

46th Show Ends 'Trailblazers on Air'

Final KEX-KOAC Radio Feature

Favorites Stars, Both Bands Appear Over Thursday Broadcast

In a scintillating finale last night, the Trailblazers staged their last radio broadcast from Club 1 and over Stations KEX and KOAC. It was the 46th consecutive weekly show.

Chief Warrant Officer Norman Olson led the full military band in "There's Something About A Soldier" and "What Do You Do In The Infantry" to open the show.

Later they changed tempos in "Rhythms of Rio" and Jerome Kerns' "The Night Was Made For Love."

That prime favorite, Sgt. Mattie Carnivale's rhumba band, played "Chita" and "Taboo" then went from Latin to sweet with "The Song Is You" and "She's Funny That Way."

Porgy and Bess selections made a medley for Pfc. Clifford Berge's concert group and Sgt. Fordyce Waldo sang "I Got Plenty of Nuthin." The Trailblazer dance band had a sparkling arrangement of "Stardust."

As in the 45 previous broadcasts, Day Foster, war program director for KEX, wrote and produced the show in cooperation with the Trailblazer Special Services Office.

Camouflage blinds the enemy! If he can't see you, he can't hit you.

"That's the new rocket type."

Books at War: 'Walk in the Sun', by Pvt. Brown of 'Yank', Entertaining

By Tec5 Robert V. MacDowell

A walk in the sun is the bane of every infantryman, and it would seem to be no fit subject for a story. But Pvt. Harry Brown, author of this account of "A Walk in the Sun" relates the experiences of an infantry platoon which began with the storming of the Salerno beach and finished four hours later with the successful completion of its mission six hot and dangerous miles inland. Quite "a walk in the sun!"

With the killing of the lieutenant and senior sergeant, and the mental collapse of the next in command, the responsibility fell on a corporal, who takes hold as naturally as a West Pointer.

He had rescued the lieutenant's map case, but had found no instructions, and only by the use of his imagination and good judgment was he able to discern the patrol's assignment and accomplish the demolition of an important bridge on the flank of the attacking forces and the protecting machinegun nest in the nearby farmhouse.

The narrative is full, perhaps overfull, of conversation which would ordinarily sound inane under unusual circumstances. But these were unusual circumstances. "Talking was a form of bravado. If a man said something, no matter what it was, it seemed to him that he was saying: 'Here I am, very calm, very collected.'"

Harry Brown is familiar to most GIs as a member of the staff of "Yank." He has written many interesting articles and stories, and this is no exception. "A Walk in the Sun" will be a very popular book with most of its readers.

2 Laundry Employees Win Suggestion Prizes

Two Heating Plant employees, Irwin L. Gaskill and Oliver Hemphill, have received a joint award of $50 for their suggestion which, it is estimated, will save several hundred dollars as well as many man hours.

The suggestion is to replace a hanging arch made of several fire bricks in each furnace with one refractory block.

The life of the arch made of fire bricks has been about six weeks while the longevity of the refractory block made of fireproof composition has been demonstrated to last more than one year at the incinerator and is good for an indefinite period of time.

Gaskill also received a letter of commendation on another suggestion for a receptacle to aid in cleaning soot from the furnaces.

Bond Drive Moves Steadily on to Goal

The civilian drive in the United States officially went over July 8, with the goal of 16 billion dollars over subscribed by 250 million dollars. However, additional bond sales have been reported in many sections and the U.S. War Bond committee hopes that these records will continue to come in.

It is expected that the Sixth War Loan will begin about November or December and will probably ask for an even larger quota than before.

HALF MILLION CHINESE BUILT B-29 AIRFIELDS

China (CNS)—Credit for building the Chinese bases from which the AAF's giant B-29s bombed the Japanese mainland goes to 500,000 Chinese laborers who turned in one of the biggest construction jobs in history in only three months—using only their hands, hammers and wheelbarrows.

As there was no cement, asphalt or other binding materials in the airfield area, the Chinese built the fields near rivers which contained most of the natural materials.
