

Dedicated to the weekly issue of interesting, accurate and complete GI news to the personnel of Camp Adair, Oregon.

Camp Adair

By special arrangement, USO programs for towns surrounding Camp Adair will be published each week. You will find them tabulated on Page Four.

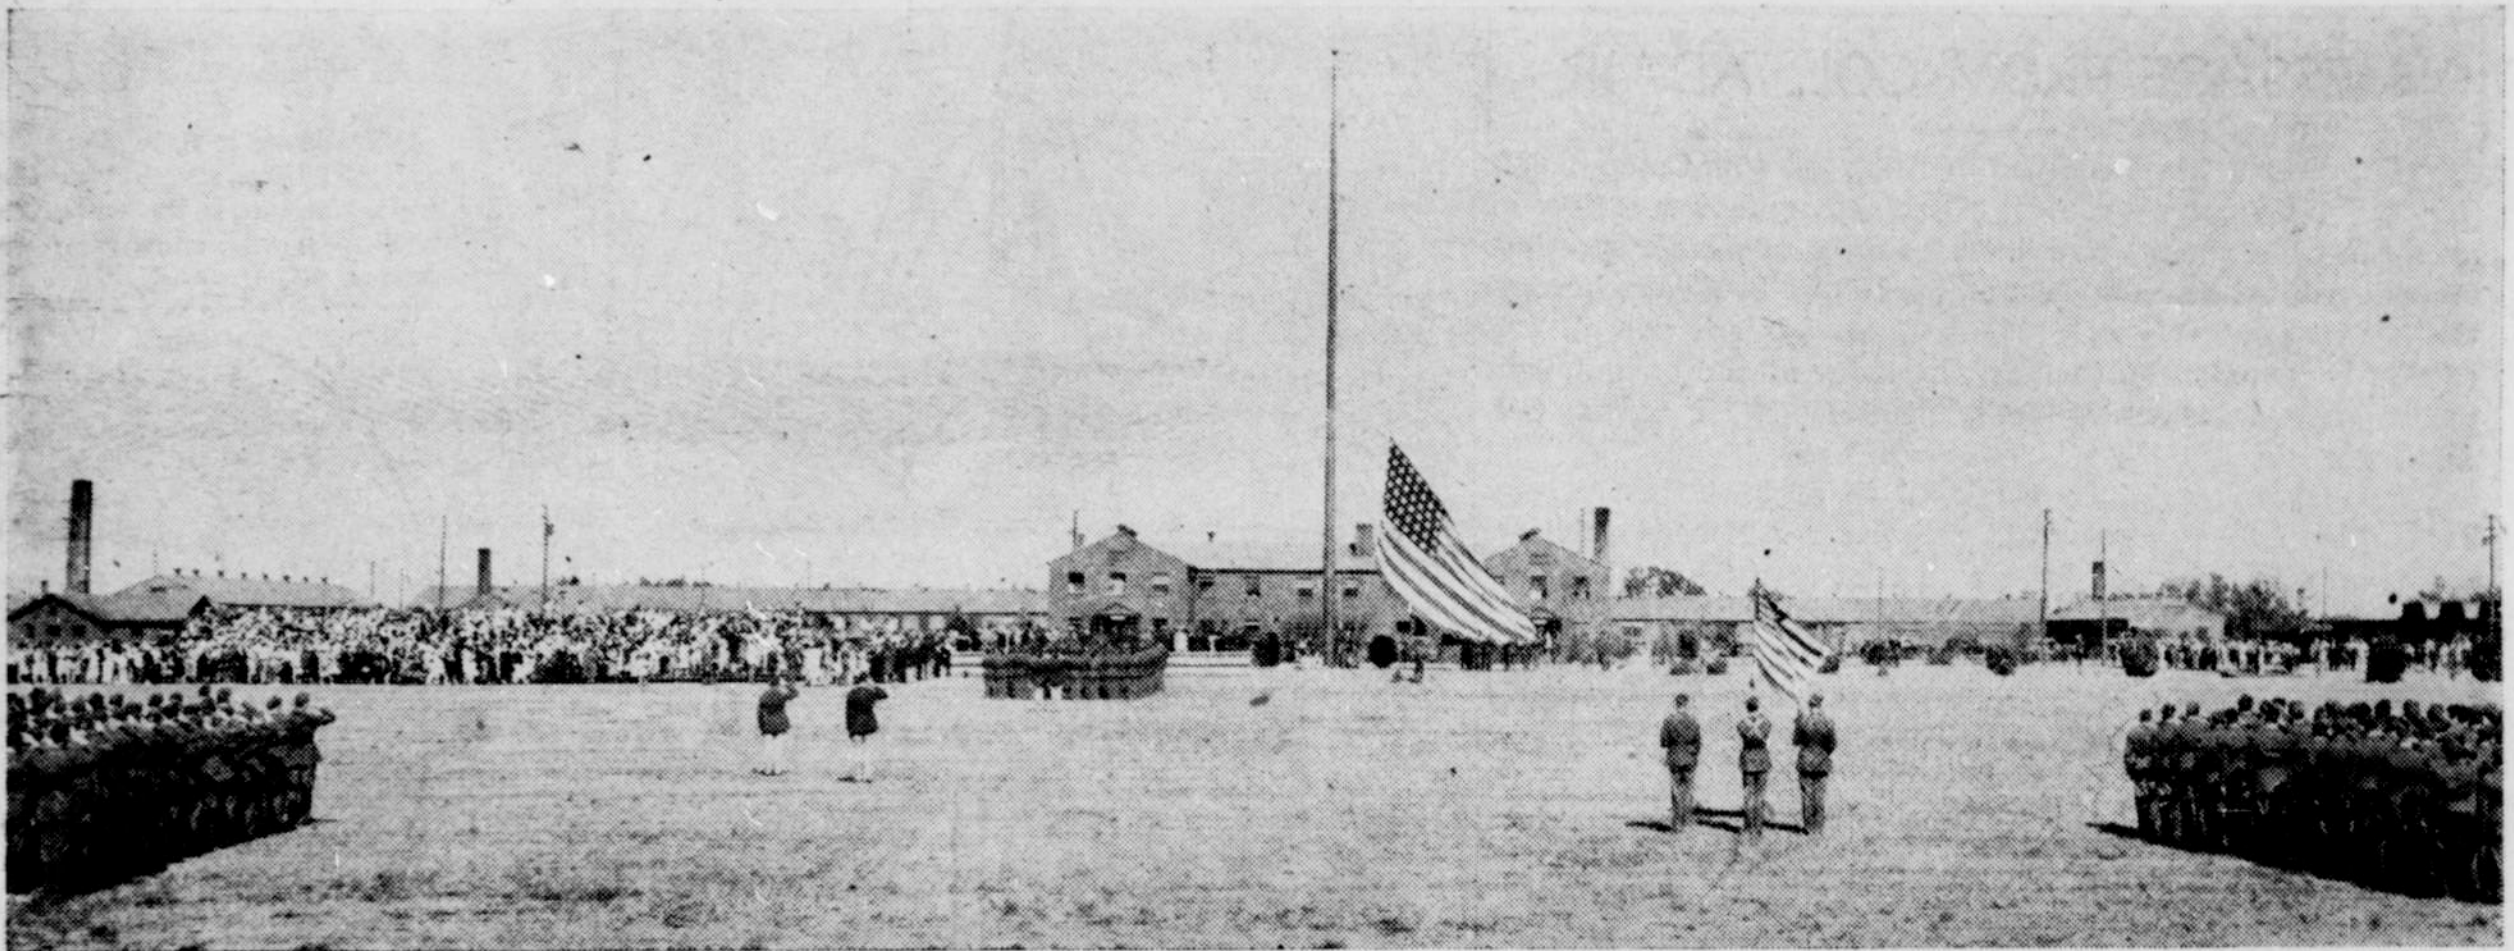

SENTRY

Vol. 2, No. 6.

Camp Adair, Oregon, Thursday, May 27, 1943.

$1.50 a Year by Mail

View of Post Parade Ground at Height of Flag Dedication Ceremony

SCU Officers and the troops of their command stand at attention. The bugles so und "To The Colors" and the new garrison flag, attached to the halvards of the giant flagpole, is ready to be raised. A dramatic moment in the history of Camp Adair, caught in Tuesday's ceremonial on the Post Parade Grounds. Signal Corps Photo.

Rough Tests to Prove Toughest Timber Wolf

Three-Day, Six-Point Qualification Test To Pick Wolf Scouts

WILL BEGIN MONDAY

Soldier's soldiers! The toughest EM in the Timber Wolf division will be uncovered following a "rough-shod," three-day physical fitness test which will begin Monday, it was revealed in announcement from Public Relations Office of the division yesterday.

It's tough, but the men who pass a six-point qualification test will receive the highest honor which can be bestowed for their superior physical fitness and mental alertness — the title, Wolf Scouts.

The idea and the entire program were conceived by seeing the need of superior scouts that has come out of the war.

They will be judged by a picked committee of officers, and enlisted men.

The six points on which fitness will be determined, follows:

1. Excellent physical condition.
2. A knowledge of small arm weapons.
3. A working knowledge of a compass and field glasses.
4. A knowledge of map reading, a. Also aerial photos.
5. Ability to swim with full field equipment.
6. Use of field expedients.

Cpl. Ruddy Jacobi announced this morning that next Sunday night's free movie shorts show at Club 1 will include "U. S. News Review No. 4," "Roads South" and "Brazil at War." Program starts around 8:30 p. m. We repeat, it's FREE.

Court Comes to Camp To Make New Citizens

General Will Speak At Unusual Ceremony

For the first time at Adair and probably any other military establishment in the country, a regular civil court session will be held on the Post tomorrow, when approximately 50 soldiers become full-fledged United States citizens.

The oath of allegiance will be administered by Judge L. G. Le-welling, circuit judge for Linn and Benton counties, who will preside. (Cont. on Page 12, Col. 3)

Impressive Ceremony At Color Dedication

Artillery to Offer $100 for Best Song

A prize of $100 is offered by the United States Coast Artillery Association for the best Anti-Aircraft Artillery marching song," according to the Range Finder, Camp Callan's Army newspaper.

Manuscripts should be mailed to the Editor, Coast Artillery Journal, 631 Pennsylvania Ave., N. W., Washington, D. C., and postmarked before midnight, June 30, 1943.

Troops March In Colorful Review For Dignitaries

PROGRAM SYMBOLIC

In one of the most impressive military ceremonies ever witnessed at this cantonment, Camp Adair's new flagpole was dedicated and our splendid new garrison flag presented the color guard by Post Commander Col. Gordon H. McCoy, at the Post parade grounds, Tuesday afternoon.

Hundreds attended the ceremony, which was made open to the public and the roster of guests who sat on the reviewing stand included a notable array of civilian and military figures.

The parade, in which all troops of SCU 1911 participated, was staged on the parade grounds directly in front of Post headquarters. The event was of significant importance, for it symbolized the completion of this Army post.

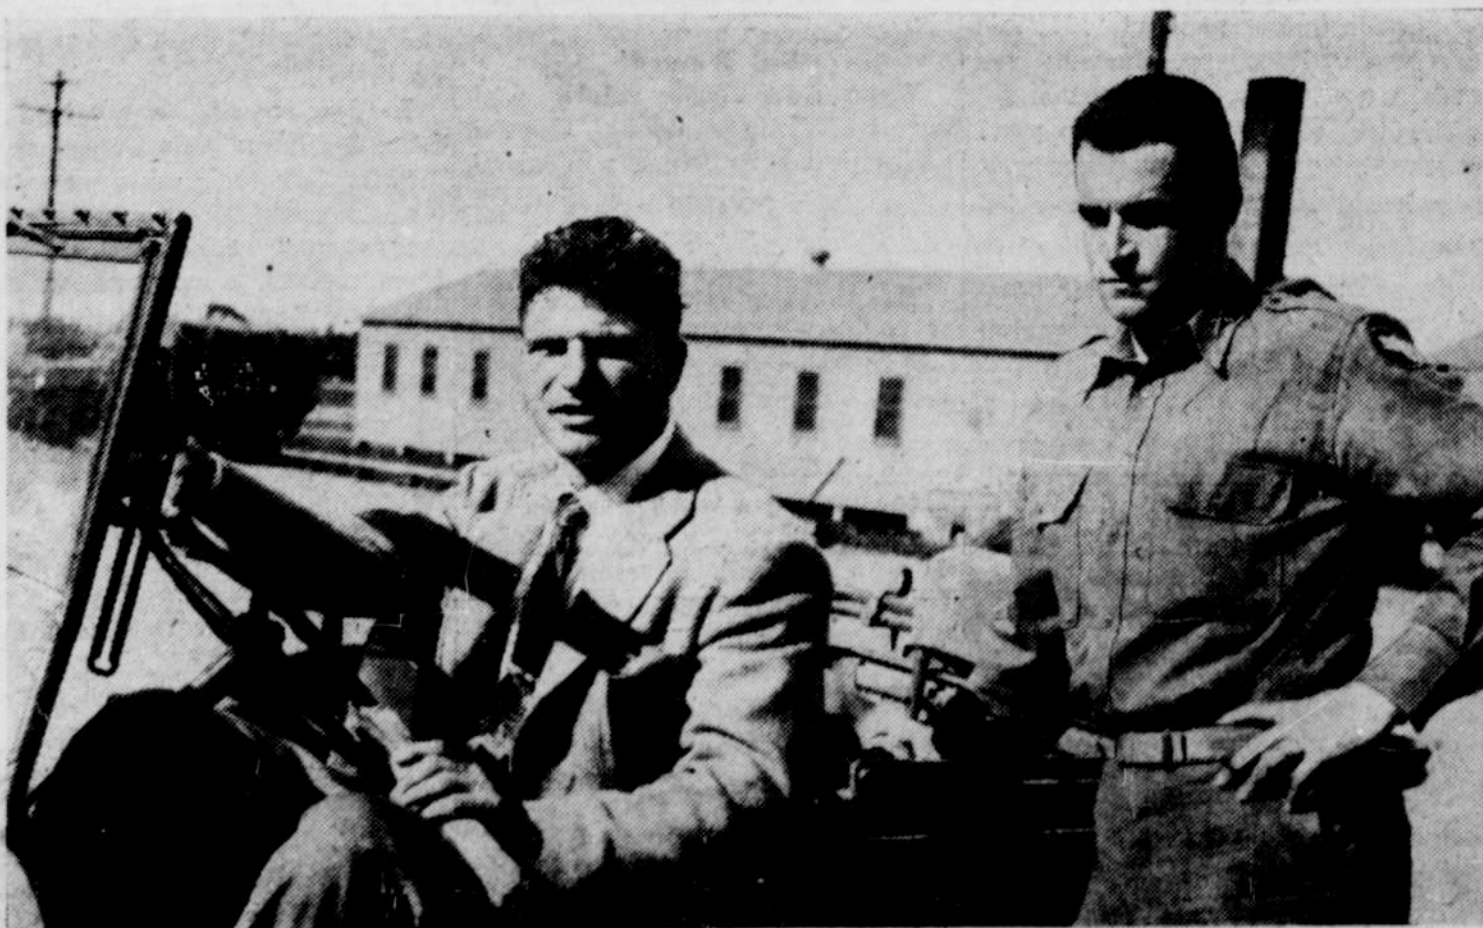

Prominent among dignitaries who were special guests of the occasion were Gov. Earl Snell of Oregon and former Governor, Charles A. Sprague.

One disappointed feature to on-lookers and participants came in failure of the mechanical apparatus, which prohibited raising the giant flag to peak of the 108-foot pole, as had been planned. A "dress rehearsal" with the colors being against regulations, the mishap was unpredictable. Though it disappointed it did not otherwise mar a completely impressive occasion.

All Parade

All members of the Service Com- (Cont. on Page 5, Col. 2)

Nova to Box Here, Drives Jeep

Lou Nova, who will box a five-round exhibition as feature attraction in the Timber Wolf boxing tournament Friday night at Field House, arrived Tuesday for visit with his old-time friend, Lt. Bob Duffy, Timber Wolf Athletic Officer and requested two things—to drive a jeep and go on a 20-mile hike. We haven't a 20-mile hike picture, but this Post Signal Corps Photo does show the California-heavyweight contender, and Lt. Duffy—and the jeep. (Story Sports Section.)

Remember: Everything a soldier throws down -- some soldier has to pick up!