Read this letter from the Manufacturers; It explains itself

TO THE CHIEFTAIN READERS:—

We have just concluded arrangements with W. J. Funk & Sons of Enterprise, Ore., whereby they contract with us for certain goods we are to manufacture for them exclusively, which includes Boots & Shoes, which they are to have exclusive sale of in Enterprise—a high grade all solid line of goods throughout, and from selected stock on which we give them a guarantee on every pair as to workmanship and material. Hence on every pair of shoes you buy from them, you have a guarantee from one of the largest manufacturers in the world of our class of goods, i. e. Custom made Boots & Shoes, we standing sponsor to you should W. J. Funk & Sons fail to live up to their agreement with you. No offer of this kind has ever been made by any other large manufacturer before, and the name of "Giesecke" is in itself a guarantee, and from past experience have no hesitancy in making this offer.

If you want a shoddy shoe for a price, do not buy our make of shoes, but if you want shoes that will fit well, and give a good account of itself in service—A Cheap Good Shoe,—then buy our shoe from W. J. Funk & Sons. If you want a medium shoe, ask them for our "Shamrock" at $2.75, if you want a work shoe, ask them for our 41 at $2.25, and if you want a dress shoe, ask for our "King Kind" at $3.25 to $3.75.

As a further inducement, when you buy a pair of shoes from these parties, ask them to let you register your name opposite a number in their register book, and on December 24, 1902, take your number back to their store, and ascertain if you have won a premium, for on that day, we will telegraph them certain numbers we have selected, and anyone holding any of said numbers will be entitled to another pair or his money back for the pair he bought.

Messrs. W. J. Funk & Sons will carry a general line of our goods and you can procure a shoe or boot from $2.25 to $6.00. Give them a trial and take this letter as a letter of introduction.

Yours very truly,
GIESECKE-D'ONCH-HAYS SHOE CO.
St. Louis, Missouri.

$100,000 to loan at 7 per cent interest on real estate security.
C. T. McDANIEL.

Don't forget to register for the June election.

Miss Pickett left last week for her home in Wallowa.

The best grade of salted peanuts at the Stationery Store.

Miss Ada Robinson began a term of school at Alder Monday.

Mrs. Hinton came in Sunday from Chehalis and remained until Wednesday.

S. L. McKenzie, the druggist, and Ovis Mays, of Lostine, were in town Saturday.

J. W. Kerns and Chas. McReynolds, of Trout creek spent Saturday and Sunday in this city.

Mrs. Lena DeVore came in Saturday from her Whiskey creek school, and returned Sunday.

G. I. Bastoff, was a passenger on Tuesday's stage en route to Portland to buy a car load or more of furniture.

Jack Ormsby and daughter, once residents of this county, but now of Oregon City, are visiting friends and relatives.

Rev. Green, former pastor of the Christian church, went to Lostine Sunday to hold services. He always has good congregations there.

Henry Haas came up from Snake river Monday. He says a great deal of rain has fallen there lately and he has never before seen the grass so good at this season of the year.

Mrs. John Zuecher started Wednesday for Hot Lake near Union to try the virtues of the water there for a very bad attack of rheumatism. Her son William took her as far as Elgin.

Some one who has the interest of the young girls at heart, should talk to them on the great impropriety of misbehavior in church, of which there has been considerable complaint lately.

Martin Hibbe and Elmer Barton on Saturday received another installment of $5,000 on the Innaha copper mines which they sold last fall. Other properties in that camp have lately been sold.

Randall Boswell returned with his family from Sumpter, where he has been living for some time past. He says Sumpter is rather dull now. He will soon take charge of the Boswell livery stable.

The Enterprise Public Library is soon to receive an addition of many volumes, consisting of the latest works of fiction, history, biography, etc., an assessment having lately been levied for that purpose.

Joseph Melotte and family returned last Monday from the Innaha, where they have been putting in garden and irrigating their hay. They have rented the Fiske place and will take possession in a month or so.

Elder Marvin preached a grand sermon to a large audience at the Methodist church last Sunday. It was the occasion of quarterly meeting. He also preached at Lostine in the afternoon and at Wallowa in the evening.

D. D. Warnock, who has been on a protracted visit to Yaquina Bay and other parts of Western Oregon, returned on Saturday. He did not find any place that he considered the conditions would justify a change of residence from Wallowa county.

C. T. McDaniel, the energetic real estate agent, of the firm of McDonald & McDaniel, was doing business in the city Monday. He says where he has been, the talk is that the whole Republican ticket will be elected. As they are all good men they deserve to be.

John Blow and Isaac Root came up Saturday from the Innaha copper mines, where they have interests. They are well satisfied with the appearance of things and believe they will at no distant day be a great camp there. They brought out some fine looking specimens.

John B. Shafer, the good farmer of Scotchman creek, who raised some of the premium grain, fruit and vegetables of the State and District fairs last year, was doing business in town Monday. He says barley will be his principal crop this year. The high prices of meat is an incentive to hog raising, and he considers barley their cheapest and best feed.
