

Off Duty
Guide

SERVICE CLUBS

.... For Camp Adairmen

RECREATION

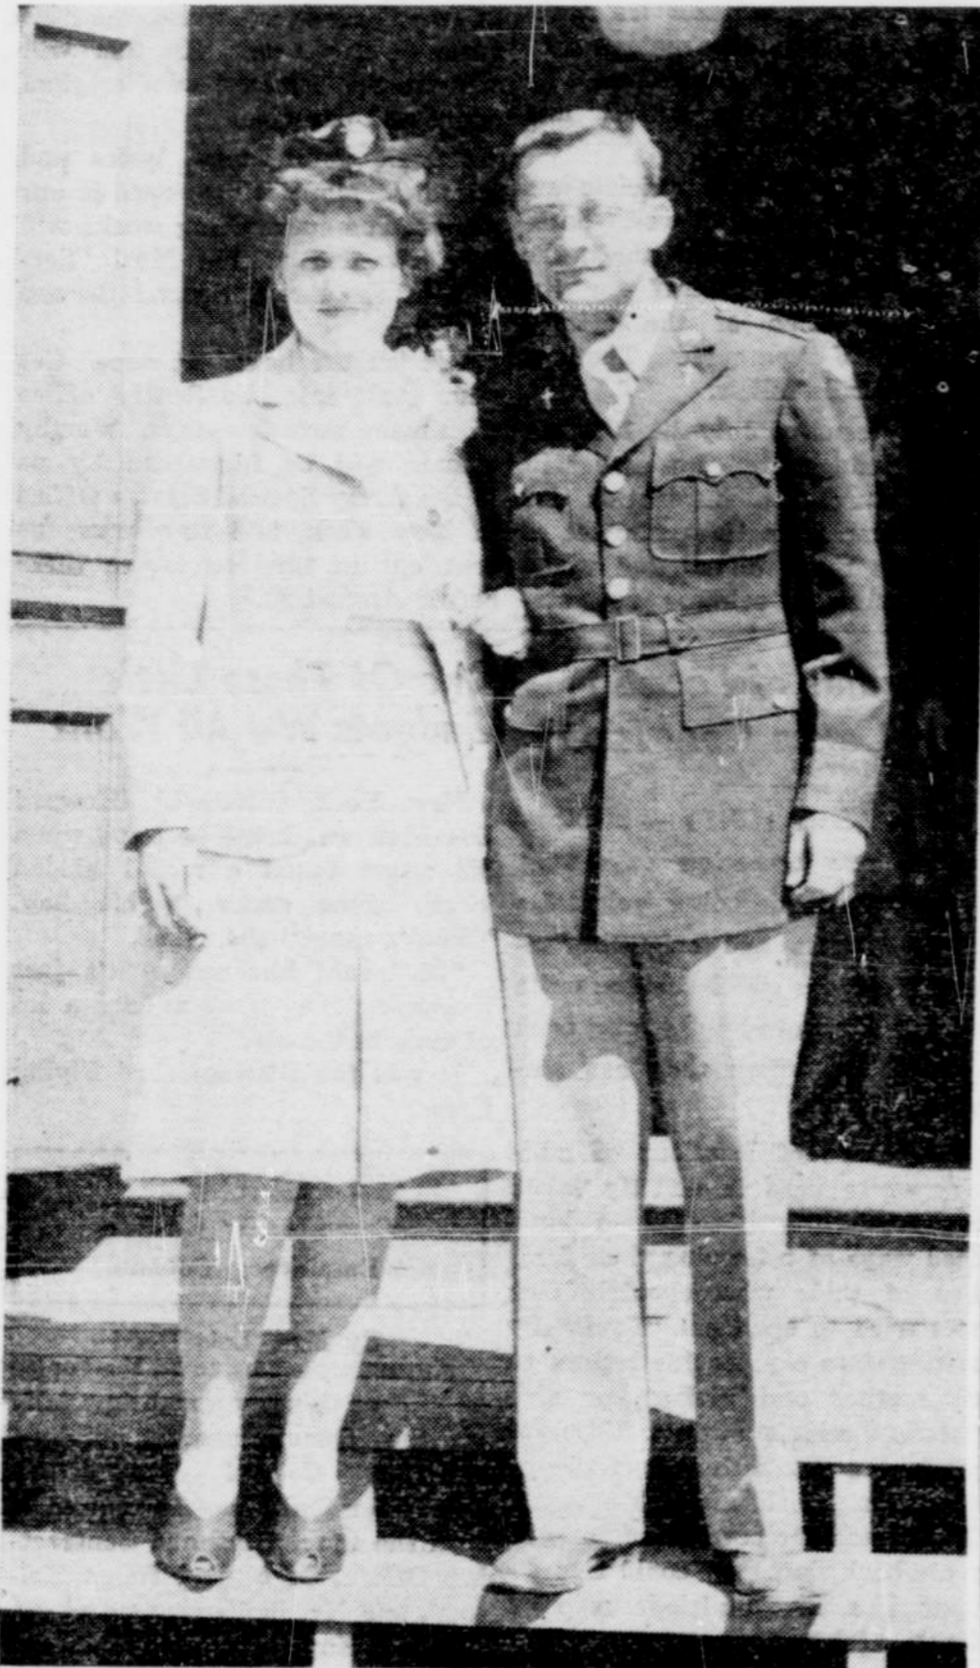

PARTIES

WEDDINGS

On The Post

THEATERS

Chaplain Wedded Many; Now Weds

Pictured above are Chaplain and Mrs. I. L. Whetsell, the former Helen Jackson of Texas, after their wedding Monday in Chapel 7.—Signal Corps Photo.

Salem All-Girl Revue
Gives Saturday Show

Don Black and his Salem All-Girl Victory Revue were featured at the Club 2 Cabaret Show last Saturday night.

Making their first appearance at this club, the Revue was well received by the large crowd which attended the show. A 96th division band, just in from Bend maneuvers, played enthusiastically for the dancing.

The Revue consists of 22 girls, who take part in the program of instrumental, vocal and dance numbers. Instrumentalists are Arlene Fraley, Pearl Crockett, Jeanne Twedt, Rosemary Gaise and Jewell Gueffray.

Norma Milier was featured tap dancer, and Betty Pierce did a baton-twirling act. Geraldene Des Georges, the Salem Victory Center Girl, sang "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling" and "Johnny Doughboy Found a Rose in Ireland," and was called back for several encores.

A triple trio consisting of Connie Keller, Beverly Kenny, Dorothy Ann Hobson, Lorna Arnold, Glennis Allen, Lois Schrenk, Bernice Isham, Mary Reirnoon and Betty Lou Edwards, also sang. Other vocalists were Donna Unruh and Jean Sechrist.

The Victory Revue presented their show at the hospital Saturday night before coming to Club 2.

Members of the 96th band were Sgt. Joseph Di Natali, leader, saxophone; Cpl. Joe Stanes, trumpet; Pvt. Homer Carlson, piano; Pvt. Glenn Henry, clarinet; Pfc. Frank Viggiano, drums.

Parting Is Not
Funny; Goodbye
To Cpl. Jacobi

Cpl. Rudi Jacobi, popular enlisted man in charge at Service Club 1, was honorably discharged from military service last Friday.

Jacobi had been at the Club since February, following his transfer from the Special Services Office of the Sea Gull Regiment. He was responsible for the start of the enlisted men's Bulletin Board, which has become a fixture at the Club.

Prior to induction, Rudi spent 10 years in show business with such big-time organizations as the Arthur Bros. Circus and the Cole Bros. Circus and expects to return to his former occupation. At present his plans are to join a USO road show and make the rounds of Army camps, entertaining soldiers as he entertained them here.

Though he will be on the road much of the time, his home will be in Wilmar, Calif., and he will always be glad to hear from his old friends in the service.

NO CABARET SHOWS
THIS SATURDAY NIGHT

Usual Cabaret Nights at both Service Clubs on Saturday nights have been cancelled this week in favor of the big 96th birthday dance in the Field House. All personnel on the post is invited to attend the 96th celebration.

The Field House dance for tonight has also been cancelled.

Miss Jackson Bride
Of Chaplain of 96thMarried Monday Upon
Arrival From Texas

At a quiet wedding in Chapel 7 Monday afternoon, Miss Helen Jackson of Honey Grove, Texas, and Lt. I. L. Whetsell, Chaplain, 381st Infantry, 96th division, were married.

Miss Jackson had just arrived from Texas, which is also Lt. Whetsell's home state, for the wedding.

The bride's only attendant was Mrs. John Graham, of New York city. Capt. Ralph Christenson, 150th Ordnance Bn., was best man. The ceremony was performed by Chaplain Cecil Brown.

The couple will leave for a wedding trip in the near future and will then be at home in Corvallis.

Officers and EM Enjoy
Corny Comedy at Club

Corn off the cob was passed out at Service Club No. 2 last Sunday night when the Little Theater of Eugene opened its show, "Love Rides the Rails, or, Will the Mail Train Run Tonight?" This corny comedy in three acts, by Morland Cary, under the direction of Henry Korn, provided two full hours of entertainment that kept the house ringing with cheers and sneers.

Glenn Hasselrooth played the part of the superintendent of the Alsea Valley Pine Bush and Pacific Railroad, proved himself as the hero and saved the mail contract for the poor widow, Valetta Arthurs, and her daughter, Kay Korn, from that old villain Archie Holeman, known as Simon Darkway, owner of the community bank that held all the mortgages.

Gerda Brown, known on the stage as Carlotta Cortez, proprietor of the Paradise Cafe, helped the villain to lure the heroine into a trap. The following also took active parts in the performance: George Northam, Dwight Newman, Marjorie Titus, Root Horn, Kaye Loomis, Billie Kagan, Emily Rhodes and Barbara Huntington.

'Pick-up' Band
To Play at Hop

Six SCU band members, forming a "pick-up band," are scheduled to play for Club 1's informal mid-week hop tonight. The same group played for last Thursday's dance.

Band members who will be on hand tonight are Pvs. Tietgen, Stinger, Walters, Fasulo, Gailik, Shepherd and Crompton.

Junior hostesses in nearby towns are afraid they will be accused as "cradle-snatchers" if rumors that the 70th division will be a "teen-age" division are confirmed.

Cabaret Night Floor Show
Features Variety Numbers

John Beldon, civilian employee at the Post Engineers, emceed a variety floor show at Club 1's Cabaret Night last Saturday.

Mr. Beldon entertained with a Bob Burns act, and then introduced

Pvt. Robert Henry, who led the SCU band that played for the dancing. Pvt. Shepherd was vocalist with the band.

As a further part of the floor show, the large crowd that attended heard Sgt. Howard Townsend play several piano solos.

Pvt. Fordyce Waldo sang "Stout Hearted Men" and other numbers as an encore.

Pvt. Jasjewski played several accordion selections, and Ed Hall, Camp civilian employee, played boogie woogie numbers on the piano as part of the well-rounded entertaining program.

276th Men Outwit
Girls in Contest

Men of the 276th Infantry of the Trailblazer Division outwitted girls from the Post Engineers' Office and from Corvallis Wednesday night in Club 1's weekly quiz contest. The men had 230 points; the girls 185.

The girls were Jeap Smith and Mattie Lou Noto from the Post Engineers, and Jo Dillon and Marian Wavy from Corvallis. Miss Wavy with 80 points topped women's scoring and received a make-up bag as her prize. Miss Dillon in second place won an anklet.

In the men's scoring, Cpl. W. M. Burgess was in first place with 80 points. Sgt. A. D. Yarborough was second. The other men in the contest were Cpls. F. T. Dalby and Sullivan.

Maj. Luther R. Vann, 70th Division Assistant Chaplain, was "Mr. Quiz" for the program. A large audience attended.

A week ago four girls from the PX office force met and defeated four men from the 274th Infantry of the Trailblazer Division.

Trailblazers Hold
Party in Corvallis

The Trailblazer division headquarters and headquarters company held a dance last Thursday night in the Corvallis USO. The dance, which was sponsored by Chaplain and Mrs. Loren T. Jenks, was well attended.

Sgt. Bill Rankin and the 16-piece 70th division band played for the party, and 50 junior hostesses from Corvallis attended.

A surprise visit was paid to the club by Major General John E. Dahlquist, commanding general of the Trailblazers, who talked briefly to the men.

Entertainment was provided by Pvt. Fordyce Waldo, who sang "Homing" and "Wagon Wheels." As an encore, he sang "Old Man River." He was accompanied at the piano by Cpl. Joseph Lobbato.

SERVICEMEN'S DATE BOOK

TODAY, August 13 . . .

Informal open house at both Service Clubs.

Movie, "The Sky's the Limit," for patients at Station Hospital, 6:30.

SATURDAY, August 14 . . .

Baseball game, 96th All-Stars vs. Ft. Lewis Warriors, 3 p. m. Big 96th anniversary dance in Field House with Hollywood acts. Everyone on Post invited to celebrate 96th birthday.

Open houses in both Service Clubs.

At Station Hospital, patients' amateur night, 7 p. m.

SUNDAY, August 15 . . .

Old-time movie, "Captain Fury," at Club 1.

Open house in both Service Clubs.

Games and music at 6:30 for patients at Station Hospital.

MONDAY, August 16 . . .

"Captain Fury," movie, at Club 2.

Informal activities at Club 1.

Record cutting for patients at 6:30.

TUESDAY, August 17 . . .

Bingo party at Club 1.

Informal dance at Club 2. Girls from Post invited.

Model in Art Workshop in Club 1 (on balcony) at 8 p. m.

Movie, "Mr. Big," for patients at Hospital, at 6:30 p. m.

WEDNESDAY, August 18 . . .

Quiz contest in Club 1.

Song fest in Club 2.

Record making for patients at Station Hospital at 6:30.

THURSDAY, August 19 . . .

Informal dancing at Club 1. Girls from Post invited.

Bingo party at Club 2.

Community singing at 7 p. m. for patients at Station Hospital.