BRIEF MENTION.

Mrs. F. D. McCully is lying seriously ill. Mr. Joseph Gill made us a pleasant call last Friday.

Mrs. Akin and child, of Lake St. are lying ill of scarlatina. We are indebted to Mr. Hamilton Vance for substantial favors.

The 115th anniversary of American Independence dawned bright and clear. The boys in blue arrived Tuesday evening from the seat of war at The Dalles.

Mr. Alex. Donnelly, of Elgin, is stopping for a few days with his parents here. Mrs. Akin and little son, whose illness is mentioned elsewhere, are improving rapidly.

Every precaution should be observed to prevent the spread of the scourge, scarlatina maligna. The funeral of the son of D. Otto, aged 4 years, who died of scarlatina took place Monday.

Too much rain goes against the grain and makes one complain and think things pro-swear. Fred J. Smith, of the Arm Warden & Co., San Francisco, spent several days in Joseph last week.

The hall of Friday night, July 3d in Roup's Hall was well attended and was the event of the season. We were visited by a heavy rain on Friday night which banished the dust and made the air much cooler.

The races here on the afternoon of the 4th were well attended and added quite an interesting feature to the day. Will Wurzwiler sold his Mill St. property, formerly occupied by J. M. Blakely, to Dan'l Simmons, consideration $750.

Capt. F. M. McCully, editor of the CHIEFTAIN, left The Dalles for Portland; he will, probably, reach home Friday or Saturday.

The Christian Endeavor societies of Enterprise and Joseph spent several hours very pleasantly celebrating at the foot of Wallowa lake. The improvements on the Lake St. property of Mr. Stump, are almost completed. The house will be occupied by a family next week, probably.

Mrs. H. E. Vermillion is selling her large stock of millinery goods at cost, for the next twenty days to make room for a large stock of fall goods. The boys of company "I" complain of a lack of courtesy shown them by The Dalles people. The next attempt to boom the sand scoured town on the Columbia, the help of this company will flash in the pan.

We received a pleasant call to day from Capt. F. M. McCully, of I Co., editor of the WALLOWA CHIEFTAIN, at Joseph and Mr. Ray Vost, musician of the company, and 1st Lieut. William Snodgrass, and 2d Lieut. Joseph Baker, of K Co. at La Grande.—Times-Mountain.

G. V. Hamilton Wednesday relinquished the clerkship at the Agency and Mr. Githens, of Weston, employed. Agent Moorhouse is getting everything in readiness to turn over to his successor, John W. Crawford, of Salem, the new appointee.—East Oregonian.

Mr. Crawford's sterling integrity and time-tested business qualifications warrant us in pronouncing the appointment a good one. The Columbia river must be opened. A portage road will soon be completed at the Cascades; a portage road must be put in operation at The Dalles. And, not to mince words about it, Portland must take the lead in it. It is the way to get concessions from the railroads without asking for them or waiting for them, and to secure, beyond competition, the shipment through Portland and Astoria, of the greater part of the products of the valley of the Upper Columbia. If we open the river, competition north and south will be distanced for all time.—Oregonian.

The Races. Although the sun's rays were rather too warm for comfort quite a large crowd in vehicles, mounted and on foot assembled to witness the races on the afternoon of July 4th. The programme, as announced, was successfully carried out and no small amount of interest was manifested by those present.

The first race, free to all two-year-old horses only, distance 600 yds, was won by J. N. Coshov's b. m. Eliza Jane. Jennings & Knapper's blk. m. Black Bess, second.

The second race, for saddle horses, distance 400 yds, was won by R. Warnock's s. g. Nez Perces. D. Warnock's b. S. Rusty, second.

The third race, for ponies of 14 hands, or under was won by D. Warnock.

From the Boys. The following from Capt. F. M. McCully and an article from The Dalles Chronicle, in another column, will give our readers an idea of the fun our soldier boys are having. In Camp, July 1, 1891.

ED. CHIEFTAIN:—It's dirty here, and likewise hot. We're busy. I'll write after this cruel war is over.

Notice to Settle. All parties indebted to us will be required to settle their accounts either by cash or a bankable note immediately. Otherwise accounts will be placed in competent hands for collection. F. D. McCully & Co.

Fire at La Grande.

LA GRANDE, OR., July 4.—What was probably the most disastrous fire in the history of La Grande occurred tonight at about 8.30 o'clock. When the kitchen of the Blue Mountain hotel was discovered in flames. The building was of wood, old and dry, and before a stream of water could be brought to bear upon it, the whole structure was enveloped in flames. A high wind prevailed at the time and the fire spread in every direction. The fire department responded promptly and worked faithfully, but as its facilities for fighting the fire were inadequate, the greater part of four blocks were burned before the flames were gotten under control. No estimate of the losses nor insurance can be obtained tonight. The following is a partial list of the sufferers: W. J. Snodgrass, stock and three buildings; Gazette Publishing Company; F. W. Wood, photographer; Young & Dart, hardware; R. E. Bryan, building; J. K. Roming, building; J. A. Boskowitz, groceries; Mrs. Sitton, millinery; L. Eaves & Co., billiards; Joseph McCree, two buildings; William Noble, four buildings; Sommer & Blum, brick block; Mrs. Parker, millinery; C. G. Bunte, jeweler; C. S. Dumphy, drugs; McKenna & Holmes, groceries; Newlin & Palmer, drugs; J. Diamond, general merchandise. Several casualties occurred, the most serious being that of William O'Brien, whose leg was broken while carrying goods out of the Snodgrass store. Senator Dolph and family were guests at the Blue Mountain house, having rooms on the second floor. They escaped with some difficulty, but were unable to save their clothing.

Fire at Joseph.

On Thursday evening at 7.30 o'clock our citizens were thrown into a fever of excitement by the sudden sounding of the fire alarm, arriving on the scene, clouds of smoke were seen issuing from the new roller flouring mills of the Joseph Milling Co. The fire company arrived promptly and fortunately, the flames were under control in a few minutes. The fire originated in the apparatus for heating wheat, and but for its timely discovery by the miller, Mr. Stump, the entire structure would soon have been a smouldering ruin. Mr. S. shut down the mill about 6.30 and after taking supper went over to his property on Lake St. where he first discovered the smoke issuing from the mill. The loss is estimated at from $75 to $100 in the destruction of heater and damaged grain. The building and machinery was insured.

NOTES.

Many members of the fire Co., being absent at The Dalles encampment, great praise is due the few remaining for their efforts in reaching the fire with the hose cart.

A stranger stopping in town, on hearing the church bell ringing violently and seeing a people running from all quarters, that direction, remarked that "the people of Joseph must thirst after righteousness when they manifest so much zeal in going to church."

The loss of the fine roller mill at Joseph would have been a calamity to our people.

This fire is a timely warning that we must have at least 2 additional hydrants located on Mill St. to furnish adequate protection to the valuable property located on that thoroughfare.

The necessity of more thorough equipment of the fire department is imperative; "economy" in that direction is based on the penny wise and pound foolish principle.

Lost Prairie Items. The 4th passed off quietly. A large crowd was present and people from all parts of the county were here. A fine programme was carried out. Among the attractions was a calf race; three yearling steers ridden by small boys. The distance run was 100 yds. The race was won by what was known as Brownie. The oration by Hon. E. W. Barnes was an able effort. At night there were two dances; one at the new school house at Flora, at which 80 were present and 40 tickets sold, the music being furnished by the Moore Bros. Frank, John and Miss Miller, a young lady of Enterprise who took charge of the organ. The second dance took place at the school house in district 29 and from reports they had also a good dance. The people of Enterprise requested us to say they were highly pleased with the 4th and all went home well satisfied.

Grain in some localities is now ready for the machine. Chas. Norberg, of Pataha, Wash., is visiting at N. Estes' at present. Vegetables will not be so plentiful this year as formerly, on account of dry weather in the early part of spring.

Notice for Building School House. The right to reject any and all bids is reserved.
