

Lieut. Kressaty New Head of M.P.'s Succeeds Lt. Patrick Now Provost Marshal

(By Pfc. Wallace X. Rawles)
Meet Lieut. George Kressaty, the new Commanding Officer of Military Police, S. C. U. 1911, Camp Adair, Oregon!
He was appointed to the post when Lieut. Walter R. Padrick was made Provost Marshal. Lieut. Padrick had been Military Police Commanding Officer.

Lieut. Kressaty is a native son of New Jersey, while Lieut. Padrick is native to Oregon, and prior to coming into the Army, a high school teacher and executive at Bend, Oregon. Lieut. Kressaty was assistant manager of a large manufacturing concern in New Jersey before being inducted into the United States Army June 6, 1941. His home was in Union City, N. J.

Lieut. Kressaty received a corporal's rating at Fort Lewis, Wash., in August, 1942. He went to Officers' Candidate School at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., and was commissioned in the Corps of Military Police as a second lieutenant Nov. 6, 1942, and assigned to Camp Adair Nov. 28, as MP Training Officer.

Lieut. Kressaty is a young bachelor, fond of softball, basketball and football. His hobbies are dancing and photography. He is an expert in jiu-jitsu and Judo.

He was educated in Union City, New Jersey. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Kressaty and has three brothers and three sisters. One brother, Fred, is a corporal at Fort Sam Houston, Texas.

Lieut. Padrick is married. His wife is the former Marie A. Bausch

They Handle the Finances

Back in 1908 or some time it was that Congress forgot to appropriate money with which to pay the Armed Services, and if that happened now to the world's best-paid Army (oh, perish this evil thought) these EM and officers would be out of a job. You are right, it's the finance department, all grouped about Colonel Lee R.

Top row — T/Sgt. Marvin R. Rathman, T/5 James M. Molloy; Pvt. Weldon H. Emerson, T/4 James R. Kennigott, T/3 Louis M. Geirman, Jr., T/3 Harry J. Anderson, T/4 Walter D. Momyer, T/3 Calvin S. Chandler, Pvt. Barney John Healey, Pfc. Edward B. Monigle, Pvt. Edward A. Smith, Pfc. Reed T. Dunn.

Middle row — Pvt. Eugene J. Urrere-Pon, Pvt. Morris K. Trimmingsham, M. Sgt. Lawrence T. Sinnott, Lt. William Langhauser, Colonel Lee R. Woods, Jr., Lt. E. H.

Drenger, T/4 Edward R. Haldan, T/5 Felix A. McAllister, Pfc. Whinston A. Johnson.

Bottom row — Pfc. William Cassler, Pfc. Iver E. Perry, T/4 Charles J. Hirsch, T/5 Albert H. Dehner, T/4 Fred J. Ashworth, Pvt. George W. Andrews, Jr., S. Sgt. Arthur T. Mionichello, T/5 Robert S. Toracof Portland, Oregon. They have two children, Doris Marie, 13, and Dean Ray, 5.

If Your Wife Is A Kat Here's An Invitation

Alumnae of the Kappa Alpha Theta are cordially invited — through the columns of the Sentry — to attend a tea to be given at 4 p. m. Saturday, at the Kappa Alpha Theta house, 145 N. 21st Street, Corvallis, Social Chairman Irene Paulson announced.

This doesn't apply to soldiers in case you didn't know — but to your wives, in the event they were members of this society.

Week-End S. P. Special Is Liked

Will Leave Wellsdale
Station Saturday 1:30

The Camp Adair Special Week-end Train to Portland will leave Wellsdale Station Saturday, February 13 at 1:30 o'clock, sharp. For the return trip, the train will leave the Union Station in Portland at 7:30 o'clock Sunday evening, February 14.

This train ride last weekend was by far the most successful yet, and took less than three and one-half hours. The boys were in Portland by 5 o'clock! And they were well satisfied, too.

It is with mixed emotions that we hear the tales of woe from the "smart fellows" who highlighted it to the nearby towns, and tried to hop the Portland buses there. Most of these venturers took from four to eight hours to reach their destination, and suffered the usual inconvenience and discomfort, riding the crowded buses.

Buy tickets from Special Service Officers of the 96th and Timber Wolf divisions and Post Adjutant until Friday evening, February 12. On Saturday, February 13, the tickets will be on sale only at the Southern Pacific Station at Wellsdale, and at the Oregon Motor Stage Bus Depot.

There will be no buses leaving

And the Fellow Could Have Sent 2 More Words

Sentiment, some of it coming pretty close to "mush," still holds a dominant place in telegraphed messages of soldiers, a survey shows.

Pvt. Jim Kane of the telegraph office of the Nashville, Tenn. Army Air Base, submits the following message of a cadet as best exemplifying concentrated, 'er, sentiment:

"Need you. Want you. Miss you. Love you. But—"

In our opinion, the order is wrong. It should be "miss, need, love, want." We still feel the guy was trying to build up to a climax.

How To Have Valentine Party Miles From Home

Maybe you think that sending a Valentine to your home town baby is enough. But if Valentine's day by proxy seems unsatisfactory, here's a tip. Take in Portland's big USO party this Saturday at the Sunken Ballroom of the Portland Masonic Temple, 1119 S. W. Park street.

The pick of Portland's pretties will be on hand to dance and to introduce you to some fine cats. Entertainment will be there for the listening, too. Miss Oregon will warble popular songs; Sgt. Phil Thompson, harmonica wizard, will give on the hepest mouth organ you've ever heard. A quartet from the Oregon Shipyards, the "Singing Sentinels" will make "Sweet Adeline" sound the way you thought it sounded, the last time you were out on the town.

Maybe you'd better try the USO this time. You may find, perhaps to your surprise, that you had a better time than if you tried yourself by the usual hit-or-miss method.

Military Police Barracks Banter

The mystery of birth still is fascinating Corporal Saul I. Blackman of the Military Police. He was standing quietly in the Provost Marshal's office Feb. 4 when Sergeant Gillis Narramore handed him a telegram from Forest Hills, N. Y. "Twins—a boy and a girl—mother and babies doing nicely," read the telegram, from Blackman's mother. Cpl. and Mrs. Blackman were married a year ago. The corporal is making a splendid recovery.

Eugene Gentry Gives Us Day Room Harvest

they will parade through the streets to the Elks parking lot across from the Temple where pictures will be taken for Elks Magazine, newspapers and periodicals.

Then will come the luncheon and talks by the dignitaries. In addition to those already mentioned there will be talks by Boehnke, Charles Wiper, chairman of the Lane County Red Cross. Just before the caravan gets under way for Camp, Mayor Elisha Large will present keys to the city to Camp Adair soldiers.

The Eugene Elks launched the drive early in January and the response from Lane county citizens was so whole-hearted that two large warehouses in Eugene were necessary to store the collected articles. The warehouses served as a central collection point and articles in the need of repair were reconditioned by a corps of skilled refurbishers. Officials of the lodge aver that this collection drive which culminates Saturday is one of the most successful of any drive ever attempted. Virtually every man, woman and child in Lane county contributed something toward the day rooms of Camp Adair.

A partial list of items to be sent to the Post Saturday includes 40 ping pong tables fully equipped, table and reading lamps, book cases, over-stuffed chairs and davenport, and many miscellaneous articles suitable for furnishing the rooms.

Privates Charles Gillmore, our barber, and Howard Grogan, are spending the late winter months in Pennsylvania.

Pfc. Glen B. Bown, the musical Mormon, has transferred to Headquarters.

In his home, Brooklyn, on fur-lough, Pfc. Samuel Storeh, 24, graduate with a Bachelor of Science degree from City College of New York, and later a fur buyer in Philadelphia, was married January 27 to Miss Ruth Vitow, 22, his college co-ed sweetheart. Mrs. Storeh may come to Oregon within a few weeks. Meanwhile "Storeh" returned to camp alone.

Sergeants Alfred Denault and Victor Rick, Corporal Arthur Roberts, and Privates Addison Nadeau, Forrest M. Criss, Conrad Sutton, and John Luttrell have gone to another Post, while Sgt. David Charles, Cpl. Bob Dreher and Privates first class Paul Reichlin and Seymour Landau are OSC casualties. Good luck, all.

Between being shot and re-shot, and examined and re-examined, and getting our Sunday school lessons, we have been mightily engaged in pursuits other than journalistic this week, hence the shortness of the column. (Sighs from the audience: "Thank Goodness.")

JEWISH CHAPLAIN TO CONDUCT SERVICES FOR SERVICEMEN OF THE 56TH DIVISION

Commonly this Friday evening, February 12th, at 7:30 o'clock, and every Friday evening thereafter, Chaplain Chiff, the Jewish chaplain associated with the post chaplain's office, will conduct services in Chapel No. 3—B and 7th streets south. "I understand that you are not attending religious services this year either. I say 'EITHER' because you did not attend them last year or the year before or the year before that. . . We are paying too high a price for the privilege of freely worshipping for you to make the choice of neglect. . . This war is being fought for the right to hold these services YOU are staying away from." (Excerpt from a letter by a Jewish chaplain to his former congregation.)
All servicemen of the Jewish faith are urged to attend religious services Friday evening.

It's Mr. Smith Now In W. O. Promotion

For most soldiers the wonderful, wonderful day they can put Mr. before their name again will come just about six months after the duration. But not Mr. Donald J. Smith, newly appointed Warrant Officer of the 796th Ordinance, 96th Division. Mr. Smith was recently appointed Warrant Officer from S-Sgt.

W. O. Smith has served seven years in the army and during that time has been stationed at many posts, including Camp Roberts, Ft. Leavenworth, Ft. Knox, Ft. Myers, and Ft. Hayes. Mr. Smith arrived here in a July cadre and at present lives with his wife Anna M. at 418 Marion St., Salem. His home town is Toledo, Ohio, where he attended the University of Toledo.
