

At Long Last! Wolves Meet Fort Lewis in Two Great Games

Portland Game This Saturday

2nd Game at Albany Slated 2:30 on Sunday; Lewis Warriors Tough

At last! The baseball games that the entire Northwest has been waiting for have been definitely scheduled between the two top Army teams of the Washington-Oregon district—the Camp Adair Wolves and the Fort Lewis Warriors.

The first game will be played at the Vaughan Street Ball Park home of the Portland Beavers of the Pacific Coast League, Saturday, at 1430 (2:30 p. m.).

The second conflict between the two organization representatives will be Sunday, at Central Park, Albany, at 1430 (2:30 p. m.).

Answers Sports Prayer

Fans and sports writers have been clamoring to have these two teams matched ever since the season opened but until the present time it was impossible to match them because of conflicting dates on their respective schedules.

Manager Morrie Arnovich of the Ft. Lewis Warriors, former National League outfielder, has molded together a fast, smart aggregation of former minor leaguers now in the service and compiled a winning streak at the expense of other service teams in the district.

Among the better known Warriors who will see action against the Timber Wolves are: Steve Sakus, Jonas Gaines, Bill Brown, William Kubicek, Billy Beard, Herman Reich, Johnny Maurer,

Knott Gives Only 6 Hits, But Navy Defeats Army 3-1

The Pasco naval training station fliers, kingpins of servicemen's baseball in the northwest, came through with flying colors Sunday to defeat a team of picked players from northwest army camps, 3 to 1, in a Fourth of July celebration game.

A crowd that filled the stadium of the Seattle Rainiers of the Pacific coast league to overflowing, watched crafty Johnny Bittner pitch the Fliers to victory against the All-Stars' Sergeant Jack Knott, chosen to the Army mound assignment from our own Camp Adair Timber Wolves.

Knott allowed but six hits to eight for the Stars. Two Pasco tallies made up to the time Knott retired for a pinch hitter in the eighth were both marked unearned.

Bill Novak and John Handy.

Manager Sgt. Jack Knott will be handicapped by the loss of first string catcher, Sgt. Lowell Calhoun who was transferred out of camp last week, and by the absence on furlough of John Sabrinsky, outfielder and Robert Karlin, pitcher.

Available for duty on the Timber Wolves outfit when the teams meet are: shortstop Gus Gregory, second sacker Dean Frye, first baseman Beau Bell, leftfielder Gene Connor, centerfielder Paul Armstrong, third baseman Virgil Ledbetter, rightfielder Salvatore Bertucci, catcher William Sipes and the following hurlers, Jack Knott, Joseph Quin, Sig Langsam, James Barnes and Haswell Spraker.

General admission for the games will be fifty cents; servicemen twenty-five cents. The girl friend free.

Wolf Pack Wins 11-3, 12-7. It's

Two Over Engineers

The 29th Engineers of Portland were the first opponents of the Timber Wolves at the new division diamond on the Parade Ground Saturday afternoon—and the first victims. The Wolves came out on top by a 11 to 3 score.

The two teams met again Saturday night at the Albany Ball Park in the first scheduled game that the Wolf Pack has played there and it was also the first contest played under the lights for either soldier team this season. The Wolves won out again in a free scoring contest 12 to 7.

Credit Quin

Lt. Joseph Quin garnered his second win of the season against one defeat in the afternoon game although he had to be rescued by "Lefty" Karlin who went in, in the eighth inning after the first two men had hit safely.

The Engineers outdid the Wolf Pack but could not bunch their hits while the Wolves took advantage of every scoring opportunity. "Beau" Bell had three hits in three times up, scored twice and batted in three runs. Paul Armstrong celebrated his return from furlough with a home run and three runs batted in. Virgil Ledbetter clouted a double and a homer to knock three runs across the plate.

Spraker Night Winner

Haswell Spraker another one of the Wolves new pitchers started the night contest and received credit for the victory although he was replaced by Sig Langsam in the seventh inning. He limited the Engineers to one run and two hits during the first six innings but started to tire in the seventh. Langsam allowed one run and one hit the rest of the way.

Paul Armstrong clouted his second homer of the day in the third inning with O'Doul on the sacks, a drive over the left field fence. He also had two singles to give him three out of five and hitting honors of the night.

The Wolves' week end wins started them off on a new win streak of three and gives them a record of eleven wins against three losses for the season.

Sgt. Lowell Calhoun, regular catcher of the Wolves will be lost to the team for the balance of the season having left camp Sunday on a new assignment. William Sipe regular catcher of the Sea Gulls, has been "drafted" for duty with the Wolves.

Major General Gilbert R. Cook and daughter, CeCe, witnessed the Wolf Packs' afternoon victory.

Sea Gulls Lead Hardball League

Take Mountaineers in Free-for-All, 19-12; Plaster Geysers, 10-1

Away out in front in the Timberwolf Baseball League race, Lieutenant Jim Nyers' Sea Gulls took a firmer hold on their lead by taking the Mountaineers into camp on Thursday, 19-12, and administering a 10-1 pasting to the hapless Geysers on Tuesday.

The Mountaineer-Sea Gull game was a free-for-all of hits, runs and errors, started off by a six-run Sea Gull rally in the fourth and continued by both teams for the rest of the game, with the exception of the scoreless eighth. Sipe, Sea Gulls, and Armystrong, Mountaineers, led the batting honors.

In the Geyser-Sea Gull tussle, Rauch, Sea Gull chucker, kept eight Geyser hits well scattered, while the Geyser pitching staff, suffering from the loss of several first-stringers, was roundly peppered with hits.

Highlights of the game were Frye's audacious theft of home in the fifth and Geyser Tarulli's four-sacker in the ninth, the second homer of the season on the Sea-gull diamond, where they're tough to get.

PACK GOSSIP

Sgt. Lowell "Red" Calhoun, popular and smart receiver of the Timber Wolf Division baseball team left Camp Adair with the cadre Sunday and his lusty .368 batting average plus his smart handling of hurlers will be missed by the Wolf Pack . . . his continual chatter during a game could embarrass the most hardened official or player in such a good natured manner that they could not take offense although he was rubbing their weak spots . . . Ball players interested in hearing a good lecture on power hitting should get in touch with Beau Bell . . . Gus Gregory, Beau Bell, Paul Armstrong have just returned from furlough . . . Gene Connor, John Sabrinsky are due back from their leaves next week . . . Hurler Green of the Flyers took himself out of the game after the Wolves had crossed the plate eleven times . . . The Frye, Gregory to Bell combination is taking double play honors over the more common short to second to first route.

HAEGG OVER CPC RICE

Gunder (The Wonder) Hagg, a Swedish civilian, finished 35 yards ahead of Chief Petty Officer Greg Rice of the U. S. Maritime Service when the two met in a 5000 meter special held by the National AAU in New York June 20.

SCU Ball Teams Have Idle Week

Hq. Co. Beats Post HQ 6-1; Sport Editor Is Needed for Sentry

The only SCU game reported to the Sentry office this week was that between Post Headquarters and Headquarters Company last Thursday evening.

First/Sgt. Ray Atkins of Headquarters Co. turned in an outstanding performance when he pitched a two-hit game to win, 6-1.

Other noteworthy players were Sgt. William Gerrity, who slammed out a home run, and Pvt. Edmund Raper, who consistently was batting them into the daisies.

Sgt. Nick Sansonia was back in form again, too, after a slight relapse in the last few games.

Organization softball team captains and managers are requested to phone the Sentry office every Tuesday morning to have the results of the week's games printed. Due to the manpower shortage, we are at present struggling along without a sports editor (any volunteers?), so please cooperate. The number is 2942. If a girl answers, don't hang up; that's Betty Jo.

Visiting hours at the Station Hospital are 2-4 p. m. and 7-9 p. m.
