

Off Duty Guide

SERVICE CLUBS

RECREATION

PARTIES

WEDDINGS

THEATERS

.... For Camp Adairmen

On The Post

The Editor Likes the One in the Middle, How About You?

Cabaret Shows Again Will Divide Program

Cabaret nights tomorrow at both service clubs will combine the same variety floor show, to be presented in rotation.

Featured will be the Christie Dance Revue of Eugene, directed by Miss Ethel Christie, of the public schools drama department.

The Revue is an all-round show, starring Miss Kagan, professional dancer from Chicago, in exhibition dancing. Miss Patricia Colerick will present Dorothy Parker's monologue, "The Waltz."

Miss Jeannette Tugman will do an exhibition of the can-can, and Miss Joyce Davis will sing. About 20 other members of the troupe will be on hand.

Miss Beth Siewert, popular young singer from Salem, will also appear on the program. She will be accompanied at the piano by Pvt. Homer Carlson, 96th Division.

The 96th Division band will play at Club 1 for dancing, and the SCU organization will appear at Club 2. Pfc. Jack Gates will emcee Club 2's program.

Symphony Orchestra Now Being Organized For All Men on Post

A Little Symphony Orchestra, for all enlisted men and officers stationed at this Post, is being organized by Cpl. Louis Bronstein, 70th Division.

Any men who play woodwind, string, brass and percussion instruments and are interested in joining the orchestra may leave their names at either Service Club or with Sgt. Rankin, 70th Division Band, at 2497.

Cpl. Bronstein, who conducted a symphony orchestra at the age of 12 years, was a former clarinetist with the New York Philharmonic Orchestra.

Mrs. Merriam Featured In First of Concerts

Before a highly appreciative audience at Chapel 2, Mrs. Florence Merriam, contralto and Club 2 hostess, was featured artist in the first of a series of Fall musical concerts last Monday night.

Sponsored by Chaplains Loren T. Jenks, Luther R. Vann and Malcolm S. Sweet of the 70th Division, the series has been planned for those who enjoy good music.

Accompanied by Sgt. Howard C. Townsend, pianist, Mrs. Merriam's repertoire ranged from delightful Spanish, French and Italian arias to light operatic pieces which have become American classics. Mrs. Merriam closed her program with the ever-popular "Summertime" and "My Man."

In addition to ably accompanying Mrs. Merriam, Sgt. Townsend presented several solo piano selections, among which were works of Grieg, Chopin and Rachmaninoff.

Agnus Dei	Bizet
Si Florent est fidele	Scarlati
Lamento Provencale	Paladilhe
La Statue de Tsarkoieselo	Cesar Cui
Le Papillon	Foudrain
Recit et Air de Lis	Debussy
from L'Enfant Prodigue	Chopin
Scherzo in B flat Minor	Chopin
Prelude in C Sharp	Rachmaninoff
Minor	Chopin
Minute Waltz	Grieg
Adaptation from	Sgt. Townsend
A Minor Concerto	Scott
The Unforeseen	Romberg
Who Are We to Say	from Girl of the Golden West
I'll Follow My Secret Heart	Coward
from Conversation Piece	from Conversation Piece
Medley of Popular Favorites	Arranged

FRIDAY DANCE AT CLUBS

The regular Friday night Field House dance will be held tonight in the two service clubs, as the 70th Division is using the Field House for processing fillers.

Bands of the 70th Division will play at both clubs, and junior hostesses from Corvallis and Salem will be at Club 2, while girls from Albany, Eugene, McMinnville, Monmouth and Dallas will go to Club 1.

Texas Girl Marries Pfc. Wade Franklin

Two 276th Weddings Held During August

Miss Virginia Porter of Dallas, Texas, and Pfc. Wade Franklin, Hq. Co., SCU, assistant to the hostess at Service Club 1, were married at an informal wedding last Saturday in Corvallis, at the home of Reverend Edward B. Hart, who performed the ceremony.

The bride, who had just arrived from Texas, was attended by Mrs. Artie Palermo as matron of honor. Best man was Pfc. Artie Palermo, of the same company as the groom. The couple is now at home in Independence.

Griffin-Harris

Miss Elsie Harris, of Medford, Ore., and M/Sgt. Earl P. Griffin, 276th Infantry Regiment, were married August 2 in Vancouver, Wash., by the Reverend Kunsman. The couple is now at home in Corvallis.

Lunsford-McCormick

Miss Mary McCormick and T/Sgt. David Lunsford, 276th Infantry, were married at the Church of Christ in Albany, Ore., by the Reverend Carroll, on August 10.

The couple is now residing in Albany.

—Cpl. William M. Burgess

Talent Show Held Wednesday Night

Club 2's second weekly talent show was held Wednesday night with a large crowd participating in the show and songfest.

The IV Corps band, directed by Pvt. Glenn Henry, with Privts. Bill Conlon, Clarence Wescott, Homer Carlson and Phil Stinger, and Mrs. Evelyn Henry, vocalist, played for the affair.

Their program included many popular songs, featuring different members of the orchestra and Mrs. Henry as vocalist. The audience joined in for the choruses of "You'll Never Know" and "For Me and My Gal."

Pvt. Julius Mayer, as part of the impromptu talent show, sang "Old King Cole" and impersonated Hitler. A quartet from 198th A.A., Cpls. John Mathews and Dick Runkle, Pfc. Earl Gadd and Pvt. Lester Hardin, also entertained.

The first talent night a week ago was participated in by many volunteer performers who boosted the popularity of the show.

CRASHING THE SENTRY, long after they have deserved to, are the Valley-famous Meisinger Quintette of Salem. From left to right, the Misses Pat Meisinger, Lois Gillings, Peggy Frantz, Florence Polster and Ann Doerfler. Down in front, in what is an impossible position for our limited service body, is Miss Betty Pierce, Willamette Valley champion drum majorette and baton twirler.—Signal Corps photo.

Albany Girls Top EM in Quiz Battle

Wednesday night four girls from Albany outwitted men of the 382nd Infantry, 96th Division, in the Club 1 weekly Quiz Battle.

The girls, Misses Fern Nutting, Ruth Romaine, Jean Dunn and Frances McKechnie, ran up 130 points to the men's 80. Miss Dunn was top scorer, and Pvt. Landis was high for the men, who included Sgt. Swain, T/5 Bauer and Sgt. Hillstrom.

Mr. Quiz was Lt. MacGruder, Special Service Officer of the 382nd, who did one of the finest jobs of emceeing the weekly quiz battle that has yet been done.

Next week girls from Independence will meet EM of the 383rd.

Following the quiz program, the GI Movie, "Corregidor," was shown to a large and enthusiastic group.

4 Children Born To Men of 276th

Four recent additions have been born in the families of men in the 276th Infantry regiment.

S/Sgt. and Mrs. William F. Bundick announce the arrival of twin girls, born August 9 at the Albany General Hospital.

The girls, christened Mary Faye and Betty Maye, weighed 6 pounds, 1½ ounces and 6 pounds, 12½ ounces, respectively. Mrs. Bundick is the former Eula Bell Jordan of Snyder, Texas.

A baby son was born July 22, 1943, in the Station Hospital at Camp White, Oregon, to S/Sgt. and Mrs. Adolph Mallett. The baby, weighing 6¼ pounds, has been christened Robert Lee, after the famous general.

Sgt. and Mrs. Harold Salberg are very proud of a baby girl, weight 6 pounds, 3 ounces, born at the Valley General Hospital in Ellensburg, Wash., July 11. The baby is named Katherine Denice. Mrs. Salberg is the former Dorothy Johnson of Ellensburg.

—Cpl. William M. Burgess

'Topper' Picture Plays Both Clubs

The old-time movie at the Service Clubs over the weekend was "Topper Takes a Trip," an adaptation of the novel by Thorne Smith, starring Roland Young in the title role and Constance Bennett.

Cabaret Night Shows Feature Variety Acts

Featuring a diversified variety floor show, cabaret nights at both Service Clubs were combined last Saturday, with the same program presented before large crowds at both clubs.

The 70th Division Glee Club, under the direction of Cpl. Fordyce Waldo, sang "This Is the Army," as it did for the Portland premiere of the movie of the same name.

Cpl. Kenneth Burns, of the 70th Division, sang "My Buddy," and Cpl. Waldo did the solo part of "Stout Hearted Men" with a chorus accompaniment. He then led the Glee Club and audience in singing "God Bless America."

The Meisinger troupe of 30 girl entertainers from Salem, well-known at Adair, also performed. "Princess Pat" and her accordion quintette were featured, and Betty Pierce, baton artist and Willamette Valley champion, was also starred.

Mme. Marian, also of the Meisinger troupe, entertained with a series of impersonations.

Keith Hoppas, from the University of Oregon, did amusing female impersonations, and Carlo, a professional magician from Detroit, Mich., astounded the audiences with his tricks.

At Club 1 Cpl. Waldo was master of ceremonies, and Sgt. Nick Sansonia emceed the program at Club 2. The 96th Division dance band played for the show and dancing at Club 1; the 70th Division combination, under the direction of Cpl. Freddie Yan, played at Club 2.

Members of the 70th Division Glee Club who performed Saturday night under direction of Cpl. Waldo are T/5 Joseph Labbato, Sgt. Howard Townsend, Cpl. D. Sabarsky, Cpl. Kenneth Burns, S/Sgt. A. Garcia, S/Sgt. George R. Peterson, T/5 T. Syabo, S/Sgt. H. Schwartz, T/5 William M. Burgess and Pfc. R. J. Williamson.

They also presented a program at the 70th Division Officers' Club later the same night.

Service Men's Date Book

TODAY, AUGUST 27...

Dances in both service clubs instead of the Field House. 8-10:30. Junior hostesses for dancing partners. Good time to get yourself a date for Saturday's cabarets.

Movie for patients at Red Cross auditorium at 6:30: "DuBarry Was a Lady," with Red Skelton.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 28...

Cabaret night at both Service Clubs. Bring your date or wife. Make reservations Saturday morning.

Talent show for patients at Hospital, 7:00 p. m.

SUNDAY, AUGUST 29...

Old-time movie at Club 1, "Two Gun Troubador."

Recordings and group singing at Club 2.

MONDAY, AUGUST 30...

Old-time movie at Club 2, "Two Gun Troubador."

Informal activities at Club 1.

Recording-cutting for patients at Station Hospital.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 31...

Bingo party at Club 1.

Informal dance at Club 2. Girls from the post invited.

Model in Art Workshop at Club 1 (on balcony) 8 p. m.

"Hit the Ice," with Abbott and Costello, movie for patients at Hospital.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 1...

Quiz contest in Club 1.

Songfest in Club 2, with talent show and prizes for participants.

Record-cutting for patients in Station Hospital.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 2...

Informal dancing at Club 1. Girls from Post invited.

Bingo party at Club 2.

Game night with tournaments at the Hospital.