in a rich tenor voice, with his own guitar accompaniment, and Nicky at the piano, "Chiquita," "Always in My Heart" and "Come Back to Sorrento." Tommy won a nice round of applause and it is hoped he will appear soon again.

Pvt. Jack Gates side-stepped his routine singing and pantomiming momentarily during the evening to appear as "Miss Jackie Powers," a Dotty Lamour exponent, with a long-sarong with a queer-rear. He redeemed himself later by appearing as Jack Gates and offering several vocal selections in his rich bass-baritone voice.

By popular demand, and also as a final "Swan Song," Sgt. Tom Pavlik of the 96th Division appeared as a female impersonator and interpreted a Hindu dancer to the amusement of the audience. The entire routine was executed without a mishap... nary a slip of the bra, nor a dislocation of his "lurong" (shades of Tondalaya in "White Cargo"). Tom leaves Adair for a post in Mississippi some time this week.

Rounding out the program was the fine dance music of the 382nd Band from the 96th Division. Plans for decorations and program were made by Miss Madge Kuhwarth, Club 2's social and recreational hostess, and Pfc. Gus Cerese, man about Club 2.

and encored with several western songs. They are a string trio.

Cpl. Hay, the "Singing Soldier," appeared next and sang several well-known selections including "Without a Song" and "Shortnin' Bread," accompanied at the piano by Cpl. Bartley.

Time out for gags and patter between "Mistress" Emmons and Cpl. Watson, which in turn lead up to the appearance of Pvt. John Thomas, who scattered favors among the patrons as the "Breath of Spring." Then, as a finale number, the "Eight Gorgeous Husies" came forth.

All talent was furnished by the Geysers and the Timber Wolf Division Infantry Band played for the show and for the dancing before and after.

Service Club 2 having gone through the process of having its face lifted with a new coat of spring paint... new furniture and decorations... and additional improvements will have its "baby" opening this Saturday, April 3, when the regular weekly feature, "Cabaret Night" will be staged.

The grand opening which will feature one of the coast's finest dance bands, a carload of lovelies from the neighboring "Junior Service Leagues" and a bangup entertainment show will be held a week from Sat., April 10.

Every effort is now being made by the directress, Mrs. Florence C. Merriam, the social and recreational hostess, Miss Madge Kuhwarth and their staffs to make the opening a grand and memorial party for all the enlisted men stationed at Camp Adair.

With the completion of the work at Club 2, Camp Adair can burst the buttons on its G.I. vest with pride... for it will possess two of the finest service clubs to be found anywhere on similar army posts in the United States.

Billfold Girl

. . . . of the Week

Introducing Miss Corinne Pulliam of Lebanon, Indiana, as the Billfold Girl of the week. She is a senior attending the De Pauw University at Greencastle, Indiana, and a member of Kappa Alpha Theta.

This romance began when Pvt. Harold Graves of Hq. Co. SCU 1911 found a picture of Miss Pulliam in a newspaper and entered it in a recent beauty contest.

Miss Pulliam's photo won first prize and Pvt. Graves sent her the paper requesting a picture of her. Says Pvt. Graves, "Correspondence has reached such a degree as to indicate "Love at first letter" and is steadily growing with each letter.

Miss Pulliam is the winner of many beauty contests, and her picture holds first, second, and third place in Pvt. Grave's billfold.
