

Parade Plans Committee

Group above are the officers who assisted Adjutant, Capt. Gilbert Waite and Public Relations Officer, and the committee chairman, Lt. George Godfrey in making arrangements for the flag raising ceremony and party which took place on May 25. Left to right they are Lt. Leonard Merrill who had charge of the parade ground arrangements, Lt. Walter Sindlinger who was in charge of entertainment and the banquet, and Lt. Bernard Schwarz and Lt. Aaron Lopatin who assisted Lt. Sindlinger.

Corvallis Playground Program Needs Women As Instructors

Wives of army officers stationed at Camp Adair, who would be interested in assisting with the Corvallis Playground Program, for six weeks commencing June 21, are asked to contact the playground committee members.

Women who can instruct in arts and crafts (i.e. pottery), painting and sketching, puppetry, dramatics, tap-dancing, tumbling, or related recreational subjects are urgently needed.

The playground appropriation is limited but there will be a small financial revenue for those participating.

The program starts June 21 and lasts through July 29. For further information, contact either Mrs. D. J. Willson, Route 1, Box 150 (phone Corvallis 26-F-2) or Mrs. F. A. Gillfillan, 221 North 31st street, (phone Corvallis 1076-R). Both are members of the committee.

Christian Science Churches
"God the Only Cause and Creator" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, June 6.

The Golden Text is, " whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever: nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it" (Ecc. 3:14).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Thus saith God the Lord, he that created the heavens, and stretched them out . . . he that giveth breath unto the people upon it . . . I am the Lord: that is my name: and my glory

FROM TENT CITY

by Pfc. John Monaweck

Due to the fact of the low financial status of the men of "Tent City" the boys have been staying around camp. Among the steady visitors at the regular Friday night dance are Cpls. Mark Varner and Ralph Gole.

After three months of waiting Pvt. Ronald Maxon has received that picture of his girl.

Pvt. Louis (Get the truck) Swallow is having trouble with his sunburn. It seems that when he wears his hat it is irritated and when he doesn't wear his hat he gets razed about it.

We have just discovered a man with plenty of will power—S/Sgt. Austin Jenness. Upon return from a three-day pass he claimed to have slept the whole three days.

Sgt. Owen King has fully recovered from the bad eye that he received in one of the boxing matches in camp. Most of our boxing fans went to see Lou Nova to pick up some pointers.

Our mess sergeant S/Sgt. Peter O'Dowd is extended the well wishes of "Tent City." We hope he can return from the hospital soon.

The reason Pvt. Wyatt Nevergall has been looking so sleepy is the fact that his wife has arrived in Salem for a short visit. It is hard trying to lead a double life.

Pvt. Francis Nastasi has set a new record by receiving 13 letters in one day. He also held the old record of nine letters. We think that this record will last for some time to come.

Y.W.C.A. Rosery Dance At Portland, Saturday

A Rosery Dance prelude to the Portland Rose Festival, will be held at the YWCA social hall by the Portland YM-YW-USO Junior Hostess Group Saturday.

Numerous surprises and treats have been planned and the hall will be decorated with beautiful roses from Portland's own rose gardens. Dancing, 8:00 P.M. until 11:30 P.M.

will I not give to another" (Isa. 42:5,8).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following correlative passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "There is but one creator and one creation. This creation consists of the unfolding of spiritual ideas and their identities which are embraced in the infinite Mind and forever reflected" (p. 502).

OSC Becomes Harder; Schools Discontinue

It looks as if from now on it's going to be harder for enlisted men to get into OCS. The Army and Navy Journal reports that the Army has just about filled its quotas of officers for a while—in fact has a temporary surplus. Some OCS have already been discontinued, others have been ordered to cut down the size of their classes.

This trend looks as if it's bound to keep on for a while until a big enough number of new men are inducted to raise the demand for officers.—(Yank G.I. News).

IV Corps Medics Upped

Four promotions were announced by the IV Corps medics in the 150 Ordnance. Pfc. Sefton Watson was made a corporal, Pfc. Damon Payne, a T/5; Pvts. John Smith and Paul Carmichael, Pfc.'s.

Choir Rehearsals at Chapel 1, Tues., 7 P.M.

Chaplain Irvin L. Whetsell extends an invitation to all soldiers who are interested in choir singing to come to the rehearsals at Chapel 1 each Tuesday evening at 7 p. m. The Chapel is located at the corner of D and 3rd street.

Chaplain Whetsell declared that these meetings are for the purpose of rehearsing hymns to be used in the Sunday morning service.

Those Eyes of Texas Are Upon You—Jesse

Austin, Tex. (CNS)—The State Treasurer reported a deficit in revenue—the lowest in two years. The treasurer's name is Jesse James.

Gala Skating Show at Field House Saturday

dred, all in costume, will present an extravagant revue of 12 numbers, to the music of a four manual pipe organ. Trunkloads of costumes, equipment, lights and stage props will be imported for the production, which has been arranged and directed by Ed Cheney, former Broadway and Hollywood producer.

The Navy!
"Anchors Aweigh," done in nautical costume, is the opening number and features the Oakettes with B. Schmidt as the Admiral. "Just Us 'Two" is next followed by "Rhythm on Rollers" featuring Lucille Pederson and Shirley Brazee.

"Right in Der Fuehrer's Face," with Perry Reel as Tojo, Paul Johnston as "Schickelgruber" and Eddie Hamilton as Mussolini, has the No. 4 spot, and is followed by one of the feature numbers of the show, "Black Magic." In this number, the Oakettes are featured together with drum majorette June Lines.

Baseball Number

"Take Me Out to the Ball Game" features a quartet of skaters, by name: Dale Pritchard, Bill Hiete, Norman Berry and Bud Kissler. "Precision Personified," featuring those lassies whose pictures already wowed you on page one, follows.

"Juniors Inspiring" has the No. 8 spotlight with Jeanette Barbee and Dale Griffiths as the principals.

"The Gay Nineties Revue" featuring the Brickettes, a chorus, is next and precedes another of the outstanding numbers, "The South American Way" with the Oakettes and featuring a specialty tango on skates by Jeanne and Dale Pritchard.

Spectacular is the word for the next to last number, "The Presentation of the Flags of the United Nations," and the program closes with a grand finale number, "Star Spangled Banner."

In conjunction with this program, the regular Night-Club nights at the Service Clubs have been cancelled and in their stead, a gala dance will follow this production. Music will be furnished by Cpl. Bill Duncan's SCU Band.

Large Production Crew

The skaters featured in the production are members of the Oak Park Skaters Club of Portland, and recently staged a successful benefit performance at George White's Service Center. Mr. Bollinger is manager—and is in charge of props and lights; costumes were executed by Ruth Bollinger; Norman Berry is production manager and the musical score was arranged by Buss McClellan. Art Briggs, of KOIN, Portland, is expected to emcee the show.

Among the lovely young gals who will appear are the Oakettes chorus, including Violet Horde, Jeanne Pritchard, Barbara Schwock, Maxine Clark, June Lines, Rae Lucia, Helen MacIntosh, Solveig Skagen, Dolores Williams, Elaine Stose, Genevieve Berg, Mildred Breding, Peggy Miller, Pearl Weiler, Dorothy Brown, Faye Douglas, Virginia Swan, Darlene Lines, Evelyn Wood, Rose Gasparre, Leota Benyon, Pearl Miller, Lucille Pederson, Peggy Miller, Barbara Coy, Pearl Nathan, Lorraine Metcalf, Yvonne McKeel and Ruth Clevinger.
