

SCU Band Broadcasts Over KWIL; Laud Performance

Rhythm was king at the Albany USO Tuesday night of last week, as the SCU dance combination, directed by Cpl. Duncan, played to a large crowd of servicemen and their Sweethearts and Wives.

Starting at 8:30, the music kept set moving and bodies swaying until closing time.

Big-Time Music

Highlight of the evening was the broadcast over KWIL, Albany radio station, from 10 to 10:30. Both sweet and swing music, designed to pleased all listeners, was offered.

T/5 Don Johnson was vocalist with the orchestra. Listeners commented that the broadcast sounded like a name band.

The band had just returned from Portland, where as representatives of Camp Adair they had played for the Bond Drive at the Portland Victory Center.

Members of the 14-piece orchestra include Pvs. Alfred Dominguez, Henry Schnitcer, Pfc. Reed Dunn and Sgt. William C. Wenness on the saxophones; T/5 Don Johnson, Cpl. Bill Duncan, Pfc. Telford Dutton and Pvt. Santos Alvarez in the brass section; Pfc. Glenn Bown at the drums; Pvt. Dave Miller on the bass fiddle; and Pvt. Mahlon Tullis, piano. Pvt. Ray Cattaneo is featured at the accordion.

All-Girl Victory Revue From Salem Featured at USO

Don Black and his Salem All-Girl Victory Revue were featured entertainment at last Saturday's dance at the Albany USO. From 9:30 to 10:10 the program was broadcast over the Albany radio station, KWIL.

Twenty-two girls in formal costume took part in the program of instrumental, vocal and dance numbers.

Instrumentalists were Arlene Fragley, Pearl Crockett, Joann Twedt, Rosemary Gaise and Jewell Gueffray.

Norma Miller was featured tap dancer with the group, and Betty Pierce starred in her usual fine baton-twirling act.

A triple trio consisted of Connie Keller, Beverly Kenny, Dorothy Ann Hobson, Lorna Arnold, Glenice Allen, Lois Schrenk, Bernice Isham, Mary Reirnonn and Betty Lou Edwards. Other vocalists were Donna Unruh, Jean Sechrist and Geraldene Des Georges, who is the Salem Victory Center Girl.

SCU Concert Band 'Hit' in Portland

The SCU concert band, which appeared at the Portland Victory center last week, made a fine impression on the citizens of the Rose City.

The entire 30-piece organization, under the baton of Pfc. Robert Henry, has been invited back for another performance tomorrow, when the Lions' club of Portland will sponsor its War Bond drive.

From 12 to 1, tomorrow noon, the soldiers will play a full hour program to the large crowds that gather in the streets around the Victory Center stage.

Featured as an accordion soloist on the program will be Pvt. Ray Cattaneo.

Alumni of Iowa State To Hold Get-Together In Portland on Sunday

The Portland branch of the Iowa State college Alumni association is having a get-together at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Robey, 604 S. W. Westwood drive, Portland, at 2 p. m. Sunday.

Iowa State College alumni who are in the service are especially invited to attend.

Transportation to the meeting may be arranged by calling at the information desk of the George White Center in Portland.

There are over 100 alumni of Iowa State College in this vicinity, and they promise that those who attend will have a good time.

Service Men's Wives Meet Today in Albany USO to Discuss Plans

Wives of service men living in Albany are invited to attend the first meeting of enlisted men's wives, to be held today at 2 p.m. in the ballroom of the Albany USO.

Tea will be served and much interest has been expressed over the future program, which will comprise social and recreational activities.

The formation meeting of this group was held last Friday, at which time the program was gone into and plans were discussed.

Corvallis Elks Having Big Dance for A.W.S.

The Corvallis Elks club is sponsoring a big dance this Saturday night in their club rooms to raise funds to build a new listening post for the Aircraft Warning Service in this district.

The dance will be the climax of the celebration of "Aircraft Warning Service Week," August 1 to 7.

The 16-piece SCU dance band will play for the dancing, and there will be several feature attractions in addition.

The entire proceeds of the $1 per couple charge will go to the building of the new listening post. Everyone is invited to attend.

In answer to the plea for more typewriters to help win the war, Oregon State College has just turned over to the government 10 more machines, making a grand total of 16 in all.

USO Canteen Run By Volunteers of 77 Organizations

Between 250 and 275 man-hours each month are donated by men and women volunteer workers at the canteen of the Salem USO, 693 Chemeketa street.

The canteen is open every evening from 7 to 11, on Saturdays from 1 to 12 and on Sundays from 9 in the morning to 11 at night.

Seventy-seven different organizations, or approximately 400 different persons, take turns each month serving the men who spend their weekends in the town.

Donations of food keep prices at a minimum. USO officials have found that many service men prefer to pay a small amount for food rather than have it given to them, for they feel more free to choose what they want and eat as much as they want.

Cool Ballroom Lures Dancers to Corvallis Saturday Night Hops

The regular dance will be held at the Corvallis USO this Saturday night.

The attendance at the summer dances has kept up very well in spite of the heat, for the club is fortunate in having a cool ballroom for dancing.

All service men, wives and junior hostesses are invited to attend. As has been the custom, several persons from the community will serve as patrons and patronesses.
