As Your June Bride

FAMOUS AND FATAL as always as the month of June brides, June weddings, orange blossoms and crescent moons, June has not overlooked Adair, and here are pictured four of the weddings during this romantic month. Left, Lt. D. C. Blankenship, 570th Signal Co., and the former Marian Houston of Albany were married Sunday in Chapel 2 by Chaplain Charles W. Pendleton. Left to right, Lt. C. P. Roarty, best man, Lt. and Mrs. Blankenship, Mrs. Roarty, matron of honor, and Chaplain Pendleton.

Center, Another June wedding was that of Cpl. Lewis C. Green, 70th Combat MP Platoon, and the former Audrey W. Tyson of Brooklyn, N. Y., who were married June 21 by Chaplain Pendleton. Right, pictured under crossed bayonets following their marriage Saturday in Chapel 2 are Tec5 Earl F. Rogers, 770th Ord. Co., and his bride, the former Mary Louise Johnson of Friend, Nebr.

Ex-Club 1 Hostess Weds 70th Div. Sgt.

In one of the prize-winning gardens of Corvallis, belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stone, Sgt. Joseph Lobbato, chief clerk in the 70th Division chapel's office, and Dorothy Mae Stevens were married Friday by Chaplain Loren T. Jenks.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, H. O. Stevens of Eugene, Ore. Miss Marjorie Quigley was maid of honor, and Tec4 Matthew Carnevale was best man in the double ring ceremony.

Miss Stevens formerly served as Social and Recreation Hostess at Service Club No. 1. The couple will reside in Albany for the present, and in August the bride will take the directorship of Music and Drama at the N. J. School for Boys, Jamesburg, N. J., which position Sgt. Lobbato held for several years prior to his induction.

An army field organ played by Tec4 Howard Townsend of the Special Service Office, accompanied on the violin by Pfc. Clifford Berge of the 70th band, supplied the music for the prelude and the march. Pvt. Edwin Goldyn of the 883rd FA sang.

A reception was held for the wedding guests at the home of Chaplain and Mrs. Jenks in Corvallis.

Chapel 2, last Saturday at 1430. Tec5 Rogers is from Conway, Ark.

Tec5 James Gill of the Ordnance Co. was Rogers' best man and the groom's sister, Mrs. A. Z. Davis, was maid of honor.

The traditional exit from the chapel was made under an arch of crossed bayonets held by an honor guard of men of the Ordnance Co.

The newlyweds will make their home in Corvallis.

Judge: "And you shot your husband with a bow and arrow?"

Wife: "Yes; I didn't want to wake the children."

Portland Radio Stars At Club 1 Tomorrow

By Adele Adair

An array of stars from Portland radio stations KGW-KEX will be at Adair tomorrow night to present a big-time floor show in Club 1's lounge, with curtain call at 2000.

The entertainers, all top-notch professionals from this area, are touring the state in connection with the 5th War Loan Drive and have agreed to put on their well-balanced, fast-breaking show for GIs of the Post, according to Principal Hostess Ann Caddy.

Paced by Emcee Homer Welch, and with music furnished by Abe Bercovitz's eight-piece string orchestra, the show features the Rutherford sisters, swingful singing trio; Patsy Bauman, blues singer and tap dancer (in a return appearance on the Post); Johnny Harrell, tenor and guitarist, featured in "western" movies; tenor Andy Clausen; pianist Glenn Shelley; Rollie Truit, sports announcer; a violinist and a harpist. Comedian Ronnie Salt and vocalizer Sue Welch round out the list of talented entertainers.

Bingo and Games

Friday night at Club 1 Bingo is scheduled, with the Field House dance in full swing.

The Hand Is Quicker—

Well, you'll see, for Sunday Club 1 will present an hour's show by Mardini the Magician, Portlander, whose tricks and sleight of hand have mystified many in this area. Time is 2000.

Movies, GI Style

Monday night brings the weekly FREE movie stint to Club 1, with GI movie shorts to be shown, followed by a community sing.

Big Firecracker Dance

There won't be any firecrackers at Club 1's Tuesday dance, it's true, but the 70th Division orchestra will be there, along with lots of junior hostesses, to celebrate the Fourth of July. Things will start popping at 2000.

Truth or Consequences!

A popular feature of Club 1, Truth or Consequences, long off the weekly schedule, will return Wednesday night in a contest matching the brains of four of the fair sex vs. four Adair GIs.

'Blazers on the Air

"Oregon's Own" radio show by the 70th Division musicians will originate at 2030 Thursday night from Club 1. The band will play for the club audience when not "on the air," so a full evening of musical entertainment is promised.

Landings in France Recall Lines from Shakespeare

France—(CNS)—The area of the Allied landings in France is approximately that in which the British Army of King Henry V landed in 1415 in the campaign climaxed by the bloody Battle of Agincourt.

This action has been preserved for our generation not only by the battle itself but because of William Shakespeare's famous lines from "Henry V" in which he addresses the audience:

"And thence to France

Shall we convey you safe

And bring you back,

Charming the the narrow sea

To give you gentle pass."

Relatively Unimportant Dept.

Newark, N. J. (CNS)—Local residents are being advised to stock up on their yo-yos by the Newark District office of the OPA. Production of yo-yos soon may cease, the office warned, because the OPA considers them relatively unimportant items in the wartime scale of living.
