainly in the Panama Canal zone, with the infantry.

Two brothers are in the British forces, one in the air corps, another in the tank corps, and two sisters are nurses, who have experienced air raids. The chaplain has been in Cairo and Alexandria for long periods and is familiar with armies and places figuring in the current African campaign, in case any body in camp wants special information along that line.

Incidentally, his college nickname was "major."

SCU CHAPEL ATTENDANCE
On the first Sunday in January Chaplain Lloyd V. Harmon, Post Chaplain, instituted a new plan, designed to stimulate greater interest in Chapel attendance. On successive Sundays the responsibility for attendance at services has been assumed by the various detachments of the SCU. Next Sunday the responsibility devolves upon the QM detachment. This simply means that the QM's will make a special effort to promote attendance in their unit. However, it does not mean that this unit alone is to attend. Members of all other units are also asked to attend on all Sundays.

Christian Science
"Life" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, January 17.

The Golden Text: "The gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord" (Rom. 6:23).
Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "My son, forget not my law; but let thine heart keep my commandments: for length of days, and long life, and peace, shall they add to thee" (Prov. 3:1,2).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following correlative passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The understanding that Life is God, Spirit, lengthens our days by strengthening our trust in the deathless reality of Life, its almightiness and immortality. This faith relies upon an understood Principle. This principle makes whole the diseased, and brings out the enduring and harmonious phases of things" (p. 487).

Jewish services will be held this Friday, January 15, and each Friday thereafter in the Red Cross Recreation building in the hospital area. Cpl. Morris Stavsky will conduct the services which begin at 1845. All officers, enlisted men and patients are welcome.
