SOCIAL SWIRL

Socially speaking, the first week of February started off with a bang on the Camp Adair front, Aside from the regularly scheduled activities that have become part of the camp Miranda ... resplendent in a tight routine, such as the Friday night EM dances at the Service skirt, bare midriff and bra, beads Clubs, the new post attraction-Night Club night-on Satur- and a turbaned headdress featurday night drew capacity attendances.

Then, too, there was the touring USO show at the theatres and Field House, this time featuring Ada Leonard disposed of a basketfull of favors and her All-Girl Band (and another USO show in the offing for the guests. "Junior Miss," the laff-comedy now in its second year on Broadway-booked for the 20th, at-

week from this Saturday night!) Service Club 1 was turned into a In addition to this, there were sev- new-style night club last Saturday Joe Grizlak, who did song impereral weddings and parties in the night for "Night Club" night, a surrounding Willamette valley new entertainment feature on the towns. So, you see what we mean post. With colorful posters and Rubell, who sang several popular by "starting off with a bang!" patriotic streamers as decorations, and onlookers jammed the ball-With "Carmen Miranda" and an room for several hours of gaiety. authentic Latin American setting, Supervised by the Service Club

PX GIRL BALLOT

INVISIBLE COLLAR STAY

My choice for The PX Girl

of Camp Adair is.

who works at Post Exchange No.

Signed: Name and Rank

Organization.

No soldier may cast more than one vote.

Large Stock

Officers' Raincoats

Trench Coats Oilskin Coats

Army Store

3rd and Monroe

Corvallis, Oregon

Phone 1180-J

Philatelist??

WE ARE! We're Collecting Ration Stamp No. 17 now.

Don't be panicky. You can still buy shoes if you contribute to our Stamp Collection.

* Stamp Collector

BUSTER BROWN SHOE STORE

Corvallis

staff (which sounds like a Wall Street law firm) "Blodgett, Caddy, Clensos, Linahan, Greene and Tullis," the night went without a

The entertainment portion of the program featured Pvt. Tex Houseman who did a bang-up impersonation of "Souse-American" Carmen ing enough fruit and vegetables to open a concession in Portland, With typical gyrations and "bumps," he Others appearing in the show were Miss June Powell, who did interpretive Spanish dances: Pvt. sonations of Bonnie Baker and Ronnie Kemper; Warrant Officer selections (as well as direct the band); and a Torero and Bull-fight featuring as the former, Pvt. Bozzo and as the front part of the latter, Pvt. Malpede with Pvt. La Mura bringing up the rear. Emceeing the affair were W. O. Rubell and Cpl. Opner.

South American waiters, dishing out the menu which was strictly outh of the border and featured chili, tamales and ravioli, included Pvts. Fuentes, Medina, Calamia, Carro, Baradeo, Frampton and Peno. Each was dressed appropri-

And as special guests of the half the members of her band, who dropped in after they had played their last night of the Camp-USO crowds for two hours. show at the Field House. The other half of the group went to Service Club 1, also,

Carnival Night, Too!

An atmosphere of carnival days . . with barkers, balloons and rafters with guests. Along the outh side of the ballroom, miscellaneous booths were constructed where the "customers" could fish, Jamming: throw darts, toss rings or have their weight guessed and win free and competition was keen. The new bracket lights, installed durmood was obvious. Every table available was taken and the list of reservations was filled long before the requests stopped pouring in.

The refreshment stand furnished "get-'am-while-they're-hot" franks and soda pop, and business was better than good.

into two sections ... one at 9 and fit of one and all. sented, in turn, Pvt. Jack Gates who repeated at popular demand sang; Sgt. Freeman of the 96th who impersonated Hollywood movie stars; Cpl. Nick Sansonia, who was welcomed back after a furlough back home in New York; S/Sgts. Jones and Gibson, the "Two Sergeants of Song" with piano and voice; and Pvt. Ray Maurino, who sang. The band of the evening was hybrid in nature but swell to listen to. Some of the members were "loaned" by Chief Warrant Officer Krog and the rest of the outfit was recruited from places known only to those in command of the club, and those making up the outfit included Homer Carlson, John Pospichal, Lloyd Perryman, Morris

Sunday Varieties: With Sunday being more or less

Levine and Joseph Truman.

KRATAVIL'S SHOE SHOP

For Quality Shoe Repairing

We guarantee both workmanship and materials. Full line of polishes and shoe laces.

118 S. 3rd St., Corvallis

HURLEY'S LOTION For Poison Oak Over 5000 bottles sold. Guaranteed treatment for poison oak relief. 50c bottle by mail. HURLEY'S DRUGS, Albany

Sales and Service Modern Shop - Best Mechanics

Wilson Motors Phone 43, 2nd & Jackson

SERVICE CLUB DATEBOOK

Thursday, Feb. 11-Open House at Club 1; Jam session at Club 2. Friday, Feb. 12-Enlisted men's dances commemorating Lincoln's birthday. Both clubs, 8:30 until 11 p. m.

Saturday, Feb. 13-Valentine Night at Club 1; Sweetheart Dance at Club 2 as regular "Night Club" night activity ... dance and floor show ... make reservations

Sunday, Feb. 14-Recorded concert of operatic gems ... Club 1 from 2 to 3 p. m. "Concert Hour" over KOAC dedicated at soldiers ... Club 2, 3 to 4 p. m. "Western Jamborce," Club 1, 7:30 p. m. Open House at both clubs all day.

Monday, Feb. 15-Informal and impromptu entertainment at both clubs. Open house, Tuesday, Feb. 16-Latin American dance classes starting at 7 p.m. at Club 1.

Wednesday, Feb. 17-Game night at both clubs. Bingo with cigarettes as prizes.

official "visitors day" on the post, Dance in Dallas: the Service Clubs keep this in mind

Over at Club 1, there was a 'Western Jamboree" in the evening featuring the talents of Pvts. Richardson and P. J. Marina, PFCs Clarence Shew, George Belville and John Head. These boys vening were Ada Leonard and combine and give forth on guitar, bass fiddle, cider jug and piano, and continued to entertain the

Game Nights:

Those liking Bingo have an opportunity to partake of the game on Wednesday night at Club 1 at Service Club 2 last Saturday high scorers. Wednesday is designight to mark cabaret night and other games are also available.

The regular jam session, a popular interval at Club 1 on Wednesprizes. Each booth had its barker day night, last week featured the musical talents of Sgt. Merle Howard on the tenor sax, Sgt. Robert ing the past week, were fitted with Fowlk on trumpet, Sgt. Eddie Gal- Back on Duty: colored bulbs and a gay, holiday loway on drums, Pvt. Keith Greka, on piano, and Pvt. Ray Thomas on trombone. Réquest numbers were filled willingly and it was a swell down beat on the solid side. The band will not be heard this week, however, since they are playing in Palmist: Eugene, But the jam sessions are The entertainment portion of the not confined to Club 1. For on program was handled in typical "night club" style, and was divided hep-cats get together for the bene-

It seems like so much rehash Club 2 featured a jitterbug demonstration (that REALLY was a and Hawaii. demonstration) during intermission at Club 1. The break featured Pvt. Allen's vocals, Pvt. Verrone's dances and Pvt, Mahon Tullis' ivory tickling.

Entertain in Albany:

Residents of Albany who are members of the business and Professional Women's Club (and their guests) are still talking about the variety show staged by the men from Camp Adair last Tuesday night. Pvt. Tullis made the arrangements and the program introduced Sgt. Calabrese, who was MC and also sang; Pvt. Perez, whistler; Pvt. Wong, comic songs; Pvt. Andy Dahl, banjoist; Cpl. Healy, dancer, and Pvt. Tullis rounded out the show with his piano selections.

Wedding Receptions:

True to his army career, one Pvt. chose to celebrate his wedding by attending the carnival night at Club 2 last Saturday evening. He is Pvt. Steupner and he was married in Post Chapel 1 at 8:30 p. m. after which he and his lovely bride, and wedding party of 15 came over to the clubhouse. Mrs. Merriam had suggested court favors and the bride and groom wore paper king's and queen's crowns, and their guests were topped as knights and ladies of the court. Novel, no?

Valentine's Day to Be Marked: It's to be a Valentine Dance at Club 1 next Saturday night and a "Sweetheart Night" at Club 2. Featured performers will appear at either club and appropriate decorations will be on view. There is one word of caution MAKE YOUR RESERVATIONS EARLY. And in case you want dates, as arranged by Madame Blodgett's Super Deluxe (No Bags) Date Bureau, Inc., put in your bid at least three days in advance!

Here's a swell chance for 35 men and make special effort to have a who want to dance in Dallas next varied and extended entertainment Wednesday night. The Service program. At Club 2, the regular Girls League is throwing a little song fest was held from 5:30 until soirce at the service center and 8:30 after which those liking the are inviting thirty-and-five EM boogie-beat could listen to Pvts. from Adair. If you want to go, be Bechenck and Gobel and Sgt. Ed- at Service Club 1 no later than announcement of the marriage of wards, who alternated on the 7 p. m. First come first to go. Of Miss Frances L. Nasvik, daughter course it's free!

Dance in Town:

The gala Timber Wolf dance. one of the outstanding social affairs of the winter season, was held State College, Corvallis. The dance was free to enlisted men and featured music by the Infantry Band under the baton of Sgt. Everard.

Dance contests, with enticing prizes, were the feature of the hung from a coronet crown. where the feature of the evening affair and augmented the enteris "Bingo Bust," and at Club 2 on tainment portion of the program multi-colored streamers, prevailed of packs of cigarettes are offered show and featured Cpl. Chuck Healy as MC, Pvt. Ray Kolver, this club, too, was jammed to the nated as "Game Night" at both former radio singer, Pvt. Horan, clubs, as you already know, and magician extraordinary, and Pvt. Ray Allen whose interpretation of members of the university A Cathe late Helen Morgan had 'em rollin' in the aisles, to borrow a corny adage.

> All in all, it was a grand dance and the Adairmen are looking forward to the next one.

Miss Elizabeth Rogers, directress duties over the weekend after hav- at a Portland ice revue last week. ing spent the better part of last program . . . for those liking their week on sick leave, Mrs. Merriam carried on while she was away.

Dorothy Cannon, world famous individuals of the United States secrets in their lives.

Service Men's Center in the Federated Churches on Saturday eve-(reportorially speaking) to keep ning and made her initial appearhis "Bath-tub Pantomime" and bragging about the Friday night ance last Saturday. She had beenlisted men's dances at the clubs hind her world-wide experience, . but they're always worthy of having read palms of patrons in mention. Last week's dance at every section of the globe, including Ceylon, Sumatra, Shanghai

Soldier to Wed:

Applying at the Benton county office last Friday for a marriage license were Dotren E. Mattingly of Frankfort, Kentucky, stationed with the army at Camp Adair, and Georgia V. Sabutis of Albany.

Mrs. Woodrow Barnes was hon-daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas for the Army. Thorsen. Now she is the bride of Lieutenant Woodrow Barnes of the Timber Wolf Division, Camp Adair. His home, before he entered the service, was in San Antonio, Texas. The wedding took place in Vancouver, Washington, last December 26. Chaplain Bare read the ceremony.

ored with a miscellaneous wedding shower last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Louise A. Kanipe,

730 North Fourteenth street.

Refreshments were served to the honoree, Mesdames Mary Ryman, Peggy Hayes, Jerry Brooks, Merle Pierpont, Helen Fulton, Mary Carrol, Marion McEvoy, Eilene Averill, Dorothy Sieving, Louisa Kanipe, Lorena Byrd and Jo Siratt, and Misses Helen Lockren, Alice Stone, Rose Morse and Mary Awdry Rad-

Lieutenant and Mrs. Barnes are now at home on Brook Lane.

Better late than never comes the

Vance-Nasvik Nuptials

of Mr. and Mrs. Peter O. Nasvik of St. Paul, Minnesota, and Sgt. Cecil O. Vance, son of Mrs. S. W. Nelson of Minneapolis, Minnesota, and stationed at present at Camp Adair. The ceremony was perlast Saturday night at Memorial 8:30 p. m., in Mayflower chapel, Corvallis, with the Rev. Lael Wesberg, pastor of the Grace Lutherar church, officiating.

The bride chose as her wedding dress a fitted white satin gown, designed Princess style, which she wore with a fingertip-length veil

Miss Bea Nelson of Eugene, Ore., was bridesmaid and wore a floorlength blue lace gown. Gordon Barron of Corvallis was best man.

Both the bride and groom are graduates of Hamline University, St. Paul, Minnesota, and both were pella Choir. The bride arrived in Corvallis on Tuesday before the

Centenarian Steals Show In Portland Ice Revue

A Centenarian who has been of Service Club 2, resumed her skating for 95 years stole the show He was John Jerome White of Spokane. Representing the Spokane athletic round table White cut figure "8's", skated backwards and whirled to the amazement of onlookers.

"I've been on ice so long, I'm palmist, is to read hands of rugged preserved," cracked White, who voted for Abraham Lincoln at 21 army and disclose the mystifying and who raised 10 children, the oldest now 79.

> Dr. A. W. Marke Optometrist Ball Bldg., Corvallis, Oregon Office Phone 470

FINE PORTRAITS

Reasonably Priced Cameras-Supplies-Films

Wilson Studio 135 S. 2nd Corvallis

Don't Put It Off--Have Your Portrait Made TODAY . . .

Have it made right here on the Post.

The Ball Studio PX No. 1

Main Bus Terminal

Rolling Stock

Indianapolis, Ind. (CNS)-Members of a boys club here have given up $1,105.11 which would Before her marriage the honoree have bought candy, ice cream, was Miss Margaret Westcott, grand movies and pie and bought a jeep

THE BABE BLOWS

Babe Ruth, 48 Saturday, blew out candles at the annual Baseball Writer's party in New York.

TYPEWRITERS ADDING MACHINES REPAIRED

115 North 16th, Corvallis, Ore

IT'S A FACT

As we don't have to resell your policy every year—as it is renewed by mail—it is not necessary that our rates include a yearly resale cost. That's why a Farmers continuing form automobile policy gives the finest protection for less.

EARL HITE

Dist. Mgr., Phone 844 221 W. 1st, Albany, Or.

AT THE EXCHANGES OR IN TOWN

IN BOTTLES

Dr. Pepper Bottling Co., Salem

Good Portraiture Still Available!

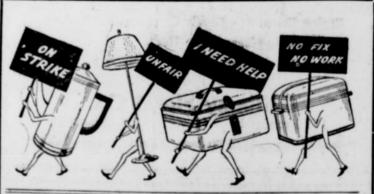

FINE PORTRAITURE is like fine clothes . . . it wears! The Jesten-Miller Studio in Miller's Department Store in Salem invites the boys in service to visit their studio when in Salem.

Now is the time to have that service picture. taken and sent home to the home folks . . . to the wife or sweetheart.

SHOP JESTEN-MILLER'S FOR GOOD PHITOGRAPHY

The Jesten-Miller Studio In Salem

With Good Care Your Electric Appliances Will See You Through

Your electrical appliances, particularly now, represent a very vital value not only to yourself, but to the Nation at large. They are responsible for many additional hours of valuoble time to the war effort.

Now, while your appliances can be repaired, may we suggest that you make arrangements to have it done soon. Repairmen, in some districts, are scarce, repair parts for some equipment are hard to secure but in most cases, your appliances can be repaired. Call a repairman today and give him time to work out your problems.

Mountain States Power Co. "A Self-Supporting, Tax-Paying, Private Enterprise"

> We serve the cities and rural territory Surrounding Camp Adair.