Officers Party In Deadeye Div.

Proves Big Success
Present Floor Show
For This Occasion

One of the largest dances ever to take place in the Deadeye Division for the officers, was staged last Saturday night at the Officers' Club.

The party was given in honor of Mrs. Paul R. Goode and Miss Betsy Goode, by Col. and Mrs. Macey Dill, and among the guests of honor were Brig. General Claudius M. Easley, regimental commander; Col. Halloran, Coy. May, Mrs. Kane and Mrs. Bradley, and Gen. Dahlquist. The club was crowded to capacity.

Through arrangement with Mrs. Blodgett, directress of Service Club 1, a top-notch floor show and entertainment was secured for the dinner party by Lt. Dan Millsaps, aide-to-General Easley, and Lt. P. T. Griffin, regimental officer.

The floor show, professionally presented (with the MC and other acts in white ties and tails ... for the performance!), opened with the camp-and-world-famous equilibrium artistry of Cpl. Eddie Jacobsen, who never fails to leave his audience spellbound. Miss June Powell, vivacious and lovely brunette dancer, was featured next in her Mexican dance, and returned later in the show with her Hula. Cpl. James Horan, outstanding magician, appeared next and Pvt. Bernard Kovler, operatic tenor, rendered several well-known songs. Lt. Griffin introduced the show and besides the musical accompaniment of the Division Artillery Band, which also played for dancing, Doris Kendall and Pvt. Oliver were Miss Powell's accompanists and Pvt. Pat Maurino sang during her hula number.

Appel Entertains At Oregon State

Last Saturday at Oregon State college, Cpl. Eddie Appel's 17 piece band played for a GI military ball in the Memorial Union Ballroom at the college. This dance was put on by the military honor society.

Cpl. Appel is a member of the Timber Wolf Division. He conducts the Artillery band for this organization.

Sp. Troops Give Show

The Special Troops of the Timber Wolf Division presented last Saturday night's floor show and entertainment at the regular weekly Cabaret Night at Club 1. A diversified array of talent was on tap for the evening, and Lt. Renfrow's Sea Gull Regiment dance band played for the show and for dancing.

Pvt. Walter James opened the show by singing several semi-classical songs, including, "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" and "The Desert Song." Next came the soldier who never fails to baffle his audiences ... Unicyclist Sgt. Kenneth Woods, who performed with his low and high one-wheel cycles.

"The Waltz King," Sgt. Earl Edwards, who often entertains at the clubs with his smooth piano artistry, offered "Dizzy Fingers"

Timber Wolf Officers Throw

Timber Wolves Open
Officer Club Again;
Bldg. Redecorated

A big night was in store for the Timber Wolf officers and their guests last Saturday night when their newly-redecorated and refurnished Officers Club reopened with the "Spring Frolic" featuring a gala talent show from Portland with many lovely lassies and dance music by the Mountaineers' band.

The program was arranged by Lt. Col. Richard Hopelain, president of the board of governors of the Club, with the assistance of Major Smith of Div. Artillery; Lt. P. J. Quinn, club secretary; Major Kahn of the Engineer Bn.; Capt. Trainer of the Sea Gull Regiment; Capt. Brand of the Mountaineer Regiment, and Lt. Black of the Geysers Regiment.

Among the guests of honor were Major Gen. Gilbert R. Cook and his party including Mrs. Cece Cook, his daughter, and Mrs. Atwood; Dr. Strand, president of Oregon State College, and Mrs. Strand; Dean Maris, dean of women at OSC. Gov. Earl Snell of Oregon and Mrs. Snell were invited but were unable to attend due to last minute commitments.

The club, which has been repainted in a soft shade of green and trimmed with a complimentary rose-pink hue, was packed to capacity for the event. The place has been entirely refurnished with large easy chairs, occasional tables, lamps and other homey fixtures. Draperies carry out the theme of decoration.

Tip-Top Talent

The floor show, billed as "Joe Young's Variety Revue," was obtained through a theatrical agency. Continued on page 10, column 3

Division MP Commander Major R. M. Criswell, Married in Portland

In a quiet marriage ceremony performed Saturday afternoon in Portland, Major Raymond M. Criswell, commander, MP Platoon of the Timber Wolf Division, took as his bride Miss Pauline F. Franklin, formerly of Wewoke, Okla.

The nuptials were performed by Chaplain George L. Steinbeck of Medics, Special Troops of the Division, in the French Room of the Old Heathman Hotel. Standing as witnesses were S/Sgt. James H. Sherwood and Sgt. Wilfred H. Craig, both of the Timber Wolf MP Platoon.

Col. Snow Sponsors Banners for Troops

Capt. William McBride, medical officer for the special troops, reports that Col. E. C. Snow, executive officer for the same group, has created a great deal of enthusiasm by giving a banner to the outfit which has the cleanest and neatest barracks each day.

"One is also presented to the tip-top mess hall every day," said Capt. McBride.

He admitted that the idea is not a new one, but that the boys in the special troops make a real effort to acquire these prized banners.

Free Color Postcards

Scenic postcards, in natural colors, have arrived on the post this week for you enlisted men!

They are distributed through the two Service Clubs by courtesy of the State Highway Commission and are free for the asking.

Familiar landmarks and places of interest, such as Mt. Hood, Crater Lake, and the like, are shown on these Oregon cards. When you should write home, and can't find time for a letter ... a post card is the next best thing.

They're yours for the asking at both Service Clubs.

Army Equipment is Displayed at Mild Ball in Corvallis

Highlighting this year's annual Military Ball at Oregon State College, Corvallis, was a display of army equipment loaned to the college by the Timber Wolf Division. In charge of the display was Sgt. Carl W. Ebel, and the process of camouflage as well as an arrangement of field mines and one of the newer army inventions, the "amphibious jeep" were on hand.

This dance is one of the outstanding highlights of the social season on the campus.

Operation of the refrigerator car pool by American railroads saved almost 45 million empty refrigerator car-miles in the last four months of 1942.

Physiotherapy S-Sgt. Marries Dallas Girl

Big event of the week end of particular interest to the Medics and those at the Station hospital was the marriage of S/Sgt. Hermann Ochs of Physiotherapy and the former Margaret Gossen of Dallas, Oregon. The wedding took place Saturday night, May 1, at the Grace Mennonite church, Dallas. The bride wore a long white dress with a white veil and carried a bouquet of orchids. Best man for the occasion was Cpl. Albert Swayze of Physio.

A reception was held after the ceremony for approximately 150 guests in the basement of the church.

The bride and groom left after the wedding for a week's trip in Washington. Upon their return they will be at home at Dallas, Oregon.

Cpl. Cusack, Ex (?) U. S. Employee, Weds

They both worked for Uncle Sam, in San Francisco, and fell in love. So far little has changed—they still both work for Uncle Sam, but Cpl. Edwin Stanton Cusack, Casual Section of Post Headquarters now wears GI clothes. The lassie he married Sunday in double-ring ceremony, formerly Ann Chestlocke, works with the Department of Internal Revenue in Tacoma, where the nuptials took place.

Pvt. Samuel J. Scharf, best man, flew up from San Francisco. Bride of Honor was Helen Sykosky of Tacoma.
