

Post MP, Lass of Post Engineers Wed

CUTTING THE WEDDING cake after their marriage in Salem recently are Pfc. and Mrs. Pat Reynolds. Mrs. Reynolds, the former Frances Libburn, works with the Area Engineers, and Pfc. Reynolds is stationed with the Post MPs.—Cut Courtesy Salem Statesman.

Vaudeville Old-Timer Will Appear at Club

A full floor show and a five-piece orchestra will be furnished for the Saturday cabaret at Service Club 1 by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zaronos of Frank's Store of Albany.

The featured entertainer will be Dave Rylands, a headliner of the old Orpheum vaudeville circuit, presenting a clever dancing and impersonation act.

Ruth Jones will present a novelty song and dance act as part of the well-rounded program. Mrs. Lyle Bain will play several violin solos from favorite musical comedies, and Glenna Hurst will entertain with several songs.

A prize cow will present a novelty dance.

Games Planned on Thursday Nights

Last night Service Club 2 held game night, with bingo, checkers and other games on deck for interested enlisted men. Prizes were awarded for bingo winners.

Pvt. Click Clark handled the games, assisted by Pvts. A. Sandemnico, Al Potenza and John Schmidt, all of SCU.

Four Albany Gals Vs. Trailblazers

Truth or Consequences, regular weekly laugh show at Service Club 2, last Sunday night featured a team of four Albany girls versus four EM from the 70th Division, with Chaplain Loren Jenks acting as master of ceremonies.

Mabel Poptius and Betty Bates, of the feminine contingent, and T/Sgt. Harry Frick and Pvt. Walter Price, of the men's team, emerged as the winners, judged by audience applause. Prizes were awarded to all contestants, including Phyllis Vollstedt, Dorothy Roth, Pvts. Eugene Carenthal and Bob Jens.

At the piano, providing music for the show and for the songfest preceding it, was Cpl. Larry Smith, 70th Division. Pvts. Robert Rivers and Milton Anderson, from Division Hqs., handled properties.

After presentation of prizes, a miniature jive and boogie-woogie concert ensued, featuring the nimble fingers of Pfc. Jimmy Hall and Pvt. Pullum, from the Sanitary Troops.

Lt. Baumeister, Nurse Take Nuptial Vows

AT AN INFORMAL ceremony last week in Chapel 4, Lt. Margaret Elizabeth Cooney and Lt. Theodore A. Baumeister Jr., son of Col. Baumeister, Post Director of Supply, were married. Mrs. Baumeister is stationed with the Army Nurse Corps at Barnes Hospital, Vancouver Barracks, and Lt. Baumeister at Camp Berkeley, Texas.—Sentry photo.

Col. Baumeister's Son Wed in Chapel 4

Bride Is Lieutenant At Barnes Hospital

In a quiet ceremony last Thursday in Chapel 4, Lt. Margaret Elizabeth Cooney, with the Army Nurse Corps at Barnes General Hospital, Vancouver Barracks, and Lt. Theodore A. Baumeister Jr., 11th Division Armored Forces at Camp Berkeley, Texas, were married. Lt. Baumeister is the son of Col. Baumeister, Post Director of Supply.

Before the altar banked with autumn flowers, the service was read by Chaplain Stephen Grinvalsky. All members of the wedding party were in uniform, with Lt. Irene Pawelek, of the Station Hospital, as maid of honor, and Maj. Julius H. Brandt as best man. Organ music was played throughout the service.

At the informal reception following the ceremony the bride cut the cake with a saber in traditional Army manner. After a short wedding trip, Lt. and Mrs. Baumeister will return to their respective stations.

Lt. Baumeister is a graduate of the University of Washington, and Mrs. Baumeister, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Cooney of Hermiston, Oregon, attended Oregon schools and is a registered nurse in the state.

Lien-Marshall

At an informal ceremony in Corvallis, Sunday afternoon, Lt. Eva Lien, of the Army Nurse Corps at the Station Hospital, and Lt. Robert Marshall, 104th Division, were married.

The vows were taken before a fireplace decorated with candles and flowers at the home of Rev. Lael Westberg, who performed the ceremony.

Miss Eleanor Hall, of Independence, was the bride's attendant, and Lt. Dean Knight was best man. Lt. and Mrs. Marshall have returned to their Army duties.

Lt. Marshall is from Newark, N. J., and Mrs. Marshall's home is in Bonner, Mont.

Sullivan-Schiller

Miss Alice Virginia Sullivan, of Plainfield, Wis., and Pfc. Wilbert C. Schiller, of the SCU Medical Detachment, were married in an informal ceremony October 1 in Salem.

The couple were attended by Jess Hatch and Miss Margaret Hunt. After a short wedding trip, Pfc. and Mrs. Schiller will be at home in Salem.

Lilburn-Reynolds

Miss Frances Lilburn, of the Area Engineers office, and Pfc. Patrick Reynolds, of the Post MP Detachment, were married in Salem October 2 at a beautiful informal ceremony at the home of the bride.

Miss Florence Lilburn was her sister's only attendant, and the groom was attended by Sgt. Salvatore Mammano, also of the MPs.

After a wedding trip at the coast, Pfc. and Mrs. Reynolds are at home in Salem. Mrs. Reynolds is a native of Salem, and Pfc. Reynolds comes from New York City.

'Daniel Boone' to Show This Week

"Daniel Boone," featuring George O'Brien and Heather Angel, is the title of the old-time movie which will be shown at the Service Clubs over the week end.

The movie will play Sunday night at Club 1 and Monday night at Club 2.

Dixie Dugan this week? No.

GI Troubador to Give Farewell Performance

Sgt. Nick Sansonia of SCU, popular entertainer at Service Club 2, will present his farewell performance at the Club tomorrow night for the weekly Saturday night show.

Doing a complete routine of songs, accordion numbers, impersonations and piano selections, Sansonia's one-man show will be interspersed with several numbers from the Christie Entertainers of Eugene, under the supervision of Mrs. Ethel Christie and Miss Beverly Brunton.

Dancing to the music of a camp band will be enjoyed.

Magician Feature At Saturday Show

Magic tricks by Pvt. H. L. McGuire of the 70th Division, who also served as emcee for the program, were featured in the cabaret show at Service Club 1 last Saturday night. The smooth SCU band, directed by Pvt. Waller, played for dancing during the evening.

Junior Hostesses from McMinnville were on hand as dancing partners, and Miss Kathleen Kelly, from McMinnville, sang "Moonlight Serenade," "Stormy Weather" and "You Made Me Love You" as part of the show.

A popular singer was Pvt. Dave Glick of the Trailblazers, who sang "Me and My Gal," "When the Lights Go on Again" and "You'll Never Know," and returned with Emcee McGuire to sing a duet, "When You Wore a Tulip."

Cpl. Fordyce Waldo, Trailblazer Hqs., entertained with "I Love Life," "Without a Song" and the popular "Shortenin' Bread." Sgt. Howard Townsend, 70th, accompanied all musical numbers and played a medley of theme songs of big-name bands during the evening.

Miss Riordan Leaves Post to Be Married

Miss Alla Riordan, of the Civilian Personnel office, has resigned her position at Camp Adair and will leave Monday for San Francisco, where she will be married October 22 to Lt. Robert Rushforth, of the Signal Aircraft Warning Regiment, stationed in the Caribbean Sea.

Lt. Rushforth will be in California on leave, and Miss Riordan reports that her future plans are indefinite and will depend upon where her husband is stationed. She will be back in Oregon, however, to help her mother move to California from Dallas, where they have been making their home.

Miss Riordan has worked at Adair since March 1, 1943, as interviewer in Civilian Personnel. Her father, Maj. Ralph E. Riordan, formerly Post Intelligence Officer, is now Director of Intelligence at Camp San Luis Obispo, Calif.

SERVICEMEN'S DATE BOOK

TODAY—Dance in both Service Clubs, 8-10:30, Junior Hostesses. Movie, "Coney Island," for patients at Red Cross Aud., 2 and 6:30 p.m.

SATURDAY—Cabaret shows at both Service Clubs. Special show at Hospital for patients.

SUNDAY—Recordings, singing at Clubs. Sunday Evening Sing, old-time movie at Club 1. Truth or Consequences with songfest at Club 2. Informal songfest for patients in aud. at 7 p. m.

MONDAY—Jam session, talent night at Club 1, with PRTC band. Old-time movie, Club 2. Make-a-record-evening for patients at Hospital, 7 p. m.

TUESDAY—Game night, Club 1. Informal dance, Club 2, with girls from Post invited and PRTC band. Model in Art Workshop, Club 1, 8 p. m. "The Constant Nymph," movie for patients at hospital, 2 and 6:30 p. m.

WEDNESDAY—Quiz contest, Club 1. Dance class, Club 2, from 7 to 8. Amateur talent night with prizes, songfest, Club 2. Bingo party for patients, 7 p. m.

THURSDAY—Informal dance, Club 1. Trailblazer Radio show, Club 2. Games and music in lounge at Hospital, 7 p. m.