FOUR OF THE SIX TRAILBLAZERS PRAISED BY LIEUTENANT GENERAL SIMPSON

THESE FOUR TRAILBLAZERS earned the unusual honor of being named personally by Lieutenant General William H. Simpson, 4th Army commanding general, in his commendations for the 70th division's recent 4th Army tests. They are (l. to r.) S/Sgt. Frank Kannenberg, Hq. Co., 274th Inf.; Cpl. Richard Stahl, I & R Platoon, 274th Inf.; Sgt. Herman Woebke, 70th QM Co.; S/Sgt. James A. Meyer, 570th Signal Co. Others specially mentioned, of whom photos could not be secured, were S/Sgt. Robert W. Drew, Co. L, 275th Inf., and S/Sgt. West, 570th Signal Co.

When Morning Came on Attu

Japs Still Entrenched

When morning came on Attu last May 27, Sgt. Robert W. Green, Co. A. 275th Inf., found that the 3rd platoon hadn't taken the Jap position at the top of the hill. Instead, there wasn't any more 3rd platoon-and the Japs were still

Sgt. Green and the rest of the 2nd platoon moved back up into the 3rd's slit trenches, which they quickly found to be untenable. The Japs were looking down their

The only thing to do was move ahead, with grenades.

Up the steep slope, however, killed almost beside him as they grenades had to be direct hits in the Jap fox-holes; if not, they would roll back down on the men who threw them.

diers of Co. A how the right of the Jap line was silenced, leaving only threw their grenades, and that was one or two Nip riflemen on the left, that. hidden behind rocks.

to flank the rocks. Three men were geant said.

PRESSING SERVICE EXTENDED

Third pressing shop on the Post is now open at PX 17, with one-day service promised by F. J. Sherman, supervisor of tailor-

Hours of the new shop are from 11 a. m. to 6:30 p. m. Prices are blouse, 30c; overcoat, 50c; trousers and shirts, 20c each.

Pressing service is also available in PXs 2 and 3.

crawled up the slope.

He himself was clipped in the leg. "It didn't hurt much then; This week Sgt. Green told sol- just like somebody pinched me."

They made it above the rocks,

"It felt good to know that little He and several buddies started job was finished, though," the ser-

We Did It Like This on Attu

Sgt. Robert Green, now with Co. A, 275th Inf., tells a circle of Trail-blazer soldiers how he and his buddies grenaded one of the last enemy outposts on Attu into smithereens, last May.

National Paralysis Drive Opens Today

Collectors Placed . In PXs, Day Rooms

With the official opening today of the 1944 drive for funds for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, coin collectors ranging from piggy banks to milk bottles, all appropriately tagged with Infantile Paralysis Drive stickers, have been placed in PXs, day rooms, mess halls and headquarters buildings throughout the Post.

The Post-wide drive will continue through January, closing with celebrations of the Presidents Birthday Ball, January 30, in the Service Clubs and Officers' and NCO Clubs and both divisions.

The Field House has been reserved January 28 for a Trailblazer Birthday Ball, according to 70th participation in the drive.

March of Dimes envelopes have been distributed through the 91st Division Special Service Officer, Capt. H. H. Storms, to regiments Finance Office is in charge of Post participation in the drive.

Funds realized from the drive will be used to combat infantile ladies captured the entire 1st Bn. paralysis and to further research of the 274th Inf. without a casualand treatment of the dreaded dis- ty

91st Div. Holds Portland Reunion

(Continued from Page 1)

Lothrop and Evan Ranes who as a regimental adjutant of the 1st and Pvt. Robert McMullin. Co. B. served with the 316st Hospital Division in 1918, he had signed for who played the guitar, bass Train in 1918.

Maj. Raymond O. Thurber, representing the 362nd Inf., was in- of wine. When the 1st Division Necessity being the mother of about the first 362nd.

encountered. The present 91st men a gridge. Jeffrey commanded. Explanations the new 91st. were exchanged.

but it was an old story when Col. closer liaison in the future." Samuel Hays, Camp Adair commander, and Capt. James D. Mc-Kay, Post public relations officer, old 91st Division.

A Dime Goes into the "Piggy Bank"

MISS BETTY CROUCH, the pride and beauty of Capt. Scott's Post transportation office, drops the first dime into Lt. Charles F. Payne's piggy bank. Lt. Payne is the Post chairman of the infantile paralysis fund drive and hopes to have the clay bank completely filled before the drive is over.

Lt. Walter R. Bogart, chairman of Soldiers' Dreams Come True-

Girls on Bivouac!

On Friday night, January 7th, the 274th Inf. set another and companies of the division. Lt. precedent-female entertainment on bivouac. Bivouacs are Charles F. Payne of the Post no novelty to the Infantrymen, but girls on bivouac are a soldier's dream come true. Without the aid of supporting panzer girls received upon their arrival and tank divisions three levely and introduction by M.C. Lt. Cheno-

Sponsored by the 274th Regimental Special Service Officer, Old Meets New as Miss Caroline Wall, Miss Ellect. Miss Caroline Wall, Miss Eileen Corvallis brought all of their charms to bear on an enthusiastic group of soldiers. The ovations the > the property of a sector of the fiddle, and the field organ refront which included a hogshead spectively.

discovered the old division had a General Livesay told the old 91st around the improvised stage, steel 364th Inf., while the veterans were men that just as the old division helmeted heads above eager, expuzzled as to just what were these had been the Northwest's own, so pectant faces appeared through the Special Troops that Lt. Col. P. R. he has fostered the same spirit in blue of the night. The fitful light was introduced to the gathering, eral pointed out. "I look to much fered special numbers.

New two-stripers in the 276th in-General Livesay remembered that B. McCord of Co. C.

weth was tumultuous.

Top Entertainment

Heartened by the reception, the entertainers sang late songs and the good old favorites, occassionally getting the men to join in the group songfest led by Mrs. Johnson. Music was furnished by 274th EM Pfc. Kenneth C. Millar, 2nd Bn. Hg. Co.; Pvt. Fred Powell, 2nd Bn. Hq. Co.;

troduced to Gentry Yates and John was relieved by the 91st Division, invention, two large camp fires Green who were able to tell him the hogshead was signed over, but were built about forty feet apart. the contents had mysteriously Centered and a little to the rear a And so on down the line the old changed to water. The general large truck, equipped with a loud met the new until a snag was hoped the veterans would not bear speaker and microphone, served as a stage. Forming a semi-circle and wavering shadows cast by the "This is, I believe, the first get- camp fires created the atmosphere Brigadier General Ralph Hospi- together since activation of the of a marshmallow roast in days tal, division artillery commander, two divisions' personnel," the gen- gone by, as the visiting lusses of-

The novel diversion was made possible in cooperation of the

The question of "how bigh is stood up. Both are veterans of the clude William A. Mayes of Co. B up" may never be settled, but and Arthur R. Stanhope, Paul Ken-femmes on a bivouac will go int . Old experiences were exchanged, nedy, Joseph L. Birmer and Diez the records without dispute -its ois treat.