Pleasing. But Does it Fit?

"When you buy a suit of clothes they must fit right, as well as look right. They w'll last longer; and that is what gives you value in clothes. Our ready-to-wear suits will save you money. fit you and please you.

A Man's Clothes.

Should be given careful consideration. These well made suits have a fashion of their own that will make them popular. They are the best product of the season. The material, colors, finish, style and workmanship are excellent and the fit is guaranteed.

If you Want a Good Fit

Come to us and we will furnish you one. You can get a coat and vest, or trousers, separate, but our best bargains are in whole suits. We always have the best and the latest.

The Finishing Touches

After you have a new Spring Suit you will then need a few finishing touches such as a good hat and some pretty neckwear. We have both—a good assortment in each—really attractive goods, well made and serviceable.

And don't forget our magnificent offer in shoes.

Don't forget to register for the June election.

Charles Vest arrived out from Innis last Thursday evening.

J. C. Reavis and L. J. Bouse spent Sunday at their ranches on Alder Slope.

W. E. Holmes returned today from a short visit with relatives in Union county.

Gen. Haas returned Friday from a business trip to the Land office at La Grande.

Albert Harper was in from Pine creek Monday and Tuesday on a business trip.

J. B. Keener of the stage line from Elgin was checking up with the office in this town Monday.

D. S. Gardner returned Monday from a business trip to Walla Walla, where his parents reside.

C. E. Jennings and A. M. Fleener of Joseph were in town Monday investigating the episode of the political situation in this locality.

H. E. Horton, Sam Litch and L. J. Boush last week each ordered 100 printed envelopes of the CHIEFTAIN office. "Come thousand do likewise."

Mr. and Mrs. Buser and W. S. Burleigh took a spin up to Joseph Sunday afternoon on their wheels to attend the ball game and a band concert.

Frank Davis and his crew of lambing hands came to town Sunday. Frank says they are practically through and has averaged a little over 100 per cent.

F. A. Reavis and family and Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Calvin drove out to W. H. Graves' sheep-ranch on Beaver creek and took some pictures, spending the day in a very enjoyable manner.

The treasurer's and sheriff's office employees were busy all day Friday getting a big new safe upstairs and in position. It will be used to place their books in for safe keeping. It weighs 3500 pounds.

Gen. Mitchell was in Thursday and Friday from the saw mill on Elk mountain. He has been unfortunate this winter by being sick most of the time, but with stimulation and rest with pneumonia. He is now able to get around pretty well.

A recent law passed by Congress now enables persons to make application for Timber and Stock land and make proof before a U. S. commissioner. Henceforth it was necessary to make two trips to the Land Office in order to purchase a piece of land under this act. The new law will be a great convenience to citizens living at a distance from the Land Office.

The Alpha Circle, Women of Woodcraft, received a visit, at their regular meeting Monday night, from Miss Sumner of Portland an organizer for the lodge. Madames Royce, Miller and Wilguth, of Joseph also visited the lodge. Miss Sumner will institute a Circle tonight at Joseph. Several members of the order from this city will be in attendance.

An impromptu base ball team was organized last week and went up to Joseph Sunday to cross bats with a team of that town. At the end of the game the score stood 27 to 11 in favor of the Enterprise team. The boys speak very highly of their treatment at Joseph and hope that a series of games can be arranged between the four teams of the valley. The Enterprise team truly believe that they are masters of the base ball situation in Walla Walla county, and are looking for some one to dispute it.

Wm. Akie Jr., and wife of Paradise arrived in town Friday with their four year old daughter in a dangerous condition, being totally paralyzed. In applying medicine along the spinal column as prescribed by Dr. Temple, the parents discovered two large ticks at the base of the skull. They were removed and the child began to improve rapidly. It was said by stockmen that when a number of ticks become fastened at the base of the skull on sheep or cattle it is almost sure death unless the symptoms are known and the ticks removed. It is said a sheep will act like it is crazy for a while and then becomes completely paralyzed.
