Former SCU Man Wins Silver Star

On April 11 he was recommended for the Silver Star.

From a hospital on May 23 Torrice wrote a letter to Tec5 Don Lynch, Sentry staff artist, but, didn't mention the action in which he had been wounded. His letter, in part, did say:

"I imagine things have changed quite a bit back there, as it's been more than a year since I left. But I brought with me memories that will last forever. I really liked Adair, but I guess my fate betrayed me.

Blasted From Foxholes

I have been blasted out of foxholes by exploding shells a couple of times but I guess Lady Luck has been with me. Have been in plenty of action and have been in the hospital for nearly two months. I had a couple of slugs of the German machine gun in my back, but I'm all recovered now and ready for action again.

"I have been in many close scrapes but the best thing to do in combat is not to lose your head. So far I have gotten along swell and I am still 1-A. But I hope this war will soon come to an end, for I don't think a man's luck can last forever.

"Received a copy of the Camp Adair Sentry, When I read the paper I sort of felt lonesome for Oregon, but it isn't time now get in such embarrassing moods. Take care and good wishes. (Signed) Cas."

While in SCU Hqs. Torrice was with Plans and Training office. In Italy he has been with an infantry regiment of the 34th Division.

PICK 'TYPICAL GI'

New York - (CNS) - America's typical GI Joe is 22-year-old Pvt. Charles W. Peers, of Louisville, Ky., now serving in the ETO. Peers, who was chosen "the most typical American doughboy" over 250,000 other servicemen, is five feet, nine inches tall, weighs 170 pounds, has gray eyes and brown hair. The contest was sponsored by Eddie Cantor.

MERELY 30,000 CIGARS

SAN FRANCISCO (CNS) -When a local thief, who had robbed what he thought was a butter truck. got his booty home he discovered that it was merely 30,000 cigars. Resigned to making the most of a bad deal, he had smoked his way through two boxes when police grabbed him and carted him away to the gooly.

S.S. Trailblazer Name Changed

(Continued from page 1) large tanker, and needed it badly. The vessel can carry huge cargoes of materials needed so badly on the invasion front today. Building a tanker is a tremendous job, and the Norse could not wait. The "S S. Trailblazer" was the only ship ready for the job and, like any good soldier, she was ready to meet her

Proud Norse Name Although the men of the 70th vould prefer to have her sail as the S.S. Traiblazer" and under the Stars and Stripes, they can be equally, proud of her as the "Kapiten Worsoe." For that ame is a distinguished o Norwegian history today. I'm the Nazi hordes took over y in a typical way of treachad force, the Norsemen coned the fight from exile in Lonon. Martin Worsoe, an officer of the Norwegian Merchant Marine and a reserve captain in its Navy, was named head of the maritime partment of the government-inexile. At this job he literally work-January. But before he did, he made the merchant fleet of Norway an important factor in the struggle against the Hun

His brother, Hercules Worsoe, Norwegian consul at Vancouver, B. C., accepted the ship.

So today the proud vessel is sailing into the cast. It does not, for the time bear the name of the Trailblazers, it does carry with it their best wishes for a career worthy of both her names.

New Nurse Uniforms

Washington-(CNS)-The War Deertment has announced that field service uniforms designed by the Quartermaster Corps more than a year ago for Army nurses in overseas theaters are now being made available to nurses on duty in the U.S. The uniforms are brown and white pinstriped seersucker and will require no starching or iron-
