2 to 3 Times Weekly They Pitch; Yessir, Rivalry Very Intense

A battle royal rages in back of the Field House about 2 to 3 times a week. It's a war to the finish on the horseshoe pits between Cpl. James Shackleton and Pvt. Joe Jaschina.

Cpl. Shackleton plays a steady game in much the same manner as a scientific boxer. He can "out-point" his opponents. That is he can put a shoe close to the peg.

Pvt. Jaschina, on the other hand, can usually clip the post with a few ringers, knocking his competitor out of the game.

Neither Cpl. Shackleton nor Pvt. Jaschina are experts (obviously); yet they have some close ones. Yessir, the rivalry is very intense.

No. 2

Slower game. All Stars use 13 players, Wolves 15. Everything in the book happened:

Cameron (a.s.) two hits in third; fights (tush, tush, now!) with umpire; All Stars give up 12 walks; Smith, who was on furlough, came in to play catcher (what! all the way from furlough?) for the Wolves; crowd getting slitley restless; girls are nice anyhow (is this our reporter?); ho hum, for some hot food (yes, it must be); fan says, "Put Rimal in if he comes out of hiding." It ended.

Bombers Defeat S.C.U. Hdq. in Baseball Game

A Texas-league single, which scored two runs, by first baseman Joe Fopdaco in the sixth inning, proved to be the margin of victory as the undefeated Flaming Bombers of Ordnance defeated SCU Hdq. 3-2 last Thursday, to score their eighth win in a row.

The Bombers tallied once in the second inning and as the game progressed it seemed this run would win for the Ordnance team, backed

Oregon State Ties For Baseball Pennant

With the exception of tennis, Oregon State's spring sport teams had very successful seasons. Following the Northern division championships in track, golf and tennis last week end, the Beaver spring teams have put away their equipment for the year.

Coach Ralph Coleman produced one of Oregon State's best baseball clubs in recent years. The Beaver sluggers tied with Oregon for the division pennant with 12 wins and four losses. Heavy hitting and top flight pitching by Don Cecil, Andy Frahler and Bill Frazer were responsible for the Beavers' success.

A surprising second place in the Northern division meet highlighted the Orange track season. Grant "Doc" Swan's Beaver thinclads trounced Oregon in the relays, 6 to 2, and dropped close dual meets to Washington and Oregon, 70½ to 60½ and 71½ to 59½, respectively.

Decisive wins over Washington Decisive wins over Washington State and Idaho and second place in the division meet at Seattle was the record hung up by Slat's Gill's golfers.

The Orange tennis team had a disappointing season. The Beaver netmen lost dual meets to Washington: State, Idaho and Washington and finished behind Washington in the conference championships here last week end.

Remember: Everything a soldier throws down—some soldier has to pick up.

Laundry Commandos Launch Athletics; Softball & Boxing

This could be called a report of the athletics of the "Laundry Commandos" of the Quartermaster Battalion, located to the south of E and 10th street south.

Sgt. Vincent Kelly, assisted by Cpls. Morrel Gerber, Leonard Lewandouski, T/5's Alto Balduce and Sam Todor, led his men to a 14-2 victory over another tent city team in their first league game.

Among the pugilistic enthusiasts were Pvts. Ott, Brock and Derocko. Your scribe lost all interest in it after spending ninety seconds of his two minutes on the floor.

Geysers Overwhelmed 10-3, by Sea Gulls

Behind a withering barrage of solid base hits and some excellent pitching by Sgt. Erickson, the Sea Gulls overwhelmed the Geysers for their first victory of the season, 10-3, last Friday, on the newly-created Sea Gull Infantry diamond on the corner of North 9th and B streets.

Staff Sergeant Dale P. Butler led the 12 hit assault on a trio of Geyser hurlers with a perfect day at bat, a walk in the first inning, a rousing triple in the second, a double in the fifth, and a pair of singles in the seventh and eighth frames.

The Geysers scored a couple of unearned runs in the second, but the Sea Gulls came back with one in the fifth on a double by Butler down the right field line, a clean steal of third, and Graulich's long fly to right.

One more unearned tally by the Geysers in the eighth only served to rouse the Sea Gulls to add four more runs to their total, when Miller, third Gysier twirler, hit a streak of wildness, walked Alloway and hit both Gulish and George in the ribs to fill the bases. Erickson singled sharply off Ostriski's chest, to score one. Kane's single to right brought in two more; Erickson scored the fourth marker while Frye was bounding into a double play.
