

Workers at Hospital Buy Bonds With Raise

The employees at Station Hospital recently received an increase in pay.

Two days later Miss Janet C. Baxter forwarded to the War Bond Office, seventy applications, requesting an increase in War Savings Bond deductions for each.

Miss Baxter began her work at the Station Hospital on June 1, 1942, and has been commended for her splendid effort in behalf of the Civilian War Bond program, by the Commanding General's Office, Fort Douglas, Utah.

High Commendation

The closing paragraph of this letter of commendation, reads as follows:

May I assure you that, in carrying this program to a successful conclusion, you have rendered a tangible, patriotic service, not only to your country, but also to your fellow employees and to this Service Command."

Miss Baxter hails from Baker, Oregon, and loves to swim and play tennis.

Roberta R. Beelman of Corvallis, Oregon, employed by QM Repair Shop at Camp Adair, deserves honorable mention for her untiring efforts in obtaining the signatures on the dotted line, of every employee, to give her unit a 100 per cent membership.

Miss Beelman's hobby is amateur photography.

"I sure like my job here," says she. "South Dakota was never like this."

Mosquito Destroyers

By T. S. Joel L. Ford

Our first job of really destroying mosquitoes began on May 20 at the area around the Station Hospital. The mosquito will not live there any more; so everyone will rest peacefully. It isn't as easy as it sounds, for getting rid of mosquitoes takes a lot of thinking and working. There has to be proper drainage, the filling in of all low places that hold water, the spraying of crude oil over mosquito-infested water, etc. This will stop a lot of diseases.

The entertainment program given for the people that furnished our dayroom came out just fine. A nice crowd came out to enjoy themselves. After enjoying themselves, tea and cake was served.

The program given at the First Baptist Church in Eugene, with the Royal Jubilee Singers turned out very fine. A number of selections were rendered.

To top our entertainment, Lt. Whitney really had some fine fancy drilling which was a pleasure to see. I'd like to see some more of it myself. Cool, calm and collected was the part of Hesikiah Hayes in his smooth tap dancing.

Our company area is improving a lot at the present, with the spreading of dirt, etc.

A dance call the San, well-known in New York, was done by Cpl. Harry S. Garland.

Civilian—May I have your autograph?

Private—What? I have no autograph. HA, HA, HA.

AT EASE!

Los Angeles (CNS)—A 20-year-old restaurant worker began bleating about what he'd do to the Japs if and when he got into uniform. He demonstrated with flourishes of a butcher knife. One flourish was too realistic. He was rushed to a hospital with a sliced thigh.

QM Repair Assumes The Grand Outlook

Lunch period is spent outside, the heating system has been changed to a cooling breeze, spring fever has gripped one and all, week-ends are too brief, artificial light is blinding, nature and it's advantages are heckling us—which means that the average human being realizes that the long winter is at last over. Now all that remains to be done, is to adjust one's self to the drastic but grand change and QM Repair Shop employees are hard at it.

P.S. Sorry, but news seems to be nil on the front here—Miss Blue. (Ed. Note: So it would seem.)

FROM TENT CITY

By Pfc. John Monaweck

Bets are now being accepted in certain tents that S/Sgt. Robert (Lovely) Lindsey can't stamp out that sudden crop of mustaches that has appeared during the last week. Some of the proud possessors are Lt. John Moltz, 1st Sgt. Glenn French, Cpl. Harold House, Pvts. Leo Keller, "Wild" Bill Arnold, Cecil Smith and the great "ex-Mustachio" Henry Kwicinski. S/Sgt. Lindsey has a profound dislike for any culinary growth under the nose.

Lt. John Moltz is the proud owner of that big driving "Job" that has been startling the population of the surrounding cities.

Jaw-Breaker

We would like to express the wish of Pvt. James Bennett that in the future, Pvt. Sam Todar will hold onto his bat while striking at a baseball. At last Thursday's game, Todar's bat flew through the air and struck Bennett on the jaw, relieving him of any worries that may have been on his mind at the time. The only worry he had then was as to how to stand up.

The Stubbs trio, consisting of Pvts. Swinton Stubbs, Calvin Tolten and James Tucker, is now taking offers to play at any dance that may be held in the somewhat distant post, adjoining us.

Bill Fold Girl . . .

. . . of the Week

She's married, men! Master Sgt. Gerald E. Morgan is the fortunate hombre.

Believe it or not, this picture was taken in Oregon and, to be more specific, on the beach near Newport.

At present the Morgans are "furloughing in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Mrs. Morgan is 5' 4" tall, has blue eyes, and she classifies her weight as SECRET.

Her husband is quite a man, only 23 years of age and a Master Sgt. He has been in the service for four years.

The Morgans were married last August.

Women in Demand Throughout World

The WAACs are one year old this week. In that year, according to a War Department summary, they've not only done a real Army job, but have created a demand for their services many times greater than the number of WAACs now available. Here are a few of the year's highlights:

The first WAACs to get into uniform were 440 Officer Candidates at the original WAAC training center in Ft. Des Moines, Iowa last July. Today there are nearly 60,000 WAACs and four more WAAC training centers around the country.

Want 20,000 Overseas

The first of the G.I. gals to go overseas were a small group of picked stenographers, file clerks, drivers and telephone operators who reported to General Eisenhower's North African headquarters in January. Now overseas commanders all over the world have put in requests for nearly 20,000 more.

Today in the States WAAC outfits are hard at work in 83 posts. Trained originally for just four jobs; communications, clerical and stenographic work, motor transport and as cooks, they're now doing 142 classified Army jobs such as draftsmen, tool clerks and map drawers. CO's have asked for a Lois Burch, formerly in Purchasing and Contracting Office, is the proud mother of a daughter weighing 7 lbs. born May 13 at Corvallis, Oregon.

Mrs. Jane Croft, formerly of Property Office, is also a proud mother of a girl born in Pocatella, Idaho, about the middle of May, 1943.

May 31 is Joy Draeger's (formerly Joy Haag) last day with us. She is leaving for her home in Pasco, Washington.

Caddy Starts Off Sing With Two Pioneers; Many Soldiers Join

Recreational hostess Ann Caddy's Tuesday evening community sing started off with two men, one singing, and the other Pvt. Charles Dupcan from the Timber Wolf Division playing the piano accompaniment. A few minutes after this two man crusade began at Club 1, there were a dozen grouped around the piano singing all the old time favorites.

S/Sgt. Dennis Tierney, Pfc. Walter J. Walko, William Franklin; Pvts. Roy Warren, John Shaheen, Marion Price, "Shorty" Hood, John Tabor, Victor Gurth, Robert Vance, Jack Rietzke, Irving Kosher, and William H. Wells. Pvt. Jack Rietzke later played classical selections.

total of half million more to do this kind of work. The Army Air Forces alone want 375,000.
