

SOCIAL SWIRL

By Adele Adair

The regular Friday evening dances were again the "large time" headlines of the week at the two Service Clubs. At Service Club No. 1 cuties, eager to pay their own way for the dance with the boys dressed in OD, came flocking in from McMinnville, Eugene and Mockmouth. Probably the big event of the evening for the soldier-dancers was the appearance of Colonel Gordon H. McCoy. For Col. McCoy was not content with watching the younger soldiers from a sedate sideline; he got out on the floor and whirled his partner Mrs. Hutchins, Monmouth hostess, around with the best of them. During the intermission Pvt. Sylvester Veronne of the 385th Bees swung out in a jitterbug dance. Pvt. Gene Logan obliged on the guitar, and sang while he played.

Visiting Notables

At Service Club No. 2 the roster of visiting notables included General Claudius Easley, Colonel McCoy again and Chaplain Lloyd Harmon. Major John W. Fry, new head of the 96th Chaplains corps, was also present. Chaplains included Mrs. Harry Belt, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nelson from Salem and from Corvallis Mrs. Lorna Jessup and Mrs. C. W. Winston. At the intermission Lt. Sigmund Salcanski played the violin; he was accompanied at the piano by Pvt. Tullis. Cpl. San Farkas, SCU QM, former Junior National Ping Pong Champ, and Cpl. Albert Nachsin, former Pennsylvania Senior Champ, proved their stuff in exhibition games.

Miss Rogers, majorette dodo of Service Club No. 2, had lunch this week with Dean Ava E. Milan, Home Economics Dean at Oregon State. Also there were eight others from the college of Home Economics and Physical Education. Miss Rogers now has the definite assurance that a large amount of recreational material will be furnished the Service Club. Andrew McD. Vincent, head of the Department of Painting at the college, has

Emily Post Says

Civilians in surrounding towns have been pretty generous of invitations to parties and gatherings in their homes. But frequently soldiers who have accepted these invitations through the service clubs or their companies have not shown up. Transportation, unexpected duties are responsible for the rest. The bad impression this creates is too obvious to point out. If you accept an invitation, plan to make every effort to appear. If circumstances prohibit your arriving on time—phone. It's the least you can do.

also promised that the original sketches which were used to design the murals on walls of the state capitol building in Salem will be loaned to the club.

Date Bureau at Club No. 1

Service Club No. 1, with Hostess Margaret Blodgett at the helm, has set up a date bureau at which soldiers get—dates. Details of the bureau can be found elsewhere in the Sentry.

Sunday night at Service Club No. 2 was devoted to group singing and a jam session. Pvt. L. W. Crasak sat at the piano stool and Pts. George Randall and Lester Baer led the singing.

Sitting out the next dance is an old custom; bundling is another. Tradition is a fine thing. But the Service Clubs are not the places to honor these particular traditions. If you're not content with a rousing game of checkers, if your pulse doesn't quicken at the thought of a ping pong game, if your head doesn't swim at the thought of a dance with a junior hostess. Out. For necking at the clubs will no longer be tolerated, everyone agrees.

QM Lt. Weds

Lt. C. S. Brazelton, QM 1911, was married last Monday to Miss Kay Talcott of Oregon City. The marriage was performed at the bride's residence. The newly wedded couple will live in Corvallis. Previously the wedding had been arranged for January 3rd, but inability to secure a nearby apartment had postponed the date.

Six soldiers, housed up by Margaret Blodgett, hostess of Service Club No. 2 went to an Oyster Fry held at a Grange Hall. Invited were Pts. Geo. Watson, James Loxton, Edgar Davis, Ed Coppingham, W. W. Hayes, all of the Timberwolf division, and R. V. Dittinger, SCU. All reported a swell time and asked Mrs. Blodgett to let them know pronto when Mr. Wagner called again.

While the soldier is training for war, his sweetheart, wife or relatives may spend the hours they wait for him at the service club, reading books or magazines from the library, playing games or writing letters. Pictured here from left to right, are Nancy Camilli, 183 D street, Independence; Miss Elizabeth Rogers, director of Service Club No. 1; Jean Rogers, 183 D street, Independence, and Mrs. Florence Coardy Merriam, assistant to Miss Rogers.

E. M. Are Guests

Men of the Signal Company, Timberwolf Division, were guests of the company officers at an informal party last Saturday night.

The affair held in the company mess hall featured a five piece impromptu band, community singing and various soloists. Sandwiches and liquid refreshments were served.

The band composed of 1st Lt. Alan C. Rosenbaum, harmonica; M/Sgt. Richard McIntire, saxophone; Pvt. Joe Richardson, guitar; Pvt. Thayne Thompson, piano; Pvt. T. S. Wilcox, clarinet, played several numbers and accompanied the community singing which was led by M/Sgt. Homer McDowell.

Vocal solos were offered by Privates John S. Asker, William Cichy, and Arthur N. Hackman. Company officers who hosted the affair included: Lt. Col. Ralph E. Willey, 1st Lieutenant Stephen E. Morris, Alan C. Rosenbaum, and John P. Shean, 2nd Lieutenants Henry Freeze, Clyde H. Hemphill, Roy G. Michie, Robert G. Moore, Adrian N. Renz and Frank A. Wilcox. The Company Commander, Capt. Vernon H. McKissick, unfortunately was ill and confined to the station hospital.

Christian Science Churches
"Truth" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, January 24
The Golden Text will be, "Tough me thy way O Lord; I will walk in thy truth; unite my heart to fear thy name" (Ps. 86:11).

Among the citations which will comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible:
"Because I will publish the name of the Lord; ascribe ye greatness unto our God. He is the Rock, his work is perfect: for all his ways are judgment: a God of truth and without iniquity, just and right is he" (Deut. 32:3, 4).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following correlative passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Seignior and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Spirit, Life, Truth, Love, combine as one,—and are the Scriptural names for God . . . Truth, spiritually discerned, is scientifically discerned, is scientifically understood. It casts out error and heals the sick" (p. 275).

QUARTERMASTER

"QUOTES and QUERIES"
Pfc. F. Smith—Sgt. M. Gaines

Hello again we say to you—
You people with nothing better to do,
We know to find us here is quite a jolt—
For us too, we thought we shot our bolt.

But since some people aren't choosy—
We're writing this while you're still woozy,
Hoping there'll be another time—
We'll wind up this little rhyme.

First on today list of important and unimportant Q.M. 1911 doings:
A very gracious person celebrated a birthday, January 16th. She's Mrs. Ross Rogers, Jr., of Amarillo, California, wife of QM's Executive Officer, Lt. Ross Rogers, Jr. Unlike most women we have permission to state which milestone it is that she's passed. It's the 23rd. Congratulations Mrs. Rogers! May you have many, many more.

Have you ever seen a dream walking? No? Then meet QM's own "Mr. Jordan" (Bob Stair) come Reveille time each A. M.

To Headquarters Company: Please!! and again we say please!! If every time we beat you in basketball means we'll be weighed down by characters like Tom (Transportation) Ryan, we'll gladly forfeit the rest of our contests with you.

To prove the Q.M. isn't cheap, especially when it doesn't cost anything to prove it, we offer you not one victory but two. And like all legitimate double features, we have a little extra to add. It's not a bingo game but a little prayer that our luck and skill hold out till the end of the tournament.

Led by Pvt. Torgerson, the team's captain (complicated, isn't it?) the Q.M.-S.C.U. 1911 basketball team beat the 332nd Depot Co. 22-10 on January 14 and on the following night, to show it was not a fluke, beat the 338th Depot Co., 39-20.

Those responsible for the QM's ascension to the top of the SCU and IXth Corps basketball league, besides Pvt. Torgerson, are Sid (Keyboard) Rowen, Charlie (Pants Pleater) Johnson, Larry (Biscuits) Belka, Hank (The Iceman) DeBenedictus, and John (Cowboy) Steier.

If we may, we'd like to get serious for a moment. We, in our small and humble way, would like to convey our sincerest sympathies to T/Sgt. Walker and his family, on the loss of his Dad — for Lts. Brazelton, Rogers, M/Sgt. Jacobson and the whole Quartermaster, S.C.U. 1911 Detachment.

The addition of still another Motor Pool Officer in the person of 2nd Lt. Willis M. Parrish, has not only been instrumental in the continuance of customary M. P. (and we are not going from the sublime to the ridiculous) efficiency.

cy, but has added momentum to the functioning of an outfit of which we are all proud.
Several Pool personnel earned citations for work over and above the call of duty during the unusual floods throughout the State of Oregon. Names? Later, we hope.

Aussie Streets Deserted
The AEF in Australia have rationed love, at least in public. Yank headquarters has just issued an order which says "American soldiers on leave must not put their arms around a female companion on a public thoroughfare in a manner unbecoming a soldier.

But Gosh! What if They Altered Their Minds?
Yank headquarters has announced a reminder to U. S. soldiers in England that they can only
