

In The Spring
A Man's Fancy

turns to lighter weight goods for Spring and Summer wear. We have the best and largest stock of this kind we ever handled. There are many things here in many varieties of all weights and the prices are lighter than usual too.

Pleasing. But Does it Fit?

When you buy a suit of clothes they must fit right, as well as look right. They will last longer; and that is what gives you value in clothes. Our ready-to-wear suits will save you money, fit you and please you.

A Man's Clothes.

Should be given careful consideration. These well made suits have a fashion of their own that will make them popular. They are the best product of the season. The material, colors, finish, style and workmanship are excellent and the fit is guaranteed.

If you Want a Good Fit

Come to us and we will furnish you one. You can get a coat and vest, or trousers, separate, but our best bargains are in whole suits. We always have the best and the latest.

The Finishing Touches

After you have a new Spring Suit you will then need a few finishing touches such as a good hat and some pretty neckwear. We have both—a good assortment in each—really attractive goods, well made and servicable.

And don't forget our magnificent offer in shoes.

C. T. McDANIEL

G. I. Ratcliff returned Friday from a trip to Portland.

G. H. Daugherty and sons, of Chico, were in the city Friday after a load of supplies.

Al Emmons of Mud creek was in the city several days last week on a business trip.

A very successful dance was given by the young people in the Calvin building Saturday evening.

Hugh Wilson is doing the type act in the CHIEFTAIN office of present during the absence of Miss Ada Roe.

George and Frank Greenwood were in the city the latter part of last week from their ranches on Chesnimutts.

Owing to a rush in the passenger department an extra coach was run from Elgin to Enterprise on Saturday.

Prof. Kerns came down from Trout creek Friday evening. His term of school in that district will close on June 27.

The ballots for the election on June 2, were printed this week and will be distributed among the various precincts during the next few days.

Miss Nellie Wagner is clerking in the Stationery Store during the absence of Miss Ada Roe, who has gone on a two weeks visit with friends and relatives in Union and Umatilla counties.

F. A. Meade, dealer in musical instruments of La Grande, arrived in the city on a business trip. The lines of instruments which he carries are strictly first class and the prices reasonable.

Miss Sumner the Woodcraft organizer spent five days in this city, getting acquainted with the members of this place and also doing some soliciting for the order. She returned to Joseph Wednesday afternoon.

The base ball fever is on. A practice game was played by the enthusiasts of this city on Sunday afternoon, and next Sunday the nine from this city will try conclusions with the Wallowa nine on the latter's grounds.

D. B. Reavis returned to Enterprise Friday after a several months absence in La Grande and Portland visiting with his sons L. D. and L. J. Reavis, who are practicing dentistry in La Grande and Portland respectively.

George Ratcliff, while in Portland, purchased over a carload of furniture for the season trade. Having made the selections himself he certainly was able to secure a better grade and variety than was ever carried in the county before.

Clarence Vest returned from Mud creek Friday where he took Vest & Sons' cattle for summer range. While there he and Henry Kulan killed a good sized cinnamon bear. Clarence brought the skin in with him and will have it prepared for a rug.

J. C. Shackelford, the popular candidate for sheriff, came in from Paradise Friday and is looking after his campaign in this end of the county. Clate has many friends in all parts of the county and they are giving him local assurance of his election on June 2.

Judge Eakin and deputy district attorney Winfree arrived in the city Friday. Judge Eakin held a session of court Saturday at which the preliminary motions and demurrers were argued by the attorneys preparatory to the regular session which begins Monday morning.

County Clerk Zuecher returned Friday from an extended trip through the North part of the county in the interest of his reelection. He visited Paradise, Flora, Lost Prairie, Grouse, Garden of Eden and Promise, and reports a great increase in population in that end of the county. Chas. has made an ideal officer and will win out easily.

The Memorial services will be held at Joseph this year instead of Enterprise as was announced in these columns last week. The place was first designated as at Enterprise and a notice given the CHIEFTAIN. When the change was made we forgot to change it in type as already set up. The John F. Reynolds Post of this city will have charge of the exercises on May 30th. at Joseph, when the honored dead will be tenderly remembered and their graves beautifully decorated by their comrades.

Here We Come For
