Congressman Moody.

The Evening Oregonian says: It may be reasonably expected Congressman Moody will be re-elected. There has been no opposition to his Congressional record...

Never since the close of the Civil War has the Republican party had its most brilliant or most successful period. There was no lack of leadership...

All these things make it impossible to draw the conclusion of Congress to any work beyond important local objectives. In all these great questions, Mr. Moody has been successful with the large support of the Republican party...

But, notwithstanding all this, Mr. Moody's record was not unimpeachable. He was not able to secure the election of the Federal Reserve Bank...

It may be interesting to sheepmen to know that the Heppner Gazette reports that E. H. Clark has bought 10,000 pounds of wool...

Enterprise March 18.

The Joseph Herald received another inspiration last week and announced that there is a probability that it will not support the entire Republican ticket after the nominations are made...

With practically no opposition the Senate ratified the treaty by which the three islands of the Hawaiian Islands, West Indies, will pass into the possession of the United States. The transaction will not be complete on our part until the House has concurred by passing the necessary appropriation bill...

Good Literature For Almost Nothing. The Northern Pacific is noted among railways for its advertising matter. Its pamphlets, folders, booklets, etc., are carefully gotten up and are valuable for what they contain.

THE QUESTION OF Good Reading Matter. is now uppermost in a great many minds. Men, women and children have begun to think about good reading matter for each member of the family.

Stop and think. Let us settle the question. You will feel better satisfied, because the most popular and useful presents now-a-days are the monthly and weekly magazines.

Another Point. Good magazines are not expensive these days. A few of the most popular "dollar a year" magazines are given below. They contain the best literature of modern times.

The higher priced magazines, varying in price from $2 to $4 per year are: Review of Reviews, World's Work, Harper's publications, Scientific American, etc.

PULLMAN ORDINARY SLEEPERS. The tourist travel between the East and the Pacific Coast has reached enormous proportions in the last few years, and calls for a special class of equipment.

Settlers Claim. If you want to file on land up on your homestead, buy or state land, or tract or acre of land business, call address.
