

Lecture Series, Show Launched

Timber Wolves' SSO Offers 'Education For Freedom' Every Tuesday Over KOAC

On Tuesday last, May 11, the Timber Wolf Division SSO presented the first program in a new series of Orientation Lectures. This new series, under the title of Education for Freedom, was conceived by the Special Service Office, and is written by Sgt. John C. O'Neil of that office. Taking the place and continuing in the footsteps of the last series of Orientation programs, Education for Freedom brings its listeners current information concerning the vast Theater of War (none of the material used being over a week old, if not less than a week). But that is only half of what this interesting new program has to offer its audience.

The latter half of the broadcast is devoted to a dramatization of the life of some person in America's history who have, by great or small means, made this land a better and a freer place in which to live. It is called "Here Is America."

This week the life of Thomas Jefferson, "The Prophet of Democracy" was dramatized with Sgt. John C. O'Neil as narrator, Cpl. Don Chapman of the Timber Wolf SSO as Jefferson, Pvt. Glenn C. Post of CO H., Geysers as Ben Franklin, Betty Jo Bouska of KOAC as Mrs. Jefferson, and her sister Lana Lou doubling in several character parts.

Next week, May 18, the second production of Education for Freedom will bring you more bulletins covering the War-fronts all over the world, together with another dramatized life of a famous American. These broadcasts are under the supervision of the Timber Wolf Division Special Service Office, headed by Major N. George De Dakis.

AFTER-DUTY RECREATION FOR EM UNDERWAY

Officers, Hostesses Busy Planning Events

MISS MADGE KUHWARTH
Social and Recreational hostess at Service Club 2.

Realizing that "all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy," the executive officers at Camp Adair have made every effort to provide an adequate recreational program on the post. The Field House entertainments, all the way from operas to boxing matches, with a dance thrown in every Friday evening, is one phase. The five motion picture houses are another outlet.

Also high in importance are the Service Clubs with Miss Ann Cady at Club 1 and Miss Madge Kuhwarth at Club 2 in charge of the social and recreational activities housed therein.

Both are endeavoring to provide suitable relaxation for the after duty hours for the enlisted men. Miss Cady and Miss Kuhwarth are the chaperones at the Friday evening dances at the Field House. They have also organized square dances and South American rumba at the clubs.

Community Sings have been initiated also at the two clubs. Both have bingo nights.

Hostesses Experienced

The recreational hostesses make an effort to work together in order not to schedule the same events at Club 1 and Club 2 on the same evening. This is an attempt to give Camp Adair soldiers variety.

Both recreational hostesses are well qualified for their positions. Miss Ann Cady was connected with the stage in and around Los Angeles, California, before she came to this camp.

Miss Madge Kuhwarth was a music supervisor in the public schools at Yakima, Washington.

The post executive officers have created a sound recreational program, and it is up to enlisted men and officers alike to utilize the facilities at hand.

There's an old expression that is very apt in this case: "You can lead a horse to water, but you can't make him drink! You can lead a man to knowledge, but you can't make him think!"

The earth's surface totals 196,940,000 square miles, almost four-fifths of it covered by water.

Lebanon Bond Drive, $10,000

Mrs. Merriam Sings At 'Victory' Show; Students, Faculty Keep Buying Bonds

Service Club 2's directress, Mrs. Merriam, representing "women in the armed forces," was guest of honor, along with Miss Huxley, SPAR recruiting officer of Portland, at the crowning of the "Victory Queen" of the Lebanon War Bond Drive last Friday night.

The drive, conducted solely among the pupils and faculty in the Lebanon public schools, netted $10,000 in bonds. This is considered an "all-out" drive in comparison to the size of the municipality and shows that War Bonds are the most popular commodities being purchased today!

At an elaborate out-door program held in the civic arena, the celebration was conducted with State Superintendent Putnam present to congratulate the students and teachers on the success of the drive.

Mrs. Merriam was called on to sing during the entertainment portion of the program. Also appearing were the third and fourth grade Drum Corps, the seventh and eighth grade Drum and Bugle Corps, the Junior and Senior High School Bands. An exhibition of gymnastics, now being taught in the public schools as part of the nationwide body-building program for the youth of America, was also staged.

Lt. Roveto Marries Miss J. L. Andrews

Among the recent newlyweds in a Timber Wolf Engineering battalion is Lt. William V. Roveto, son of Mr. and Mrs. Achille Roveto of Union City, N. J., who was married to Miss Jeanne L. Andrews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur DeWitt Andrews of Vancouver, Wash., on Sunday, May 2. The ceremony took place at the St. James Parish house in Vancouver.

The bride wore a wedding dress of white chiffon with a fingertip length veil held by a Juliet cap. She was given in marriage by her father and attended by Miss Alpha Marie Johnson.

Lieutenant John H. Grosser served as best man, and Del Des Brisay sang preceding the ceremony.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents.

Upon their return from a wedding trip to the Wauna Lake club, Lieutenant and Mrs. Roveto will be at home in Corvallis.

"My Sister Eileen" On Sun

Bohemian Atmosphere Of Greenwich Village Gives Zest to Play In Theater No. 2

On tomorrow, Saturday and Sunday will be witnessed some of the finest talent yet to appear before Camp Adair audiences, as the entertainment sidelight of life in an army camp reaches fulfillment.

The legitimate stage show, "My Sister Eileen," is the Sunday attraction, as produced by co-eds from the University of Oregon in Eugene, directed by Horace Robinson and secured for the post through the efforts of Mrs. Margaret C. Blodgett, directress at Service Club 1. (Turn to society section for pictures and story.)

The Shell Oil Company's gala variety show will play a two-night stand at this cantonment tomorrow and Saturday. It will be staged at Theatre No. 2 tomorrow at 6:30 and 8:30 p. m., and, on Saturday, will constitute the floor show during the regular Saturday night cabaret at Service Club 2.

Present plans also include a presentation at the Station Hospital on Saturday. Several top-flight vaudeville and comedy acts and prominent luminaries in the entertainment world are featured on this show, which is Shell's contribution to service men.

"My Sister Eileen" will be given twice on Sunday... a matinee at 2:15 and again at 7 p. m. at War Dept. Theatre No. 2... Ave. "C" at North 7th Street.

In addition to these, regular post entertainment and a big array of sports events will lend spice to the after-duty hours of all personnel.
