

Third Floor of Corvallis USO Offers Lots of Fun

When you visit the Corvallis USO do you climb the stairs to the third floor? Do you visit the recreation room?

Do you notice the men seated around the bridge tables playing checkers, chess or bridge? Do you see the bustling activity around the many interesting dart games?

Do you hear the noise and swish of the hockey sticks as the soldiers seriously try to score against each other in an exciting box hockey match?

Then compare them with the melanchant attitude of the ping-pong players as they try to out-guess and out-smart each other.

Now turn your head slightly to the right and you will see a beautiful pool table. This is a new addition to the game room and because of its tremendous popularity it is in constant use.

On the wall is a cue rack from which the soldier can select his cue and indulge in his favorite game.

To all service men who have come to visit this game room, the station is extended, "Come up and see us some time."

Palmistry, Cots and Pools Best Salem Features

One of the most popular features along with the Sunday afternoon dance at Salem is the palmistry readings conducted by Mrs. Arthur Rahn.

These readings are free to all service men.

The USO has 250 cots within one block of its building for use over Saturday night. The cots have clean sheets, blankets pillow cases and mattresses.

The outdoor city swimming pools are also attracting hundreds of service men on Sundays. The water is filtered and the temperature regulated. The pools are 150'x50'. Service men are cordially invited.

Allied Nations' Theme Corvallis USO Dance

At 8:30 PM this Saturday, the Corvallis USO will hold a "Dance of the Allied Nations" in the Grand Ballroom.

The Mountaineers' band will be here to play favorite dancing tunes.

Plans have been made to entertain servicemen, and with plenty of Junior Hostesses present, there is assured a good time for all.

Calapooia Round-Up Adds Western Spice to 4th Celebration

The Calapooia Round-Up, traditional Fourth of July celebration for this part of the Willamette valley, will begin with "Wild and Woolly" dances Friday night, followed by the all-day buckaroo and wild west round-up programs Sunday and Monday. Dances Sunday and Monday nights complete the days programs. The Junior high school band from Corvallis will furnish music daily.

Crawfordsville, site of the round-up, is located on the beautiful Calapooia river east and south from Corvallis. From Camp Adair it is less than an hour's drive (by thumb?). To get there take the Albany-Eugene highway to Halsey, then straight east through Brownsville. There are no accommodations for over-night patrons.

Fourth Of July Picnic Supper In Corvallis

A pay-as-you-go picnic supper for the Fourth of July has been arranged by the USO in Corvallis to start at 5:00 PM this Sunday.

It will be held on the newly-acquired USO lawn on the corner of Fifth and Madison, opposite the USO building.

The picnic will be followed by a musical program, singing and games. There will be junior hostesses to liven the party.

*Afterwards, about 8:00, the party will move en masse into the Grand Ballroom for an evening of dancing.

Portland Plans Weekend Frolic

The "Firecracker Frolic" is the theme of a gala holiday weekend party and dance to be sponsored by the Portland USO Council this Saturday night.

It will be held in the Sunken Ballroom of the Masonic Temple, S.W. Park Avenue and Main Street.

Junior hostesses from every USO club in the city will be present and refreshments will be served.

Music will be provided by Jack Gigray's 10-piece band.

All men in uniform are invited as guests.

SLEEPY-TIME GAL
Hollywood (CNS)—Mrs. Ernst Lubitsch won a divorce from the famed movie director here recently on charges that he slept most of the time including Sundays.

USE THE USO

"Are you taking full advantage of the USO—your "home away from home"? Mothers, whose own sons are in camps far from home, are willing to sew on your buttons or mend your clothes. Girls, whose brothers or sweethearts are away, are ready to play ping-pong and other games with you, as well as dance.

Anything you liked to do at home as a hobby will probably be available at one of the USO clubs nearby. If not, just speak to a USO director and he'll do what he can to provide it for you.

Informal Dancing at Monmouth on Saturday

There will be an informal dance at the Monmouth USO next Wednesday from 8:00 to 10:30 p. m. Lots of junior hostesses will be present when the dancing starts. Refreshments are also promised.

Although these scheduled dances occur only every other week, there are girls on hand for dancing every evening during the week, and especially on Wednesdays and Saturdays.

172ND ORD. DEPOT CO.

Pvt. Carmen John, our baseball team captain, would like to hear from other team captains about playing ball.

The 3505th Ord AM Co. got their revenge last week when they beat us by a close soccer of 9 to 8 runs; and the Timber Wolf Signal Corps beat us out by a score of 5-4. We are going to get our innings next time!

Salem USO Plans Trip To Chemawa Sunday Afternoon

A trip to Chemawa Indian School is planned for Sunday afternoon, transportation provided free from Salem USO, 693 Chemeketa street, leaving at 2 P. M. Men who have availed themselves of the Sunday sightseeing trips sponsored by Salem USO report them well worth attending. Last Sunday the State prison was visited.

The Chemawa Indian School is the largest non-reservation school in the United States. Forty tribes are represented, 600 students coming from reservations in Oregon, Idaho, Montana and Washington. It is a vocational school for boys and girls.

Albany USO Open For The Weekend

The new Albany USO will be open to service men starting tomorrow.

Although it is not yet completely finished, the club will, nevertheless, be able to offer informal activities over the weekend and until the time of the formal opening in the very near future.

As plans exist now, there will be, in the future, two regular dances every week, in addition to many other regular features.

Next week, the SENTRY will publish the complete details of the formal opening ceremonies, and a schedule of the activities of the club.
