"Adam and Fallen Man" will be the subject of the Lesson Sermon in all churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, May 9.
 The Golden Text will be, "As in Adam all die, so in Christ shall all be made alive" (I Cor. 15:22).

 Among the citations which will comprise the Lesson-Sermon will be the following from the Bible, "Now I say, that the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all; and because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father." (Gal. 4:1,6).

The Lesson-Sermon will also include the following correlative passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: Whatever indicates the fall of man or the opposite of God or God's absence, is the Adam-dream, which is neither Mind nor man, for it is not begotten of the Father ... God is the creator of man, and, the divine Principle of man remaining perfect, the divine idea of reflection, man, remains perfect" (pp. 282, 470).

interesting dogs. Take "Shadow" as an example. This pup is a thoroughbred Kerry Blue terrier, who holds the reputation of being the meanest, gamest, and "fightingest" dog. He will literally tear a person apart at the slightest false movement.

There's also a great Dane called Ajax who is adept at hurdling as are the rest of the dogs.

The things these "almost-human" animals can do, seem almost unbelievable.

Meet the Duchess

In order to give a better picture of the average dog, let's look into the background of "Duchess," the queen of the kennels.

Poor girl, a house dog in civilian life, she entered the army without warning. Her master, Mr. Paul Quay of Cleveland, Ohio gave her to Uncle Sam for the duration, and she was sent to Ft. Robinson, Nebraska.

There under the guidance of Sgt. Paolucci, she received her basic training. For the first two weeks the trainer's work merely consisted of keeping the kennels clean and getting acquainted with the dogs.

Basic Begins

Then all the dogs were put through four weeks of basic training and at that time, man's best friend was leading a dog's life. In this period he learned to "Heel" which doesn't mean "Heel" Hitler, but refers to walking by the trainer's side without leash.

Sitting was also taught, but this

Hello Mom—How Are You?

The men in picture who are at Service Club 2, waiting their turn to make records, have the right idea. Seated in the center is jovial Eddie Davis, representative of the Pepsi Cola Company. Mr. Davis is smiling as he listens to the Speakaphone message which Pvt. Caesar Carminucci is sending to the folks back home. It is Davis' duty to operate the machine and make sure that no military information is given out. Reading left to right in this picture and standing next to Eddie Davis are the following: Sgt. George Thell, Pvt. Eugene Smolinski, Pvt. Herbert Bloom and Cpl. Eddie Appel. If you want to make your loved ones feel good, why don't you drop down to Service Club 2 and make a record to send to your mother, father, sister, brother or girl friend—they can hear you as plainly as if you were talking on the telephone.

The teaching of staying is a little more difficult. In this position the dog must not move until given permission to do so by a hand signal. The last move taught is to get the dog to lie down.

After these four weeks were completed, the Duchess and her pals were given two weeks of advanced training. Here they received instruction in attacking all intruders whether during the day or evening if given the signal to do so. At the completion of this basic and advanced training, the Duchess and her buddies were ready for duty. They were sent to Camp

Adair as "Dogs of War"—prepared for a real fighting dog's life.

Three Stripes to O'Connell

Promotion of Cpl. James O'Connell of Eugene to sergeant was announced here Wednesday. Sgt. O'Connell is in Post Public Relations and was formerly in Post Special Services. He served in the Post Guard company for his basic training after enlistment at Camp Adair last December. He will leave in a few days for Quartermaster O.C.S.

While in Special Services Sgt. O'Connell was on the staff of The Sentry and also assisted in staging radio and other entertainment features.
