FLORA.

Farmers busy and smiling. Merchants renewing their stock of goods.

John Evens and son, Elmer, came over from Wallula a few days ago on a business and visiting trip.

Emmigration is pouring in. Evidently the fame of our good country has gotten abroad.

Frank Bork started to Lewiston the first of the week, with hogs for the market.

Mr. and Mrs. William Evans and daughter, Ellen, came in from the valley last Friday, and have been visiting with relatives for a few days.

Dr. Stephenson and family arrived in the community, Saturday, with the intention of making this their home.

As we now have a physician, we will next wish for some enterprising man who is looking for a profitable place to invest surplus funds, to come to Flora and erect and run a flouring mill.

Rev. Moore, of Grouse, is to preach the Memorial services for the G. A. R's. in the M. E. Church next Sunday.

Frank Young, who went to Polah a few months ago, has returned and is working for J. H. Huffman.

Frank Pedro, who has been visiting his family and friends at Penleton, returned a few days ago. He took a team as far as Elgin for the purpose of bringing in wool sacks for the coming shearing.

Ed. Akin has sold his Paradise farm to Charles Ray, of the river. Consideration $1000. Mr. Akin will seed the place before starting for the John Day country.

John Daniels started to the outside Sunday morning on business.

Dr. Stephenson and family will occupy the Hitt house for the present.

Mrs. Pellissier and two children stopped at the hotel Robinson Sunday night. They went on to Grouse the following day.

Lawyers A. C. Smith and W. S. Burleigh were in last Saturday.

Mrs. James Fleet and Guy Scaggs made a trip to and from Leap the first of the week, to bring in Mrs. Hayden, Mrs. Fleet's mother.

Mr. Locke went to Enterprise the first of the week.

Willis Wright started to the outside on a political tour, Sunday morning.

FRUITA.

A much needed rain is falling. The neighbors are busy getting their stock on summer range.

J. W. Thompson has put another stringer in his bridge and put a new cover on, making it the finest foot bridge on the river.

Thos. Rich arrived home with his engine on the 14th., after eight days hard labor, with the help of Messrs. Turner, Hinkelwright, Hope, Lloyd and Thompson.

M. P. Thompson drove the first six horse team that ever come over the road from the bridge to the Park. Mark says if anyone thinks it is a picnic, just try it.

Alex Ferguson is visiting relatives in this neighborhood.

Messrs. Lynch, Spray and Spain are operating a placer claim up the river about 15 miles. They report that the prospect shows well but as to the amount of pay ground they could not say.

Thos. Morgan is to receive a band of sheep of J. H. Dobbin soon, which he expects to run in connection with his cattle.

Deputy sheriff Harris was down to subpoena witnesses for State vs. Knowlton.

Thos. Rich made a trip to the valley on the 16th.

Thos. Shevelin and son Frank started out to the shearing pens the 18th.

Albert Morgan returned from Joseph last week.

J. A. Gillaspie, of Prairie Creek, and Messrs. Moss and McAlister of Island City are visiting friends in the Park.

Elgin Recorder Items.

Mrs. Benton Mays returned the first of the week from The Dalles where she had been called on account of the death of Mrs. Mays' mother. They will soon move to The Dalles to occupy the old Mays homestead.

J. P. Morelock, mayor, justice of the peace, merchant, barber, politician, etc., etc., of Wallowa, came out to make a short visit to his parents Monday. He says politics is warming up considerably in his county. He made a pleasant call on the Recorder.

John Barnhill arrived out from Wallowa county with his household goods will here after be a permanent resident of this place. He now has an equal interest in the livery business with his brother and Wm. Fine

S. R. Haworth came down from La Grande Monday and started toward the Wallowa country that afternoon. He is the candidate on the republican ticket for representative from Union county but we failed to find out whether he was hunting for votes from Wallowa county or not.

Additional Locals.

A. Wade was a passenger on Friday's out going stage.

Idaho visitors say the outlook for a fine fruit crop is encouraging.

Mrs. R. F. Stubblefield started last week for Cedar Co., Missouri, on a visit with relatives. She will be gone all summer.

Berland, the saddler, has just received a great lot of saddles and harness. His prices are so reasonable that every one can be suited.

James H. Dale was found guilty of assault and battery in Justice Austin's court at Flora last Saturday. He was fined $25 and costs.

J. L. Caviness, a prominent farmer of Island City, was in the city Tuesday. He has been spending a few days with his son, Lawrence, on Prairie Creek.

Rev. McGilvery of Detroit, Mich., traveling Sunday school missionary for the Presbyterian church preached in this city last Sunday evening to a good congregation.

W. E. Ruckman and family arrived in the city Friday on their way to visit relatives on Lower Prairie creek and Cheshammas. Mrs. Ruckman is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Endicott.

The directors of the Reavis School District have employed Miss Epple, of Pendleton, to teach a term of school. They were fortunate in getting a teacher of such high qualifications and experience.

Persons attending court from all parts of the County say the crop prospects were never better. The squalls that scared out the tenderfoot homeseekers, was the making of the Country.

Saturday the King of Spain comes of age and will ascend the throne in his own name. The Spanish people are preparing for a week of festivities ending up with the taking the oath to the constitution Saturday at two o'clock.

John Barnhill, of Elgin, came in Tuesday with a party of eight sheep shearers on their way to Peter Baudon's from Yakima where they have been at work. They will shear with the sheep shearing machine at Baudon's this season.

A crowd of six consisting of Mrs. G. S. Reavis, Mrs. W. D. Weaver, Mrs. Carl Roe, the Misses Mattie Imbler, Nellie Brusha and Mr. W. W. Zureher attended the organization of the Women of Woodcraft at Joseph on the evening of Thursday, last. All report a most enjoyable time.

David Diggins, a good farmer of Prairie Creek, was in town on business Tuesday and paid us a friendly visit. Mr. Diggins says a larger acreage of crops than usual has been sown this spring, and that the prospect for an abundant harvest is promising. But the crops on Prairie Creek never do fail.

John Compton, who resides south of Independence, brought to market this week a fine lot of early potatoes of this year's growth, raised on his farm. Some of them are four inches in length and 2 1/2 inches in diameter, and are equal in every way to the potatoes marketed several months later on.

Quite a large delegation drove down to Wallowa Tuesday to hear the speech of Geo. E. Chamberlain, the democratic candidate for governor. It was a pleasing speech to the members of that party to which he belongs, and they expressed themselves as highly repaid for the trip. He was accompanied by Prof. W. A. Wann, the democratic candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction who made a short talk against the present course of study in the public schools; claiming that too much study was forced onto the children and not enough time devoted to teaching them to read intelligently, spell correctly and accurately solve the problems of arithmetic used in every day life.

McCauley's sheep shearing crew, that finished shearing Campbells and Cook's sheep the first of the week, made a record Monday afternoon that every man is very proud of. They are known as the Menatche creek sheep shearers, and they think their record of last Monday is good enough to procure them a job anywhere. During the afternoon of Monday, May 12, twelve men sheared 922 sheep, on an average, per man, during the half day of seventy-seven head. This is the best record any of the gang had heard of this season, and they offer it for other crews to work for.—Asotin Sentinel. Mr. McCauley is a well known resident of Grouse in this county and has managed a crew in this county for several seasons.
