96th vs. Timber Wolf 'Big Game' Wednesday

Two Bands to Play; Top League Teams Meet in Preliminary Tilt

It has been "in the air at Camp Adair" since basketball reared its beautiful head. It will happen next Wednesday night, at Field House.

The big game between the "varsity" team of the 96th Division and that rugged, fast five of the Timber Wolf Division.

It will be a big night at our local sports palace, for both the Timber Wolf Field Artillery Band, under direction of W. O. Joseph Rubell, and the 96th Division Artillery band, under Warrant Officer Chetney will be on hand to furnish stirring between-game music.

As a prelude to the main game, the smooth Div. Hdq. team of Special Troops League in the Timber Wolf Division will play the crack 921st F.A. five of the 96th.

The first contest will be at 6:30, the second at 8 o'clock.

Although the division game by any count should be a lulu, it would be indeed ill-advised to try and dope-bucket the outcome, for there hasn't been much chance to make an accurate comparison of the teams.

The 96th Presents

The 96th players are picked from top squads in the Divisional play and will embrace five each from the Hdq. and MP squads, with one player from the 281st team. Man for man they will be bigger than the Timber Wolf quintet, with such sky-scrapers as T/Sgt. H. Berge, 6 foot 3 inches; Pvt. W. Reeder, 6 foot 4 inch MP giant; and Pvt. R. Jackowski, 6 foot 3 inches, in the line-up.

Balance of the roster from which starting players will be drawn includes M/Sgt. H. B. Owen, S/Sgt. M. J. Freed, S/Sgt. C. F. Bolte, Cpl. N. Weiner, Pvt. L. Wetkowske, J. Sevier (the trick shot artist), Jack Kelley and W. Lepper.

Oregon Trips Idaho League Fight Close

Three Teams In Line For Conference Title

Oregon added nothing to the peace of mind of the northern division leaders, Washington State and Washington, by a hard fought 44-40 victory Tuesday night over the University of Idaho basketball team at Eugene.

Coupled with the Webfoots' Monday night 66-41 victory over the Vandals, this left them but a half game behind the league leading Cougars although they were nominally in third place, with a few percentage points separating them from the Washington Huskies.

Friday and Saturday nights Washington and Washington State meet at Pullman and Oregon and Oregon State play at Corvallis and Eugene. Potentially these games can send one of the top three teams definitely on the victory road in the division race or further before the ultimate decision.

In winning their fourth game with the Vandals last night the Oregon club found itself extended to the limit to turn back repeated challenges.

Camp Adair SPORTS

Pfc. Bob Ruskauff, Editor

Oh, Yeah!

Oregon Game Laws indicate that this Lt. (of the 336 QM Depot Co.—at least we can go that far) shall be nameless here:

Lt. and Mrs. _____ enjoyed a fine pheasant dinner this week. But it happened this way: During a road march the birds was disturbed by the passing of troops and, as it tried to fly the Albany out of the vicinity, struck a wire, broke its neck. The pheasant died (according to our report), from internal injuries.

P. S.—No kiddin' warden—the company didn't even have their rifles along that day. We might as well have used the Lt.'s name after all.

Lt. Sindlinger Is New Camp Adair AO

Follows Capt. F. Wimer, Lt. Wright

"If a person has to be quoted athletically, I should say things are going along about as fast as they can go, though we hope to make them go faster."

And so we quote the new Post Athletic officer, Lt. Walter Sindlinger, from his new office at Field House.

Lt. Sindlinger, who arrived last Friday, falls heir to the job vacated by Capt. Frank Wimer and 1st Lt. Byron Wright, recently assigned to other duties.

The new Post A. O. is a product of Gallon, O. He is a former high school instructor of dramatics, who combined this duty with the somewhat different assignment of assistant coaching—and the coaching was in practically every type of sport.

From Camp Atterbury, Ind., he came to Camp Adair via Army Administration School at Grinnell, O., via Ft. Douglas.

A Sporting Question—What Makes A Star?

L. H. (Greg) Gregory, Sportsed the Oregonian, is refraining, for 30 days from calling any athlete a star. Reason, an Albany subscriber beefed, in the following manner:

"In nine-tenths of the stories for the public print anyone who ever wore an athletic uniform has been designated as a star when: (1) he got killed either in war or in an automobile accident; (2) got married; (3) got arrested and (4) in innumerable other circumstances." Greg believes the guy has a legitimate squawk.

The Immortal 'Rock'; His Words A Prophecy

A former Notre Dame gridironer recently recalled some prophetic words by Knute Rockne on a home-ward journey from West Point in 1925, after Army administered a 27.0 shelling to the "Fighting Irish." Said Rockne, "I know you fellows feel bad, but I want you to remember one thing: If we ever go to war, God help the fellows who ever tackle them!"

On that 1925 Army team were Brig. Gen. LaVerne (Blondy) Saunders, Brig. Gen. Emmet (Rosy) O'Donnell and Maj. Trap Trapnell, all decorated for distinguished service in this war, and Capt. Moe Daly, captured with Maj. Trapnell by the Japs in the Philippines, and Art Meehan, killed there.

Elect Your PX Girl; Contest Rules Here

If your gal just missed and isn't of the four, then take your pick of these gals and try again. The Ballot Box will remain at each PX. So vote in the finals for one of the four girls.

We hope yours is one of these four gals—your dream of the PX. But the only way to put her across trooper is—start bucking for her now! Vote.

Meeting one of the northwest's toughest basketball teams in a game that bids to be fast, hard-fought and, whatever else will go down in the "good cause" book, the Timber Wolf cagers will tangle with the famed Portland Ballermakers, in Portland, Saturday night.

Willamette Wins Game In Late 5 Minute Spurt

Until the last five minutes of their Monday night game in Salem, it looked as if the Timber Wolf division team would grab a win from the fast University of Willamette five.

Then Willamette spurred and captured one of the closest cage battles on the schedule, 50-45, from Lt. Bob Duffey's players.

At half time the crack division team led 23-19.

The set-to was one of two played during the past week, for the Timber Wolves traveled to Eugene Saturday, only to drop their second encounter of the season to the powerful University of Oregon quintet.
