

Timber Wolf Ball Club Turns in 4th and 5th Straight Wins

Big Time Names On Both Clubs

Touted Commercial Iron Works Team of Portland Sunk With Final Score 8 to 7

The Timber Wolves racked up their fourth consecutive win at George E. Waters Ball Park, in Salem, Sunday afternoon, when they staged a three-run ninth inning rally to down the highly rated Commercial Iron Works team of Portland, 8 to 7.

Each team started a former big league star on the mound and at first base, with the Commercials being one up with a right fielder. Sgt. Jack Knott started for the Wolves opposing Aldon Wilkie, former Pittsburgh Pirate left hander. Roy "Beau" Bell, former Cleveland, St. Louis and Detroit outfielder, held down first for the Wolf nine with Jim Keesey, Philadelphia A's, on the initial sack for the Portlanders. Ed Coleman, Philadelphia A's and St. Louis Browns, was in right field for Portland.

Early Lead

The Wolves went off to a five run lead as they garnered four tallies in the first and added another in the second. Gregory, Frye, Bell and Sabrinsky each singled, Connor got a life on a fielders' choice as Frye went out. An error by George and a fielders' choice by Calhoun shoved over Sabrinsky and Connor to end the scoring. They picked up a run in the second as Gregory doubled and Bell singled. That ended the Wolves scoring until the ninth frame.

The fifth inning saw the Commercials garner six runs to go into the lead as they collected five hits, an error, a base on balls and two fielders' choices. Quin went on the hill for the Wolves and gave up a run on a walk and a single, to give them a two lead.

Armstrong Again

Bell walked to start the last frame, Rich reached on an error and Connor on attempted sacrifice bunt reached first to fill the bases. With the tying and winning runs on the bags Armstrong came up and poled one out to the right center field to drive in the clinching runs. He almost stretched the hit into a home run being out by a step at the plate.

Fifteen hundred fans, both servicemen and civilians, witnessed the contest.

Major General G. R. Cook, commander of the Timber Wolf Division, and his daughter, CeCe Cook, occupied a box in back of third base.

'Wolf Nine In Double-Header Sunday, Salem

Hot (And Inexpensive) Action Promised In All-Star Games

Battling a team composed of high talent and called the Salem All-Stars, the still-undefeated Timber Wolves will play a double-header Sunday afternoon at the George E. Waters park in Salem.

The games bid to be among the brightest yet, and especially as they fall at a time when EM and Officers may reach the Capital city and take their ladies out to the ball park. For EM, the price is only 25 cents admission (with your lassie free). Busses will do round-trip to the park from down-town Salem, AO Lt. Robert Duffy reports.

MPs Finally Blaze Up In 16-12 Win Over Hdq. Co. Softball Demons

After a series of ups and downs the past week which had some of their supporters wondering whether they were the best or the worst team in camp, the Detachment softballers came to life with a bang, walloping the Post Headquarters team by a 16 to 2 score. S/Sgt. Joe Oenning pitched for the Detachment and limited the opposition to 4 hits while the MP's lambasted the offerings of Pitchers Kaplan and Atkins of Headquarters for 15 hits, including homeruns by Jordan, Dorr and Fitzgerald.

The Detachment softballers have a busy schedule ahead with games arranged for this week with a Station Hospital team and with the Ordnance "Bombers" who last week took the measure of the MP's in a close game.

What All-Out War Means
 If the United States has an army of 7,500,000 by the end of 1943, as is planned, the nation will have expanded by 6,000,000 in two years. Unofficial estimates place the German army at 9,000,000 including the air force. The Russian army, with trained reserves, is estimated at 17,000,000. A recent report says training in Russia now begins when a boy is eight years old.

Mountaineers Batter Out 17-5 Ball Victory

Seagulls No Match For Schnier's Men

The Mountaineer Baseball Team showed plenty of class in their 17 to 5 win over the Seagulls last Friday afternoon.

Using all their player strength (even the water boy, who incidentally got two hits) they never let up until the eighth inning when the Seagull manager hollered "Uncle" and called it quits. By the way there were three men on the bases at the time.

Stingy Hurling

The Mountaineers never let their arch-rivals get started. With brilliant catches and perfect throws plus the stingy pitching of three ace chuckers—Destrier, Lamie, and Rought, the Seagulls never had a chance. They were allowed only five hits for their afternoon's work.

It looks like Lt. Schnier has a winning combination who can hold their own with the best of them. The infield, with Batuccia, Clarke, Bolchak and Christopher teamed together like clockwork. The outfield, Matlock, McLaughlin and Cromwell also played plenty of ball. They hit that ball far and wide.

The boy that led the way was lanky Mountaineer catcher Meins, cutting down runners who ventured too far and using the wood to slam out four for five.

The Gulls played good ball at times but were always in trouble with the Mountaineers slamming the old pill around. Wakefield, starting Gull pitcher, got by for two innings but when they got the range it was all over. With a little smoothing up of the rough spots the Mountaineers have plenty of championship qualities.

One-Legged Marine Wins Jitterbug Contest

San Francisco (CNS)—A Marine with an artificial leg won a jitterbug contest at a nearby Navy yard recently. After the dance number was finished he and his young lady friend sat down and he rolled up his trousers to display the artificial leg.

The case was reported to a meeting of the American College of Surgeons by a Navy medical officer to show how well artificial limbs are fitted with a new technique now in use. It is based on precision fitting of the limb stump to a sheath. Formerly the sheaths were made in standard sizes only. Now they are produced for each individual case. By using the procedure, fighting men who have lost legs have learned to walk and even run within 10 days.

M-Sgt. Schickedanz' Homer Wins Ball Game

A larruping home run in the seventh by M/Sgt. Raymond Schickedanz broke up Monday evening's ball game, with the Station Hospital unit nine defeating SCU 1911 MPs, 3-2. The MPs scored in the first and seventh, the Hospital team got 2 in the fifth.

The Hospital Unit team, which also has won two games to one for Medics of SCU 1911, feels fortified to announce it will accept any challenge. Call manager, S/Sgt. Samuel E. Sapp, 4121.

Portland U. Is 5th Wolf Victim

Cpl. Rich Whams Out 4 for 5 Including 2 Triples, Double and Single; Connor Stars

The Timber Wolf Division nine ran its winning streak to five straight games Monday at Portland as they easily downed the University of Portland aggregation 9 to 1 to continue undefeated this season.

Lefty Karlin notched his second win as he allowed one run and three hits during his seven inning stay on the mound. Sig Langsam relieved him in the eighth and gave up two hits in the last two frames.

Corporal John Rich was the batting star of the contest as he clouted two triples, a double and a single in five times at bat. Gene Connor poled out a double and two singles in four times up.

McConnell, diminutive left fielder turned in two sparkling catches to rob the Wolves of safe hits.

The Wolves got off to a four run lead in the first frame as Gregory singled Frye singled but was caught off first with hidden ball trick. Rich hit to right driving in Gregory. Connor doubled to left scoring Bell who was safe on an error. Rich scored on a passed ball with Connor taking third. Connor came in with the fourth run as he stole home.

They picked up another run in the third when Rich tripled to left center and Connor singled him home. They were blanked for the next three innings although in one frame they collected three hits without a man crossing the plate.

The Portland Pilots garnered their only run of the game in the fourth as Schroer singled, Uhle doubled and Schroer scored after Armstrong's catch of O'Toole's fly in deep center.

Frye tripled in the seventh and scored on a passed ball to give the Wolves another run. The ninth inning saw them push three more runs across as Bell singled, Rich doubled, Connor walked, Armstrong singled to send Bell and Rich in to score and Connor tallied the last run on Sabrinsky's fielders choice.
