

SOCIAL SWIRL

By Adele Adair

My, my, my, what a dandy time soldiers have been having at the two service clubs lately. Of course all the gorgeous females from surrounding towns were snowbound—(not icebound buddy, never that)—last Friday. But the two bands showed up anyway, some soldiers did too, and a few girls wandered in from somewhere. These females were given the old rush and doubtless all of them retired that evening firmly convinced, this time, of the irresistible quality of their lure—sorry, we mean allure.

Now on Saturday night, the two service clubs up and decked themselves out as night-clubs. Maybe it wasn't like El Morocco or the Persian Room where New York's Cafe Society swing with champagne bottles instead of beer bottles. But find one in Albany; look in Salem. All right, even in Rickreal. At Service Club 2 the 281st Sent Band scattered. A seat trio, led by Cpl. Gaard, furnished the vocal scintillating. Against this musical background floor show entertainment held audience attention for a full hour and a half. Pvt. Lester Baer got the crowd in a holiday mood. And a magician astounded them; a whistler thrilled them. Pfc. Peter Wong sang in Chinese and English. Mr. Alwaise, of the Red Cross and formerly an organist at Roxy's in New York played the piano. Pvt. Jacobsen, 96th Division, did equilibrium and strong-man stunts.

Night Club Night

At Service Club 1 "Night-Club-Night" was also a very large success. One of the evening's highlights was the appearance of the waiters, Pvs. Slocum, Stanley Randall, Alvin Ropel, Bill Aners, Rex Watson, Norbert Eisele. All were made up by Hollywood make-up expert Pvt. Steve Crenshaw. Made up to resemble Bowery Bully Boys they wore white aprons, carried Turkish towels over the arm, Long, evil cigars were standard equipment. Menus designed by Pvt. H. Weprin presented the bill of fare. Even a cigarette girl was there: Pvt. Frank X. Emmons in wig and dress doubled as Miss Weldon—sold five cartons of cigarettes, two cartons of gum.

Pvt. Weldon got some tips, too—but it is not recorded as to whether he got them on the right horses. The Timber Wolf Artillery band, some 17 men strong, provided the music at the club.

Sunday at Service Club 2 saw an hour of recorded concert music from 1 p.m.-2 p.m. From 5 p.m. to closing time, community singing and jam sessions were the order of the day. Pvs. Goble and Carlson led the songfests. Mrs. Florence Merriam obliged by singing several solos. Next Monday from 6:30 p.m. to 7:30 there will be an hour's recorded music from Scherazadi. The following Monday, February 8, the concert will include Lawrence Tibbett and other noted singers.

Dallas Dance

This week's dance at the Dallas USO has been cancelled due to bad road conditions. Next week, however, there will be a Valentine party—which will be formal and very extra-special. Soldiers who desire to go are asked to sign up as soon as possible with Mrs. Blodgett, Service Club 1 Hostess.

Next Saturday's "Night-Club-Night" at Service Club 1 will be circus night. Tumblers, jugglers, a strong man act and a professional roller skater are just a few of the hit entertainments planned. Last week 23 soldiers signed up at the date bureau for Saturday's affair. All were plenty happy about the results. If you want a date sign up early—preferably four days in advance. But remember, the whole idea of the Night Clubs at both clubs is to get you and your best girl out for a good time. So let your gal know—and let the clubs know by 12 noon Saturday that they can reserve a table for you.

Timber Wolf Party

Officers and men were guests of the non-commissioned officers at the second in a series of informal parties held by the Timber Wolf Signal Company last Saturday night. The affair was held in the company mess hall.

High mark of the occasion was the welcoming of Company Commander, Captain Vernon H. McKissick, after his confinement in the station hospital.

The guests partook of sandwiches and liquid refreshments, and various entertainment was offered.

Pvs. Rogers Duhan and Joseph P. Ritcherson, guitarists, and Pvs. Thayne D. Thompson and George R. Michalczewski, pianists, played solos and accompanied the vocal soloists.

Pvt. Warren J. Durel gave an excellent exhibition of New Orleans jitterbugging.

Vocal soloists included M/Sgt. Homer McDowell, Sgt. Florian Tschmeltsch, and Pvs. William F. Cichy, James J. Tierney, John S. Asker and Warren J. Durel.

Besides acting as master of ceremonies, Pvt. Leonard E. Daniel led the community singing and sang two numbers.

General consensus was that a very good time was had by all.

SUNDAY CONCERT

An organ, cello and vocal concert will be given in the First Baptist church, Salem, Oregon, Sunday afternoon, January 31, 3:00 p. m. This program is to be dedicated to the soldiers at Camp Adair and they will be the special guests of the artists and the church. Professor William Falk the well known organist will be in charge, and he has arranged a program that any one would greatly enjoy.

Game Night

Miss Elizabeth Rogers, hostess at Service Club No. 2, announced the inauguration of "Game Nite" which will be a weekly feature at the club each Wednesday night starting at 8:30 p. m. Games of all descriptions will be used on the various nights with special emphasis placed upon games of the guest participation variety. It is planned that "Bingo," "musical chairs" and "hobby horses" will furnish the entertainment for the expected crowd on Wednesday, February 3, the date set for the initial "Game Nite."

Responsible for all the new and original signs about Service Club No. 2 is clever artist-soldier Pvt. Weprin of the Timber Wolves. Loaned to the club by permission of Lt. Col. Howard E. Pearson, Pvt. Weprin knows how to put the eye catch in his work.

Christian Science Churches
"Love" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, January 31.

The Golden Text will be, "Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life." (Jude 1:21.)

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God. And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God and God in him." (1 John 4:7-16.)

The lesson-sermon also includes the following correlative passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Not materially but spiritually we know Him as divine Mind as Life, Truth and Love. We shall obey and adore in proportion as we apprehend the divine nature and love Him understandingly, warping no more over the corporeality, but rejoicing in the affluence of our God." (p. 140.)

American forces stationed in New Zealand are supplied, through Lend-Lease arrangements, with the bulk of their foodstuffs, especially fresh meats, dairy products, fruits and vegetables.

Frenzied Finance

by Sgt. Fred Ashworth

At last Finance Section SCU No. 1911 hits the headlines. The outfit, which had its humble beginning at Tent City, has been busy the last six months, "paying off." In fact, so busy that there hasn't been time to let the rest of the camp know what has been going on. In short, the Tent City privates are all sergeants now, and they keep things running smoothly. To bring things up to date.

Pvt. Robert Short of Enlisted and Civilian Pay section, last Monday transferred to Finance Office, Timber Wolf Division. Bob did a swell job at Post Finance and will be missed not only as a skilled clerk, but also as an alright guy.

Congratulations are in order for T. Sgt. Matthew Hatala. Word was received that Sgt. Hatala has been appointed Warrant Officer, J. G. in the Finance Department. Sgt. Hatala is at present recuperating at the hospital. He was operated on for a knee injury suffered while playing basketball.

Speaking of basketball, Post Finance has taken over and represents Headquarters Company SCU No. 1911 in the SCU-IX Corps league. To date the record stands, four losses and three victories.

Last Thursday night 332nd QM was beaten 23-16 with Halden and Chandler leading the scoring, 10 and 9 points respectively. Friday night 332nd QM was again the victims of the aroused Hq. Co., and were defeated by the score of 34-16. Werman led the winners with 16 points.

Well, last week we certainly had our share of Unusual weather. The members of Finance committed various acts of violence with the appearance of snow, among which was the following poem:
I think that I shall never see
Anything that pleases me
Indeed, I know
I'll never see
Anything that pleases me
More than a pile of snow.

Snow whose white flakes so fine
Fall down the back and freeze the spine
When a ball by a pal is thrown
Ah yes, snow, so white and nice
How slippery when turned to ice.
Then to snow I'm sometimes prone
(Flat on the back.)

Feels like me, write poems like these
As I walk through snow to my knees,
Chased by a bitter Camp Adair breeze.

Please God, no more snow,
For when I go
I don't want to Freeze.

I guess that is about all this time, so until next week keep your powder dry (until you see a Jap).

Soldiers of this Post are cordially invited to an organ-voice-cello concert at Salem Sunday at 3 p. m., at the First Baptist church, Marion and Liberty streets.

Featured will be William Fawk, organist; Joan L. Kortzborn, mezzo-soprano, and Warren Downs, cellist.
