

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

IN AND ABOUT TOWN.

Picked Up Here And There
By The Chieftain.

Salted peanuts at the Stationery Store.

The E. M. & M. Co. butchered 40 pigs Tuesday.

Fresh gum, candies and nuts at the Stationery Store.

Supt. J. C. Dunley was down from Joseph last Saturday.

Sam Sen and Queen Bee caught drops at the Stationery Store.

Mrs. H. J. Martin of Mud Flat was in the city Friday and Saturday.

Geo. Mitchell and family have moved to the Elk mountain sawmill.

Little William Ault has been having an attack of the mumps, during the last week.

Mrs. Jewell of the Buttes was in the city a few days last week, trading and looking after business affairs.

J. W. Newsum, of Grande Ronde river came into town Monday to remain a few days and look after business.

Mrs. Lapham came in from Paradise Monday to visit her children, Grace and Myrtle Churchill, who have been sick for several days.

G. H. Vest returned the first of the week from Imnaha, where he has been for several weeks looking after his stock interests in that section.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wagner have gone to housekeeping in the upstairs rooms of the Henderson property, occupied by B. T. Long and family.

Dr. Deuschler the Hygienist entertained the public for three nights in a talk with lectures on the Pacific salmon and illustrations of its work.

A school meeting has been called for Jan. 31, to vote a tax and to see about building an addition to the school house and adding the 10' grade to the Public school work.

Sam J. Dorrance came in from Crow creek Tuesday evening, after Dr. Temple for the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dorrance. The child was dead however before the doctor arrived.

W. W. White left on Wednesday stage on a business trip to Portland and other points in the Willamette Valley. Mrs. White accompanied him as far as Wallowa where she will visit friends until his return.

The action of the county against the Steel Range Company was tried in Justice Vore's court on last Saturday. The case was taken under advisement until Monday, when the Justice decided that the court had no cause of action. It seemed a pretty big problem for a Justice of the Peace to tackle, but the decision was considered entirely according to law and no further action will probably be taken in the case.

A private letter from Horace Mitchell, who was for a long time a first class citizen of this county but is now in business in Ashland, Oregon; says he is well satisfied with his surroundings and prospects and that under the influence of that delightful climate Mrs. Mitchell's health has very much improved.

C. J. Yager, the efficient supervisor of the Arko road district was in town rendering account of his stewardship to the county court now in session. Mr. Yager says farmers in that section are busy plowing and expect to sow a larger acreage in grain than in any previous year.

The superintendent of the agents for the range stoves came in last Friday to be present at the trial of the case. Saturday, wherein the county seal the company for a license. He reports that he has six men at work in Union county and two in this county.

S. B. Gaskill and wife returned Friday, from Grande Ronde Valley, where they spent the holidays visiting relatives. He reports that the farmers are busy plowing and seeding and have been so employed for the past three weeks.

Ott Bros. and Peter O'Sullivan have purchased a high grade phonograph for use in the saloon at this place and Joseph. They had it out on the street Friday of last week and the music could be heard all over town.

J. B. Shafer, the good farmer of Scotchman creek, who last year raised prize vegetables, fruit, and wheat, was in the city Tuesday. Mr. S. thinks it pays to farm, when it is done right—he proves it every year.

I. N. Bare last week, sold his ranch to J. B. Olmstead who will use it as a sheep-ranch. The Imnaha country is an ideal place for any kind of stock.

C. D. Akin of Paradise was in the city on business Wednesday. Mrs. Moore and Cynthia Lent accompanied him to town from the Lent ranch.

G. B. Miller, Gilles Daugherty and Isaac Hoyt returned Friday from La Grande where Mr. Miller was making final proof on a piece of land.

Peter Banden, the "Sheep King," has three teams breaking soil on Prairie creek. It is rather unusual to be plowing in January.

Jack Alford has purchased a three-fourths interest in the Delta Saloon. The firm is now known as Alford, Watson & Correll.

Ray Vest left Monday for Lostine, where he will assist Fitzpatrick & Son while they are in vacation.

Harvey Wilson and wife were down from Joseph, Sunday, visiting Mrs. Wilson's parents.

Isaac Bingham and J. J. Berner were doing business in Enterprise the first of the week.

Miss Victoria Haas returned from a visit of several weeks in Umatilla county, last week.

The E. M. & M. Co. had two pictures of the interior of their store taken, Monday.

Fresh bon bons at the Stationery Store.

Figs and dates at the Stationery Store.

Miner's chocolates at the Stationery Store.

London Layer raisins at the Stationery Store.

Maunten—In this city Jan. 13, Lon E. Dale and Miss Edith Lathrop.

Mrs. Levi Riley of the Central Hotel has been very sick for several days.

Notice the ad of Hector McDonald. He buys almost any kind of a horse.

Scott Z. Henderson of the Joseph Herald of Joseph, was in the city Saturday.

Ben Peal, of Cove, brother of Mrs. Harsin of the Buttes, was in the city last week.

The kid teams of Joseph and Enterprise will play foot ball in this city next Saturday.

Laura, the little daughter of J. W. Dale, fell Sunday while at play and broke her arm.

Dr. Temple—Jan. 14, the two weeks old, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dorrance of Crow creek.

J. C. Rice is suffering from an attack of appendicitis. Drs. Temple and Ault are treating the case.

Little Clark Akin enjoyed a ride out to Mr. Furgason's and back yesterday with one of the Steel Range men.

Geo. Furgason was doing business in the county seat Tuesday. He says there is nothing to complain of on Prairie Creek.

Mrs. Molly Harsin, of the Buttes, was a passenger on Friday's stage, en route to Cove to visit at the home of her parents.

A. Wade started for Grande Ronde Monday to look after some sheep he and S. L. Brooks are feeding at the latter's place.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Chenoweth of Alder Slope, entertained a party of young people at their home, last Friday evening.

Jack Watson started on Monday for Portland to be gone about six weeks. He rode his gray race horse out as far as LaGrande, where he will have him bred for until his return.

J. T. Hayes and B. Y. Robertson's father were passengers on Monday's stage, for Texas. Mr. Hayes is a son-in-law of the elder Mr. Robertson and arrived in the valley two weeks ago to take his father-in-law to visit his daughter in her southern home.

Strayed

One red cow, branded J M on left hip, and quarter circle V on right shoulder. Shoulder brand dim. Has red heifer calf. Liberal reward will be paid for information leading to her recovery.

SAM J. DORRANCE, Joseph, Ore.

For Sale

One team of horses, four years old. Weight 2600 lbs. One dark brown, one bay, both geldings, well broke, kind and gentle. Price $200.

SAM J. DORRANCE, Joseph, Ore.

Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the Eighth Grade Final Examination will be held February 5th, 6th, and 7th, 1902.

J. C. COSLEY, Supt. of Schools.

Notice.

I will be in Enterprise Jan. 26th to buy horses. Description: Age 4 to 8 years; height, 15 1/2 to 16 hands; weight, above 1070 to 1200. Broken or unbroken bays, blacks, browns or sorrels. Also horses for the South African trade. Any color but white. Size, 14 hands 2 inches to 15 hands 1 inch. Broken or unbroken.

HECTOR McDONALD.

Notice

Will buy all kinds of hides, furs, old rubber boots and shoes, old copper etc. Will be in Enterprise the first week in every month, in Joseph the second, in Lostine the third and in Wallowa the fourth. In case of my absence leave all furs and hides at Calvin's or Funk & Sons.

A. SOLOMANOWITZ

Lost.

One buckskin mare, 2 years old, black mane and tail. Branded circle on right shoulder. Any one returning the same will receive a reward of $5.

HENRY OHME.

THE LECTURE

M. E. Church Crowded to Hear Rev. Marvin On Tennyson.

Rev. M. H. Marvin last evening had the honor of talking to the largest audience assembled in La Grande to hear a lecture, during the past ten years. The seating capacity of the Methodist church was taxed to its utmost, and those present were highly entertained. Rev. Marvin brought out the strong character in the life of the great English poet, Tennyson, and his numerous quotations were not only pleasing and instructive but demonstrated that the learned gentlemen was and had been a student of his favorite poet from boyhood.—La Grande Observer.

Rev. Marvin will lecture at the M. E. church, Enterprise, Friday evening, Jan. 24 You can not afford to miss so rare a treat.

Electric Light Report.

Watson & Correll	7
James Funk	3
Ed Dreske	1
E. M. & M. Co.	20 1/2
W. J. Funk	5
Chas. Funk	5
E. J. Forsythe	12
John Hodgkin	1
Ice Pitzer	3
C. C. Turley	2
L. Berland	3
Wm. Reavis	15
E. A. Flowers	10
G. J. Wagner	3
Bob Day	2
Calvin & Snyder	3
Ott Bros.	10
Jas. Bate	3
Tom Akins	4
Miss Roe	1
L. J. Rouse	3
Dr. Ault	3
J. A. Burleigh	3
Dr. Temple	3
Mr. Samms	1
Frank Heavis	3
Mr. Imbler	3
Wm. Holmes	3
Dave Reavis	2
George Ratcliff	2
Wallowa Chieftain	3
W. J. Funk & Sons	6
Mr. Vaughn	1
Chas. Boswell	6
S. E. Combes	2
Wallowa National Bank	3
Wallowa Co.	8 1/2
City of Enterprise	25 1/2
W. of W.	1 1/2
Odd Fellows	1 1/2
Methodist church	4
Masonic Hall	2
Christian church	2
Circle	1 1/2
City Hall	7
	209 1/2

Jan. 1, 1902—209 1/2 paying lights of 16 candle power all toll, furnished by Enterprise Electric Light Co. to city, county halls, churches, stores and residences of Enterprise, Oregon.

F. MAKIN.

Elgin Recorder Clippings.

Dr. Sealey of Lostine was registered at Head Elgin Wednesday.

Geo. Miller, a prosperous sheepman of Crow creek, Wallowa county, was doing business in Elgin Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lanman and little daughter came out from Wallowa, where they reside, last Friday and went on to Summerville to visit relatives.

Mrs. Ghornley returned from Summerville, Monday, where she had been visiting her daughter. She went on to her home in Powatka, Wallowa county.

Sam Wade, the noted Wallowa county sheep raiser, came out Wednesday. Mr. Wade is one of the probably half dozen democrats in that county who are engaged in that industry.

John McCubbin, asses-or of Wallowa county, came out last Friday with his wife and daughter, Miss Dolly. Mr. McCubbin went to La Grande as a witness for Neal Allen before the U. S. Land Office. His wife will take their daughter to Salem to spend the winter for the benefit of her health.

Mrs. O. M. Corkins, wife of Wallowa's lone attorney, came over yesterday with her little daughter Lucile, taking her to LaGrande and possibly to Portland to have an operation performed for the removal of a cancerous growth just beneath the eye. The knife has been used on it once but seems to have done little good.

Clearance Sale

Beginning Saturday, Dec. 28

On and after the above date prices will be greatly reduced on the following lines of Winter Goods:

Winter weights in Men's & Children's Clothing At greatly reduced prices.

and Winter Gloves At greatly reduced prices.

My greatest Bargains Winter Millinery Will be closed out at 50 cents on the dollar.

Winter weights in Underwear At greatly reduced prices.

Your Horse Wants

are supplied here—the best combination of leather and labor. The harness will fit, and the saddles are easy riding and the latest styles—which is sure to give satisfaction. The quality of our horsewear is the best and our prices right

L. BERLAND'S Harness & Saddle Shop.
ENTERPRISE, - OREGON

STATIONERY STORE,

ADA E. ROE : : : Proprietor

Confectionery, Books, Fine Stationery, etc.
School supplies always on hand.

POST-OFFICE BLOCK, Enterprise Oregon

John Calvin

Enterprise, Oregon.