Earthquakes in History.

The recent earthquakes occurring in the Lesser Antilles, followed by the eruption of Mount Pelee, near St. Pierre, on the Island of Martinique, which began early last week, and which resulted in the complete destruction of the old town of St. Pierre, Thursday morning, is one of the greatest disasters of modern times. In all, probably some 40,000 people were annihilated by this catastrophe. Other earthquakes and eruptions that caused exceedingly great damage have been recorded. Pompeii, at the foot of Mount Vesuvius, was destroyed by an eruption of Vesuvius in 79 A. D. That terrible eruption in one day overwhelmed and laid in ruin Pompeii and its neighboring cities, Herculaneum and Stabiae. The lava covered the city so completely that for over 1200 years Pompeii lay undisturbed and for over 100 years more little was discovered of the former existence.

First Oregon Hanging

E. E. Stevens informs a Guard reporter that fifty years ago today the first legal hanging, or rather hanging by organized society, took place in Oregon, says the Eugene Guard of last Friday. The scene of the hanging was on the Rickreall, Polk county. Two men killed another and while one was hung, the other was sold to the highest bidder for $400 as a punishment. The man hung was raised from a small boy by Senator Nesmith's mother-in-law. She was present at the hanging, so Mr. Stevens relates, and asked him on the scaffold if her care and teaching were in any way responsible for the terrible condition he was in. The doomed man assured the people about that it was by not following his mother's advice that he stood on the scaffold in the presence of death.

Additional Locals.

Circuit court convenes next Monday. H. F. Taylor, a former merchant of Joseph, was in the city Monday. L. C. Oliver came in from Lost Prairie Tuesday on a business trip. Miss Ada Robinson, who is teaching at Alder, was in the city Saturday. The Emerald Rebekah lodge of this city recently received a fine lot of new regalia.

W. P. Hamilton and family have moved into their property in the north part of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Masterson of Lostine precinct were trading in the city Wednesday.

Warner Wrenn and J. C. Dodson of Joseph were in the city a short time Monday morning.

A. C. Miller, of the firm of Wm. Miller & Bro., arrived in town Tuesday on a business visit.

W. D. Weaver took the staging out of the court room the first of the week preparatory to court week.

John A. Wood and mother arrived in town last week from Walla Walla where they now live during the winter.

G. W. Buck of Elgin has come out by petition for joint Representative for Union and Wallowa counties on the Prohibition ticket.

Harvey Harris, son-in-law of Sheriff Cramer, came out from Powatka Sunday and will assist in the sheriff's office during circuit court.

Marriage licenses were issued last week to Hugh Wilson and Bernice Anney and Frank E. Winston and Anna Doonley, all of Joseph.

A very refreshing rain visited the county Wednesday evening and greatly increased the hopes of the stockmen for a good supply of grass.

F. D. McCully candidate for Joint Representative was in the city Tuesday afternoon interviewing the faithful as to the prospects on June 2.

Miss Anna McAllister left Sunday on a visit to friends at La Grande, Pendleton and Walla Walla. She will return about the first of June.

Clarence Luttrell, formerly of this city, is pitching for the Nampa base ball team this season. At a recent game with a team from Caldwell, the Nampa team shut out their opponents by a score of 3 to 0. Only one safe hit was made off Luttrell's pitching during the entire game.

E. R. Bowley and D. W. Sheahan are figuring with other owners of dry ranches on forming a partnership in sinking an artesian well in Swamp creek Pass. They are very sanguine of the success of such a venture, and the proceedings will be watched with interest by the entire county. To be able to secure artesian water would be a great boon to the hill ranches.

Judge Robert Eakin will arrive in town tomorrow, and has notified all local attorneys that he will be on the bench Saturday for the purpose of hearing motions and demurrers, in order to expedite matters in getting cases at issue, the early part of next week. This is a commendable act of Judge Eakin, as heretofore several days were spent in getting cases at issue, thereby prolonging the term to a considerable expense to the county.

S. P. Williams of Prairie creek, and a relative from the East were in the city Monday. The newcomer is an electrician, and is looking over the West in view of a location. He stopped over night with the Enterprise Electric Light Co. and assisted them in putting the plant in order after the break down Sunday night.

Attorneys A. C. Smith and W. S. Burleigh will go to Flora tomorrow where an assault and battery case will be tried in Judge Austin's court Saturday. Burleigh will appear for the prosecution and Smith will defend. We understand the parties are Wm. McCall and Jas. Dale, plaintiff and defendant respectively.

W. J. Funk & Sons, Dr. Temple and the Drug store have installed a private telephone line between their respective houses. The instruments were purchased in the East and Fred Makin and C. G. Stacy of the Electric Light Co. did the installing for them.

Edward G. Fowler, of Salt Lake City, is here on a visit to relatives, and is also renewing old acquaintances. Mr. Fowler was at one time pastor of the M. E. church in this city. The Chiefstain acknowledges a pleasant call from the gentleman.

A. A. Miller of Joseph was circulating a subscription paper in town Monday to secure money to aid in building a wagon road from the mines on Lower Imnaha to the present wagon road near Jas. Steen's.

Geo. Voris is out running a level on the Alder Slope ditch and running lines for the grading of the streets in Joseph, for surveyor Reavis, who is not yet hardly able to engage in the work of surveying.

Posters are out announcing a Republican Rally in this city on Friday May 23, at which W. T. Hume of Portland will be the principal speaker. Every one come out and hear him.

Sam Pace was in town Tuesday feeling the political pulse of the nation; for it has been said as Enterprise precinct goes, so goes the state and nation.

Walter Beith, the "Bad of the Park" was in the city Monday on a visit and incidentally qualifying himself for the coming battle of ballots.

From Imnaha.

Information wanted by a devoted wife, of her husband who left his home on Imnaha, Tuesday, April 8th. Expected home that evening but has not come yet. Thought heard of at Anatone, Wash. April 12. If this should meet his notice he is entreated to come home or write at once. The wife who so truly loves him, will do all in her power to set matters right. Creditors and lodge would be lenient. If he wishes to desert his wife he might at least write and she will offer fair terms for settlement or for power of attorney. Might give name and description of party, but have some faint hope this may meet his eye without so doing and bring word from him.

His Distressed Wife.
