

GI Show at Club 1; Meisinger Gals at 2

By Adele Adair

Here's Adele again, with a quickie preview and review of what's about to be dished up in the way of GI entertainment at Service Clubs 1 and 2 during this week.

Tomorrow night, the ever-popular cabaret programs will feature two sparkling floor shows and just-as-good orchestras for GI dancers, plus Junior Hostesses, who will be on deck. At Club 2 the luscious Meisinger All-Girl Revue, decked out in new costumes and new routines, will hold forth.

Club 1 has promised a more-or-less GI floor show, emceed by one Cpl. Eddie Faigin of the 91st and featuring Pvt. H. L. McGuire, 70th, in a skating number. Also Miss Peggy Weekland of Portland, singer heard over Station KWJJ. The hot 70th orchestra will give at Club 2, and Club 1 "goers" will dance to the jive of the Fir Tree Band.

MOVIES—FOR FREE!

Mystery will be on the fire at Club 1 Sunday night, with the old time movie titled "Secret Investigator." Comes Monday, the movie moves to Club 2 for its second free showing.

SUNDAY LAFF SHOW ON

A team of four gals will be vs. four EM in Sunday's gag show, Truth or Consequences, at Club 2. Audience participation is also featured, with first and second prizes awarded by audience applause. A big songfest is scheduled.

CALLING—GI VOLUNTEERS

Step right out if you can sing or dance or tell jokes or—oh, well—you're wanted as a volunteer for Monday night's Talent show at Club 1. Cigarettes and candy are given to all contestants, and first and second prizes awarded. If you're bashful, at least join in the big songfest preceding the show.

OR ARE YOU THE INTELLECTUAL TYPE?

Tuesday night marks the appearance of a 91st Division band on the downbeat at Club 2 for the informal mid-week dance. Gals from Salem and the Post invited. Over Club 1 way it's game night. Bingo has been played with lots of gusto lately, and there are other games, too. Prizes, too!

'BATTLE OF THE SEXES'

Club 1's weekly quiz battle will be fought Wednesday night, with four girls of Dallas encountering four brawny EM of the Fir Tree Division. Incidentally, the audience joins in the "audience quiz" and in submitting questions through the club's Suggestion Box.

S-W-I-N-G YOUR PARTNER!

Meanwhile (Wednesday) Club 2 GIs swing out with folk games and square dances, led on by 50 bootiful girls from Oregon State College. Miss Betty Lynd Thompson of Corvallis is in charge of the group. Real old-time music will be provided by the "Oregon Saw-yers" of Albany.

A new deal with the Wednesday-night session will be 45 minutes of ballroom dancing, instructed by Pvt. Robert Rivers, 70th. Time—folk games, 7:30; ballroom dancing, 8:45.

TURKEY DAY FESTIVITIES

Thanksgiving Day will see programs at both Clubs tied in with the Post-wide observance. Club 1 will feature the Trailblazers' popular weekly radio show, while Club 2 promises the 91st band for your dancing pleasure, along with special entertainment. No hostesses have been invited, so it's bring your own partner.

There you have it, and happy Thanksgiving Day to you! See you next week.

274th Will Open Newest Dayroom

"Housewarming" festivities at the newly-decorated Day Room of Co. M, 274th Infantry, will be held tomorrow night.

Completion of redecoration plus new furniture gives the room the appearance of comfort. Efforts to provide the men with facilities were initiated through the Red Cross and active support was given by the parents of Pfc. William Fletcher, a member of the Company from Portland.

Major General John E. Dahlquist, Commander of the 70th Division, has been invited to attend the affair, as well as other unit officers.

T/4 and Mrs. Sydney Frankel, of the Post MP Detachment, are announcing the birth of a baby daughter, Miriam, Wednesday in Passaic, New Jersey.

Thursday nights, 9-9:30, Station KEX. "Trailblazers on the Air"; 11:00 on your dial.

Co. Helps Celebrate EM Military Wedding

The occasion was the first enlisted man's military wedding in the 275th Infantry, and so the regiment took over to help celebrate the affair in a big way.

In a formal ceremony last Saturday, Miss Betty Knapp and Pvt. Frederick Z. Carr, both of Zanesville, Ohio, were married by Chaplain Hardy in Chapel 5. The bride and groom left the chapel under a canopy of fixed bayonets formed by a Guard of Honor.

Following the wedding, Pvt. and Mrs. Carr and guests adjourned to the Recreation Hall for a party. Officers and men of Co. C and Junior Hostesses from Corvallis were on hand.

Music was provided by the smooth 275th Orchestra, and a buffet supper was served, topped off with a huge wedding cake which was cut with a bayonet by the bride.

Smith-Finkel

Miss Sylvia Smith of New York City and T/4 Jack Finkel, of the Lab and pharmacy at Station Hospital, were married Sunday in a formal ceremony held at the Corvallis home of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Gladstein.

The service was read by Chaplain Julius Kravetz of Chapel 1. S/Sgt. Rudolph L. Gross attended Sgt. Finkel as best man.

Ford-Schlankey

In a formal wedding Sunday in Saint Marks Episcopal Church of Medford, Miss Lois Katherine Ford, of Medford, and Maj. Sam Schlankey Jr., of the 91st G-2 office, were married.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the Hotel Holland, Medford, and the couple is honeymooning in San Francisco. They will be at home in Corvallis.

Wyatt-Ruffo

Miss Esther Wyatt and Lt. Edward J. Ruffo, 362nd Inf., 91st Division, were married last Thursday in a formal wedding in the Corvallis Episcopal Church. The bride is from Medford, Ore., and Lt. Ruffo hails from New York city.

The best man was Lt. William J. Schooley, of the same regiment as the groom. Ushers included Lts. M. Jerome Rieger, Michael I. Kushara, Stanley Frank, George Jones, Walter Fleming, of the 362nd Inf., and Stephen Long of the 70th Division.

Grover-Morrill

Another wedding in the 91st Division was celebrated Saturday night when Miss LouAnna Morrill of Los Angeles and Sgt. Lionel F. Grover, Hq. Co., and also from Los Angeles, were married. The ceremony was read in the Methodist Church of Salem.

WARBLING HIT of Tuesday's "Stars of Tomorrow," super-show at Club 1, was 3-year-old Dorothy Wymore, above "giving out."

GIs Entertain at Station Hospital

A strictly GI floor show, arranged by the Red Cross and 70th EM, was presented at Station Hospital Wednesday night before an appreciative audience of hospital patients, who joined in a songfest before the program.

Emceed by Pvts. Mickey Ehrenfeld and "Red" Colton the show included Pvs. Jimmy Hall, pianist; Chico Salazar, Mexican singer; dance routines by Pvs. Joe Jones and Johnny Pulliam.

For Your 'Must' List: 'Guadalcanal Diary'; Other Top Films Scheduled

GUADALCANAL DIARY—The best blood and guts picture of the year—powerful drama of men on Guadalcanal, depicting America's first victorious offensive in World War II. A great all-male cast, a story taken from the book by an on-the-scene INS correspondent, smashing hand-to-hand conflict with treacherous Japs and other magnificent action shots combine to make this one of the greatest action pictures of all time! It's like BATAAN, only more so. Excellent. Don't miss it.

THOUSANDS CHEER—Story of a colonel's daughter who falls in love with a private, this musical extravaganza has everything—top-flight stars, hit songs, hilarious comedy skits—plus a 40-minute Army show. Photographed in technicolor. If we need to say more, Eleanor Powell, Kathryn Grayson, Mickey Rooney, Judy Garland, Red Skelton, Ann Sothern, Lucille Ball, Lena Horne and Kay Kyser's, Bob Busy Band Plays At Club, Dance in Monmouth Sat.

The torrid 274th Regimental Orchestra, after wowing 'em last night at the regimental-sponsored dance in Service Club 1, will provide the swing for a dance and party honoring the regiment to be given tomorrow night by the student body of the Oregon College of Education in Monmouth.

For the second time, within a month, men of the 274th will be guests of the college group. In addition to the music of the 274th aggregation, committee arrangements call for several surprises in the way of entertainment. About 100 men from the 2nd Bn. will be selected to attend the affair, with COs making their choices on the basis of merit and progress in the training program. Transportation will be provided.

The 274th orchestra, which made its debut a month ago, has already won a large following. In its first radio appearance, the combination was heard over KOIN in Portland as part of the 274th program there and was lauded by officials of the CBS outlet. Other bookings, including officer functions and Service Club affairs, are on the fire.

Men of World War II forces will become eligible to American Legion membership only when honorably discharged or after the termination of hostilities, according to a release from American Legion headquarters.

Thousands of applications have been received at the headquarters and are being held until the applicant is legally eligible.
