What are Humors?

They are vitiated or morbid fluids coursing the veins and affecting the tissues, They are commonly due to defective digestion be far, sometimes inherited.

How do they manifest themselves? In many forms of cutaneous eruption, salt rheum or eczema, pimples and boils, nd in weakness, languor, general debility. How are they expelled? By Hood's Sarsaparilla which also builds up the system that has suffered from them.

It is the best medicine for all humors.

Love idealizes.

All active love idealizes that is, sees Often indeed, the absorption in the ideal is so complete that the outer life is mistakenly supposed to be identical with it, thus opening the way to shock and bitter disappointments.

John Brougham's Well-Timed Joke

Calmed a Turbulent Crowd. "There have been a good many stories told of the quick wit of netors who have turned so accident or a panic or row into a joke," said Tom Leigh, the old-time actor. "A good many of the stories are fakes, I suppose," he continued, "but some are true, and there are lots that have never found their way into print. It provisation and saved the old Winter was the first night on which he played his burlesque 'Columbus' there and the house was filled with his friends.

"Among the most enthusiastic of these friends were a great crowd of Fenians, headed by Mahoney, the man who had just then been elected president of the Irish republic at the old Fenian headquarters in 17th street. There was a joilification in honor of his election, and as he was a personal valuable friend of Brougham's it was natural at he and his followers should buy up all the orchestra seats in the house for the opening night, as they did.

"I was in the cast, and so was Jack Studly, but if anybody else in the company is now alive I don't remember who it is. I played the part of a big. Indian who first appeared on the stage as a messenger bringing dispatches from Washington.

"Just as I came on a discussion that had sprung up among some of the excited Fenlans developed into a quarrel. The house was already disturbed and there was every prospect of a fight in the orchestra in another minute.

"I delivered my message and Brougham replied to me in the words
